Obituary

On the morning of September 4, 1986, the Angel of Death came for our faithful and devoted wife and mother, Jenette Turner Bacon.

Jenette was born on June 29, 1930 in Danville, Kentucky. She was one of six children born to Mr. George Turner and the late Mis. Susie Turner.

In the year of 1955, Jenette met, fell in love with and married, George Bacon. To this union six children were born. She was a dedicated wife and an outstanding mother in every essence of the word.

She graduated from Bate High School in Danville, Kentucky. Until her physical strength weakened, she was gainfully employed by McDonald Douglas Aircraft for over 17 years.

Jenette Bacon was a Christian Lady. She was a member of First Missionary Baptist Church, where she was active with the Usher Board. Rev. Lewter, pastor.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, George Bacon; three sons, Marcus, Vincent and Donovan; three daughters, Susan, Shelly and Stacey, all of Los Angeles, Ca; one special niece, Diane Hart, for whom Jenette was guardian since her early teen years; her father, Mr. George Turner; three sisters, Lillie Mae Ford, Emma Wade and Carolyn Beasley; one brother, Paul Turner, all of Danville, Ky; three sister-in-laws, Josephine Billingsley, Charlene Small and Pauline Smith of Cleveland, Tenn; two brother-in-laws, James Bacon of Indianapolis, Ind., and William T. Bacon of Cleveland, Tenn; many other close relatives and friends.

"Jennie" as close friends called her would want all of you named, but I think she would accept this message being delivered on her behalf.

For those who believe what the Saviour said, will rise in Glory, though they be as dead...So death comes to us just to open the door to the Kingdom of God and Life evermore!

All of us who knew Jenette in those last days, saw her demonstrate second Timothy 4:7"

"I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." It is now time for us the living to be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. (Eph. 6:10)

Obituary

On December 22, 2000, at the age of 86, God called Anna B. Bailey to eternal rest.

Anna was born November 29, 1914, in Hustonville, KY, to the late Thomas and Nancy Carpenter Bailey. One sister and four brothers preceded her in death.

She was a homemaker and a member of the Allen Chapel AME Church of Moreland, Kentucky.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a daughter, Paulette Johnson of Louisville, KY; a sister, Ella Gooch of Stanford, KY; four grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; Nieces and nephews; cousins and many friends.

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrows through the years.

But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all the things the same.

Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.

Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.

A Letter From Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.*

*I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand*

*So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart*

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside still waters, He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; Thou anoint my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

"For the Need of You"

*I need you to touch, I need you to see
I need you so much, I need you with me.
My life feels so empty, my heart feels so cold.
I need you beside me, I need you to hold.
Why were you taken? I ask that each day,
But no one will answer, I therefore now pray.
I pray that you're happy, I pray that you're safe.
I pray that I'll hear you, and that I have faith
Come to me Mom, and whisper my name,
Tell me you're happy, and I'll be the same,
My life at the moment is empty and dark

*The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want,
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters
He restoreth my soul,
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake;
Yea though I walk through the valley and the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil for thou art with me
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me
Thy preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thy anointest my head with oil
My cup runneth over
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life.
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

*Our Father knows what's best for us,
So why should we complain.
We always want the sunshine,
But He knows there must be rain.
We love the song of laughter,
And the merriment of cheer,
But our hearts would lose their tenderness
If we never shed a tear.
Our Father tests us often
With suffering and with sorrow,
He tests us not to punish us
But help us meet tomorrow.*

Life Reflections

Elder David Harrison Baker was born in Louisville, KY on April 27, 1941 to the late Floyd and Anna D. Baker. The third of five children. He was a beloved, husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend, he was called home to be with the Lord on Friday, February 11, 2011.

He graduated from Male High School where is received a Football Scholarship to the University of Missouri where he continued his football career. After telling Bishop Shultz about his Scholarship to play football he sought his advice about this endeavor, Bishop Shultz told him "the day you feel like you can no longer play the game then come home". God knowing the spirit of excellence that was in David and realizing whatever he set his mind to do he would do it, and the if he continued with his football career he would no doubt have become a professional football player, Changed his plans in a scrimmage game. David said "they tackled him the wrong way and he felt something raise up in him and said it's time to go home." He returned home and attended the University of Louisville where he received his Commonwealth Life Underwriter's License (CLU), becoming the first African American to receive a CLU license in the state of Kentucky. He soon became one of the most successful Insurance agents with The Commonwealth Insurance Company, selling each year more than a million dollars in policies, which earned him trips and other awards. He later started The David H. Baker Insurance Agency and it was evident that the hand of the Lord was upon his life.

Elder Baker grew up as a young man at Bethel Temple (now Greater Bethel Temple) under the leadership of Bishop David T. Schultz serving in several capacities, He was on the committee responsible for the building of the Education Annex at Clay and Breckinridge.

Elder Baker was united in holy matrimony to Katherine L. Burdette on June 29, 1963. To this union was born four daughters and one son. Elder Baker was a faithful servant of people and God, serving in several capacities throughout his life within the church. He served as a deacon on the deacon board, and Sunday school teacher. He believed in witnessing, constantly inviting, and often picking up and bringing, people to church.

After the Home Going of Bishop Schultz, District Elder William P. Foree became the pastor and a friendship was formed that was like that of Kings Saul's son, Jonathan and David the shepherd. Elder Baker served faithfully under his leadership as Deacon, Sunday School Teacher and he was instrumental in starting the Brotherhood Auxiliary and served as the first Brotherhood Chairman. a position that he held for several years. Under Dr. Foree's ministry the church grew at a rapid rate and it became necessary to relocate; Greater Bethel relocated to 834 S. Third Street in the year of 1978 and the Lord placed in Mother Anna D. Baker's heart a desire to have a Family and Friends Day, Elder Baker helped his mother see this vision come to pass. It was such a success that Dr. Foree set this as an Annual Celebration, and it continues even to this day.

Elder Baker enjoyed fishing and hunting, with the brothers of the church both young and old. He also loved attending the P.A.W. Conventions. Being a lover of Volkswagen Beetles he would load of the Beetle with as many as he could and travel to the Kentucky and Tennessee Councils and P. A. W. Conventions.

In 1986 he began traveling to Star Bethel Church in Riley, KY to assist Pastor Viola Kniffley who was ill. After Pastor Kniffley's death, he became the Pastor and permanently moved to Riley, KY. He served faithfully in his church and community until his death. Elder David Baker was preceded in death by both parents, two sisters; LarSue Baker-Taylor and Ruth Jeanette Baker; one brother, Floyd Baker Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife of 47 years, Katherine L. Baker; (4) daughters: Sheila A. Baker, Martha J. Searight, Larsandra E. (Harlan A.) Linton, and Katrina R. Greenwell; one son, David H. (Ayna) Baker II; (1) sister, Martha (Charles) Miller; (13) grandchildren: Elijah Baker, Jenisha Baker, Aujah Baker, Kenny Searight, Audrie Baker, Kendra Searight, Isaiah Baker, Faith Linton, Bryanna Linton, Mia Baker, Terrence Greenwell, Makayla Linton, and Alexis Greenwell; (11) great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, The Star Bethel Church Family and many other loved ones.

A Father's Last Request

By Larsandra Linton

If we could hear our father's voice
 We would hear him say
 "Don't cry for me, for one day,
 We all must go this way.
 My body is no longer hurting
 No worries cross my brow
 I'm resting in the arm of my savior
 Thank God, I'm at peace now.
 So listen, my dear children,
 For I have but one request,
 Please make sure that your souls are ready
 When you are laid to rest.
 Prepare yourselves for eternity,
 For God soon will crack the sky
 And I would like to see you again
 In the sweet by and by.
 I have made it over
 So shed no more tears
 If you honor my last request
 One day I'll see you here.

We love you daddy!

HEAVEN'S STAIRS

The "Stairway" rises "Heaven High" -
The "Steps" are dark and steep,
In weariness we climb them
As we stumble, fall and weep...

And many times we falter
Along the "path of prayer"
Wondering if you hear us
And if you really care...

Oh, give us some assurance.
Restore our faith anew,
So we can keep on climbing
The "Stairs of Prayer" to you -

For we are weak and wavering,
Uncertain and unsure,
And only meeting you in prayer
Can help us to endure

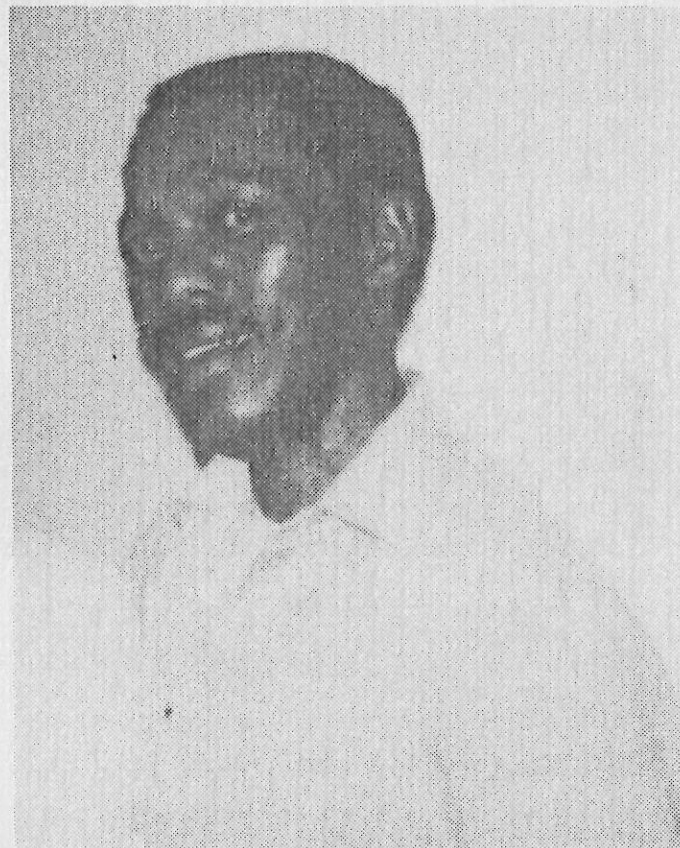

All life's trails and troubles
its sickness, pain and sorrow,
And give us strength and courage
To face and meet tomorrow!

As we travel through the years

The Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down to green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Perhaps you sang a lovely song,

Or sat quietly in a chair,

Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,

If so, we saw them there.

Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words

As any friends could say;

Perhaps you were not there at all—

Just thought of us that day.

Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,

Or maybe furnished a car;

Perhaps you rendered a service unseen.

Near at hand or from afar.

Whatever you did to console the heart,

We thank you so much—whatever the part.

CAGED BIRD

By Maya Angelou

A free bird leaps on the back of the wind and floats downstream till the current ends and dips his wing in the orange sun rays and dares to claim the sky.

But a bird that stalks down his narrow cage can seldom see through his bars of rage his wings are clipped and his feet are tied so he opens his throat to sing.

The caged bird sings with a fearful trill of things unknown but longed for still and his tune is heard on the distant hill for the caged bird sings of freedom.

The free bird thinks of another breeze and the trade winds soft through the sighing trees and the fat worms waiting on a dawn-bright lawn and he names the sky his own.

But a caged bird stands on the grave of dreams his shadow shouts on a nightmare scream his wings are clipped and his feet are tied so he opens his throat to sing.

The caged bird sings with a fearful trill of things
unknown but longed for still and his tune is heard
on the distant hill for the caged bird sings of freedom.

ON THE WINGS OF PRAYER

*Just close your eyes and open your heart
And feel your worries and cares depart,
Just yield yourself to the Father above
And let him hold you secure in His love...
For life on earth grows more involved
With endless problems that can't be solved-
But God only asks us to do our best,
Then he will "take over" and finish the rest...
So when you are tired, discouraged and blue,
There's always one door that is open to you-
And that is the door to " THE HOUSE OF PRAYER"
And you'll find God waiting to meet you there...
And "THE HOUSE OF PRAYER" IS NO FARTHER AWAY
Than the quiet spot where you kneel and pray-
For the heart is a temple when God is there
As we place ourselves in His loving care,
And He hears every prayer and answers each one
When we pray in His name " THY WILL BE DONE"
And the burdens that seemed too heavy to bear
Are lifted away on
"THE WINGS OF PRAYERS"*

I WILL SING THE WONDROUS STORY

*Of the Christ who died for me,
How He left His home in glory,
For the cross on Calvary.

I was lost, but Jesus found me,
Found the sheep that went astray;
Threw His loving arms around me,
Drew me back into His way.

I was bruised, but Jesus healed me,
Faint was I from many a fall,
Sight was gone, and fears possessed me,
But He freed me from them all.

Days of darkness still come o'er me,
Sorrows' paths I often tread,
But the savior still is with me,
By His hand I'm safely led.

Yes, I'll sing the wondrous story
Of the Christ who died for me.
Sing it with saints in glory.
Gathered by the crystal sea.*

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still water. He restored my soul: he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his namesake. Yea though I walk though the valley of shadow of death, I will fear no evil: For thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over, surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

FRANCES BERNICE BELL BARBER was born to the late Zack Bell Sr. and Georgia Guy Bell on July 16, 1924 in Zion Hill, Scott County.

On April 12, 1936 she confessed hope in Christ under the Pastorate of the late Rev. William Alexander.

She was a member of Zion Hill Baptist Church. She served as secretary of the Willing Workers Auxiliary and member of the Culinary Department.

In 1940 she married the late Henry Lee Harris Sr., and to this union four sons were born - one of whom has preceded her in death - Frances, who departed this life July 13, 1994, after a short illness at St. Joseph Hospital at the age of 69.

Upon her passing she is survived by three sons - Fred (Peggy) Harris, Zions Hill; John (Betty) Harris, Lexington, KY; and Bernice (Ruby) Harris, Georgetown, KY; three step-sons - George, William and Matthew Barber, Lexington, KY; two step-daughters - Carrie Mae Miller and Deborah (Wayne) Fisher of Lexington, KY; five granddaughters - Lisa (Schaun) Horton, Etonya Sleet, Lee Michelle Harris, and Joy & Tammy Harris; one grandson - Kenneth Coleman; three great-grandsons - Lamar, Troy and Bronson Harris; five sisters - Mattie Lou (Willie) Livers, Zion Hill; Leanna (Isaac) Payne, Indianapolis, Ind.; Betty J. Wilson, Lexington; Edna (William) Senour, Indianapolis, Ind.; and Lillian Marie (John) Devine, Zion Hill; one brother - Zack (Mattie Lin) Bell Jr.; and a host of neices, nephews, cousins and friends to remain.

Sorry I had to leave you in a sudden kind of way, but my friend Jesus said He needed me today; so I won't call or even say goodbye. Jesus, a frilend of mine is waiting, so I won't even try.

Don't worry about the future, it's really not that long. I know you'll be waiting because that's the way of Saint's home. He told me He had a house larger than all the mansions on the earth, so, I must go with Him now; in my life He comes first.

Well family, Saints, friends, I've got to go; my friend Jesus told me I can't be late; so I must leave with Him in order to get inside the pearly gate.

Don't wait up, and please don't cry; besides you didn't hear me say goodbye. Just remember who I am leaving with; so don't take another kind of route and be lost, because He is coming back for you someday.

DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP

DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP,
 I AM NOT THERE, I DO NOT SLEEP.
 I AM IN A THOUSAND WINDS THAT BLOW,
 I AM THE SOFTLY FALLING SNOW.
 I AM THE GENTLE SHOWERS OF AUTUMN RAIN,
 I AM THE FIELDS OF RIPENING GRAIN.
 I AM IN THE MORNING HUSH,
 I AM IN THE GRACEFUL RUSH
 OF BEAUTIFUL BIRDS IN CIRCLING FLIGHT,
 I AM THE STARSHINE OF THE NIGHT.
 I AM IN THE FLOWERS THAT BLOOM,
 I AM IN A QUIET ROOM.
 I AM IN THE BIRDS THAT SING,
 I AM IN EACH LOVELY THING.
 DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND CRY,
 I AM NOT THERE. I DID NOT DIE.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go.

"When I Come to the end of the road,

And the sun has set for me,

I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little--but not too long,

And not with your head bowed low;

Remember the love that we once shared

Miss me--but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,

And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's Plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know,

And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds

Miss me--but let me go."

*So many of the things we feel
Inside our hearts today.
Are there 'cause someone special cared enough along the way-
Someone who believed in us
When faith was running low,
Or whose gentle words of wisdom helped us choose which way to go.
Someone who could bring us laughter
even in our tears.
Whose memories make us smile
across the miles and through the years
Someone who's done more than they could ever realize.
Someone who will always be
A hero in our eyes.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

OBITUARY

Margaret (Margo) Ellen Barnett, born May 26, 1930, in Danville, Kentucky, to Carlie and Sarah Rice, was the oldest of three children. She was reared in Danville, and attended Bate School through grade twelve.

She furthered her studies in Chicago, Illinois and Cincinnati, Ohio.

In 1950, she married Arthur Barnett. This union brought forth two fine children, Pamela and Gregory. After this union was dissolved, she continued, with the help of her father and devoted stepmother, Pearl Rice, to guide her children with spiritual awareness and high morality.

In 1956, Margo moved to Washington, D.C. to study nursing at Howard University. While at Howard, she was employed in several areas of the university. Among these was the School of Social Work, where she made many friends. Later her interests carried her to employment in the Internal Revenue Service. During this era of her life, she became active in the struggle for racial equality, and a new horizon opened for her. . . the theater.

She worked with determined vigor through 'Back Alley Theater' and appeared in many productions there. Her one-woman show, "Black Is A Beautiful Woman", is the end product of her theatrical work. With the guidance of Doug Johnson and Sam Johnson, this turned into a full scaled production. WETA-TV (26) aired the full version of the show in 1976, and this performance won Margo an Emmy for "best individual performer" from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

To further identify the versatility of this lady, she was an auto mechanic and a licensed real estate agent.

What Is A Mom?

A mom is one of life's best gifts,
Someone to treasure all life through,
She's caring and loving,
Thoughtful and true,

Someone who is always a special part of your life,
Someone who holds a prime place in your heart,
She's a mentor, a confident and also a friend,
Someone on whose love you can depend.

A mom always has your best interests at heart,
She's someone so dear and so good,
She's a blessing, she's a gift,
She's a treasure like no other,
She's someone that is truly wonderful.

Wherever you go, and whatever you do,
A mom's love will always see you through,

A mom is truly invaluable,
Indispensable and unforgettable.

I wouldn't want anyone but you,
And that's why I'm so grateful,
That life picked you for me.

The Fifth Season

C.A. Schlea
In the spring of life,
In the flower of youth,
Everything is bright and new.

In the summer of life,
Time of growth and change,
Each day brings new dreams to pursue.

In the autumn of life,
There's a settling down -
Contentment and sureness in what we do.

In the winter of life,
Comes peace and wisdom,
Time to relax and reminisce, too...

But with the passing of these seasons,
Life is still not done, not through,
For there is yet another season,
When each spirit is renewed.
And it is in this calm fifth season,
In this hopeful second spring,
A time of cleansing and rebirth,
A time of new awakening,
Each person's life will come full circle,
Even as the seasons do;
To start another, different life,
Much better than the one we know.

An Expression of Gratitude

We are pained in the transition, but we rejoice in the destination. Realizing that each tomorrow is not ours to understand and knowing that God never hurts needlessly and never wastes our pain, for every loss He sends to us is followed by rich gains. Today is our loss, our hurt and our pain, we recognize our gains in you our friends and loved ones, for flowers, your cards your whispered prayers, your visits, miles travelled and every act of kindness have been a source of strength and comfort. We are eternally grateful.

Obituary

Trusting in the grace and will of God, Langston F. Bate, Jr. peacefully made his transition from this life on Wednesday, September 3, 2003, at his home in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Langston, or "Lanny," as he was affectionately called, was born on October 21, 1930, to the late Dr. Langston F. Bate, Sr., and Clyde Easter Bate in Charleston, West Virginia. He is a graduate of Howard University in Washington, D.C., where he spent most of his childhood and adult life.

His professional career spanned more than three decades and included service as a Major in the U.S. Army Reserve. Langston was an author, artist, and educator. A former Mechanical Engineer with the Consumer Products Safety Commission, Langston pioneered dynamic test programs and assisted in the development of three major industry standards related to household ladder safety. He evaluated product hazards as a manager for multidisciplinary programs of engineering sciences and managed a number of research studies and contracts with both public and private institutions. He has authored a number of publications during the course of his career.

Langston retired from the Federal government in 1980 and became a consultant, providing expert witness service to attorneys representing both plaintiffs and defendants in lawsuits involving ladder accidents. He also taught in public school systems in both Maryland and Florida.

Langston married Opal Daniels in December 1991 and moved to St. Petersburg, Florida. He was an avid golfer and enjoyed music; poetry; Redskins and Buccaneers football; and oil painting. He was a member of Trinity Presbyterian Church in St. Petersburg, where he sang in the choir and served as President of the C.M. Adams Sunday School class. Langston was married to Doris Jean Gross, to whom three daughters were born. He is survived by his third wife, Opal Daniels Bate, and leaves to cherish his memory three daughters: Lori Bate McConnell (Marcus), Kimberly Delia Bate and Jamie Bate Pittman, all of Silver Spring, Maryland; grandchildren Les, Erika and Tyrone, of Silver Spring; stepsons Gerald Daniels and Bruce Daniels of California; a sister, Jacqueline Bate Grigsby of San Diego, California; a half brother, Kenneth Bate, of Maryland; nephews Daryl (Leslie, of Kirkland, Washington; Michael (Susan), of Los Banos, California; and Langston (Crystal) Grigsby, of Montgomery Village, Maryland; and a host of other relatives and friends.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Marsha Bates was born October 25, 1903 in Monroe, Alabama. She answered her call to go to her eternal home, Saturday morning, April 19, 1980, at the Golden Living Nursing Home, following a long illness. She was 76 years old.

Mrs. Bates, a devoted Christian, accepted Christ at an early age and upon her arrival in Danville, Kentucky, she united with the First Baptist Church, Second and Walnut Streets, where she was faithful attendance even after her health began to fail. She enjoyed her religion and often she would say, "If I die serving the Lord that will be alright." She was member of the Lend-A-Hand Club and the Minnie Adams Missionary Circle.

She was married to the late Leonard Bates Sr., and to that union seven children were born.

She leaves to mourn her passing two daughters; Mrs. Betty F. Sanford of Danville, Kentucky and Mrs. Margaret Doram of Lexington, Kentucky; five sons, Leonard Bates of Danville, Kentucky, David Floyd of Chattahoochee, Florida, Hubert Floyd, Alfonza Campbell and Joe Campbell of Youngstown, Ohio; one sister, Mrs. Caddie Cruise of Panama City, Florida; 34 grandchildren; 55 great-grandchildren; four daughters-in-law; one son-in-law; and many other relatives and friends.

The Living Room

Here we are in the Living Room,
All of our loving group together,
And the glow of the wood-fire's warm perfume
Battled the chill of the outer weather,
And then, with a sleepy sigh, you said,
"Good night, dear ones, I'm going to bed."

Why did there fall such a sense of gloom?
Why did we sob at the thought of sleep?
When one goes out of the Living Room,
Must all the rest of the family weep?
When the work is done and the day is sped,
Is it not time for the restful bed?

Because you are gone from the warmth and light
And stepped aside from the fire-lit glow,
Because you have kissed us all good night,
Why must we sorrow and murmur so?
Why do we call the couch a tomb
Beyond the door of the Living Room?

~ Her Life Story ~

Carolyn Turner Beasley was born to George and Susie Turner, in Danville, Kentucky on October 18, 1941. She passed to her heavenly reward quietly on Sunday, July 6, 2014 at Central Baptist Hospital, in Lexington, Kentucky.

She professed her love for Christ at an early age and was a member of Bethel Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Buckner. She received her education at Bate Elementary and Bate High School, where she was a member of the band and excelled in playing the saxophone. Carolyn was married to the late Lloyd W. Beasley and this union was blessed with six children. While she resided in Louisville, Kentucky, she was employed by Reynolds Aluminum and Brown-Williams Factory for many years to provide for her family.

Her love for family was demonstrated by her actions, raising three of her grandchildren, Adrian and DuJuan Beasley and Lamarr Batts. Carolyn enjoyed the times she shared with her nephew Derrick Sharkey, watching television. You would also find her cooking and baking, especially pies. All of this will be missed but we take comfort in knowing she knew she was loved by everyone.

She united with First Baptist Perryville under the leadership of Rev. Willie F. Newby, where she was a member of the Culinary Committee and Willing Worker Club. She attended Sunday School regularly until her health began to prevent her active participation. When she was able during that time she would attend church at Kingdom Fellowship with her daughter by her side.

Carolyn is preceded in death by her parents, a son, Dewayne Beasley, a brother Bill Turner, and three sisters, Jeannette Beacon, Lillie Mae Ford, and Emma Wade.

She is survived by her children, Ronnie (Wanda) Beasley, Louisa Batts, Johnny (Trish) Beasley, Jural (Edward) Scott, George (Tammy) Beasley; one brother, Paul (Audrey) Turner; 24 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren; sister-in-law, Carla (Robert) Drane; her best friend, Wanda English; also a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Obituary

On Saturday Evening as Bishop Beasley was preparing for Sunday Morning service, he left his Bible and Sunday School book on the dining room table and went upstairs to prepare for the night, As he prepared himself a night of rest the Almighty Father spoke quietly and gently to him saying "Clay, come on home and take a rest my child, I need you here."

Early on Sunday Morning, July 16, 2006 Bishop Beasley quietly accepted the call and went on to the last and final appointment. It was sudden and unexpected to us, but to the Almighty and Bishop the timing was just fine.

Clay K. Beasley was born October 22, 1936 in Garrard County, Kentucky to the Late Isaac Thomas and Priscilla Able Beasley.

Bishop Beasley retired from Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center after 32 years of dedicated and valued service.

Bishop Beasley was a caring and loving person. He was Saved, Sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost at the tender age of 12 in a tent revival in Lancaster, Kentucky. He then united with the Church of God of America, Inc. under the leadership of the Late Bishop A.R. Smith.

Bishop Beasley was an anointed singer and the Lord blessed him and anointed him to preach the Gospel. Bishop Beasley was church all by himself. The church was first and the most important thing in his life. He held a special love for the household of faith.

During the 57 years as a member of the Church God of America he has served in many capacities Church janitor, Youth Department Vice President, Pastor of Louisville, Lancaster, Shelbyville and Danville Church. Presiding Elder, General Elder, Assistant Bishop.

His favorite sayings were "It makes no difference what you think of me, But It does make a difference what I think of you" and "It's nice to be nice".

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: 3 brothers Charles; Samuel (Mary Elizabeth) Beasley both of Danville, KY, William D. (Evette) Beasley, Sr., Shelbyville, KY; 2 sisters; Emma (Arthur) Dawson, Cincinnati, OH and Anna Margaret McAdoo and one aunt, Emma D. Johnson both of Danville, KY, life long friend Ray Andrew of Danville, KY, a host of nieces and nephews.

He was proceeded in death by his parents, one sister, Stella Louis Turner; Three brothers, Joe Cecil, Howard Wilson and Clarence Beasley.

He came and stood beside you,
and whispered, "Come and rest."
You bid no one a last farewell,
Not even a "Goodbye."
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

*Sleep on, beloved mother, Sleep and take thy rest.
Lay down thy head upon the Savior's breast,
We love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best.*

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around his garden
And he found an empty place,
He then looked down upon this earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
And lifted you up to rest.

God's Garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the Best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again,

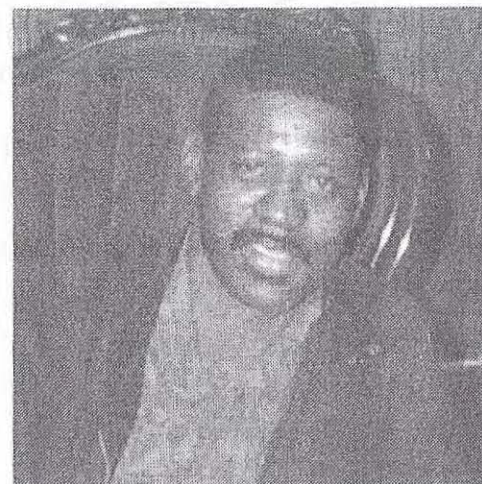

He saw that the road was getting
Rough and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace Be Thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you.
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Thank everyone for your prayers, phone calls, visits,

Maybe you prayed for us; we felt those prayers in our deepest hour. Maybe you came and sat with us; your words of comfort were touching. Maybe you served us food; our bodies were well nourished. Maybe you sent flowers; their beauty and fragrance lifted our spirits. Maybe you called on the phone; we felt as though you were with us. Maybe you sent a card or telegram; those messages touched our heart. Maybe you assisted with the "Order of Service"; you were a beautiful blessing. Maybe you went to the grave site; you went the last earthly miles with us whatever you did, we thank you. May God bless you.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rises in a gloom filled room; why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we once shared;

Miss me but let me go. For this journey we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know; And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds; Miss me, but let me go.

He was united in holy matrimony to Malvena Barnes. To this union three children were born, one preceded him in death. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, and he loved us all. He retired from the Griffin Packing Company.

THE LIVING ROOM

Here we were in the Living Room,
All of our loving group together,
And the glow of the wood-fire's warm perfume
Battled the chill of the outer weather,
And then, with a sleepy sigh, you said,
"Good night, dear ones, I'm going to bed."

Why did there fall such a sense of gloom?
Why did we sob at the thought of sleep?
When one goes out of the Living Room?
Must all the rest of the family weep?
When the work is done and the day is sped,
Is it not time for the restful bed?

Because you are gone from the warmth and light
And stepped aside from the fire-lit glow,
Because you have kissed us all good night,
Why must we sorrow and murmur so?
Why do we call the couch a tomb
Beyond the door of the Living Room?

MAY I GO

May I go now? Do you think the time is right?
May I say good-bye to pain filled days and endless lonely nights?
I've lived my life and done my best, an example tried to be.
So can I take that step beyond and set my spirit free?
I didn't want to go at first. I fought with all my might.
But something seems to draw me now to a warm and loving light.
I want to go. I really do. It's difficult to stay.
But I will try as best I can to live just one more day.
To give you time to care for me and share your love and fears.
I know you're sad and afraid, because I see your tears.
I'll not be far, I promise that, and hope you'll always know that my spirit will be close to you, wherever you may go.
Thank you so for loving me. You know I love you too, that's why it's hard to say good-bye and end this life with you.
So hold me now, just one more time and let me hear you say, because you care so much for me, you'll let me go today.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me
I'm following the path God has laid you see
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day
To, laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes
These things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief
Don't lengthen my time now with undue grief
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God's wanted me now, He's set me free!

Obituary

On Sunday, September 11, 2005, the trumpets of heaven sounded calling home Brother Leonard Thomas Bell to rest among the faithful of his Father's family. With God's grace he put down his sword that he nobly fought with and walked whole heartedly into the open arms of his Father to rest in the mansion of His home.

Leonard Thomas Bell was born on March 30, 1935 to the late Mary and George Bell of Hodgenville, Kentucky. He attended Georgetown Elementary in Hodgenville, Bond Washington High School in Elizabethtown and Sullivan Business College where he received a degree in 1972. He lived many years in Hodgenville before moving to Columbia, Kentucky.

Leonard knew there was life after this earthly life so he confessed Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and united with First Baptist Church, Hodgenville, Kentucky at an early age.

Leonard was a faithful servant; he was a member of First Baptist Church, Hodgenville where he served as Chairman of the Board of Deacons and Minister of Music. He was also the Minister of Music at the following churches: First Baptist Church, Perryville, First Baptist Church, Danville, Zion District Association of Gospel, Lindsey Wilson Gospel Music Director, and a member of Gospel Music Workshop of America. He was a Korean War Veteran.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Phyllis Winfrey Bell, of Columbia; four sons, Michael Bell (Joyce) of Louisville, Barry Bell and Thomas Bell (Christine) both of Hodgenville, and Patrick Evans of Indianapolis, Indiana; one daughter, Shirl Bell Wooten (Tyrone) of Hodgenville; two stepdaughters, Danitria Winfrey of Indianapolis, Indiana and Ivy Winfrey of Columbia; two sisters, Joann Hancock and Wanda English, both of Louisville; seven grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends all joined to express the loss of our loved one.

John 16:16 "A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me, because I go to the Father."

"When I Must Leave You"

When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrows through the years
But stand out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in His name
Live on and do all things the same.

Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour with useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I, in turn, will comfort you and hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I'm waiting for you in the sky

Let us now ask God to cleanse our hearts, to redeem our memories, and to renew our confidence in the goodness of God.

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, you see us as we are, and know our inmost thoughts. We confess that we are unworthy of your gracious care. We forget that all life comes from you and that to you all life returns. We have not always sought or done your will. We have not lived as your grateful children, nor loved as Christ loved us. Apart from you, we are nothing. Only your grace can sustain us. Lord in your mercy, forgive us, heal us, and make us whole. Set us free from our sin, and restore to us the joy of your salvation now and forever.

A Poem by Russell Kelfer

*You are who you are for a reason, you're part of an intricate plan.
You're a precious and perfect unique design,
Called God's special woman or man.
You look like you look for a reason, our God made no mistake.
He knit you together within the womb,
You're just what he wanted to make.
The parents you had were the ones he chose,
And no matter how you may feel.
They were custom designed with God's plan in mind,
And they bear the Master's seal.
No, that trauma you faced was not easy,
And God wept that it hurt you so.
But it was allowed to shape your heart,
So that into his likeness you'd grow.
You are who you are for a reason,
You've been formed by the Master's rod.
You are who you are, beloved, because there is a God!*

Alright Now

Sometimes its hard to say goodbye
But every soul in this world has its day to die.
You left this world after months of strain.
Thank you God he put an end to your pain.
God had a plan, so He took you by your hand.
To take you from all your problems.
You could no longer withstand.
To give you a better day
And take all your hurts away.
I know it's hard.
But life still goes on.
Let this be a time of joy.
And not a time to mourn.
For "Cille" has found peace.
She has run her race.
And now she can rest at His feet.
So, I dedicate this to a strong
And courageous woman whose Heart was filled with contentment
And bliss.
I love you auntie and you will
Surely be missed

FAITH

Faith is the eye that sees God,
No matter how dark the day.
Faith is the heart rejoicing
on the steep and rugged way.
Faith is the heart rejoicing
accepting God's promise true.
Faith is the ear that listens,
to the voice that speaks to you,
Faith refuses to doubt Him,
Though hearts are filled with fear,
Faith is believing the Word,
and knowing that God is near.

A Soul's Soliloquy

Today the journey is ended,
I have worked out the mandates of fate;
Naked, alone, undefended,
I knock at the Uttermost Gate.
Behind is life and its longing,
Its trial, its trouble, its sorrow;
Beyond is the Infinite Morning
Of a day without a tomorrow.

Go back to dust and decay,
Body, grown weary and old;
You are worthless to me from today-
No longer my soul can you hold.
I lay you down gladly forever
For a life that is better than this;
I go where partings ne'er sever
You into oblivion's abyss.

Lo, the gate swings wide at my knocking,
Across endless reaches I see
Lost friends with laughter come flocking
To give a glad welcome to me.
Farewell, the maze has been threaded,
This is the ending of strife;
Say not that death should be dreaded
'Tis but the beginning of life.

PSALM TWENTY-THREE

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

~ Never Say Good-bye ~

*Time has come to say so long.
As we strive, an struggle to move on
You gave us your life and your love, and we know you will continue to smile
Down upon us from above.*

*When clouds were gray, you turned them blue.
When we were sad, you knew just what to do.
Our love for you will never fade away.
It just gets stronger with each passing day.*

*We will never forget you our beloved one.
When God made you, he gave us a special son.*

*We will one day get through the sadness
And think about you and what you would say,*

As your favorite words " Stop the Madness"

*Rest In Peace, our love one
This is not good-bye, just so long
We love and miss you so very much*

In God's Hands

Dear Lord as I kneel down to pray
I look high to find the right words to say
You dispatched your angel to come and retrieve another soul,
Even when you knew it would leave a huge hole.
Another family to grieve, yet remember the times
And laughs we shared for many years
To hopefully dry up all our tears.
We don't have the matriarch of this family anymore
Cause he's knocking at heaven's door
We love and miss you so very much
Yet longing for one more chance to feel your loving touch
You were truly a man's man
Now you sit at the Father's right hand
We love and miss you every second of the day
Yet your memory will never go away
Our hearts are empty, our minds are numb
Yet we know his work is not done
Rest in peace to a loving man
Because we know he's in God's Hands.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We, the family of the late Charles "Chuck" Berry, Sr., would like to thank each of you for your love and kindness shown during this trying time. We offer our heartfelt thanks to the Pastor Smith, St. James AME, family and friends who provided emotional support during this time. May God continue to bless each of you.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name sake.
Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in presence
of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

“Our Angel In Heaven”

*You are rejoicing in Heaven,
long before we knew,
God needed an angel,
so He called you.
He reached out his hand and whispered your name.
To leave this earthly body
and never be the same.
He said, “Your work is finished and you can do no more”
so He opened the gates of Heaven and you walked through the door.*

All pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly, trod the valley of the shade ? Oh! but Jesus love illumined every dark and fearful glade. And he came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread; and with Jesus arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread ? Then you must not grive so sorely, For I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will. THERE'S SUNSHINE IN A SMILE

Life is a mixture of sunshine and rain,
Laughter and pleasure, teardrops and pain,
All days can't be bright, but it's certainly true,
There was never a cloud the sun didn't shine through- -
So just keep on smiling whatever betide you,
Secure in the knowledge God is always beside you,
And you'll find when you smile your day will be brighter
And all of your burdens will seem so much lighter- -
For each time you smile you will find it is true
Somebody, somewhere will smile back at you,
And nothing on earth can make life more worth while
Than the sunshine and warmth of a beautiful smile.
