An Angel Lived Among Us

An angel lived among us,
A gift from God above.
She showered us with kindness
And shared with us her love.

She cherished every moment
With the man who was her life;
Walking hand in hand together,
Facing life with all its strife.

She loved her children dearly,
Each one a different way,
Nestled close within her heart.
Though, now, she's far away.

She's gone to live with Jesus.
But, she's here with us, today,
Smiling down on every one of us,
And telling us she's okay.

*Our Father knows what's best for us,
So why should we complain -
We always want the sunshine,
But He knows there must be rain -
We love the song of laughter
And the merriment of cheer,
But our hearts would lose their tenderness
If we never shed a tear . . .
Our Father tests us often
With suffering and with sorrow,
He tests us not to punish us,
But to help us meet tomorrow.*

When someone departs this earth,
to enter the gates of Heaven above.
We're told they're in a better place,
comforted by God's unending love.
Her life touched so many others. Family and friends will remember her smile and the grace she showed.

Oh, how she will be missed so much.
The unknown day of departure is here.
the gates of Heaven opened wide.
A world of peace and tranquility awaits,
and you, mother stepped inside.
Heaven is a better place with you there,
but the loss to loved ones is so great,
with the faith and courage you always showed, someday we too will enter the open gate.

SAFELY HOME

*I am home in heaven, dear ones,
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace, forever,
Safely, home in heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly
Trode the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so solely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.*

*There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand,
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home,
Oh, the rapture of the meeting
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Yea though I walk through the valley and the shadow of death,

Miss me and let me go.

*When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
Bear your sorrow in good deeds.
Miss me and let me go.*

I've followed the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I have found that peace at the close of the day.*

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God has me now; He has set me free.*

Tyronne "Ted" Doram Sr

January 9, 1943 - July 27, 2015

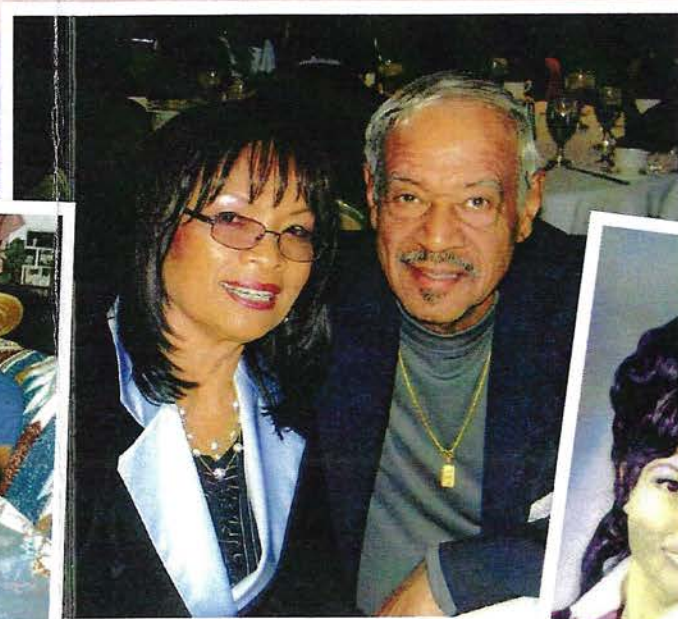

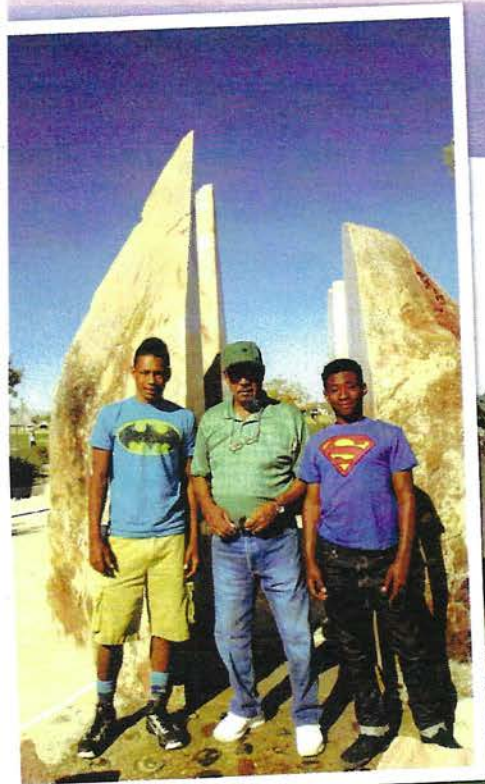

Tyronne Errol Doram Sr., affectionately known as "Ted," was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 9th, 1943 to the late James Doram and Helen Shannon. He departed this life on July 27th, 2015.

Ted was a member of the 1960 graduating class of Bates High School in Danville, Kentucky. After graduating, Ted joined the US Air Force and began his career. His most notable tours of duty include Vietnam and Thailand. It was during a tour in 1971 to Thailand, that Ted met the love of his life, Yesoon. In 1975, the two got married. Ted was then transferred to the United States in the 554th Service Squadron at Nellis Air Force Base in Las Vegas, Nevada where he continued to specialize in the area of culinary arts.

Ted was honored by President Ford for his ideals and recommendations that saved the country money in the operations of the culinary departments throughout the US Armed Forces. After serving our country for 20 years and 29 days, Ted retired as a Master Sergeant, Food Service Superintendent.

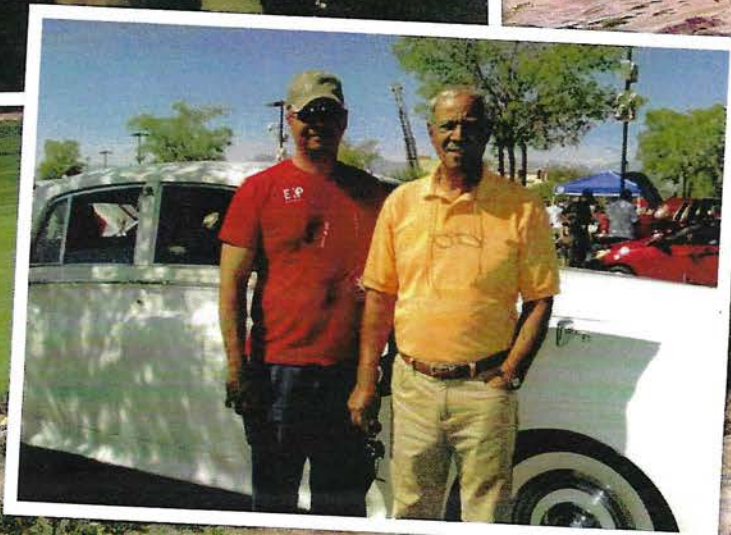

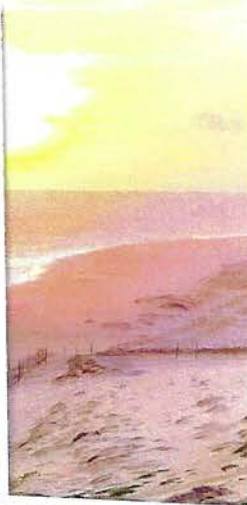

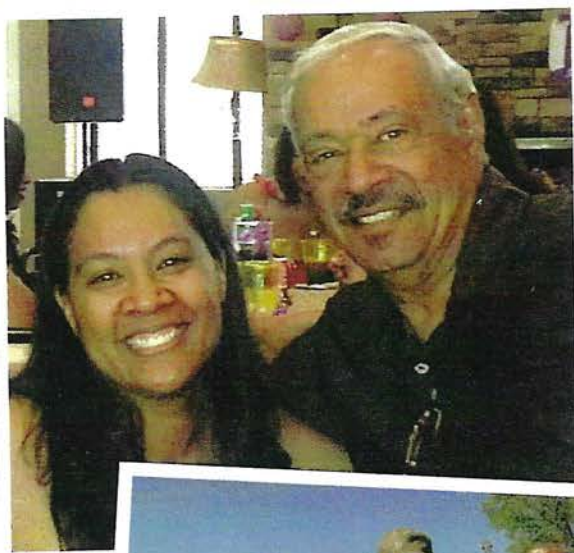

Afterwards, Ted spent a brief time working as a cashier at the Stardust Casino before he began his teaching career in the Clark County School District. There he taught culinary arts at Area Technical Trade Center (ATTC) in Las Vegas, Nevada for 22 years. During the course of his career, Ted contributed to the success of many of southern Nevada's youth by enriching their lives with meaningful career and technical educational experience.

While at ATTC, Ted was instrumental in opening a second classroom for the Culinary Arts program. This project included helping to design and implement a second kitchen and dining area. Many of his graduating students secured positions in the industry immediately after graduation while other of his students continued their education in post secondary institutions. Ted and his students were recognized by the President and Mrs. Clinton for their contributions to the 1995 White House Christmas celebration. He was honored as a Kiwanis Teacher of the year, 1993-1994.

Ted's hard work, commitment to his vocation, strong work ethic, and commitment to education earned him the respect and admiration of all who were fortunate to work with him and whose lives he touched.

Ted was an avid golfer who loved spending time on the course, barbecuing, traveling, and entertaining friends and family at his home. Ted leaves to celebrate his memory his wife and soulmate of 40 years, Yeesoon, Son: Tyronne Jr., Daughter: Sandy; Grandchildren: Khalid & Tawee Walker. His sister, Patricia Wilhite; and a host of family and friends that love him dearly. He was preceded in death by his brother, Jimmy Doram and granddaughter, Yazmine Doram.

The Lord is my shepherd:

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

I'm Free

Author Unknown

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

OBITUARY

George Douglas, born on May 18, 1954 to the late Alfonso L. and Dorothy S. Douglas (Mason) in Frankfort, Kentucky, passed away on Friday, October 30, 2020.

George leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 43 years, Rebecca "Becky" Douglas, two daughters – Angel Douglas (Duane Yates) and April Douglas, all of Frankfort, KY, one brother – James Henry Douglas (Sandra) of Honolulu, HI, two sisters – Jeanette Walker (the late William Walker, Sr.) and Alysia Douglas (James Washington), both of Frankfort, KY, four grandchildren Aiden White, Avery Douglas, Azaria White all of Frankfort, KY and Raymond White of Lexington, KY and lifelong friend Ronnie Wade of Frankfort, KY, along with a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents, two brothers Philip Douglas (Diane Douglas) and Glenn Douglas.

George retired from the Commonwealth of KY after 28 years of service and the Frankfort Independent School District after 20 years of service. He also served many families and communities throughout Kentucky while serving as a Funeral Director under Michael Smith of Smith-Jackson Funeral home in Danville, KY. George thoroughly enjoyed driving a school bus for the Frankfort Independent School district because he loved ensuring the children arrived to and from school safely on a daily basis. He was a member of First Baptist church and served on the First Baptist Church usher board, the South Frankfort Community Center board for a few years, and was a 30-year member of the Grad Club, Inc.

He enjoyed spending time with his family and really enjoyed spending time with his beautiful grandchildren. He always made sure that his family came first in everything he did and made it known every day. He shared a special bond with everyone in his family and wanted to make sure each one knew how he felt about them. George is a shining example of what a father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend should strive to be. We are happy that he was able to share that with so many people.

When the Day is Done

*When the day is done, my brother and our father turns and says his last good bye although I do not understand, where he must go or why?
But as he leaves our sorrow and sad tears behind, he moves ahead to seek the peace that every soul must find.
For now he sails a different sea- A voice filled with love and hope and new
discovery,
And when his journey brings him to that distant lighted shore, He'll be greeted by the out stretched arms of those who have gone before.
And people he has known and loved and voices from his past
Will be singing out the welcome news that he is home at last.*

*We love you and will miss you,
Your sister-in-law and children*

The Time is Now

If you are ever going to love me, love me now while I know, the sweet and tender feeling which from our affection flow.
Love me now while I am living, do not wait until I am gone and then have it inscribed in marble, sweet words on ice cold stone.
If you have tender thoughts of me. Please tell me now. If you wait until I am asleeping, never to waken there will be death between us and I won't hear you then. So, if you love, even a little bit, let me know it while I am living so I can know and reassure it.

I love you Hink

She was born Dec. 9, 1934, Lincoln Co., Ky., to the late William D. and Elizabeth McPherson. At an early age she professed a hope in Christ and joined the St. Paul Predestinarian Baptist Church under the pastorship of Rev. Wm. Covington.

She joined in marriage to Mr. Chester Delbert Douglas who preceded her in death.

Tired of earth's play things
Heartsick and ready to sleep
Ready to bid my friends farewell
Wondering why they weep.
Passing out of the shadows
Unto eternal day,
Why do we call it dying
This sweet going away?

When the Day is Done

*When the day is done, my brother and our father turns and says his last
good bye although I do not understand, where he must go or why?
But as he leaves our sorrow and sad tears behind, he moves ahead to seek
the peace that every soul must find.*

*For now he sails a different sea- A voice filled with love and hope and new
discovery,*

And when his journey brings him to that distant lighted shore, He'll be greeted by the out stretched arms of those who have gone before.

*And people he has known and loved and voices from his past
Will be singing out the welcome news that he is home at last.*

*We love you and will miss you,
Your sister-in-law and children*

Henry Isaac Douglas, Sr. 68

Henry Isaac "Hink" Douglas, Sr. age 68 left this world to enter into his new home, on February 9, 1998. His absence will truly create a sense of pain, sorrow and despair in our hearts. Let us cherish the memories we have of him in which will last a lifetime. Henry was born July 21, 1929 in Lebanon, Ky. His parents William and Nannie Viola Barber Douglas, two daughters Joyce and Beatrice Douglas and his brother William E. Douglas preceded him in death. He confessed Christ at an early age and became a member of the Church of the Living God, in Campbellsville. Later, he was baptized at the Bethel Star Apostolic Church in Lebanon. He was a graduate of Rosenwald High School and attended one year of college at Kentucky State, in Frankfort, and then joined the United States Army during the Korean War. He was an employee of the Galleries Furniture Store, in Lebanon, where he retired.

Henry was united in marriage to Mattie Bernice Brown. Besides his wife, he leaves to cherish his memories; five daughters Mary Elizabeth, Doris Jean, Jeanette, and Roberta Douglas, Wanda Johnson; three sons, Henry Isaac Jr., Raymond Lee and William Calvin Douglas, all of Lebanon; fifteen grandchildren, seven great grand children; a devoted sister-in-law, Sarah Josephine Nuckols; five aunts, Nellie Spalding, Pauline Gerton and Leona Douglas all of Cincinnati, Ohio, Margie Bright, Lexington and Laura Clark of Perryville; four nieces, one nephew a host of relatives and friends.

The Time is Now

If you are ever going to love me, love me now while I know, the sweet and tender feeling which from our affection flow.

Love me now while I am living, do not wait until I am gone and then have it chiseled in marble, sweet words on ice cold stone.

If you have tender thoughts of me. Please tell me now. If you wait until I am asleeping, never to waken there will be death between us and I won't hear you then.

So, if you love, even a little bit, let me know it while I am living so I can know and reassure it.

I love you Hink
Your wife

Piggy was a member of Little Zion Baptist Church, Burgin, Kentucky. She was a former member of the Young Adult Choir, worked in the kitchen and faithfully volunteered with the youth on the annual Trooper's Island Trip.

Piggy enjoyed working jigsaw puzzles, collecting stuffed animals, angels and bracelets. She loved to visit and check on the senior citizens in the neighborhood daily. She loved to walk though "downtown" Burgin and sit outside to enjoy the quiet.

Piggy was a graduate of Burgin High School. She attended Calhoun Community College in Huntsville, Alabama. She is a former employee of Ashland Oil, Inc., Lexington, Kentucky.

Piggy went to eternal rest on Monday, August 23, 2010 at James B. Haggin Memorial Hospital in Harrodsburg, Kentucky, after an extended illness. She was preceded in death by her father and three brothers, Charles Otley, David Howard and Herbert Dunn Jr.; paternal grandparents, Price and Hattie Bell Dunn and maternal grandparents, Alvis and Goldie White.

In addition to her mother, she leaves to cherish her memory, one son, Andrew Thomas; three grandchildren, Jeremiah Elijah Dunn, Nevaeh Hays, Alexander Emmanuel Dunn. Nine siblings, Charlotte (Freddie) Wyckoff, Huntsville, Alabama; Sheridan (Norris) McKee and Donna Linton, Harrodsburg, Kentucky; Gwendolyn (Phillip) Brewer and Doris Kirk, Louisville, Kentucky; Raymond and Janice, Burgin; Dorothy (Richard) Hart, White Hall, Arkansas and Linda, Lexington, Kentucky; special friends, Joann 'Mama Jo' Mays, Margaret Cochren, George Gonzales, Rhonda and Marlese Bess and Blair Linton and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

May peace and understanding
Give you strength and courage, too,
And may the hours and the days ahead
Hold a new hope for you;
For the sorrow that is yours today
Will pass away and then
You'll find the sun of happiness
Will shine for you again.
Take the Savior's loving hand
And do not try to understand-
Just let Him lead you where He Will,
Through pastures green and waters still.

A Life of Service

Throughout his life, Arthur Dunn was known for his kindness and generosity—to family, church, community and country.

Lessons learned in war, he said, helped make him the man we all knew and loved. Even though he rarely talked about the war—never about specific battles—he once said that having seen the worst of mankind didn't make him bitter. It instead made him want to be a better man.

In the spring of 1944, Arthur Louis left the family farm to voluntarily join the U.S. Army. He was assigned to the 5th Army, and the 92nd Infantry Division, one of two all-Black divisions formed during World War II.

The Buffalo Patch on his uniform distinguishes him as a member of the Buffalo Soldiers, a name given by Native Americans to Blacks because of their tight, curly hair. The name became a badge of honor because Native Americans held the buffalo in such high esteem.

As a member of the 5th Army led by Lt. Colonel Mark Clark, Staff Sgt. Dunn was active in the 1944 campaigns—along with the 8th Army—that pried the Germans loose and began their eventual fall.

As a communications technician, Staff Sgt. Dunn's job was to travel ahead of his unit—often into enemy territory—to lay telecommunications lines.

As Staff Sgt, he earned the same pay ($96) as his white counterparts, but he did not have similar authority to give orders.

When he returned to Lancaster, and discovered that returning Black veterans were being excluded from educational benefits offered white soldiers under the G.I. Bill of Rights, he found a teacher, and lobbied successfully for the first farming classes ever offered to Blacks in Garrard County. He was among the first to complete the five year course.

Obituary

Arthur Louis Dunn, 92, of Boones Creek Road in Lancaster, died Wednesday, June 11, 2014 at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center.

Born November 14, 1921 in Garrard County, Kentucky, he was the first child of the late Arthur and Annie Tarrance Dunn. At an early age he joined Pleasant Valley Baptist Church on Boones Creek Road where he was Sunday School Superintendent, Deacon, and Founding Treasurer of the Building Club for many years. Later he joined First Baptist Church in Danville and served as a Deacon.

After combat duty in the U.S. Army during WWII, he came home to farm, and to continue service to our country for more than 30 years as an electronics specialist at the Lexington Signal Depot in Avon (now the Bluegrass Army Depot).
Lexington -

He was a member of the Garrard County Conservation Board and an active, long-time member of the NAACP.

He will be remembered always for his kindness — especially to children — his smile, and his green thumb. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need, and was known as the hardest working farmer on Boones Creek Road.

He is survived by his wife of nearly 70 years, Mary Brown Dunn, and his daughter, Janet (Dan) Overstreet, both of Lancaster; four sisters, Margarette Alcorn of Arizona, Dorothy Baugh of Michigan, Ruth Jane Ford of Illinois, and Johnnie Doram of Lancaster; three grandchildren, Arthur Chase (Dustyn) Overstreet, Hunter Kol Overstreet, and Spencer An Overstreet; three sisters-in-law, Alice Fitzgerald, Polly Brown, and Loretta Brown, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brothers-in-law, John Ford, Richard Baugh, and James Doram.

Honorary Pallbearers—Arthur's beloved nephews and dear friends who've passed on: Gary Ford, Alvin Butch Rankin, Joe, Russell, and Charles Henderson, Michael Brown, Russell Ball and Eddie Sutton.

Obituary
Mr. Cecil Lewis Dunn
May 12, 1924 - September 29, 2012

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
Ecclesiastes 3:1

A time to be born:

God blessed the parents, Benjamin Harrison Dunn and Elsie Aldridge Dunn, with a son, Cecil Lewis Dunn, on May 12, 1924.

A time to plant:

Cecil was born, raised and lived his life in Lancaster (Garrard County), Kentucky.

A time to trust:

He served as a Trustee and was a member of the Sunday School.

A time to learn:

Cecil attended the Lancaster Colored School on Totten Avenue and the Mason High School. At the Mason High School Thirteenth Class Reunion held in Lexington, Kentucky in July, 2011, Cecil was awarded the high school diploma from Garrard County High School, Lancaster, KY. More than 60 years after World War II broke out, the 2002 session of the Kentucky General Assembly passed House Bill 45 directing school districts to issue the high school diploma to any honorably discharged veteran whose high school education was interrupted by the global conflict. Governor Patton signed the legislation on April 2, 2002.

A time to build:

Cecil spent his entire life working and serving others. He answered the call of the United States of America's Army and served as a Sergeant in Company A, 1888th Engineer Aviation Battalion during World War II from 1943 - 1946. He received the Good Conduct Medal, the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal and Bronze Star (China-Burma-India), the World War II Victory Medal, the Honorable Service Lapel Button WWII, and the Marksman Badge and Rifle Bar. He held numerous jobs, the last of which were at the National Casket Company in Lancaster and as a landscaper, both of which he performed with a high degree of skill and pride.

A time to serve:

He was a member of the Boards of Directors of the Garrard County Housing Authority and the Garrard County Habitat for Humanity. His love for others and his passion for providing affordable housing led to many years of volunteer work for which he was recognized as an Outstanding Volunteer of the Year (2000) at the Annual Farm/City Banquet sponsored by the Garrard County Chamber of Commerce. He was active in the cleanup and restoration of the Duncantown Cemetery. Cecil also has the Cecil Dunn Street named in his honor. He was a Master Mason, serving the Free and Accepted Masons of Kentucky, Inc. at Sunshine Lodge #98 in Lancaster until it closed and demitted to Ionic Lodge # 65 in Somerset, Kentucky, where he remained an active member. On October 12, 2011, Cecil was commissioned a Kentucky Colonel under the governorship of Steven Brashear.

A time to laugh:

Cecil was always present at family gatherings and reunions or to celebrate with and encourage his children and grandchildren at sports and school events and proudly attended all graduations. He loved a good meal and wasn't shy about having the church sisters prepare him a take-home plate (or two). He enjoyed sitting in his rocking chair on the front porch either to doze, entertain friends, or greet all the people passing. He was very energetic and loved to care for his shrubbery and yard.

A time to love:

His pride and joy were his family. He leaves to cherish many fond memories: his daughter--Delores Dunn of Lexington, KY; sons--Rodney Lewis (Phyllis) Dunn, Ernest Karl (Michelle) Dunn I, and Wilber Lamont Dunn I, all of Danville, KY, and Terry Bennett Dunn of Lancaster, KY; sisters--Elizabeth Dabney of Lexington, KY, and Helen Langford of Kansas City, MO; brothers--Ernest Thomas of Indianapolis, IN, and Johnny Thomas of Lancaster, KY; twelve grandchildren--Arthur Lee Clay, Jr. of Alexandria, VA, Frances Brooke Dunn of Indianapolis, IN, Whitney Michelle Dunn of Louisville, KY, Timothy Cecil Dunn, Sr., Joseph Benjamin Dunn, and Felicia Ford, all of Lexington, KY, Porsche Nichole Dunn, Aaron Israel aka Eric Clay (Stephanie), Rodney Phillip Dunn, Ernest Karl (Karin) Dunn II and Wilber Lamont Dunn II, all of Danville, KY, and Terry Lee Dunn of Lancaster, KY; and thirteen great-grandchildren--Timothy Cecil Dunn, Jr., D'Yante Logan, and Asianna Crawford-Ford, all of Lexington, KY, Carmen Amari Dunn and Lauren Kelly Dunn of Atlanta, GA, Avery Michelle Dunn, Ernest Karl Dunn III (Triton), Jalen Amari Dunn, Aaliyah Nicole Dunn, Darius Napier, Elijah Cecil Israel, Josiah Steven Israel, and Zion Faith Israel, all of Danville, KY. Cecil was the loving uncle of Gene (Neva) Bright, Barbara Singleton, Brenda Farley, Maxine Murphy, Chandra Simpson, Jacqueline (Lawrence) Lawson, Jerri Dory, Beverly (Maurice) Richardson, William Douglas (Kathryn) Dory, Sr., David (Rosalind) Dabney, Jeffrey (Edie) Dabney, Marilyn (Larry) Render, Cheryl (Darryl) Ward, Garry (Jenny) Price, Dorris (Joseph) Grider, Anthony (Avis) Rhodes, and Walter (Wanda) Rhodes.

A time to mourn:

Frances Valear Logan Dunn--his loving wife of nearly 60 years, his darling daughter--Cecile Frances Dunn Clay, his sisters--Christine Doty, Nancy Smith, Willie Perkins, and Gladys Dunn, and his parents--Benjamin and Elsie Dunn, all preceded Cecil in death.

A time to die:

In a still and gentle voice, Jesus softly whispered his name--CECIL LEWIS DUNN--come home. On Saturday, September 29, 2012 at 12:15 a.m., Cecil closed his eyes from this earthly journey and began his eternal rest. No more tears to dim his eyes, no more pain to vex his body. In a valley of peace he shall dwell. Family and friends, dry your eyes. Cecil is at peace. He will be laid to rest along with his wife at Camp Nelson National Cemetery in Nicholasville, KY.

Believers Who Have Died --I Thessalonians 4:13-18 (KJV)

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. 16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

A time of peace:

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Phillipians 4:7 (KJV) And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Dear Grandpap,

Your life stands as a quiet witness to the enduring strength of a committed faith in God.

You've stood strong against the storms of life and God's love has shone through you even more brightly in the most difficult circumstances.

Your time-tested character, gentle grace and personal integrity have inspired many to also light the way for those who are yet to follow.

You are greatly loved!!!

Your twelve grandchildren--

Aaron aka Eric, Art, Brooke, Ernest II, Felicia, Joseph, Phillip, Porsche, Terry Lee, Timothy, Whitney, and Will II

and Your thirteen great-grandchildren--

Aaliyah, Asianna, Avery, Carmen, Darius, D'Yante, Elijah, Ernest III (Triton), Jalen, Josiah, Lauren, Timothy, Jr., and Zion

Follow my example as I follow the example of Christ.

I Corinthians 11:1

*Weep not for me though I am gone into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears.
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not,
The fear now all is gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts,
In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death,
But celebrate my life.*

While he is many things to different people- a hard worker, a good buddy, or a responsible guy - to me, my dad is my hero. With everything else he has to do, he still makes me feel like I'm just as important as anything else in his world. He listens to me and cares about the things that matter to me. He encourages me and makes me feel like I can succeed at everything I do. I'll always look up to this hero of mine and be grateful that I'm the one who gets to call him "Dad."

Perhaps you sang a lovely song

Or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,

If so, we saw them there.

Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words

As many friends could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all,

Just prayed for us each day.

Perhaps you prepared some tasty food or

Maybe furnished a car.

Perhaps you rendered a service unseen

Near at hand or from afar.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We thank you so very much whatever the part.

Obituary

...Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. On February 24, 1900, in Lincoln County, Ky., the Lord gave to Earhart Warren and Kizzie Belle McRoberts Warren, a baby girl whom they named Eugenia Vivian Warren.

She joined First Baptist Church of Lancaster at an early age in her life. Due to illness, she had not attended for a while but never forgot her church home. She was always glad to hear what her church was doing and last attended when she was about 98 years old.

Eugenia attended school in Lincoln County where she was born and reared. She later moved to Richmond, Indiana to complete her education where she lived with a dear aunt, Mrs. Rosie McRoberts Perkins. After completing her education, she worked in a hospital setting in Cincinnati, Ohio. She often spoke affectionately of the years she spent in both Indiana and Ohio. She cherished those warm and fond memories and often shared them in conversations with family members.

After her marriage to the late Lucien Dunn, Eugenia and Lucien returned to Kentucky to her childhood home to be with family and friends. Her life's occupation was that of a domestic worker and homemaker. She wasn't a woman of great means, nor was she a common woman, she was an ordinary woman. A woman who loved and feared the Lord, a woman who cherished the memories of her mother and other family members and friends. She was a child of the King.

Sis, sister, or C.C. as she was fondly known will be missed, yet long remembered by her loved ones and friends. She no longer has to sit by the wayside waiting for her train, bowed with years of toil and pain. She heard the bells ring with peace, and goodwill and willingly answered her Master's call.

She has crossed over to the other shore and leaves behind many happy thoughts of good times shared with each of her loved ones. Her mother and father, Earhart and Kizzie, her husband, Lucien and her brother Edward D. Warren all preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories and celebrate her homegoing, six nieces, Wanda Brown of Louisville, Vivian Overall of Shelbyville, Barbara Wyatt of Louisville, Joan (Charles) Bradley of Louisville, Jeanette (Michael) Swain, of Louisville, and Jennifer (Gregory) Tinsley of Shelbyville; a sister-in-law, Anna Warren, Shelbyville, Ky.; three close cousins, Lillian Tapp, Thelma Diamond, and Anna Mae Perkins, of Richmond, Indiana; eight great nephews; seven great nieces, and a host of other relatives.

*Children don't you cry for weeping may go on all night, but in the morning there is joy.

Obituary

Mrs. Frances Valear Logan Dunn
September 4, 1926 ~ August 23, 2007

Frances Dunn, 80, a resident of Buford Street in Lancaster, Kentucky was called by God to her eternal rest on Thursday, August 23, 2007 at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville, Kentucky.

She was one of three children of the late Charlie Logan and Alice Broadus Logan, a member of the Pleasant Run Baptist Church (Buckeye), a retired employee of American Greeting (Danville), and a long-time officer of the Mason School Alumni Association.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Cecile Frances Dunn Clay (Winchester), brother, Robert H. Logan, Sr., (Dayton, OH) and foster brother Carl Hampton Dunn, Sr., (Lexington).

Frances is survived by her husband of sixty years, Cecil Lewis Dunn; daughter, Delores Dunn; four sons - Rodney Lewis (Phyllis) Dunn, Terry Bennett (Lisa) Dunn, Ernest Karl (Michelle) Dunn, Sr., and Wilber Lamont Dunn; eighteen grandchildren: Timothy Cecil Dunn, Sr., Arthur Lee Clay, Jr., Eric Lamont (Stephanie Ford) Clay (aka Aaron Israel), Joseph Benjamin (Koya Brown) Dunn, Terry Lee Dunn, Ernest Karl (Karin) Dunn, Jr., Frances Brooke Dunn, Porsche Nichole Dunn, Whitney Michelle Dunn, Rodney Phillip Dunn, Wilber Lamont Dunn II, Felicia Ford, Derrick Henderson, Ana and Faith Ballew, Hope Manns, and Brandon and Scott Strunk; eleven great-grandchildren: Timothy Cecil Dunn, Jr., Elijah Cecil Israel, Carmen Amari Dunn, Jalen Amari Dunn, Lauren Nicole Dunn, Aaliya Nicole Dunn, Josiah Steven Israel, D'yantae Logan, Asianna Crawford, Darius Ford, and Aubrey Henderson; one brother, Rubie H. Logan (Wilmore); two sisters-in-law: Elizabeth Dunn Dabney (Lexington) and Helen Dunn Langford (Kansas City, MO), and a host of other relatives and friends.

Frances loved to cook and was happiest when surrounded by family and friends.

*A precious one from us is gone
A voice we love is still
A place is vacant in our hearts
Which never can be filled.*

Who "IS" She?

Proverbs 31: 10 ~ 29

A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies.

Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value.

She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life.

She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands.

She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar.

She gets up while it is still dark; she provides food for her family and portions for her servant girls.

She considers a field and buys it; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard.

She sets about her work vigorously; her arms are strong for her tasks.

She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night.

In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers.

She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.

When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet.

She makes coverings for her bed; she is clothed in fine linen and purple.

Her husband is respected at the city gate, here he takes his seat among the elders of the land.

She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies the merchants with sashes.

She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come.

She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her:

"Many women do noble things, but you (Frances Valear Logan Dunn) surpass them all."

A Virtuous and Phenomenal Woman

She "IS" because she shall "ALWAYS BE" in our hearts and thoughts!

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And he saw your tired face
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest
Gods garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best
He knew that you were suffering
And in so much pain
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be Thine"
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

A THOUGHT FROM DAVID

My Grandma woke up this morning. When she opened her eyes, Jesus and all loved ones who passed on were there to greet her. I know she's probably trippin out right now wondering what happened but I'm sure it will be explained to her. As we prepare for death in our world, our loved ones who passed on will be preparing for our birth into the Kingdom of Heaven. It softens the sadness to know this.

On the Other Side of Death

Death is a gateway we all must pass through
To reach that fair land where the soul's born anew,
For man's born to die, and his sojourn on earth
Is a short span of years beginning with birth,
And like pilgrims we wander until Death takes our hand
A place where we'll find no suffering or tears,
Where time is not counted in days, months, or years.
And in that fair city that God has prepared
Are unending joys to be happily shared
With all of our loved ones who patiently wait
On death's other side to open the gate.

23rd Psalm

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. 5 Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name' s sake.
Yea though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

Mary Geraldine Brown Dunn, 97, of Lancaster, died Monday, October 29, 2018, in Danville. She was born on March 27, 1921 in Beckley, West Virginia to Bee and Hester Ferguson Brown, a coal miner/farmer and an elementary school teacher who taught her to love books and revere education.

From her father, she learned style. Like him, she dressed impeccably, always wearing her signature—a bold, designer scarf.

After Mrs. Dunn graduated from Stratton High School in Beckley in 1942, she entered West Virginia State College where she began studies to become a teacher. But in the midst of World War II, in 1944, she met and married Army Sgt. Arthur Dunn, Jr. As was the custom, she awaited his return from overseas with his parents on Boone's Creek Road in Lancaster where she's lived ever since.

Mrs. Dunn was a lifelong learner, something she said she got from her mother. From her father, she learned to be outspoken and confident in her convictions. From them both, she learned to always demand justice. Over the years, Mrs. Dunn fought many battles within her rural community to improve conditions for African Americans and anyone else she saw having a hard time.

One of her earliest victories had to do with public school bus routes. When integration came in 1964, the local school board refused to reroute the buses to accommodate African Americans children who were walking miles.

She took her concerns to the Kentucky School Board Association, and the bus routes changed. Afterward, Mrs. Dunn remained active in the schools, becoming the first African American treasurer of the PTA at Camp Dick Robinson School where her daughter was among the first integrated first grade class.

In addition to serving as a founding member of the First Baptist Church Peace Walk Committee, annual sponsor of the Martin L. King, Jr. Peace Walk of Garrard County, Mrs. Dunn was also a founding member of the Garrard County Fair Board.

For nearly a quarter of a century, Mrs. Dunn wrote a column for the community newspaper, the Garrard Central Record. Upbeat and positive, Mrs. Dunn's column delivered the good news of Garrard County, especially the successes of her daughter and grandkids. An avid reader herself, she often included the phrase, "Reading is your ticket to freedom." As a longtime member of the Homemaker's Club, she frequently shared gardening tips and recipes. Just last year, four of Mrs. Dunn's most popular recipes, including her famous macaroni and cheese, were featured in the paper's "Recipe Corner."

Awoman of quiet and abiding faith, Mrs. Dunn was active in church since childhood, and, most recently, a faithful member of First Baptist Church of Danville.

Left to cherish memories of her are her daughter and son-in-law, Janet and Dan Overstreet of Lancaster; three grandchildren: Arthur Chase Overstreet, Hunter Kol Overstreet, and Spencer An Overstreet; four sisters-in-law, Polly Brown, Johnnie Moss, Ruth Ford, and Dorothy Baugh. She is survived also by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who will miss her sorely.

Excerpt from Thanatopsis

So live when thy summons comes to join
The Innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch,
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

When I'm Gone

Release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do.

You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess

How much you gave me in happiness

I thank you for the love you each have shown,

But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part

So bless the memories within your heart,

I won't be far away, for life goes on,

So, if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,

And if you listen with your heart,

You'll hear my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and say,

Welcome Home.

MISS ME , BUT LET ME GO

We've know lots of pleasers,
at times endured pain,
We've lived in the sunshine and walked in the rain.

But now we're separated and for a time apart.
But I am not alone-
you're forever in my heart.

Death always seems so suddent,
and it is always sure,
but what is of' forgotten-
it is not without a cure.
I'm walking now, with someone,
and I'll know He'll always stay.
I know He's walking with you too,
giving comfort everyday.

There may be times you miss me ,
I sort of hope you do,
but smile when you think of me,
For I'll be waiting for you.

Now there are many things for you to do and lots of ways to grow,
so get busy, be happy, and live your life,
Miss me, BUT LET ME GO.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepard; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

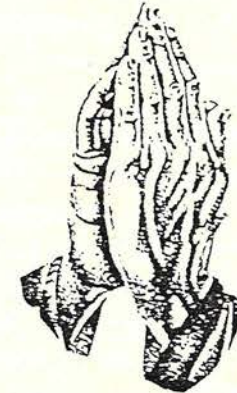

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the day of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Dedicated to my family
Moma D, Judy, Rekita, & Jerry

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed briny tears, and hug your sorrow through the years - but start out bravely, with a gallant smile; and for my sake, live on; do the things the same.

Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways.

Continue to reach out in comfort, and in cheering others, and I in turn will comfort you, and hold you near; and never, never die.

MOMMA D.

Momma D.

Moved from her old self; to a glorious new self.

Moved from an earthly tent to a building not made by hand.

Moved from time and stepped over into eternity.

Moved from these sandy shores to a mountainous area with heights unknown.

Moved from this turbulent world to a place where she studies war no more.

Moved from this evil land to a place where the wicked have ceased troubling her.

Moved from a state of hope to a nation where her hopes have come to fruition.

Moved to a land older than Eden and resides in a town taller than Rome.

Moved from this old world she started from gone to make Heaven her home.

So live, that when thy summons comes to join the Innumerable caravan, which moves that mysterious realm, where each shall take his chamber in the silent halls of death, thou go not, like the quarry slave at nigh, scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave, like one who wrap the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.
