Twenty-third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the Presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Joseph W. Caldwell was born to the late Jack and Mary Frances Caldwell in Mitchellsburg, Kentucky on January 20, 1943.

Joe was a man who enjoyed being around his family, always looking forward to the family gatherings and Basket Meetings at First Baptist Church in Perryville. He was very shy until you got to know him. He would say something funny in his own quiet way. He enjoyed watching "Days of Our Lives," reading, and was a True Blue Wildcat Fan.

He was a dedicated and faithful worker at Don Jacobs Imports for over 30 years and continued his close relationships with Mr. Jacobs and the Jacobs family long after retiring. Before he lost his speech, he told the staff at Rockcastle Regional Hospital how God had been good to him and that he trusted the Lord. Joe Caldwell was well known by his smile. He always had a smile on his face and never complained about his aches and pains.

Joe was preceded in death by a daughter, Joyce Caldwell Demus; three sisters, Betty Barleston, Catherine Caldwell, and Rose Caldwell; four brothers, James Caldwell, John Caldwell, Charles Caldwell and George Caldwell.

*He leaves to cherish his memory five sons, Donald (Antoinette) Caldwell, Timothy (Shalon) Caldwell, Williams (Dovie) Caldwell, Joseph Allen Caldwell, and James Caldwell-Hagan; two daughters, Virginia (Rev. WE LOVED YOU DEARLY

*In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you left a place,
That cannot be filled.
The golden gates stood open,
God saw you needed rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
For in heaven there is nothing but the best.
You bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
The weary hours,
The days of pain,
The sleepless nights are past.
The ever patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.
Sleep on "Dear Mom" and take your rest.
We all loved you,
But God loved you best.*

Perhaps you brought us food or came by and sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent lovely flowers,
if so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
but prayed for us each day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts
we thank you so much, however small the part.

Friends of the Family

God Bless You! Just a simple phrase, yet though the words are few
They say just what our heart would say if it could speak to you.

God bless you now and always,
keep you in His care.
This is our hope, our prayer;
we are all so lonely,
Looking at her empty chair,
remembering all the happy moments
That we shared when she was here.

God saw the road was getting rough,
the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed her loving eyes,
and whispered, "Now come home to God."
Loving thoughts will always linger,
she's still our guiding star.
And we'll all be reunited
when we reach the other side.

You've given so much,
yet asked so little in return,
you've guided me, yet let me go my way...
You've made me proud and happy, too,
that I'm so much a part of you...
my gratitude is more than I can say.

You've taught me right from wrong
through your encouragement and praise.
You've shown me that your love
is always near...
And though my feelings seldom show,
I hope that you will always know
you mean much more to me

Ah, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.*

Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.*

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

The Obituary

George Calvin Calhoun Jr. was born on March 22, 1943 in Frankfort, Kentucky. He was the first of three children born to the union of the late George Calvin Calhoun Sr. and the remaining Anna Josephine Calhoun.

George Jr., affectionately known as "Bunchy" to one and all, attended Mayo Underwood School between 1948 and 1956. Later at Frankfort High School, "Bunchy" excelled at football, basketball and track before graduating in 1960. After high school he joined the Army and served most of his time there with NATO forces in Germany, and was honorably discharged in the mid-60's. "Bunchy" was, of course, a member of the VFW, and also attended Kentucky State University for three years. His happiest times, however, were spent working at "George's Place," a well known, family owned Frankfort tavern.

Those who will dearly love and cherish Bunchy's memories are his daughter, Carmen Monique Calhoun; his mother, Anna Josephine Calhoun; two brothers, Thomas Eugene Calhoun and Jerald Vincent Calhoun; and other relatives as well as friends.

"With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say, Look, The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away."

~ Obituary ~

James Edward Calhoun, was born to the late James Calhoun and Carolyn Taylor Calhoun, in Frankfort, Kentucky February 8, 1915. He now joins his siblings who preceded him in death, Alfred (Pinky), Louis, Henry, William (Noni), George, Robert (Genie), and Carl Sidney. Among them was the unique "Calhoun whistle" with a call and code known only to them.

James was baptized at an early age and given Christian nurturance where his mother once served as church pianist at the Corinthian Baptist Church of Frankfort.

A graduate of the Clinton Street and Mayo-Underwood Schools he remained in Frankfort. He worked as a great cook and retired as a laborer at the Schenley Distillery of Frankfort. He was once married to the late Ida Mae Stevenson which later ended in divorce.

Known for his culinary skills, James prided himself on his homemade rolls, jam cakes, ham casseroles, barbeque, relishes, and the like. Baseball was one of his passions. The Cincinnati Reds was his team. James loved to listen to his more than one radio scanners. He was an avid listener to talk radio programs.

James Calhoun was philanthropic not only toward his family, but to many in the community. He helped many who were about doing something positive and good. He offered his wisdom whether you wanted to hear it or not. One pearl of wisdom was "You always prepare for war in times of peace." His recall of life in the Black community of Frankfort is being included in a book soon to be published.

When James, who was affectionately called "Unc" by his nephew and nieces, became incapacitated they came to his aid, especially, Mary. Even when he was down he was still "Charles in charge" giving us orders and commands.

He leaves to mourn his loss and celebrate his life, his nephews and nieces, Rev. Dr. William C. Calhoun, Sr. of Baltimore, Maryland; Mr. Bernard P. Calhoun, and Mr. Kenneth B. Calhoun of Rantoul, Illinois; Mr. Steven T. Calhoun of Upper Michigan; Mr. Randolph D. Calhoun of Indianapolis, Indiana; Ms. Mary Calhoun-Maxwell, Ms. Gloria Jean Calhoun, and Mr. Thomas E. Calhoun of Frankfort, Kentucky; and Mr. Jerald V. Calhoun of Louisville, Kentucky; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Leila Mae Calhoun of Frankfort, Kentucky and Mrs. Edith Rose Evans Calhoun of Rantoul, Illinois; a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, close buddies, and friends.

Jefferson Calhoun, didn't have a formal education, but I learned a lot from him. He didn't have wealth, as most think of wealth, but in my sight he was abundantly rich. He was a man of character in many ways.

He could also be stubborn and persistent, but humble enough to apologize when necessary. He loved children and would take time with them.

Jeff had come to love God, his church family, and pastor. He often told me his testimony how he didn't have church on his mind and his friend got him started going to church. He said the Lord helped him realize there was nothing in drinking and living the way he was. He expressed the difference God made in his life and how much he enjoyed church.

He enjoyed gospel music and listening to the Male Chorus. He wore out two of their recording cassette tapes, many batteries and the neighbors. Because of hearing problems he played his music loud and sometime long, even if he had gone to sleep.

For the past two years he endured sickness and surgeries without complaint. He pressed his hands together in a prayerful manner and said "I trusted My Father". He amazed doctors and others with his independence, sharp mind and stamina, until the day God called him home.

I never dreamed over fifteen years ago when Jeff started renting from me, God would choose me to care for him later in life. He was enjoyable to care for and talk with.

Jeff, I don't know the beginning or the middle of your life. But in the end you have left a testimony for God. After 97 years in the land of the dying, your work is done, your story is told, your room is ready, your seat is secured, receive your reward and life everlasting, with your Heavenly Father. I and others who knew you, will miss you.

Obituary

"We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and be present with the Lord." —II Corinthians 5:8

On Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1986, at the Champaign County Nursing Center, the Lord called from labor to reward William T. Calhoun.

William Taylor Calhoun, son of the late James J. and Carolyn Taylor was born July 27, 1928, in Frankfort, Kentucky. He was educated in the public school there and graduated from the Mayo-Underwood School.

"Nonie" and "Smokie" as he was affectionately called, joined the United States Navy in 1945 and served honorably until 1951.

At an early age "Nonie" joined the Corinthian Baptist Church in Frankfort and enjoyed singing in the choir. Upon moving to Rantoul, Illinois, "Smokie" joined the New Light Baptist Church and was ordained a deacon in 1971 under Rev. Bush.

Throughout his life "Nonie" was employed as a dry cleaner. His joy was sharing his culinary talents providing many opportunities for all to share in his famous "Smokie's Bar-B-Que.

Among his numerous awards and citations were being made a Kentucky Colonel, appreciation plaques from the U.S. Navy and Men of the Marine Corps Administration Detachment of Chanute Air Force Base. He was past Vice-Commander and life member for AMVETS, 4th Division, and a member of the VFW Post 9235 in Frankfort.

As a community activist, he was involved thoroughly in the improvement of the quality of life in the Rantoul Township, serving on the Citizens Advisory Committee. His house was more than open to the many strangers and friends who crossed his door seal.

In 1964, he married the former Edith R. Evans.

His cherished memory lives on in his wife Edith; his five sons, William Carl, Bernard Phillip, Kenneth Blair, Steven Taylor, and Randolph David Calhoun; one daughter, Mechiko Calhoun; four brothers, James, George, Carl and Robert Eugene Calhoun; three grandsons, William C. Calhoun, Jr., Breck Calhoun, and Mark Dyer; one granddaughter, Carolyn Calhoun; three daughters-in-law; several nieces and nephews; cousins; other relatives; and a "world" of friends.

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand, I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith; henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

Psalm 100

*Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.
Serve the Lord with gladness;
come before his presence with singing.
Know ye that the Lord He is God:
it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
We are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.
Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise;
Be thankful unto Him, and bless His Name.
for the Lord is good, His mercy is everlasting;
and His truth endureth to all generations.*

A MEMORY AWAY

I'm no longer by your side,
But there is no need to weep,
I've left sweet recollections
I'm hoping you will keep.

Eternal joy and memories
Stay in our hearts forever,
Strengthening our special bond
That parting can not sever.

Now it's time to journey on,
So let your faith be strong,
For I am in a better place...
I'm home where I belong.

And if times of loneliness
Bring sorrow and dismay,
Don't despair, for I am there...

A place is vacant in our hearts
Which never can be filled*

Her Journey Just Begun

---

I Made It Home

I just wanted to let you all know that I made it home.
The Journey wasn't an easy one, but it didn't take long.
Everything is so pretty here, so white, so fresh and new.
I wish that you all could close your eyes and that you could see it too.

Please try not to be sad for me, try to understand God is Taking care of me...I'm in the shelter of His hands.

Here there is no sadness, no sorrow, and no pain.
Here there is no crying and I'll never hurt again.

Here it is so peaceful when all the angels sing.
I really have to go for now...
I've just got to try my wings.

---

I am now at peace forever,

And with Jesus' arm to lean on,

For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.*

*There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-

Her survivors include one brother, Henry Garner Jr.; three nieces, Mrs. John Davis Jr., Mrs. Hortense Craney, Mrs. Bertha Fleming; three nephews, Mr. Robert Garner, Mr. William Hume, Mr. George McReynolds; four Great-nieces,; one Great-nephew, and other relatives and friends.

Obituary

In Heaven there will be no parting, no pain, no care-worn brow, no sign, no silvery hair, no death to snatch our Loved one from our side. No angry waves, no sea, no treacherous tide.

On the morning of February 11, 1994 the angel of silence came into our midst and with chilly fingers sealed the lips of our loving father. His soul lingers its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain, to a place of eternal rest.

Ben Carter, Sr. was the son of the late Frank Snell and Leona Carter, who was born in Scott Co. 1934.

He confessed hope in Christ and was baptized at the Second Christian Church, Midway, Ky.

He was married to Joan B. Carter. He has four sons, Ben, Cloyd, Calvin and Charles Carter; three daughters, Doraleen Carter, Heather Carter and Patricia Carter (who preceded him in death); four brothers; four sisters; eight grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

In heaven there'll be no weary pilgrim band.

No seekers for a better fairer land.

For all who reach that blissful happy shore.

Will never cry, nor sigh nor wish for more.

Her education began in the public school of her home town and later extended to studies at Louisville Municipal College, Simmons Bible College and Bradley University.

Her marriage to the Rev. John H. Perry carried her to fields of Christian labor with him to Peoria, Illinois, where he pastored and where she was the founder/president of the City-Wide Missionary Union of that city.

Later, following Rev. Perry's passing, she was joined in holy matrimony to the Rev. Dr. Pleasant A. Carter who, at the time of his passing, was retired pastor of First Baptist Church, Danville, Ky. It was here that she served the longer tenure as an exemplary minister's wife serving dutifully-especially in the music and missionary departments, the idols of her heart.

Considering her leadership in the denominational work of the state:

From 1966 to 1975, Mrs. Carter served as president of Baptist Women's Missionary Convention of Kentucky, having influenced a rejuvenation in general and in its Young People's Department particularly. Subsequently, she was first vice president of Women's Auxiliary NBC, USA, Inc.

During this same period she was also president of South District Women's Auxiliary and her local church missionary society; music director of Baptist Women's Missionary Convention; first vice president and executive board chairman of Baptist State Music Convention.

She was always willing and available for using her talents of singing, playing, directing and public speaking, having served at Pilgrim Baptist Church, Griffytown, Elim, Louisville, and her home church.

Mrs. Carter was blessed with the privilege of having travelled abroad into 3 continents (10 countries) including Beirut, Lebanon, to attend the 1963 Baptist World Youth Conference.

Her last days were spent in the care of a faithful, devoted sister-Edna Clark, recently of Atlanta, Georgia. Other survivors include Eleanor Roberts, Evanston, sister-in-law; nieces, cousins, nephews; a close like-a-daughter friend, Martha Norton Calvin, Indianapolis. She was a branch of the John Fisher Family from whose root were many.

Peace be to her ashes.

Obituary

Mary F. Carter was born July 29, 1930 to the late Ruth Curtis Davenport and the late Napoleon (Buddy) Graves in Thomasville, North Carolina. At an early age, Ruth and Mary moved to Cincinnati, Ohio.

She met and married Albert Carter in 1967, who preceded her in death. They shared a wonderful life and marriage in their cozy home in Kennedy Heights until his death.

Mary attended Cincinnati Public Schools and graduated from Woodward High School. She continued her education and received her license to practice nursing as a LPN from Stowe School.

At an early age, she became a member of New Prospect Baptist Church. She was a member of several choirs and choruses, served as a musician for the Pastor's Chorus and assistant musician for the Mass Choir. She was a member of the Willing Workers Club and took great pride in planning many church activities, including the Sunday School picnics. In addition, her spiritual journey led her to become an associate member of Gaines United Methodist Church under the pastorate of Reverend Warren Hill, who faithfully fulfilled her spiritual needs throughout her illness.

Mary was a member of many clubs and organizations. As a 40 year member of St. John Chapter No. 25, O.E.S. - PHA, Inc., she was a legacy of love and served as Worthy Matron and Grand Deputy of the 6th District.

As a member of Les Angeliques Lily of the Valley Federated Club and Kennedy Heights Seniors, she expressed her many talents as a fashion show coordinator/commentator and event planner. Two of her best productions were the Oprah Show and Showtime at the Apollo. Her dedication and participation in these organizations has led to much life long friendships.

Just as she committed herself to church and social organizations, she committed herself to the nursing profession as well as providing loving care to her patients through private duty nursing until 2006. Her career included years of service at the Shriner's Hospital, Hamilton County Juvenile Court Youth Center, and Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center from where she retired.

A naturally sophisticated woman with a vibrant personality and a smile that warms your heart in an instant. Mary was a multi-faceted lady with striking style and class. She loved life and lived it to the fullest.

She leaves to cherish her memory: stepsons, Ronald L. Current of Utah and Mel Carter of California; brother, Dallas Hill of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She will be lovingly remembered by a special aunt, Mary Lou Cook of Columbus, Ohio; loving aunts and uncles, Lelia Heard of Cincinnati, Ohio, Mattie Christopher, Louise Livsey, Georgia Bell Richie, Mildred (Ruben) Peaks, Willie Louis (Toot) Heard, Ernest Dean of Cartersville, Georgia and Donald (Alma Ruth) Heard of Rockmart, Georgia. She will lovingly be remembered by sister-cousins, Curtice Johnson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Ann Willis of Columbus, Ohio; special cousin, Charles Cook of Columbus, Ohio; and a host of beloved cousins, relatives and friends.

"I Love You More"

Life is for living and I certainly enjoyed mine, but I was ready when God called me home. No more pain or confusion, now I can hear the angels singing. Continue to love, laugh and live. Sure everyone will miss me and hates to see me go, and I know you all love me; but "I love you more."

OBITUARY

REV. PLEASANT ANTHONY CARTER
1891 - 1977

Pleasant Anthony Carter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carter in Guthrie, Kentucky. He was the eldest of four children born to this union. At an early age, he moved to Louisville, Kentucky where he received his basic education.

As a youth, he confessed Christ and furthered his religious education at Simmons University, Louisville. He united with Centennial Baptist Church there. He was an ardent worker in the church.

He began his pastorate in Eminence, Kentucky where he served for several years before being called to Corinthian Baptist Church, Frankfort, Kentucky. He served at Corinthian Baptist for three years.

In 1933, he was called to First Baptist Church, Danville, Kentucky. He labored there for 40 years or more. He came to Danville as a young man in the ministry. He had the vim, vision and vitality to carry on a progressive program and the forethought to contribute much to Christian growth and development.

Following are some of his achievements while in Danville. He cleared the church of indebtedness; had a steady growth in membership; sponsored a Boy Scout movement in the Church; reorganized the Young Woman's Club and named it the Young Woman's Progressive Club. He reorganized the Young Peoples' Department of the Church and the Ushers Board in 1956. Rev. Carter remodeled the old parsonage and later built a new one. During his pastorate, the church burned. As a result, the present church was built during his administration.

Rev. Carter was known as the Dean of Pastors in the city of Danville. He was president of the Baptist State Congress, currently called The Unified Christian Leadership Conference for a number of years. He was one of the State's Leading Revivalist and was prominently connected with Simmons University of Louisville.

He retired in the year of 1972 as pastor of First Baptist Church, Danville. At his death, he was making his home in the New Corinthian Baptist Church Parsonage at Frankfort. He attended the New Corinthian Baptist Church faithfully. His favorite song was "I Am A Child of The King".

Rev. Carter is survived by his devoted wife, Mrs. Georgia B. Carter; two sisters, Mrs. Bea Carter Harris, Frankfort and Mrs. Eva Carter Gaddie, Dayton, Ohio. He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his passing.

*Sunset and evening stars and one clear call for me
And may there be no mourning at the bar when I put out to sea.
Be still sad hearts and cease repining,
Behind the clouds the sun still shining.
Thy fall is the common fate of all
Into each life some rain must fall,
Some days must be dark and dreary.*

Obituary

In Heaven there will be no parting, no pain, no care-worn brow, no sign, no silvery hair, no death to snatch our Loved one from our side. No angry waves, no sea, no treacherous tide.

On the morning of February 11, 1994 the angel of silence came into our midst and with chilly fingers sealed the lips of our loving father. His soul lingers its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain, to a place of eternal rest.

Ben Carter, Sr. was the son of the late Frank Snell and Leona Carter, who was born in Scott Co. 1934.

He confessed hope in Christ and was baptized at the Second Christian Church, Midway, Ky.

He was married to Joan B. Carter. He has four sons, Ben, Cloyd, Calvin and Charles Carter; three daughters, Doraleen Carter, Heather Carter and Patricia Carter (who preceded him in death); four brothers; four sisters; eight grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

In heaven there'll be no weary pilgrim band.

No seekers for a better fairer land.

For all who reach that blissful happy shore.

Will never cry, nor sigh nor wish for more.

UPWARD FLIGHT

Have you stayed beside a loved one till you knew his soul was free?
Did you feel his swift soul pass you
Hear, in part, the mystery.

Did you feel the glad exulting
Of the one now freed from pain,
Sense his high anticipation
As he rose with life again?

If you did, God gave a blessing
Age nor toil can take away,
a revealing of life's wonder.
Foretaste of a brighter day.

Now I know a few words, whispered,
As a dear one leaves Earth's path,
Give true visions to assure us
And tell of that great aftermath.

For, to me, deaths sting was lessened
And its victory was proved slight,
Because I heard and felt the gladness
Of a soul on upward flight.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MOTHER'S CHRISTMAS

Mother's spending her Christmas in Heaven this year,
No presents for her under our tree.
But the season's not the same anymore,
For Mother's not with us you see.

But we wouldn't want to call her back.
Even if that could be so,
For this old world's such a shabby place
To the one where she's gone, you know.

We have wars, and troubles, and darkness of days,
Just like she knew before.
And it just isn't fair to want her back.
To go through it all once more.

So, angels who sang on Judea's hills,
On the night when our Saviour was born,
Tell her we miss her on every hand,
Espically on Christmas morn.

Tell her her memory in our hearts still shines
As a beacon to lead us on,
And her children all hope to come someday
To that place where Mama's gone.

Yes Mother's spending Christmas in Heaven this year
With saint and angels and seraphims,
Resting from all she suffered here,
At the feet of the Babe in Bethlehem.

His Journey Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away, his journey's just begun,
Life hold so many facet, this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting, from the sorrows and the tears,
In a place of warmth and comfort,
Where there are no days or years

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today ,
How nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.
And think of him as living, in the hearts of those he touched,

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long -
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me - but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan -
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.

HEAVEN IS YOUR HOME

Heaven is your home.

Your old life has ended and your new life begun. You are starting life over with the Father and the Son. A life filled with Love and Peace through each eternal day.

Heaven is your home with streets of gold and many mansions, we've been told. Heaven is your home with twelve gates made of precious stones, the only way to enter this place we all hope to someday call home.

Heaven is your home.

When you knock and the Father says enter. You know you've already been forgiven for each and every sin because it is only through the Father you can come in.

Heaven is your home. I can almost see Big Jim smiling, and Momma Mary standing beside him with her wide grin and Freddy. John, Ophelia and Sonny standing next to them waiting with open arms to welcome me in, and of course my sweet, sweet, Jessie promising that I will never be lonely again.

Heaven is your home.

You know that all your work here on earth is done and you have nothing else to give. You've gone on home to that beautiful city called Heaven where God the Father lives.

Don't Cry

Don't cry for me because It's not the thing to do.
Be happy for me, I've had lots of time with you.
In this Life I've had eighty-eight years to roam.
Now God has called me home.
Try not to be sad, try not to be blue,
Because I love and will miss all of you.
And though my current life has come to an end,
My eternal life will now begin.
To my friends and family, I'll like to say
When you look to heaven, just think of me and pray.
For in this time of sorrow, there must be jubilation
Because I'm going home and that's truly a celebration.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: For thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

"You Fought A Good Fight!"

You came into our lives, and what a blessing you were;
You were friendly, funny and a pleasure to be around; we would all concur;
You met and fell in love with Patricia, and you both completed each other;
You were a welcome addition to our family, and we loved you like a brother.

You were proud of your son, Craig, Jr., your granddaughter, Corie, and your grandson, Tae, too;
You were a rock, and you were dependable and faithful to your family too;
All of your loved ones will miss you for all you have been to us;
Whether through love, encouragement, word, or deed, you have always been there for us.

You were a true-blue Wildcat, but you never let our rivalry come between us;
You were always ready and willing to come together, and the teams and the scores we would discuss;
You loved to fish, and you were a handyman above most;
Your excellent work spoke for itself; you had no reason to brag or to boast.

You were an usher at First Corinthian, and you fulfilled that post graciously;
You were dedicated and faithful as any servant would be;
Although your health didn't allow you to continue that work;
Your heart and your spirit were there, and God knew this task you didn't shirk.

You persevered through many things; and yes, you were the victor;
You never gave up, and you never quit; and you tried to live life as before;
You fought a good fight; you held on till the end;
You ran your course with joy; and yes, you did win!

Softly and tenderly He holds me in His arms, I have not a care in the world because I am in His arms. His angels encamp around me as they sing the songs of Zion, I gently open my eyes and stare just above the horizon. The valley is so dark and cold, my body is chilled but not my soul.

I can see the light and He is telling me to get on board. Then He told me, "Miss Mildred it's time to put down your sword. No need to fight anymore battles, the war has been won. I have sent down my best warrior, Jesus Christ my Son."

The Lord blessed me this day to be one year older. My body is tired, but I'm ready to cross over. I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from His love. He has prepared a place for me, a heavenly home up above.

Ethel was born in Danville, Kentucky, May 31, 1933 to the proud parents of Russell and Pearline (Groves) Christie. Ethel was the youngest girl out of nine children: brothers, William (Virginia), June (June), John (deceased), Robert (deceased) and sisters, Rose McCormick, Louise Bright, Daisy Belamy (Jesse) and Norell Christie (deceased).

In Danville, Ethel was very active in high school. Ethel was a graduate of the Bate High School Class of 1952. Her classmates nicknamed her "Bunnie". I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. —St. John 11:25-26

*There comes a time for all of us when we must say goodbye.
But memories of those we love
live on and never die.*

*Although the curtain falls at last,
is that a cause to grieve?
The future life is brighter still if only we believe.*

*So trust in God's eternal care,
and when the Master calls,
We'll know a fairer world's beyond,
although the curtain falls.*

—Acknowledgement—

The family of Ethel would like to express their deepest appreciation for the prayers and kindness that has been displayed on behalf of their mother and sister.

A special thank you to a special friend, Ms. Minnie Martell on behalf of Ethel and family. Your many tireless hours and constant companionship and support to the family during Ethel's weakest moments will always be remembered.

When we look at the beautiful flowers, read the thoughtful cards, and hear so many comforting words, it cheers our hearts to know you thought well of our loved one. Your loving concern has permanently instilled the smile and constant laughter we all knew of Ethel. Again, thank you for helping us see the brightness at this seemingly dark time of our lives.

“Class Poem 1952”

by Ethel Christie

So now we stand upon the windswept deck
and turn young faces toward the sunset in the West,
The hour has almost struck. All that was best in these four golden years we clasp and keep;
No storm shall take these from us,
of strange adventure lies ahead.
Though the danger sweep
we feel no breath of fear — instead
We sense the hands, the touch of those who went before—these gentle pilots guide us from the safe, familiar shore.
They, too, once faded a course uncharted in the stars for ports unknown. Like them, we set our wavering sails to catch whatever winds may blow.
Life changes and the tide goes out—
'twas ever so—

The heavy anchor is aweigh,
and though the clouds that mist the shore
We hear the murmur of another throng—
you, whom we leave behind and mariners still to come;
Your heartbeats echo like a muffled drum.
A shout goes up...“Godspeed and bless you,”
'Tis a benediction and a charm against the tempest and the wild world's harm.
See! The lights upon the land grow dim;
they fade from sight and our eyes, questing through the haze,
now seek a far and strange horizon's rim.

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me — let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tune yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many wonderful years.
I gave to you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love, soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with open arms and say,
"Welcome Home."

A Tribute to Our Mother

*We sat beside your bed,
and watched you everyday.
We held your hand, and walked with you every step of the way.
We knew you were in a lot of pain,
but yet, you pretended not to be.
For your main concern was still with your family.
Sleep well Mother Dear, for you have earned your rest.
For you have given us many years of happiness.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not say another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at His close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, those things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I favored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your head and share with me,
For God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Virginia Clarine Christie was born October 23, 1923 in Boyle County, Kentucky. Her parents were the late Howard Clark, Sr. and Annie Yocum Clark. She was the second oldest child of four sisters, all whom preceded her in death, and two step brothers. She departed this life on Monday, December 31, 2001, after a long battle against congestive heart failure and diabetes.

Virginia was educated at the Dr. John W. Bates School in Danville, Kentucky. She was raised a member of St. Anthony's Catholic Church. She was united in Holy Matrimony to William Ralph Christie on May 2, 1953. Virginia had two sons, one preceded her in death.

William and Virginia moved to Cincinnati, Ohio in 1958 and joined the Zion Baptist Church, and later moved their membership to First Baptist Church of West College Hill. She served her church for many years as a member of the Senior Choir, Nurses Guild, and Kitchen Committee, and served in any capacity where she was needed until her health began to fail. Her joy was baking cakes and pies to be enjoyed by many members and friends of the church. She was a lady of leisure. She loved to shop and travel. Knowing this, her son would always take his parents on his many out of town trips, which she loved and enjoyed.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving and devoted husband, William; a dedicated son, Gary (Sherri); two step-brothers, Howard Clark, Jr. (Marthetta) of Danville, Kentucky and John Manuel Clark of Sandusky, Ohio; a sister-in-law, Daisy Bellamy of Louisville, Kentucky; a brother-in-law, June (June) Christy of Danville, Kentucky; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and numerous loving friends.
