Mrs. Fish, a native of Danville, began teaching at the age of sixteen. Her first school was at Faulconers Station near Danville. The next year she started teaching at Bate School where she has been ever since. Later she attended Simmons University; then Northwestern University; and took correspondence courses from the University of Kentucky. She received the B. A. Degree at Kentucky State College when she was sixty-two. Mrs. Susie (as she is affectionately called) speaks of having given her life to boys and girls of her community and at Bate School and that God should be given praise for giving her health, strength, and knowledge to perform her daily routine of work. She will be sorely missed by faculty and students who have for many years sought her kind guidance". FISHER, Wallace, born a slave of John L Craig of Danville in 1848, died at the Old Soldier's Home, Dayton, OH July 1926, and is buried there. He mar Eliza JONES 6 Mar 1873 (Boyle Marriages Book 3C p218).

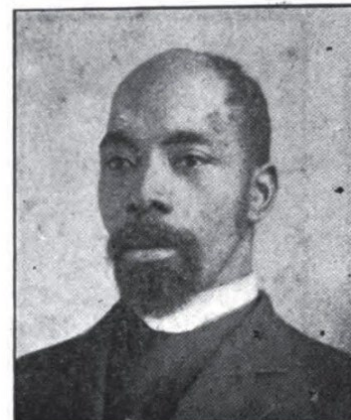

He was member of Co E, 116th USCI, enlisting 12 June 1864 at Camp Nelson, listed as slave of Eliza Craig, white, through which he gained his freedom. His pension record, 18 Jul 1890, lists him as Wallace CRAIG, alias FISHER.

In 1870, he was listed as a laborer, 22, on the farm of John L Craig, white.

In 1872, he organized a Baptist church in Junction City which held services under a tree due to the darkness of the log cabin building. In 1890, as a member of the G. A. R. post of Danville, he delivered an address on Decoration Day 30 May 1890.

In 1891, he led a baptism in the Salt River at Atoka, and was called "the State Evangelist" by the Advocate.

In 1892, along with 14 others, he established the New Mission Baptist Church in Danville; gave a rousing speech at the 1912 Boyle County Progressive Party convention. He reminded attendees that blacks had been the backbone of the Republican Party since the Civil War. Yet he was not selected as a delegate to the national convention in Chicago, where third party candidate, Theodore Roosevelt had said there would be no blacks delegates from southern states in attendance.

Rev. Wallace Fisher Danville, Ky.

In 1899 Fisher organized the Danville Polytechnic Seminary, which in 1911 had 2 male and 7 female teachers, with 93 male and 85 female students.

In 1899 Fisher organized the Danville Polytechnic Seminary, which in 1911 had 2 male and 7 female teachers, with 93 male and 85 female students.

In the 1900C of Danville, he is listed as 52, a minister, and a widower, born June 1848, living on Main Street with Edward and Josie (_____) MILLER.

The "Eliza Fisher place", east of Danville at the junction of the Lancaster and Stanford Trunkpikes, went up for absolute auction in June 1914, being conveyed to Eliza Fisher by John Fogarty, Deed book 18, p588, and by Wallace Fisher, Deed Book 21, p80.

In nearly 50 years as a minister, he is said to have baptized 3,500 people, pastored at Perryville 7 years, Junction City 2 years, Mount Salem 4 years, and New Mission 16 years, and he served for several years as a Danville city councilman. (Photo from Parrish, p154).

Gaines appears in the Danville Advocate-Messenger several times.

1919, Jun 17, p4: The colored baseball team of this place [Junction City] steered by Wallace Gaines Rats Hocker and Dave Kenley downed the Hustonville's team at white school diamond, Saturday by 6 to 5. They play here again July 4th.
1919, Nov 8, p4: Wallace Gaines, colored, was cut up in a fight with Clark Cox, colored, here [Junction City] Thursday monring [sic]. The jailer and sheriff came out and got Cox and the hospital got Gaines.

1921, Jul 6, p2: The colored base ball team from Danville came out here [Junction City] and meant to whip our Junction City colored baseball team off the map, but Pat Hocker, Wesley Burke, Wallace Gaines, Dave Kenley and Engleman and other good players showed them how baseball is played and won 17 to 10. Many errors were made by both sides due to lack of time to practice together. No intoxicating drinking was noticed, as only pop and ice cream were on the grounds for sale and the crowd was orderly and all went well.

1922, Apr 26, p1: MARRIAGE LICENSE. Wallace Gaines, colored, Junction City, and Elma Pearl Davis, colored, Danville, secured a marriage license at the county clerk's office today. The woman was recently granted a divorce in the Boyle court.

1922, May 16, p4: Rats Hocker and Wesley Burke's and Wallace Gaines' baseball team which has never been together since last season, played the Perryville colored team here [Junction City] Saturday and were beaten by a score of 7 to 4. Rat's team is better than the Perryville one, when in practice and they will beat them next time at Perryville, sure. The colored boys have rented the school grounds to play when the white town team has games away from home or do not occupy the grounds.

1945, Aug 7, p2: Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Junction City Methodist Church for Wallace Gaines, colored, 50 years old, who died Friday at the Veteran's hospital, Dayton, Ohio. GARFIELD

GARFIELD, William. From the Stanford Interior Journal, Friday, 7 Apr 1893:

--A colored young man giving the name of Wm. Garfield and a fortune-teller by profession, died at Willis Mason's home on Green street Monday evening, and was buried in the colored cemetery Tuesday. Garfield probably died of consumption, as he was much emaciated and had a cough. He said he had recently been at Stanford and showed papers that he was a genuine and no mistake fortune teller. He had wandered to a negro house near Mock's distillery and had been turned out Sunday on the road to die, when George Doneghy, a kind hearted man of his own color, took him into his wagon and brought him to town. He was from 25 to 30 years old and said his home was in Indiana.

He listed as an employee at the Globe office in 1870, and a preacher in 1880. He served as a Sergeant in Co C, 1st USC Infantry, pensioned 29 Aug 1865, with widow's pension 13 Jun 1904, filed in DC. Hatton was pastor when the St James AME Church building was opened in 1885. A service was held in the incomplete building 5 Apr 1885, though the dedication would not come until later that year. He was performing marriages as late as 1887. On 8 Jan 1886, the Advocate reported Rev G W Hatton was arrested for "detaining unlawfully and with criminal intent", Sue Carpenter, 14 years old. Hatton denied all the charges, saying they were an attempt to discredit him. The newspaper, noting the character of the accusers, said

African-American Genealogies of Boyle County, Kentucky, P 522

the "public sentiment among his people seems to be with Hatton." On 25 Sep 1894, the Kentucky Leader, Lexington, reported One of the most prominent Republicans in Kentucky politics, he bolted from the regular party, and attempted to start a Black Republican alternative to the main party convention, which attempt failed. He had moved to Winchester about a year ago, and a few weeks ago his church in that city "dispensed with his services" partly because of his political activities. Apparently despondent at his political and church losses, he attempted suicide on 24 Sep 1894.

D HELM, Samuel Hocker, born Milledgeville 1815, died Peyton's Well, Turnersville 1 Jul 1906; mar 26 Dec 1838 Bernetta HELM, born 1825, died 1910. In a biography, Interior Journal, 8 Jan 1897, he is called "Uncle Sam" a nickname usually reserved for African Americans at this time. However, it would be highly unusual for any newspaper in the South to print an extensive biography of any African American in 1897, so there IS the possibility that he was white. His photo in the accompanying newspaper article certainly indicates that. The list of his children also does not include Samuel or Kate.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL, STANFORD, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1897, Page 1. Samuel Hocker Helm, Sr., was born on the 9th day of April 1815, near Milledgeville, on the farm now owned by Dr. P.W. Logan. His father's name was George Helm and his mother's Elizabeth Hocker, to whom were born 12 children and of them "Uncle Sam," as the subject of this sketch is familiarly known, is the only one now living. The birth place of his father was in a fort near Milledgeville and of his mother near Turnersville. Nearly 67 years ago "Uncle Sam" joined the Christian church at McCormack and is still one of its worthy members. At the age of 25 he married Miss Burnetta Helm, who was considered a strikingly handsome young lady and who at this time is still his loving helpmeet and an unusually good looking old lady. She has also been a member of McCormack church ever since she was 16 and is an excellent Christian woman. To them were born 8 children, three of whom they tenderly laid away years ago and in the cemetery of the old McCormack church yard. The five living are: Miss Bettie Helm, whom I verily believe has kept in mind the Biblical suggestion that "they who marry do good, but they that marry not, do better;" Mrs. Z_n Tribble, who has two children living, Mrs. Pattie Taylor and Miss Ann Tribble, and one boy, George, dead; George Thomas Helm, who has three children dead and four living, Mrs. Dr. Wadsworth, Joe Hill, Hallie and Pattie; Mrs. O.J. Thurmond, who has three children, Miss Effie, George and Will_; and Sam Helm, Jr., who has been married several years but has no children. Thus it will be observed that in all there have been 13 grand-children, nine of whom are living, and all considered unusually bright. "Uncle Sam" has always been an exceedingly active man and has at times owned farms all the way from Milledgeville to Turnersville, and said the other day "I can yet make any young man feel mighty tired when night comes who will do as much of most any kind of work in a day as I can." For the last 26 years he has lived on his farm located right at the noted "Peyton's Well." On Tuesday of last week children, grand-children and neighbors gathered at his hospitable home to enjoy a Christmas dinner, and as I knew it would be a big one and a good one, it took just one invitation to secure my assistance in doing justice to that dinner. It is a great pleasure to visit his home, which is as hospitable as any in the land, his latch string always swinging on the outside. He is a dyed-in-the wool democrat, true as steel, an excellent neighbor, a true friend and the world would be much better were there more like "Uncle Sam" than there are. Having lived an upright, Christian life for nearly 82 long years, he enjoys the confidence of all, which I know affords him daily consolation as he descends the western slope of life's hill. His health at present is good enough to admit of the prediction that he will round out 100 years, and here's hoping that he will.

His obituary reads in part, He served his country in both the United States Army and United States Marine Corps. Through the armed forces, he was able to travel the world- and he loved to tell all the crazy stories from that time.

Jerry's life truly reflected God's love, grace, and redemption. Saved while incarcerated, his encounter with the Lord Jesus Christ, compelled him to live a life free from religious bondage and tradition. . . . While ministering at a tent revival, he met the love of his life, Leslie, whom he affectionately called "Mamma Bear." Through this relationship, God redeemed and restored to him Children- CaJuan, Christa and Courtney "Precious" who loved him fiercely and unconditionally. The power of God transformed him and he turned out to be an amazing father. Through his life, he carried many titles but he was most proud to be called "Grandpa". Jerry was a jack of all trades. He started two different businesses, landscaping and happy hands power washing. He spent many weeks ministering in the prison system to men searching for true freedom . Prior to his battle with cancer he started and pastored a church with an amazing youth ministry that touched many lives.

H-1-1-1-2 JONES, Dennis Morgan, born Danville 12 Dec 1946, died Danville 28 Apr 2016. He attended Bate High School, and served in the US Marine Corps. The Advocate-Messenger printed an article on him, 21 Jan 1992, p3:

DENNIS JONES might not be known as one of the benefactors of the Norton Center for the Arts but he takes a lot of pride in the building that welcomes more than 10,000 people each year. Jones, a custodian at Centre College for 25 years, was put in charge of the Norton Center when it was built almost 20 years ago. They said, "That's your building," he recalled. Sometimes events happen on both Saturday and Sunday, and Jones is there to make sure the building sparkles after each one. A couple of years ago, Jones was one of three staff members recognized for their hard work and dedication with a Horky Award by Centre College. In addition to the Norton Center, he now takes care of the swimming pool, the bookstore and Sutcliffe Student Center, which includes the gymnasium and an eating area known as The Pit. He also works the football games and used to work the basketball games as well. Overseeing tasks that would overwhelm others is what Jones likes best about his job. "It's a challenge," he said. "Sometimes it gets hectic, but most of the time it's fun." Attending the many Norton Center performances has been an integral part of Jones' job. "I might as well say I've seen them all, because I work all the concerts," he said. He ranks The Temptations and The Four Tops among his favorites. "Of course, that's from childhood on up," said the 45-year-old Jones. In the mid to late 1960s, Jones had a brief stint in the music world. He played bass guitar for a group while in high school and played with a group of 11 called "The Third Creation Show" after returning from serving with the Marines in Vietnam. "I haven't played much since this building opened," he said. "I haven't had much time for that." When he's not working, Jones says he is a homebody. He has a daughter, Colletta Bates, and when he's not at home on Highland Court, he might be found playing with his 3-month-old grandson. That's my pride and joy," he said.

Michael Thomas

writes of him:

This is my Grandfather at a younger age. When I was a kid, I thought he was mean as hell, and we all feared him. But he was a hustler from his heart. He raised tobacco, corn and one of the biggest vegetable gardens in the county. He sold meat, killed hogs. When I lived with him for a year or two, he would wake us up around 6 am in the morning and have us picking greens and other things to take to town to sell. He did pay us though, and I learned how to work and take care of a family from him. He owned the last farm by a African American in the black township of Meauxtown. Off of Water Works road. He owned the first tv. and record player I ever saw. And he would let us set in the car on 2nd Street, and watch all the activity on the street."

LEE, Telitha. Article in Danville Daily Messenger, 16 Jun 1932: NEGRESS ON 102nd BIRTHDAY RECALLS FLIGHT FROM DANVILLE – Telitha Lee Fox Tells Denver Newspapermen of Her Break for Freedom -- Memories of an April night 67 years ago when she took a horse and wagon belonging to her master near Danville and fled with her five children were recalled this week by Telitha Lee Fox, Denver, Colo., as she celebrated her 102nd birthday.

Many birthdays has she spent in slavery on the Frank Lee plantation near Danville, she told Denver newspapermen, who wrote a feature story about the celebration of her 102nd anniversary.

It was on news of assassination of President Lincoln that the slave woman grabbed her five children, took the fastest horse from her master's stable, hitched it to a buggy and fled toward Camp Nelson.

African-American Genealogies of Boyle County, Kentucky, P 675

The horse's neighing awakened her master and by the time her master's son could harness another horse, the slave woman had a good start.

All through the night she drove and when dawn was breaking she stumbled through the picket lines of the Union forces at Camp Nelson.

Many negroes fled their southern homes when President Lincoln was assassinated. The crime struck terror to their hearts, fearing their freedom would not be permanent unless they fled to the north.

The slave woman later made her way to Denver where she has lived now for a quarter of a century.
