

DANVILLE COLORED NOTES, Lexington Herald

The "Colored Notes" was a column that ran in the Lexington Herald from 1919 to 1937, in the Danville Messenger in 1932-33, and in the Danville Advocate-Messenger, from October 1942 to April 1968. It was the only outlet for social news for the African American community, as the only news the newspapers printed for Blacks was negative -- shootings, arrests, etc.

In the index that follows, the reader must consider several things:

- 1 -- Spellings are not always accurate or consistent, whether the fault of the reporter or the typesetter at the paper; I have transcribed them "as is."
- 2 -- People may well be mentioned multiple times in the same article; they are indexed once, if I notice this.
- 3 -- Sometimes, a husband is listed, or a wife. If both are inferred, I have added "M/M" to the name, meaning "Mr and Mrs".
- 4 -- Sometimes, a title is added to a man's or a couple's entry -- Rev, Pvt, Prof, etc.
- 5 -- First names are not always given; I have indicated these with "_____."
- 6 -- I have generally NOT indexed or downloaded the columns which contain no names, such as church announcements.

POLICEMEN WANT PLANE

CHICAGO, Ill., May 17.—Two policemen here went on record as favoring an airplane for sky patrols after a "flivver" had proven inadequate in an attempt to regulate air traffic.

The policemen, Charles Janicek and James Ketcham, received complaints from householders on their beat that several airplanes were flying low over the neighborhood, constituting a nuisance and possible menace.

Seated in their "flivver," the officers sought to attract the attention of the offending flyers by blowing the horn of the car and waving their arms. Nothing happened. Then they obtained a long sheet of wrapping paper from a butcher shop, painted "Come Down" on it in large letters, and held it across an areaway between two flat buildings.

"We held it there for several hours," Janicek said later, "but we didn't catch a single plane."
