Bridgeport, OH. Is he in fact, Smith Jr?

Smith Yeager Tarrance was the grandfather of Mrs. Theora Coates. A one time slave, he was one of several African Americans who were attending a party and rather than being reintroduced into slavery, they left the party and walked to Camp Nelson and joined the Union Army. He took this picture with his Union uniform on, and is holding who is believed to be his granddaughter, but not Mrs. Coates. The uniform is the picture has been looked at by an expert and is determined to be authentic.

3—TURNER, Maggie Lillie, born Boyle Co 1905, died Worldstown 29 Sep 1937, single, informant Lovey Turner (brother) Junction City, bur at Moreland, Lincoln Co. The Kentucky Advocate reported her murder on 29 Sep 1937, p1:

"Finding of the partly clad body of an 18-year-old negress, Maggie Lille Turner, in a 36-foot well, one and one-half miles west of Junction City, between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning, resulted in a verdict of "murder by an unknown hand" . . .

"According to Coroner Edwards, Flora Cox, white, went to open the well this morning to draw water and discovered the victim's hand floating above the water . . . The body was recovered by Morgan Phillips, Junction City, driver of a school bus for the County . . .

"The girl's shoes were found about 20 feet from the well and her dress was found in a clump of bushes. Dr. H L Gregg, of Junction City, physician, stated there was no water in her lungs, and that a bruise on her forehead indicated murder.

"The girl was a domestic, employed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S W Burke, Junction City. Near the scene of her death was found a loaf of bread, given to her by her employer, who is owner of Burke's Bakery in Junction City. She had worked in the Burke home yesterday, leaving in the late afternoon. . . ."

Enlisted 125 U S C INF, Private, Company D (Ky Civil War Union Volunteers, 1861-1866, p130). Application for headstone shipped to Fannie McFerran, Junction City, ordered April 1932, shipped 1 June 1932. In 1930C, Junction City, he is listed as owning a house valued at $1000, probably on the corner of Main and Cemetery Streets in Junction City. He mar(1).mar Eliza _____, born 1850 (1870C) or 1851 (1880C), parents born KY died 8 Nov 1898, bur Shelby City African American Cem. He mar(2) Ella DEJARNETT, born Richmond 1862, died Shelby City 3 Jun 1932, informant Mary Shepherd of Shelby City. bur Shelby City African American Cem. Her father listed on death certificate as _____ ROLEDEJOHOUETT, mother was Millie ROLEDEJOUETT, both born Richmond KY; informant Mary SHEPHERD, Shelby City. An extremely wealthy landowner named Daniel DEJARNETTE, who owned a lot of slaves, one of whom may have been Roley (Rowland?) DEJARNETT. He had many children, including Ellen, born 1859, and Mary E (Ella?), born 1862. Ella Wakefield's death certificate puts her age at 70, which would be a birth of approximately 1862. It possible she had an older cousin Frank (spelled variously as DE JONETT, DE JONITT, DEJARNATT, DEJARNETT) who served in the Civil War in the U.S. Colored Troops in the 12th Regiment, Hvy. Art. A notice in the Danville Daily Messenger, Tuesday, 5 Jan 1932, p2, notes:

JUNCTION CITY: "Uncle Quincy Wakefield, one of the oldest and most highly respected colored men in this community, died at his comfortable home here Thursday [31 Dec 1931] night. Uncle Quincy and wife, Aunt Ellen, had, by their honesty and thrift, a nice home and had won the respect of every one in this community. He was 85 years old and had 15 children, 34 grand children and 54 great grand children."

The Advocate-Messenger, Friday, 9 Nov 1945, notes a real estate auction – "A triangular piece of land on the north side of Bellevue Street, Junction City, Kentucky, and bounded east by Quincy Wakefield, north by an alley, west by Burke (formerly McAnly) and being a part of Tract No 3 sold in the action of Mary W Reynolds, et al, and is the same conveyed to S W Burke by Commissioner of the Boyle Circuit Court by deed recorded in Deed Book 59, page 621." This may help locate exactly where JQA Wakefield lived.

Edwards's article is quoted in part:

"Robert Pittman, a slave owner, who owned a large tract of land where Frank Durrett lives now [2003], appointed George Washington Andrews [father of Mary Andrews who married Johnson Walker] as administrator over certain portions of his estate," said his grandson.

"We have a copy of the will and what he owned when George Washington (Andrews) was appointed. He had several slaves, horses and wagons. The 70 acres we own there came off the 1,000 acre Pittman farm."

"I live at the old homeplace where I can sit and see the farm where my grandfather slaved on," said Walker.

"He recalled stories about his ancestors. 'Dad talked about grandpa owning the farm after old man Pittman passed on .

African-American Genealogies of Boyle County, Kentucky, P 1096

"Walker said he is one of six ministers in the Walker family. ... Walker currently is minister at Allen AME Church in Moreland.

"He said the Wilsonville AME Church gave him an old bookcase that George Washington Andrews [his ancestor] built. It was used by the church for years.

"Walker is in his 48th year as a minister in the AME church.

" 'I married a young lady (Barbara Penman) from Stanford,' said walker, and we have three children, eight grandchildren and seven great grandchildren."

From the Kentucky Advocate 13 Mar 1934:

Negro, Civil War Vet celebrates his 99th Birthday.

Boyle Co is the home of one of the few remaining colored vetrans [sic] of the Civil War, it was learned here today with the announcement that Jordan Wallace, colored, of Shelby City celebrated his 99th birthday on March 11th at his home.

Uncle Jordan fought with the Union Army in the battle of Vinegar Hill and fought in the last major battle of the war at Charleston, W. Va. He also took part in the bloody battle of Big Hill, at Richmond, Ky. The aged colored man saluted President Lincoln on several occasions when the Civil War President was inspecting his armies and remembers seeing him many times. [NOTE: Source error from 1934 – several of these battles were fought before Jordan enlisted in the USCT]

Wallace was born at Stony Point in this county. He has eight great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. He was the father of ten children and has outlived all but one.

From the Kentucky Advocate 29 Sept 1938:

Colored Man 103 Years Old Dies In County. Jordan Wallace, a highly respected citizen of Shelby City passed away at his residence at the ripe old age of 103 years.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Baptist Church in Junction City.

From the Danville Messenger 29 Sep 1938:

FORMER SLAVE IS TAKEN BY DEATH. 103-Year-Old Jordan Wallace Succumbs to Pneumonia.

One of the oldest persons in Boyle Co was claimed by death Wednesday aftrenoon [sic] when Jordan Wallace,

African-American Genealogies of Boyle County, Kentucky, P 1103

103-year-old colored citizen of Shelby City passed away at his home. His death was caused by pneumonia, an illness he suffered with for several days before he died.

Wallace was at one time in his centenarian life-time a slave, belonging to the Wallace family. He was born in Boyle Co on what is now the Lexington road. He was a highly respected man and was well known.

The former slave lived in the Shelby City neighborhood the greater part of his life and worked for the Shelbys (Governor Shelby's family); he also worked for the McAfee and Tevis families. His life was filled with many experiences. He was a soldier in the Union Army during Civil War time and could tell many stories about early life.

Wallace is survived by his wife. His funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Baptist Church in Junction City.

WOOD, John Edmund, born May 1868 (1900C); mar 1888 Ella REDD, born Aug 1869. He was pastor of the First Baptist Church from 1898 until his death at his residence, 220 West Walnut, 15 Dec 1929; i member of Danville city council, 1907, 1909, and possibly other years. He was born in Barren Co 21 May 1867, son of William H (1843-1923) and Fannie (Myers 1847-1902) Wood. A death notice notes that his mother, not named, died in Paris 31 Nov 1915 and was buried in Hilldale Cem.

His death notice in the Daily Messenger, 16 Dec 1929, noted that he was "one of the great outstanding leaders of his race in the nation," that he had been president for seven years of the National Baptist Convention of America, and had traveled to every state in the US in this position. He was a Republican and was a delegate at the National Republican Convention in 1912, which he opened "with prayer, an honor never before accorded a colored man.

He was a member of the city council, and had been pastor of the church for 31 years, and under his pastorate, the church had one of the largest memberships of any similar church in

African-American Genealogies of Boyle County, Kentucky, P 1162

Kentucky. He graduated from Kentucky Normal and Industrial Institute (now Kentucky State University), and State University (Simmons College) in Louisville, where for 20 years, he served as a trustee. He also published the Torch Light, newspaper, published first in Danville, and later in Lexington, and was president and treasurer of the Kentucky Negro Press Association.

He and his wife, Ella B (Redd) Wood, born August 1869 whom he married in 1891, had eleven children, five of whom were living in 1910: Ella died in Louisville 5 Feb 1933, at the home of her brother, Thomas D Redd. She was called the "widow of Rev. Woods" in her obituary, not even named. She was president of the Baptist Women's Missionary Convention, which was held in Danville.

A church history published in the 1940s, noted that Rev. Wood organized at least ten auxiliary organizations: Laymen's League; Juvenile Choir; Women's Missionary Society; BYPU; Women's Bible Class; Woman's Improvement Club; Young Ladies Club; Lend A Hand Club; Friend In Need; and Pastor's Aid.
