OBITUARY

Catherine B. Dailey was born in Danville, Kentucky on June 30, 1907. She was the third daughter to Charles and Della Beard.

She departed this life on Wednesday, June 1, 1983 at her home in Frankfort, Kentucky.

At an early age she became a member of First Baptist Church, Danville, Kentucky. She continued steadfast in her faith and later became a member of First Baptist Church, Frankfort, Kentucky.

Catherine Dailey received her diploma from Bate High School in 1926 and continued her education at Simmons University in Louisville, Kentucky. She earned her B.S. degree in 1930 at Wilberforce University, Wilberforce, Ohio. She was a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Mrs. Dailey remained in public service throughout her life working in public schools, Kentucky State University and many years in the State Government.

In 1937 she united with Theodore Dailey who preceded her in death.

Survivors include one sister, Mamie Beard Taylor, Danville, Ky.; a son, Theodore Dailey, Jr., Chicago, Illinois; two grandsons and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Death is but a stepping stone
To that eternal life
In which there's no unhappiness
No suffering or strife
And so your loved one is at peace
And lives on in a place
Where there is light and gladness
And we see God face to face.*

Obituary

Mary Katherine Daniels went home to God Sunday, October 10, 2010. She was born October 19, 1921, to the late James and Alice Washington Daniels.

In her early years, she joined Greenhill Baptist Church and later First Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents and loving son William "Billy" Scott Walker.

She leaves to mourn in her passing two sons, Lewis Edward "Jock" (Sharlene) Graham and Charles Henry Barnett; three daughters, Annie Katherine Walker, Alice (Mark) Watson, and Donna (Richard) Taylor; twenty Grandchildren, fifteen Great Grandchildren and six Great-Great Grandchildren.

May her warm and gentle smile be forever in our hearts.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are past.
The ever-patient worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anoint my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

POEM OF LIFE

*Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys, different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay...*

*Our destination is a place, far greater than we know.
For some the journeys quicker, for some the journeys slow.
And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace, together with the lord.*

~ A Celebration of Life ~

On Saturday, May 18th at 2:00am, Charles Lincoln Daugherty, age 48, was called to rest. He was sleeping at home and after battling cancer for almost two and a half years there was sweet peace for God's valiant soldier.

He was born October 23rd, 1964 in Danville, KY. He was the son of James and the late Shirley Daugherty. He was spoiled by his mother and his four sisters and by a host of others. He was much loved.

Charles Daugherty was perfect for the calling that God placed on his life as a Minister of the Gospel.

First and foremost he loved the Lord. He never met a stranger and always shared Christ wherever he went. He was bursting with life and energy. He had the desire to serve.

He announced his call to preach under Pastor Keith Mayes in 2002 at St. James A.M.E. Church in Danville, KY.

He accepted his charge and preached his initial sermon under Pastor Jeremiah Wilson on November 17th, 2002 at St. James. He made his mama so very proud. While in the Methodist denomination, Charles pastored two churches in the Monticello area.

Charles was ordained September 25th, 2005 in Springfield, KY at New Beginnings Community Church by the late Pastor George Hourigan.

God had given him a vision of starting a nondenominational and multiracial church and he stepped out in faith with his wife and assistant pastor, Andrea, family members and a few other supporters. With only a handful of worshippers, Rejoice Temple of Praise was established.

God continued to bless and Pastor Daugherty led the church from a small storage building in Harrodsburg to an office suite in Danville, to a beautiful church building that is located in the Moreland area.

On March 24th of this year Pastor Charles Daugherty was ordained as Bishop of Rejoice Temple of Praise by Bishop Cornelius and Pastor Maggie Anna Duncan of Jesus Christ Chapel in Monticello.

We miss our Bishop so much already but we know we will all rejoice and praise our Savior together on the other side.

He is survived by his wife, Rev. Andrea Daugherty; his father, James (Flora) Daugherty, all of Danville, KY; his children, Kiami Daugherty, Los Angeles, CA, McKenzie Stearman, Stanford, KY, Christina Coffman, Burgin, KY, Charles and Dexter Daugherty, Cincinnati OH, Dakota Daugherty, Lexington, KY and Jalen Daugherty, Danville, KY; step-children, Diane (Donte') Green, Jackson, Al, and Melvin Faulkner, Jr., Danville, KY; four sisters, Sherry (T.C) Hamilton, Margo (David) Caldwell, Melina Bailey and Mary Daugherty, all of Danville, KY; one brother, Edward (LaShun) Johnson, Frankfort, KY; seven grandchildren; several aunts, uncles, father and mother-in-law, Andy and Charlotte Harris, Harrodsburg, KY; brother-in-laws and sister-in-laws; host of cousins, members of Rejoice Temple of Praise and friends.

I Don't Know What I'll Do Without You

To Everett

For keeping my spirits up.
For never letting me down.
For being here for me.
For knowing I'm there for you.

For bringing so many smiles my way
For being sensitive to my needs.
For knowing just what to say.
For listening better than anyone else.

For bringing me laughter.
For bringing, me light.
For understanding so much about me.
For trusting, me wit so much about you.

For being the best
For being so wonderful.

I don't know what I'll do

POEM

My Guardian Angel

Dear Angel ever at my side how lovely you must be -
To leave your home in heaven,
to guard a child like me.
When I'm far away from home,
or maybe hard at play -
I know you will protect me,
from harm along the way.
Your beautiful and shining face,
I see not, though you're near.
The sweetness of your lovely voice,
I cannot really hear.
When I pray, you're praying too,
Your prayer is just for me.
But, when I sleep you never do,
You're watching over me.

PSALM 91:11-12

BIOGRAPHY

She was born Etta Thompson on July 16, 1918, to her loving parents, Charlie Thompson and Mary Bracken Thompson. They resided in Riley, Kentucky.

In 1938, Etta married John Henry Bell. In this union, two girls and three boys were born. Etta's first grandchild looked upon her as a mother, not just a grandmother. He gave her the name "Big Mama", and she has been "Big Mama" to everyone ever since.

After the dissolution of the marriage to John, Etta later found happiness in 1961 when she married Frank Daugherty. In this union, one daughter was born.

Etta, along with her children, were long time members of Green Street Baptist Church. Etta was a loving spouse, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. She will always be remembered as our...

SCRIPTURE PASSAGE

I THESSALENIANS 4:13-18

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

For if we believe that Je'sus died and Rose again, even so them also which sleep in Je'sus will God bring with him.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway
and thoughts a memory lane,
I'd walk right up to heaven
and bring you home again.
No Farewell words were spoken,
No time to say good-bye.
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knows why.

My heart's still active in sadness,
And secret tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you-
No one can ever know.
But now I know you want us
To mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times

Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today,
A hallowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay.

God knows why, with chilling touch,
Death gathers those we love so much,
And what now seems so strange and dim,
Will all be clear, when we meet Him.
I knew you for a Moment

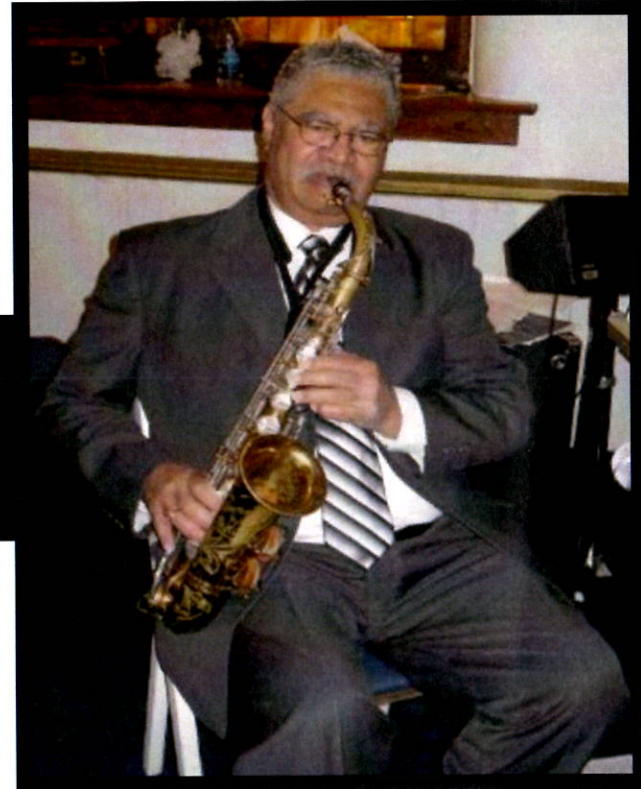

Acknowledgement

Today in our loss, our hurt and our pain, we recognize our gains in you, our friends, and loved one's for flowers, your whispered prayers and every kind deed have been a source of strength and comfort. You have relieved much suffering and your kind expression of sympathy and concern. We thank Rev. Smith and St. James Family, Rev. Jenkins, our church families and friends. James Maurice Daugherty

NOVEMBER 6, 1939 – AUGUST 10, 2018

James Maurice Daugherty, son of the late Charles L. Daugherty and Anna Mae McCowan, was born November 6, 1939 in Danville, Kentucky. He departed this life Friday, August 10, 2018 at 6:15 a.m. at his home, surrounded by his family.

He graduated from Bate High School in Danville, Kentucky and was a United States Navy Veteran.

James was married to the late Shirley Daugherty for 47 years and to this union they were blessed with six children.

He was a devoted member of St. James A.M.E., where he has served on the Steward Board, Choir Director, attended Sunday School and Bible Study. James was a gifted saxophonist using his gift to lift up the name of Jesus.

James was a Licensed Funeral Director and was the manager of Smith-Jackson Funeral Home after the passing of his best friend Michael Smith in 2017. James was devoted to the families and community he served for over 40 years. Leaving his supper and family many times to meet the needs of the families he served, he was truly on call 24/7. He was a member of Kentucky Association of Morticians. He was an avid University of Kentucky sports fan.

In 2004 James was united in Holy Matrimony to Flora Taylor Coulter. A man's life is defined, to a great extent by his values and his passion. A great man who was a loving husband, awesome dad, easy-going grandfather/great grandfather, a great provider and family man.

Those called home before him, in addition to his parents and wife, sons, James M. Daugherty, Jr, Charles L. Daugherty and Ralph Coulter, Jr.; grandson Marico Bailey; sister, June Y. Christy; brothers, Everett Daugherty, Randall Daugherty and Charles C. Daugherty.

Cherishing his precious memories, his wife Flora Daugherty; his children, Sherry Daugherty, Margo (David) Caldwell, Melina Bailey, Mary Daugherty, Eddie Johnson, Danita Coulter and Pamela Coulter; daughter-in-law Andrea Daugherty; brother-in-law June T. Christy; one uncle Matthew (Ima Jean) McCowan; twenty-five grandchildren and great grandchildren; host of nieces, nephews, cousins, Smith-Jackson Family and friends.

Eternal Light

Those we love must someday pass, beyond our present sight..... Must leave us and the world we know without their radiant light. But we know that like a candle their lovely light will surely shine to brighten up another place more perfect....more divine and in the realm of Heaven where they shine so warm and bright. Our loved ones live forevermore in God's eternal light.

God's Heavenly Home

*God needed an Angel to watch over his throne.
So he called her so gently
dear Shirley come home.
He knew she was special,
only choosing the best
To come to his kingdom
for that heavenly rest.
Dear Lord we will miss her
But we don't question why
For we know she has joined you
In your home in the sky.*

WHEN WORDS BEGIN TO FAIL YOU

When words begin to fail you,
A simple hug will do
To lighten someone's burden
And give them hope anew.
Heartaches of ten leave us speechless
With nothing wise to say.
Just "being there" speaks volumes
And friends can save the day.
We can cry with those in mourning
And hold each other tight,
For joy comes in the morning
If we make it thru the night.
Tears shared are not as bitter
As teardrops, cried alone,
For friendship's soil is fertile
For seeds of kindness sown.
Love can expedite a healing,
And faith can light the way...
When words begin to fail you,
God taught us how to Pray!

FAMILY OBITUARY

Clarence Davis, the second child born to the union of Hester Sleet Davis, and Lloyd Davis, was born in Perryville, Boyle County, on June 10, 1910.

He attended the Elementary school in Perryville under the tutorage of Prof. Louis Carpenter. He worked for sometime in Perryville at a poultry house owned by William Laws. His industrious bent made him willing worker at whatever task his hands found to do.

While still a young man he moved to Danville where, he worked for Otis Bohanan's Tire and Recapping Company. For the last ten years he had been employed at Kentucky State Hospital.

Clarence had a quiet and admirable disposition which enabled him to make and keep friends very easily. He was a thoughtful and faithful son, one who helped to provide every need for his mother.

While still a young man he professed a hope in Christ and was baptized into the fellowship of First Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. T. S. Goodloe.

He remained a loyal member.

He was married to Emma Jane Clark who preceded him in death.

For the last few years he has been under the care of the doctor, but was never willing to give up completely.

He was stricken with his final illness two weeks ago and was rushed to Ephraim McDowell Hospital from where he passed to his final reward on Thursday morning.

He leaves to mourn his passing his mother, Mrs. Hester Davis, one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wolford, three brothers, Theodore, Wm. (Bunny), and Eddie Lee, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me
And may there mourning of the bar
When I put out to sea
Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I put out to sea
—Peace To His Ashes

Suddenly on Dec. 15, 2008, of Haddon Heights, NJ. Age 46 years.

Beloved husband of Donna. Dear father of Teddy, Chloe and Evie. Loving son of Donald L. and Johelen Davis, Sr. of Fairfax Station, VA. He is also survived by his sister Tamara Davis and paternal grandmother, Mayme Davis.

Don attended Penn State University, State College, PA and loved coaching his children in soccer and softball. He had an avid following as a fitness instructor at Royal Fitness, Barrington, NJ and the Aquatic and Fitness Center of Cherry Hill. Don was also a faithful parishioner of St. Rose of Lima Church, Haddon Heights, NJ including being a Sunday School teacher, Vacation Bible School teacher, Eucharistic Minister and being involved with Pre-Cana and Baptism preparation.

Relative and friends are invited to attend his viewing Thursday Evening 6:00 to 8:00 Pm and Friday 9:30 AM to 10:30 AM at the FOSTER-WARNE FUNERAL HOME, 250 White Horse Pike, Audubon, NJ. When somebody dies, a cloud turns into an angel and flies up to tell God to put another flower on a pillow.

A bird gives the message back to the world, and sings a silent prayer that makes the rain cry.

People disappear, but they never really go away. The spirits up there put the sun to bed, wake up grass, and spin the earth in dizzy circles.

Sometimes you can see them dancing in a cloud during the daytime, when they're supposed to be sleeping.

They toss shooting stars and listen to wishes.

And when they sing wind-songs, they whisper to us. "Don't miss me too much.
 The view is nice and I'm doing just fine."

Benford of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Jo Ann Phillips of Elizabethtown, Ky.; Miss Carole Bowman and Miss Joy Bowman of Los Angeles, California; Miss Dina Lewis and Miss Leta Lewis of Baltimore, Maryland, and a host of other relatives and friends .

Mother Davis was saved and sanctified at the age of nine years old. In later years she was baptized with the Holy Ghost - serving faithfully at the Church of God, West Green Street, Danville, Ky for 53 years. Forever rejoicing in the Lord through hardships and the fiery dart of Satan. Mother feared nor faltered but pressed onward and upward saying: The Lord will make a way and take care of me. Mother was annointed by God to stand up in the church during meetings where ever she was day or night until God called her home, and said well done - good, true and faithful soldier. Enter into the joys of the Lord. You shall wear a crown. The battle is won. Greatly missed. Gone but not forgotten.

*As a servant for the Lord
As a soldier, she did fight
Standing tall, white and all in churches day and night.
Such a vision of lovliness
This angel - clean and pure
At an early age she took her vow and said, "I shall endure."
The kingdom is yours to inherit
The glory yours to behold
We love you Mother - but God love you best
In his arms may you tenderly fold.*

OBITUARY

Hester Sleet Davis, the daughter of Bell and George Sleet was born in Perryville, Kentucky on March 24, 1884.

At an early age, she professed a hope in Christ and was baptized into the Fellowship of the First Baptist Church of Perryville where she remained a loyal and faithful member until faced by illness which curtailed her activities.

In 1902 she was married to Lloyd Davis, Sr., and to this union seven children were born, five of which preceded her in death.

As a wife she remained loyal and devoted until this union was severed by death forty-two years ago.

As a mother, Hester had the love, devotion and respect of her children, which was exemplified in the care they took of her when their father departed this life.

When affliction laid hold on her, no expense was ever spared for anything that would give her even the slightest comfort.

Hester possessed a very kind and jovial personality that endeared her to all who were privileged to know her.

As a favorite relative she was unexcelled in her anxiety to extend a hand of welcome and to render service to all who visited her home after moving to Danville, Kentucky.

On the morning of October 6 at 12:30 A.M., the Angel of Silence came into the Central Baptist Hospital, Lexington, Kentucky and sealed the life of Hester, our beloved Mother. Her soul winged its flight from this world of sin, sorrow, and pain to a place of eternal rest at the age of ninety - seven years, six months, and twelve days.

She will be greatly missed by her son "Bunny" Davis and daughter, Elizabeth Wolford, who extended themselves to make her final illness as comfortable as humanly possible, two daughters-in-law who assisted in providing for her comfort, three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Rachael Hopkins, Hopkinsville, Kentucky, Mrs. Estella Price and Mrs. Edith Davis, Louisville, Kentucky, one brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Davis, Louisville, Kentucky, three nieces, Mrs. Mary Bolar, Mrs. Bertha Brown, Lexington, Kentucky, and Mrs. Lillie Bottoms, Perryville, Kentucky, whom she reared as a daughter with much love and devotion when her mother departed this life, ten Grandchildren, thirty-seven Great Grandchildren, five Great Great Grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

*A loved one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our heart
That never can be filled.*

OBITUARY

Mr. John Henry Davis, Jr., was born March 11, 1923, in Danville, to the late John Sr. and Florence C. Davis. He departed this life on September 29, 1993, at Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Lexington, after an illness.

He was an officer of the Danville Police Department for more than 15 years where he retired as a Corporal. Proud and serious about his chosen profession, he worked tirelessly to help anyone in need. He was also a member of the local chapter of the NAACP. He was preceded in death by three sisters, Mrs. Lillian Perry, Mrs. Eva Backus, and Miss Lena Weather.

In 1959, he was united in marriage to Minnie Duncan Davis, where he was a faithful and devoted husband and a kind and loving father and grandfather.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Minnie Davis; two daughters, Mrs. Eva Gooch and Miss Lucinda Davis, both of Danville; one sister, Mrs. Ophelia Lewis of Elizabethtown, KY; one aunt, Mrs. Mary Frances Woods of Danville; three grandchildren, Catherine (Vicki) Gooch, Cynara T. Davis, and Kaleb S. Davis, all of Danville; one son-in-law, Tommy Gooch; two brothers-in-law, Richard Spalding and Robert Duncan, both of Cincinnati, OH; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

God hath not promised

God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.
But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

2

God hath not promised we shall not know
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe;
He hath not told us we shall not bear
Many a burden, many a care.

3

God hath not promised smooth roads and wide,
Swift, easy travel, needing no guide;
Never a mountain, rocky and steep,
Never a river, turbid and deep.

Gone From Us

Gone from us his smiling face, the cheerful pleasant ways, the heart that won so many friends, in bygone, happy days. A life made beautiful by kindly deeds, a helping hand for others needs. To a beautiful life comes a happy end, he died as he lived, everyone's friend.

MEMORIES

*We do not need a special day to bring you to our minds.
The days we do not think of you are very hard to find.
Each morning when we awake we know that you are gone.
And no one knows the heartache as we try to carry on.
Our hearts still ache with sadness and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you no one will ever know.
Our thoughts are always with you, your place no one can fill.
In life we loved you dearly; in death we love you still.*

*There will always to be a heartache, and often a silent tear.
But always a precious memory of the days when you were here.
If tears would make a staircase, and heartaches make a lane,
We'd walk the path to heaven and bring you home again.
We hold you close within our hearts; and there you will remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives until we meet again.
Our family chain is broken now, and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*

THE OBITUARY

John Walter Davis, better known as "J.J.", was called to his eternal rest on Monday, March 28, 2005 at 9:00 PM at the Harrodsburg Health Care. He had been a resident there since March 2004, when it became necessary for him to receive additional healthcare.

He was born on April 24, 1910 in Perryville, KY to Mr. & Mrs. Jeff Davis. His parents & siblings all preceded him in death.

"J.J." was a farmer in the area until he joined the United States Army in 1941. He stayed in the Army five years. He served during the bombing of Pearl Harbor and spent much time in New Guinea as a Maintenance Specialist. He was presented three Bronze Stars to recognize his military accomplishments.

"J.J." professed his hope in Christ in 1928 under the leadership of Rev. Sanford G. Redd. He was a supporter of his church at all times. His testimony was best stated when he was spotlighted in the Harrodsburg Health Care's Newsletter. He stated, "I've been here long enough to know that if you trust in the Lord, you can do anything."

He leaves to cherish his memories, two neighbors that were his friends and caregivers, Mattie & Sammy Johnson and a multitude of friends.

Proverbs 3:5-6 (KJV)

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

~ Her Life Story ~

Lillian Beasley Davis, was called to her eternal home on Monday, June 7th, 2010 at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville, Kentucky.

She was born on December 10, 1920 to the late Robert and Eliza Ann Letcher Beasley. She is preceded in death by her husband William "Bunny" Davis, one sister, Louella Carpenter, one brother, Henry Ray Beasley and two nieces Frances Carpenter Ford and Elvena Lewis.

She was a devoted wife, supporting her late husband in his political career. She retired from Hub Frankel after many years of service, working as an elevator operator and was promoted to a sale clerk. She enjoyed meeting the customers and assistant them in their choices of clothing.

She is survived by one godson, John T. Davis, Sr., Danville, KY; three goddaughters, Jeanene Ford, Danville, KY; Delores and Ella Davis, Grand Rapids, MI; two great-nieces, Sharron and LueJenia Ford, Ohio; several grandchildren and great grandchildren; sister-in-law Mamie Davis, Danville, KY; two special friends, Amelia Burton and Jerri Bryant; other relatives and friends.

Poem of Life

Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be, a resting place along the road, To sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, But never meant to stay....

Our destination is a place, far greater than we know. For some the journey's quicker, for some the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward, And find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

MY JOURNEY HAS NOT BEEN IN VAIN

OUR LOVED ONE, WILLIAM "BUNNY" DAVIS, CAN TAKE HIS PLACE WITH OTHER MEN AND WOMEN IN OUR HISTORY OF VALOR AND STRENGTH.

BUNNY, A NICKNAME GIVEN TO HIM FOR HIS SPEED IN SPORTS, HELD A SPIRIT OF RESPONSIBILITY THAT MADE HIM A PRESENCE OF INSPIRATION THROUGH HIS LIFE'S LENGTH.

HIS JOURNEY BLESSED HIM TO BE A BLAZING PIONEER IN THE RIGHTS OF THOSE SUPPRESSED.

HE TOOK HIS POSITION AT THE DOOR OF THE LEGISLATURE WHERE HE STOOD GREETING ALL UNTIL ALL HAD THEIR SAY AND THE MEETINGS WERE RECESSED.

HIS PRESENCE ALONE ACTED AS A FORCE TO INFLUENCE REGULATIONS AND LEGISLATIONS THAT IMPACTED THE LIVES OF HIS LOVED ONES AND MULTITUDES OF OTHERS HE DID NOT KNOW.

HIS ACCOMPLISHED BUSINESS SAVY COUPLED WITH HIS PERSONAL SUCCESSES IN BRUSHING SHOULDERS IN HIS SPORTS ENDEAVORS WITH SOME OF OUR GREATS LIKE SACHEL PAIGE, JACKIE ROBINSON, WILLIE MAYES, AND ALL THE GREATNESS OF THE MEN OF THE NEGRO LEAGUE. GAVE HIM A CREDIBILITY WITH MEN OF POWER AND INFLUENCE.

HE USED HIS PHYSICAL BODY AND PRESENCE AS A SYMBOLIC HUMAN SHIELD TO REPEL STEREOTYPES OF THE NEGRO RACE AND MEN OF OTHER PERSUASIONS THAT WERE REGARDED WITH LESS THAN REVERENCE.

HIS JOURNEY WAS ONE THAT HE DID NOT WALK ALONE. IT WAS A ROAD THAT HE TRAVELED WITH HIS LIFE'S PARTNER, LILLIAN DAVIS.

HE WAS AND WILL REMAIN A MONUMENT OF A CALL TO A PLIGHT OF SACRIFICE AND PERSONAL STRIFE.

HIS CALL TO LIFE WAS SHARED BY HIS LIFE'S LOVE, LILLIAN, WHO TOOK HER PLACE BY HIS SIDE AS HIS CONFIDANT AND WIFE. MRS. DAVIS SHARED THE BURDEN OF HIS FIGHT TO BE A WITNESS AND REPRESENTATIVE OF INTEGRITY.

WHEN YOU THINK OF HER HUSBAND, OUR FATHER, OUR BROTHER, OUR GREAT GRANDFATHER, OUR UNCLE, OUR COUSIN, OUR FRIEND, OUR CHAMPION OF SPIRIT AND TO THE GREAT POOL OF GENES FROM WHICH HIS GREAT CHARACTER WAS BIRTHED, HESTER AND LLOYD DAVIS, THINK OF HOW HIS WATCHFUL EYE KEPT THE SPIRIT OF THE NEGRO MAN AND WOMAN AND EVERY SUPPRESSED MAN AND WOMAN ON THE HEARTS AND MINDS OF OUR LEADERS AND LAWMAKERS.

IF YOU FEEL THE TIME YOU HAD TO SIT DOWN AND TALK TO HIM WAS NOT ENOUGH, REMEMBER THE WORK THAT HAD TO BE CARRIED OUT AND TAKE SPECIAL NOTE TO HOW HE LENT HIS LIFE.

IF YOU FEEL THE TIME YOU HAD TO SIT DOWN AND TALK TO HIM WAS NOT ENOUGH, REMEMBER THE WORK THAT HAD TO BE CARRIED OUT AND TAKE SPECIAL NOTE TO HOW HE LENT HIS LIFE.

HE CAN REST IN THE DIGNITY OF MARTIN LUTHER KING JR., SOJOURNER TRUTH, HARRIET TUBMAN, AND ALL THE OTHER PERSONS THAT LENT THEIR LIFE TO RIDICULE, PREJUDICE, AND SOMETIMES UTTER STRIFE.

PERHAPS TO YOU, HIS LIFE LOOKED FULL OF NICHES IN WORLDLY GAIN; BUT HIS TREASURES WERE IN THE HEARTS OF MEN WHO STRUGGLED TO FIND THEIR PLACE IN A WORLD THAT COULD BE UTTERLY CRUEL.

FOR HIS LOVED ONES, HE LEFT A LEGACY OF MENTAL AND PHYSICAL FORTITUDE AND STRIDE.

HE WILL LIVE ON IN ALL OF US. FOR WE CAN TAKE REFUGE IN HIS LOVE FOR US AND IN HIS TOILS TO MAKE OUR LIVES MORE FULFILLED, WE CAN TAKE PERSONAL PRIDE.

AND NOW WE SAY TO YOU OUR LOVED ONE WILLIAM "BUNNY" DAVIS, TAKE YOUR REST FOR YOU DID YOUR BEST.

LET GABRIEL RECEIVE YOU AT THE PEARLY GATES. HEAR THE HEAVENLY FATHER SAY, "WELL DONE MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT, FOR WHAT I SENT YOU TO DO, YOU HAVE DONE".

- Obituary -

William "Bunny" Davis was called to his eternal rest on Friday, October 12, 2001, at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center. Born June 9, 1917, in Perryville, Kentucky, he was the son of the late Lloyd and Hester Davis. He had seven brothers, Theodore, Pete, Andrew, Gus, Clarence, and Eddie Lee, and one sister, Elizabeth, all of whom preceded him in death.

He was married to the former Lillian Beasley who was always by his side sharing in all of his life's accomplishments.

Bunny was a very dedicated member of First Baptist Church where he once served as Chairman of the Trustee Board and as a Sunday School teacher. As chairman of the Trustee Board he was an active leader who did what was necessary to ensure that church operations ran smoothly. An innovative teacher, he developed a rewards system that inspired his students to devour the Word of God and attend Sunday School on a regular basis.

Bunny's love and enthusiasm for sports began while he was attending Bate School. He received state and national recognition for his football, baseball, track, and basketball endeavors. He played semi-professional baseball before the game was integrated and went on to play for the Lexington Hustlers, the first integrated baseball team in the South. In 1997 he was recognized for his sports career and his years of donating time as recreational director when the city renamed the Agora Club, the William "Bunny" Davis Parks and Recreation Complex.

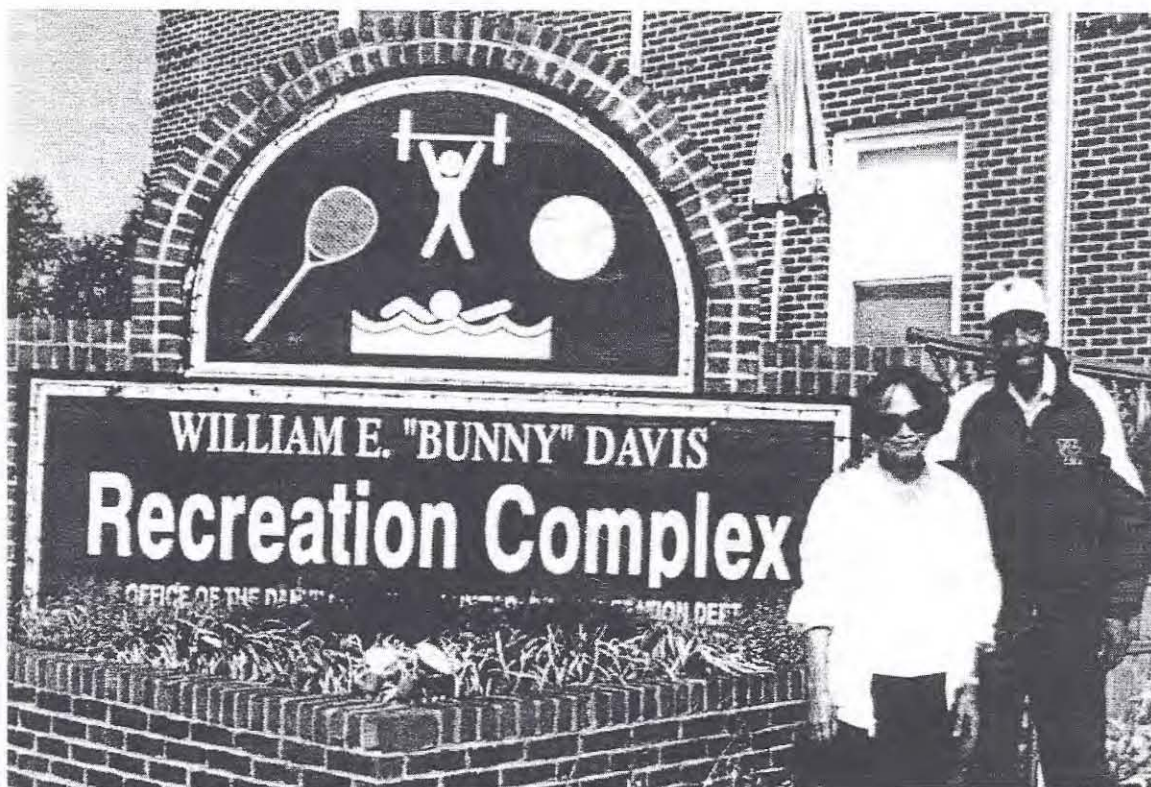

Bunny was a retired owner and operator of Bunny's Moving and Storage Company, an affiliate of Bekins Moving and Storage. He was Mayor Pro-tem and a city commissioner serving 13 years under Mayor Bowling. He served as doorkeeper of the Kentucky House of Representatives for 28 years, 15 of those as chief doorkeeper. Bunny was active in civic organizations and was known for breaking racial barriers in the community.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, Lillian Beasley Davis, a son, John Davis of Danville, KY; three daughters, Ella and Delores Davis of Grand Rapids, MI, and Jeanene Ford of Danville, KY; four granddaughters, Erica Ford of Danville, KY, Theresa Beatty, Donna and L'Tanya Davis, all of Lexington, KY; four grandsons, Johnny Davis of Lexington, KY, Kevin (Teresa) Turner and Maurice Ford of Danville, KY, and Stephon (Natalie) Turner of Frankfort, KY; 10 grandchildren in Grand Rapids, MI; a sister-in-law, Mayme Davis of Danville, KY; a special cousin, Amelia Burton of Perryville, KY; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Somewhere back of the sunset,
Where loneliness never dies-
He lives in a land of beauty,
Mid the blue and the gold of the sky;
And when God calls us to that land,
We will meet him at the brink,
With joy we'll clasp his loving hand,
When God connects the link.*

Definition of a Gentleman

Love and Understanding
For all of mankind,
A hard working man
No other will you find.

His town and his county
He has given his all,
Holding us together
Never letting us fall.

His work in our city
Shows up every day
Just walk thru our town
Or watch our children play.
If young or old,
A helping hand he will give.
Striving to make better
The town where we live.

Bunny Davis, you're the greatest!
You're one of a kind.
An angel sent from Heaven
To help all of mankind.

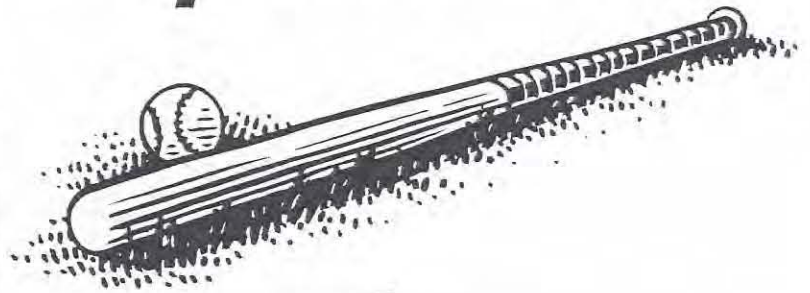

Thank you, Bunny Davis,
For all that you have done.
Maybe now you can relax
And have a little fun.

"Gods Way Is Best"

I do not know why sorrow comes and burning tear drops fall

I only know God still is God and watches

May I Go Now

*May I go now?
Do you think the time is right?
May I say goodbye to pain-filled days
and endless lonely nights?
I've lived my life and done my best,
an example tried to be.
So can I take this step beyond and set my spirit free?
I didn't want to go first.
I fought with all my might.
But something seems to draw me now to a warm and loving light.
I want to go.... I really do
It's difficult to stay.
But I will try as best I can to live just one more day;
to give you time to care for me
and share your love and fears.
I know you're sad and afraid,
because I see your tears.
I'll not be far, I promise that,
and hope you'll always know that my spirit will be close to you, wherever you may go.
Thank you for loving me,
you know I loved you too;
That's why it's hard to say good-bye and end this life with you.
So hold me now, just one more time
and let me hear you say,
because you care so much for me
you'll let me go today.*

Our Mother

For a few moments in time
God blessed us with a great gift.
For a few days on this earth
We are able to enjoy His gift,
Until one day he calls his gift home.
As he has done many times before.
He gives life and recalls life
And we must realize,
He hasn't made a mistake.
Through it all we find it hard to say
Just how much we will miss his gift.
His gift to us- Our Mother.

Our Test of Faith

I'm sorry I'm no longer with you. God had other plans you see. I tried my best to overcome what was tugging at me. Each of you take care of yourself in the choices you make.

I love you all in a kind and special way.

God was walking beside me and I heard his voice, "come home my child to suffer no more".

I know life is going to be different for you. If you could see me now, I'm walking streets of gold

Although our chain has been broke,
We shall meet again on the beautiful shore.

OBITUARY

Zachary Lee Dawson, age 33, was born in Danville, Kentucky to Gay Dawson and Carey Henry on January 28, 1991. He departed this life on May 4, 2024 at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center, Danville, Kentucky.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Gary Dawson.

Zach, was an honors graduate of Danville High School, Class of 2009. He not only excelled academically but also served as a Captain of the football team and lettered in the sport as well. Zach was a member of the Upward Bound Program. Zach was baptized at Bethel Baptist Church under Rev. Marshall, he often attended Stoney Point Predestinarian Baptist Church as well.

His journey continued at Campbellsville University, where he pursued his passion for mathematics education, aspiring to mold young minds as a math teacher. Zach, affectionately known as "750" brought joy to all with his infectious humor and personality. Whether on the football field or the basketball court, his confidence was exemplified by his infamous cry of "DEER" during recreational games.

Most of all Zach was admired for his unwavering authenticity. He lived by his moral code, #RealNeverFake, remaining true to himself until his final breath. His legacy is one of humility, kindness, and the courage to always be genuine in a world that often values conformity over authenticity. He enjoyed music, he loved to rap and do beats. Zach Dawson will be deeply missed, but his spirit will forever inspire those whose lives he touch.

A lifetime of memories will be cherished by his mother, Gay Dawson Turner; father, Carey Henry; his siblings, Max (Kelsie Sallee) Ray, Stephen (Brianna Emerson) Ray, Autumn Ray, J'Car-eya Henry, Justyce Henry, Jadyiah Henry, Sara Bell Sims, Braxton Sims, Shy Sims, Isaiah Henry, Cara Henry Wilcher, Carey Henry, Keira Hart; grandmothers, Camille Dawson and Agatha Henry; uncles, Kurt Dawson, Gary Michael Dawson and Garey Henry; several nieces, nephews, cousins, special children to Zach's heart, Omarion Whitley, Ozareia Whitley, Ozaylin Alarcon and friends.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard them call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my partings has left a void
Then fill it with remembering joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God want me now: He set me free.

OBITUARY

Mamie Johnson Day

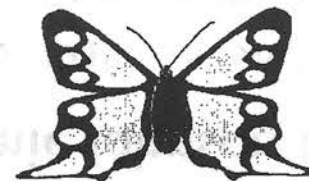

Mamie Johnson Day, a loving daughter, sister, aunt, neighbor, and friend to all she met, was called to her eternal rest on Monday October 13, 1997 due to heart failure.

She was born to James and the late Josephine Johnson on January 2, 1948 in Franklin County. She attended Rosenwald, Franklin County High School and a graduate of Kentucky State University.

Mamie joined First Baptist Church, Frankfort, KY and was a supporting member even after moving to Paris, KY, there she began attending Clintonville Baptist Church. She was employed by the Kentucky State Department of Social Services in Carlisle, Kentucky.

She was truly a mother to all in need and a friend to others seeking support, giving unconditional love and serving as a Witness for the Lord.

She leaves to cherish her memory her father James B. Johnson, Jr. Frankfort, KY; two brothers James B. (Peggy) Johnson Jr. III, of Sunrise, FL and Freddie Joe (Marsha) Johnson of Atlanta, GA; three aunts Marie (LeRoy) Prunty of Pittsburgh, PA, Georgia (William) Clelland of Frankfort, KY and Mamie (Carl) Mixon of Cleveland OH; several nieces, nephews, close cousins, a host special friends and devoted pet "Bubba".

~ The Obituary ~

Victor Gilbert Delaney, II (aka Sonny) was born June 9th 1950 in Boyle County, Kentucky to the late Victor Gilbert Delaney, Sr. and Mabel Annette Snodgrass. Victor made his transition to his heavenly home on Tuesday July 2, 2019, at the University of Kentucky Hospital. He is preceded in death by his parents, his father in-law, Howard Clark, Jr., and three brother in-laws, Homer Buntin, Sr., Kenneth Gambrel, and Stratford Conner.

Victor and his siblings grew up in Crab Orchard, Kentucky. Victor gave his life to Christ at an early age and became a member of Crab Orchard Baptist Church. As a little boy, Victor developed a love of animals. Some of his favorite things to do included playing with the family dog, Teenie, going fishing with his family, and riding his stick horse. As he matured, his love of animals expanded, and Victor went from riding stick horses to investing in livestock. Victor shared his love of animals with future generations, especially with his two sons, Dustin and Colby.

Victor's love of the Lord came at an early age. In adulthood, he united with First Baptist Church, where he married the love of his life, Charletta Ann Clark on February 14, 1981. To this union, two sons, Dustin and Colby were born. After his marriage to Charletta, he moved his membership to Second Street Christian Church. From there, he went on to serve the Lord as a member of Christ The Head Missionary Church, where he served as deacon, trustee, chairman of the board, and sang in the choir.

Victor's education began in a one-room school in Crab Orchard, Kentucky. He continued his education at Boyle County High School where he excelled in basketball and held a record for most rebounds. Victor went on to Eastern Kentucky University, where he earned his Bachelor's degree. After graduating from college, Victor taught Industrial Arts at Bardstown High School. From there, he went on to become a train conductor for Norfolk Southern Railroad, where he worked for 35 years until his retirement in 2010.

Some of Victor's hobbies included working on old cars, sandblasting, working on his farm, and spending time with his family. His most favorite hobby was to sit in a rocking chair and tease his siblings about moments in their childhood that they would all like to forget.

Victor was a kind, strong, courageous, helpful, and Godly man. He did not mind going the extra mile to help those who were in need. As he continued in his Christian walk everyone saw how he loved and praised the Lord.

Victor leaves to cherish his memory, his loving and faithful wife of 38 years, Charletta Clark Delaney; two sons, Dustin Wayne (Alysa) Louisville, KY, Colby Dale (Heather) Danville, KY; 4 grandchildren Ozaiah, Addison, Ava, and Victoria; 1 step-grandchild, Cedric; two brothers Art and Keith Delaney, two sisters; Gloria Conner, and Janice Fox, all of Lexington, Ky. Mother in-law, Marthetta Smith Clark; 3 sister in-laws; Regina Harris and Sadie Gambrel of Danville, KY; Margaret Buntin of Louisville, KY, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

The Obituary

James David "Big Duty" Demartra was called home to his eternal rest on May 26, 2008 at Frankfort Regional Medical Center in Frankfort, Kentucky.

He was born on November 23, 1946 in Louisville, Kentucky and was the son of the late Clifton Demartra and Marie Hayden. He was preceded in death by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey; two brothers, Samuel Hayden and Robert Hayden.

A native of Frankfort, he was a retired employee of the Transportation Cabinet, Division of Motor Vehicle Regulation. He was known by most in the Cabinet as the "Colonel". James enjoyed his work. He was also known for his famous massages that were reserved only for his "Duty's Angels". James was a sweet, caring and gentle soul. He would give the shirt off his back to anyone that was in need. In his more "spirited" years, if you saw James out, he would most times look up at you and quote the famous song by Buddy Miles, "My Mind Keeps Going Through Them Changes"! From that, he would cry out OOOAAH!!!!. James was a member of First Baptist Church, Frankfort, Kentucky, also a 1965 graduate of Frankfort High School.

He is survived by his stepmother, Nancy Demartra, Louisville, KY; three sisters, Renee' (David) Carter, Frankfort, KY; Lalita (Isaac) Bryant, Louisville, KY; Alicia Demartra, Louisville, KY; a sister-in-law, Dorothy Hayden, his nieces, Liketa, Bryant, Latoya Bryant, Latoya Winkfield, LaQuida Hayden, Tisa McReynolds and Francesca Hayden, great nieces and nephews and several special friends who were very dear to him, Catie, Susan, Kaelin, Tonya, Clarence Metcalf and Andrew Mason, Jr.

OBITUARY

Eva Ann Demus known by most as Evan was born February 1, 1930 in Lexington, Ky. Daughter of Lionel Penman and the late Katie Berry Penman.

Early in life she united her life with Christ and joined the Main Street Baptist Church, under Rev Gibson.

To her family she was a source of joy and happiness.

She leaves to mourn her passing a father Mr. Lionel Penman, a daughter Robin William, a son Mr. Barry Demus and wife Connie; three grandsons, Barry Jr., Schari and Cornell Demus; one sister Mrs Lelia Foster and husband William; three aunts Mrs. Eual Green, Mrs Tobitha Berry, Cin. Ohio, Mrs, Nettie Schooler, Nicholasville; three niece and one nephew; a devoted friend Mr. R.C. Williams; a host of cousins, relatives and friends.

She departed this life after a lengthy illness on Monday, May 14, in the U.K. Hospital.

She is away, yet ever near
 Her presence fills each day.
 Her voice and smiles are everywhere
 A memory away;
 And though she is no longer seen
 By family and friends, she lives
 For she was dearly loved
 And love can never end.

Lovingly submitted,

The Obituary

Lucien Denny, was born July 19, 1940 in Garrard County to the late George Clell and Willie Bell Webster Denny.

Lucien was called to his eternal home on Thursday, morning May 15, 2014 at the Danville Health and Rehabilitation Centre, in Danville, Kentucky.

He joined the Flatwood Baptist Church at an early age. He lived in Chicago, Illinois for several years where he worked as head chef. Lucien relocated to Danville, KY in the seventy's where he remained until death.

He leaves to cherish his memory; three sisters, Florine Hatcher, Louisville, Kentucky, Josephine Green, Lancaster, Kentucky and Stella (Lawrence) Beavers, Danville, Kentucky; five nieces, four nephews, several great and great-great nephews and nieces and a host of cousins and friends.

He did not weep
He did not sigh
He only laid and closed his eyes
And could not say goodbye.

Our Father knows what's best
So why should we complain
We always want the sunshine
But he knows there must be rain.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive our trespassors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For Thine is the kingdom, and the

To The Memory Of
Lorraine Logan Dismeaux

1931 - 1987

Monday, April 6, 1987
First Baptist Church
Lancaster, Kentucky
Rev. J.J. Evans, Pastor

OBITUARY

The death angel visited Mrs. Loraine Logan Dismeaux at 10:20 P.M. Friday, April 3, 1987, and called her to her reward.

She was a native of Garrard County and the daughter of the late Mary B. Arnold and Stanley Logan. She professed hope in Christ at an early age and was an active member of First Baptist Church until declining health prevented her from doing so.

On October 11, 1951, she was united in marriage to William C. Dismeaux. To this union two children were born. She was a loving wife and mother.

She leaves to mourn her passing her loyal and devoted husband, William C. Dismeaux, one daughter, Sharon Ford, Danville, Kentucky, one son, William Kelvin Dismeaux, Lancaster, Kentucky, one sister, Olivia Dismeaux, Lancaster, Kentucky, 1 granddaughter, Tonia Ford, 1 grandson Kevin M. Ison.

Three sisters-in-laws, Mrs. Margaret Garr, Lancaster, Mrs. Anita Logan and Mrs. Dorothy Dismeaux, Detroit, Michigan.

Three brothers-in-law, Mr. Gillis Dismeaux, Lancaster, Kentucky, Mr. James Dismeaux and Henry Logan, Detroit Michigan.

Four half-sisters and 4 half-brothers, a stepmother, Mrs. Lucille Logan, 1 son-in-law, Mr. Luther Ford, 1 aunt Mrs. Julia Shearer. Several nieces, nephews and a host of cousins and friends.

She did not weep.

She did not mourn, nor cry.

She only laid and closed her eyes

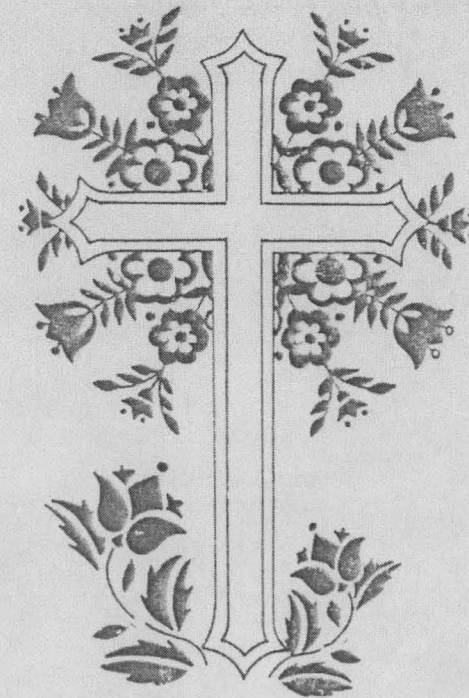

And could not say good-by.

She leaves to mourn her passing two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Garr and Mrs. Anita Logan; three sons, Gillis E. Dismeaux, Sr., William C. Dismeaux and James A. Dismeaux; seventeen grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; a companion, Mrs. Bernice S. Scott, and a host of other relatives and friends.

*We do not ever walk alone!
God's promised He will stay
Beside us as our Friend and guide
Each step along life's way.
When our hand is clasped in His
There is no doubt or fear,
And all the cares that once loomed large
Suddenly disappear!
How sweet the hours spent at His side—
How blest the miles we've trod;
We do not ever walk alone
When we have faith in God!*

~ The Obituary ~

William Marvin Dismeaux, was claimed by God on Friday, November 10, 2006 at Fort Logan Hospital in Stanford, Kentucky.

He was born June 6, 1945, in Lancaster, Kentucky and was the son of Jeanette Ison and the late James Dismeaux.

Marvin spent the majority of his life in Garrard County, where he committed his life to Christ at an early age at First Baptist Church in Lancaster, and graduated from Mason High School. He was united in marriage to Donna Adams on August 3, 1964, and they were blessed with three children.

Marvin loved spending time with his children and grandchildren, he was proud that he was a great grandfather.

He was employed by FKI Logistex in Danville, Kentucky, and he was looking forward to retiring. Marvin was a joy to be around, he would have you laughing and brighten up your day with his pleasant personality and wit.

Marvin leaves to cherish his memory; his mother Jeanette Ison, Lancaster, Kentucky; three children Marvette (Ray) Fields, Lexington, Kentucky, Loutesia (Anthony) Dennis, Danville, Kentucky and William (Donna) Dismeaux, Harrodsburg, Kentucky; four grandchildren Kenneth Dismeaux, Candice Taylor, Jacquez Hunn and Donnesia Hunn; one great grandson, Ke'Shon Douthitt; three sisters, Mary Leavell, Lancaster, Kentucky, Suzette Ison, Covington, Kentucky and Nina Ison, Stanford, Kentucky; one uncle Charles Owens, Providence, RI; one aunt Margaret Garr, Bryantsville, Kentucky; several nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

The call was sudden, the shock was severe,
and little we thought such grief was near.
God gently closed those loving eyes, and whispered,
"Peace Be Thine."

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
the world's weary troubles and trials are past.

A SWEET MOTHER'S LOVE

A Mother's love is truly priceless;
Worth more than diamonds, silver, or gold.
We recognize her sacrifices
As through the years, our lives unfold.

She taught us all about God's word.
With unending faith, her voice was heard.
Her patient heart came from above,
For us to cherish 'Sweet Mother's love'.

A Mother's love is rare indeed.
She took care of our every need.

MOMMY

For Mommy has travelled the road until the end, just waiting to hear these words..."Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

St. Matthew 25:21

Mother take you rest and wait for us. For the song writer says: Lord, we give you all the praise: for the life of our mother.

Mommy your suffering is over, for when you see Jesus, Amen.
