

You Are In My Heart

*In tears, I saw you sinking
I watched you fade away
My heart was almost broken
You fought so hard to stay.
But when I saw you sleeping
So peaceful, free from pain,
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again
Thanks for everything Abe
We will always love you
And miss you.*

~ The Obituary ~

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside still waters, He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou are with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; Thou anoint my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

"THE DAY GOD CALLED YOU HOME"

God looked around his garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face.
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His garden must be beautiful, He always take the best.
He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain.
And knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw your path was difficult, He closed your tired eyes,
He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.
When we say you're sleeping so calm and free of pain,
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.
It broke our hearths to loose you, but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.

For My One and Only

When I talk, you listen
And hear the things I can't always say.

When I reach out, you are there
For me - always there when I need you.

When I stumble and fall,
Your arms open wide and lift me to my feet.

When I laugh, a smile lights up your face,
And before long we're laughing together...

You are my Partner, my Love, and my very best Friend

She is dead - She is just away
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair

Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the Love of here
Think of her still as the same, I say
She is not dead - she is just away*

*Why are you crying?
Are those tears for me?*

*Why is everyone so sad, within my Family.
Certainly it's not because I've left and gone away.
Please tell me that you're weeping for something else today.*

*Tell me that you're happy that I have pain no more.
Smile and laugh and think about things we did before.*

You see, I know you long to hear my voice again, and set and talk and be with me the way it was back then.

But I must ask you to be so strong for me..

To carry on and help make things the way they ought to be.

*You see I'm here at peace with God and now I have no fear and you'll remember near the end
I spoke of coming here.*

So gather up your Spirit and let your tears be spared, and spend your time remembering the joy and love we Shared, and when you think you'd like to have a word or two with me, just pause by the path of God, because that's where I will be.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,

Even though I walk

You prepare a table before me
In the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy with follow me

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.

Memorial Service for
DR. FRED HALL IV

Sonrise| December 5, 1969
Sonset| April 21, 2020

Our family would like to sincerely thank anyone who has offered a kind word, a prayer, a comforting thought, a meal, flowers, cards, hugs (physically and socially distant), calls, visits, gifts and any other assistance during this time of transition. It was certainly not expected but we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose (Romans 8:28).

Fred Hall IV, Ph.D, age 50, passed away quite unexpectedly April 21, 2020 in Daytona Beach, Florida due to cardiac arrest. He is the son of Fred III and Pattie Hall of Xenia, Ohio. He was born to his devoted parents December 5, 1969 and is a graduate of Xenia High School in 1987. He received his undergraduate degree at Ohio University in Physics with a concentration in astronomy (Summa Cum Laude); his Master's degree at the University of Colorado at Boulder in Plasma Physics and his Doctorate at the University of Alaska at Fairbanks in Space Physics. He authored a Ph.D. Thesis titled A Mechanism for Current Sheet Thinning in the Growth Phase of Magnetospheric Substorms. Fred was active in several professional organizations including The American Geophysical Union (AGU), the Geospace Environment Modeling (GEM) community, the National Society of Black Physicists (NSBP) and the American Association of Physics Teachers (AAPT).

Dr. Hall believed in learning and was willing to share his knowledge with others. Fred was employed in his dream job as he wanted to teach higher level Physics; he was employed as a Physics Professor at Bethune-Cookman University in Daytona Beach, Florida at the time of his passing. He was active in the academic community in Florida, having also taught math and science at Stetson University, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Keiser University, DeLand High School and tutoring individual students with successful outcomes. He has presented multiple topics at national conferences orally and via poster presentations.

Fred loved science fiction and was an avid Trekkie from a young age, mastering Mr. Spock's eyebrow raise as a child. He was serious about his studies but Dr. Hall also liked to have fun. His "Geekster Rap" was quite popular in his social circle. His great smile and laugh that filled the room will be missed.

Pete (or Little Pete), as he was known by family, was preceded in death by his grandparents, his great Aunt Dot and nephew Keith (Juano, Jr.). He is survived by his parents and sister, Rose Duff (Juano) in Gastonia, NC. Fred is also survived by his nieces Torre, Déja, and Matéya also in Gastonia, NC and his nephews Jeremy (Patrice) of Clover, SC and Jerell (Adrien) of Huntsville, AL, multiple great-nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends internationally and special friends Sha Moss and James Chandler. He would want all who loved him to live by his desire to "Live long and Prosper" (Mr. Spock-Star Trek).

 For part of us went with you the day Jesus called you home.
 You left us with peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
 And though we can not see you, you are always at our side.
 Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
 But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again."

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.
For though from out our bourne of time and place,
The flood may bear me far;
I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar.*

Obituary

Lillie Mae Sleet Hall was born on September 3, 1928 in Indianapolis, Indiana to bless the union of Arthur and Hattie Sleet. When she was seven months old, the family moved to Perryville, Ky.

She attended grade school in Perryville, Ky. under the tutelage of Mrs. Amelia Sleet Burton. She graduated from Bate High School in Danville, Ky. in 1944. She attended Kentucky State College one year.

At an early age she professed a hope in Christ and was baptized into the fellowship of First Baptist Church, Perryville, where she remained a loyal and faithful member until faced by illness to curtail her activities.

On December 25, 1946, she was united in marriage to Raymond Hall of Lincoln County.

In 1951 she entered the employ of the State of Kentucky, by joining the staff at Kentucky State Hospital as a nurses aid.

In 1959, she received her certificate as Licensed Practical Nurse. As a neighbor she was always ready to lend a helping hand. As a Christian she had a lasting interest in young people, always ready to give of herself to aid them in reaching their potential.

In 1974 she entered Eastern Kentucky University, and received an Associates of Arts Degree in Nursing on May 9, 1976. It was while pursuing this part of her career that she was stricken with the illness which finally brought a close to this beautiful life.

For more than ten months she endured her suffering, never complaining, and like Job, always believing that whatever her Lot, her Heavenly Father always knew what was best for her.

Early on the morning of January 9, 1977, the angel of death slipped quietly in, and kissed into eternal sleep our beloved wife and loving mother. She leaves to mourn her passing, her companion of thirty years Raymond, one daughter Phyllis, and son-in-law, Willie F. Newby of Louisville, Ky., one son, Gary, stationed in Sacramento, California in the U.S. Air Force, her mother, Mrs. Hattie Sleet, one brother, Raymond Sleet and a host of other relatives and friends.

Momma,

From your first born, thank you for always being there for me. I'll never forget all you did for me and the love you had for me. Now I'll see you again God willing.

Grant

To My Caring Mother,

I miss you so much already, I know when I leave and return and realize you're not there, that's going to be hard for me. Although I'm in Valley, CA, I talked to you every day I'm going to really miss that. But I know that you are in God's loving arms, and that thought gives me strength to go on. I love you, from my soul, mom.

Your daughter, Shelia

*****

Momma,

"You're Free!"

Today I have to say so long, you may find my eyes filled with tears. I know you said I'll be alright and not to cry. I know how much you loved me as much as I love you. On Easter Sunday and angel came and called your name, took you by the hand and said your place was ready in Heaven and you had to leave me behind. Letting go means not just adjusting my desires – it means I must take each day as it comes while cherishing all the time we shared together. I admit I feel powerless; the outcome was not in my hands. I wanted you to stay, but I knew you had to go. So I accept that momma. I'll miss you every time I look at myself (I look like you) until we meet again. You and my baby take care of each other and I'll take care of her babies and I'll do my best to keep passing life's tests.

Always, Mona

GG,

Your flood is over, your storm has passed. Thank you for all the times you ate our green beans, when momma wasn't looking. We are going to miss you, rest in peace and one day we'll see you again.

"Mom Is Gone"

Oh, Heavenly Father give me strength
Make sure that I am never alone
Because I lost my best friend.
You see, my Mom is gone.

I know that I'll always have
Those special memories
And I'll look at her picture once in a while
But it's not the same as having her near
And being able to see her beautiful smile.

My heart is heavy with grief
My face is wet with tears.
Because although my Mom is gone
I've loved her for so many years.

I won't be able to go in her kitchen
And smell the aromas from her delicious food.
I won't be able to talk to her or hold her hand
And substitute just isn't any good.

Oh Father, I sometimes ask myself
Why did it have to be mine.
Why not someone that meant no one any good
Because my Mom was...oh, so very kind.

I know that life isn't forever
And that we all will have to go,
Forgive me Father for my questions
Gosh, I loved her so.

I know that she's resting in peace
And living in a tranquil home,
But the pain is still deep in my heart
Because my Mom is gone.

Acknowledgment

In this busy world it's refreshing to find someone who still has the time to be kind. Someone who's ready by word, thought or deed, to reach out a hand to another in need. Our lives have been blessed and made richer, too, because we have found folks who are as nice as you. Thanks for the kindness you've shown during our time of sorrow and the demise of our loved one. No words can ever be expressed for the joy that will forever be in our hearts knowing that you cared enough to share in this moment with us. Your generosity and thoughtfulness are very much appreciated by all of us. May God's love always be yours.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way,
Words left unsaid - I can not say.*

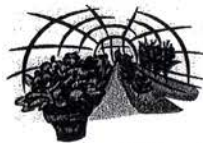

*And if my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembering joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up you heart and share with me,
God wanted me now.... He set me free!*

He was also active in many civic organizations and other activities for the betterment of the community. Lord, Make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love,
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O' Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life

Life - Death

Restless nights and weary days

What are we doing wrong to make

Us feel this way.

Things are going from bad to worst

Life is to short time is running out.

The devil is winning and he's shouting about,

Christians stand tall, recruit one and all, to join the team the Angel's are on

To go the journey were living is forever and all worries are gone.

Where everything is right and nothing is wrong.

Finally, there will be peace, no more headaches and pains. No more sorrows and tears; no more doubts, no more fears.

All sickness will be gone, when we finally make it home.

Sometimes life is hard and death is Joy.

But, only if your soul is right, so repent and enjoy.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 (KJV)

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant,

And a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal,

A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose;

A time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew;

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;

A time of war, and a time of peace.

OBITUARY

Lord,
 Make me an instrument of your peace,
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
 Where there is injury, pardon;
 Where there is doubt, faith;
 Where there is despair, hope;
 Where there is darkness, light;
 And where there is sadness, joy.
 It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Mrs. Elizabeth D. Harris was born February 9, 1911 in Lincoln County, Kentucky. She died Jan 20, 1986
 She was the daughter of the late Broadus and Mary Lackey Cooper. She was married to Edward Harris Sr. One son preceded her in death Edward Harris.

She united with the Maxwell Street Christian Church at a very early age, but attended First Baptist Boneyville after her church went out of existence.

To know her was to love her for she was a very dear and loving person. She loved people and above all, children. Her memory will never be forgotten. Over the years she would call and sing Happy Birthday to her friends.

She leaves to mourn her passing, three sisters, Mrs. Suada Carson, Stanford; Mrs. Mary Johnson, Cincinnati, Ohio; and Mrs. Eliza Loveless, Lexington, Kentucky. Three grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Loving and kind in all your ways,
 so willing to help, so quick to praise.
 Sincere and true, in your heart and mind,
 beautiful memories you left behind.

Obituary

On Wednesday July 20, 2005, God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to call "Mama Georgia" from our midst.

Georgia Marshall Harris, the daughter of the late Hattie Ray and George Marshall, was born April 28, 1915 in Boyle County.

She was educated in the local public schools. She was united in marriage to the late William Harris Sr. and to that union a son, the late William Harris Jr. was born.

Georgia professed hope in Christ at an early age, and in 1945 united with the Church of God of America under the pastorate of the late Rev. A.R. Smith. Georgia served the Lord faithfully through service to her church and community. Her church activities included, president of the Ladies Aide Club, treasurer of the Sunday School, and a member of the 12 Willing Workers Club. A warm and caring person, she often volunteered to drive fellow residents of Arnold Towers and friends to Doctor's appointments, shopping for groceries, and other needed errands.

She will be remembered by a devoted daughter-in-law, Juanita Harris of Danville; two caring granddaughters, Anita C. Harris of Danville and Theresa Harris of Cincinnati, OH; two great-grandchildren, Keisha and William Demario Johnson both of Danville; three great-great grandchildren, Brooklyn, Antwn and Dayshyia; and a host of cousins and friends.

Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road. And the sun has set for me.

I want no rites in a gloom filled room,

Why cry my soul, has been set free.

Miss me a little but not too long, And not with your heads bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me, but let me go.

For it is a journey that I must go alone.

It's all a part of God's plan. It's just a step on the way home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart go to the friends

You know and bury your sorrows in doing God's will.

Miss me but let me go.

Love,

"When I Must Leave You"

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile:
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near,
and never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,

I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,

Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Jathniel (Jack) Harris was born in Lancaster, Kentucky, June 18, 1940 to the late Rev. William and Georgia Harris. He excepted Jesus Christ on October 28, 1946 at a revival preach by the late Rev. J.D. Dawson. He was a member of Flatwoods Baptist Church.

On February 11, 1961 he was married to the late Helen White Harris. To this union five children were born.

He is preceded in death by a brother Rev. H.B. Harris.

He leaves to cherish and celebrate his life, a brother, William Harris, Winchester, KY; five sons, Roy (Hazel) Harris, Anthony Harris, both of Lexington, James Harris, Georgetown, KY; Joseph Harris, Louisville, KY and Ricardo Allen, Hazard, KY. One daughter, Jackie (Carl) Tyler, Louisville, KY. Fourteen grandchildren, and several great grand children. A host of nieces and nephews and relatives and friends. Three very special nieces that he loved and treated as if they were his daughters: Janice, Shirley and Patrica. Also, a special young lady that was like a daughter to him, Tameka Lear, and a special brother-in-law; Larry Wayne White.

Daddy, you were so proud of your name Jathniel (which means GOD given, found in 1 Chronicles 26:2). GOD loaned you to us for a short time in this world, but this world is not our home. James 1:17 says, Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning. We know that Jesus is the good and perfect gift to the world, and we live in a world full of sin, you were our good and perfect gift from GOD. We love you but GOD loves you best. Rest my brother, Rest our Daddy.

I'VE CHANGES MY ADDRESS

I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here,
for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore.
For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
For where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found the peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift your hearts and peace to thee.
God wanted me now. He set me free!*

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now: He set me free.*

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

*In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto

To My Dearest Family

*Some things I'd like to say...
But first of all, to let you know,
that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven,
here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness;
Here is just eternal love.*

*Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That I had to leave you when my life on earth was through.
God picked me up and hugged me and said, "I welcome you".*

OBITUARY

William Harris, Jr., was born to William Harris, Sr., and Mary Yahey Harris in Garrard County, Kentucky, August 22, 1907. The angel of death called him home at 9:45 a.m. Monday, May 27, 1974, from the University of Kentucky Medical Center where he had been hospitalized for 46 days.

At an early age he accepted Christ as his personal Saviour and joined the Flatwoods Baptist Church. He served on the Usher Board and as Home Department Teacher in the Sunday School.

He attended the Garrard County Schools until his education was interrupted to work to support the family.

On July 4, 1927, he was married to Georgia Anderson of Lancaster, Kentucky. To this union six children were born. Four preceeded him in death.

On March 18, 1940, he was ordained to the work of the Gospel Ministry. He served for some time as missionary in the South District. During his ministerial career, he pastored the Bonneyville Baptist Church, Lincoln County; Clifton Baptist Church, Boyle County; Centerville Baptist Church, Mercer County; and at the time of his demise he was pastoring the New Liberty Baptist Church (Bobtown), Berea. At one time he served as Vice Moderator of the South District Association. At death he was Moderator of the Mt. Pleasant District Association.

William was an interior decorator and farmer. He loved mankind. He was a good husband and father.

He is survived by: his wife, Mrs. Georgia E. Harris, Paint Lick, Ky.; three sons, William Harris, Winchester, Ky., Rev. Hassel B. Harris, Barbourville, Ky., and Jathniel Harris, Lexington, Ky.; one sister, Mrs. Bertha Palmer, Paint Lick, Ky.; 13 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. Many other friends and relatives remain to mourn his passing.

They never quite leave us, our friends who have passed
 Through the shadows of death to the sunlight above;
 A thousand sweet memories are holding them fast
 To the places they blessed with their presence and love.
 The work which they left and the books which they read
 Speak mutely, though still with an eloquence rare,
 And the songs that they sang, the words that they said,
 Yet linger and sigh on the desolate air.
 And oft when alone, and oft in the throng,
 * Or when evil allures us, or sin draweth nigh,
 A whisper comes gently, "Nay, do not the wrong."
 And we feel that our weakness is pitied on high.

A MEMORIAL SERVICE IN CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF
HARRISON "KOOKIE" MADISON
(1940 -- 2010)

Prelude

Prof. Cliff Jackson

Opening Sentences

I am Resurrection and I am Life says the Lord. Whoever has faith in me shall have life, even though he dies. And everyone who has life, and has committed himself to me in faith shall not die for ever.

As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives and that at the last he will stand upon the earth. After my awaking, he will raise me up; and in my body, I shall see God. I myself shall see, and my eyes behold him who is my friend and not a stranger.

For none has life in himself, and none becomes his own master when he dies. For if we have life, we are alive in the Lord, and if we die, we die in the Lord. So, then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's possession.

Happy from now on are those who die in the Lord! So it is, says the Spirit, for they rest from their labors.

Officiant: The Lord be with you.

Congregation: And also with you.

Officiant: Let us pray.

O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered: Accept our prayers on behalf of your servant, Harrison Madison, and grant him an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the fellowship of your saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

-Behold, he that keepeth Israel, shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Commendation: (Bold text is said by all)

Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints,
Where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

You only are immortal, the creator and maker of mankind: and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, “You are dust, and to dust you shall return.” All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints,
Where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant Harrison Madison. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, sheep of your own fold, lamb of your own flock, sinner of your own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

*Sorry I had to leave you in a sudden kind of way
But my friend Jesus said He needed me today,
So I won't call or even say goodbye.
Jesus, a friend of mine is waiting,
So I won't even try.
Please don't cry because you didn't hear me say goodbye.
Just remember who I'm leaving with;
He's the one that knows the way.
So don't take another kind of route and be lost
Because He's coming back for you one day.

Great is Thy Faithfulness

*Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father;
There is no shadow of turning with thee;
Thou changest not, thy compassions, they fail not;
As thou hast been, thou forever wilt be.*

Morning by morning new mercies I see; all I have Needed thy hand hath provided; great is thy faithfulness,
Lord unto me.*

Blessed Assurance

*Perfect submission, all is at rest;
I in my Savior am happy and blest.
Watching and waiting, looking above, filled with his

HARRISON EDWARD "Kookie" MADISON

Harrison Edward "Kookie" Madison, the fourth child of Rosanna Madison Frazier and the late David Lee Madison, was born in Fayette County on October 18, 1940. Harrison departed this life on October 21, 2010.

He accepted Christ early in life at Gunn Tabernacle A.M.E. Church, presently known as Wesley United Methodist Church. He was a faithful member who served in many valued capacities. He attended Fayette County School System, graduating from the old Dunbar High School in 1959 and served as class president for the past two years. Harrison retired from Kentucky Utilities in 1998 after over thirty years of service.

Harrison and his love, Joyce Ann Bush, were married for forty-seven years. To this union were born Stacy Lynn (Tony) Borders, Flowery Branch, GA., and William Edward "Jacque" (Tarita) Madison, Lexington, KY. In addition to his wife and children, he leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Mrs. Rosanna Madison Frazier; grandchildren, Tia, Miasha, and Zuri Madison all of Lexington, KY.; sisters Lorraine Madison, Richmond, KY., and Joan Carol (Charles) Bolton, Lexington, KY; brother-in-Law, William (Debra) Bush III, Dayton, OH; nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his father, David Lee Madison; step-father George Frazier; and siblings, Dora L. Madison, William L. "Rat" Madison, and Arthur J. Madison.

He was "Daddy Kookie" or "Papa" to many wonderful children whom he loved, helped raise and loved him. You would always find Kookie visiting family, friends, cooking on the grill, working faithfully in his church, and playing with his dog, Malachi. When you saw him, you got a big smile and hug, and knew you were in for good conversation, fun, and lots of laughter. Kookie never met a stranger and he will surely be missed.

In lieu of flowers, please send a contribution to Wesley United Methodist Church in memory of our husband, father, and friend.

"To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me"

When I am gone, release me; let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourself to me in tears. Be happy that we had so many years together. I gave you love; you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown me. But now it's time I must travel alone. So grieve for me for a short while, if grieve you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It is only for a little while that we must part, so bless the memories in your heart, I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, if you need me, call and I will come.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little—but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.*

For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the master's plan, a step on the road to home.

*When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know. Bear your sorrow in good deeds. Miss me, but let me go.

The Obituary

JAY ROYCE HAWKINS, the man, the father, the coach, the teacher and the person for whom life held only joy and laughter, was born August 23, 1927 in Hamilton, Ohio. His parents, Alex and Johnetta Hawkins, raised Jay in the First Baptist Church, Richmond, Kentucky, where he accepted Christ at twelve years of age.

Always an active and sports-minded person, Jay secured basketball and football scholarships to gain a bachelor of science degree in 1950 from Kentucky State College. Although drafted by the Detroit Lions upon graduation, Uncle Sam also drafted him and he served as a Sergeant in the U.S. Armed Services from 1950 until 1953. Jay received a Masters Degree from Indiana University and studied at Wayne State University towards his Doctoral degree.

He was employed 33 years with the Detroit Public Schools, was a life time member of the NAACP, Phi Delta Kappa "Kentucky Bluegrass Club" and other numerous organizations.

As a man, Jay had a life long affiliation with the Brotherhood of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. for which his love was eternal.

Jay, the father, was dearly loved by Johnny Hawkins, Mary Maupin, Alexis Nunley, Cheryl Wilson and Jaylyn Hawkins. He taught them compassion, respect and to live life to the fullest while accepting things which cannot be changed. Jay, the brother, was a guiding light for his brothers and sisters: Charles Kavanaugh, Leona Hawkins, Larry Hawkins, Garry Hawkins and Lisa Hawkins. He was a very loving grandfather who will be missed by Karen Maupin, Chiquita Hawkins and Kevin Wilson, II.

Jay, the coach, used football to turn boys into men at Kentucky State University, Mississippi Valley College and in the Detroit Public Schools.

Only Jay, the person, could love as deeply and be so loved in return. His friends are truly too numerous to name and his loves are too numerous to call.

Jay will be remembered for his kindness, charm, patience, and understanding. He was cherished by his parents who were so lovingly cared for by him. Those whose path Jay crossed were truly blessed.

Jay departed this life on January 29, 1992.

A MOTHER’S LOVE

“A Mother’s Love” is the greatest example of love and strength. My mother modeled this on a daily basis. My mother showed me what it meant to be strong, but loving and caring. She taught me how to be fierce but also compassionate, independent and ambitious. My mother’s kind smile was one of her best assets. Now my mother also loved to shop. There were not many sales that she missed out on, especially thrift stores and even yard sales. If a good deal was to be had, she was one of the first ones at the checkout. My mother also loved enjoying and supporting her grandchildren by attending sporting events and other activities of their’s. And Lord have mercy... the cakes, cookies and pies my mother would bake. They were good enough to change your life. I’ll miss you forever Mama! - With all my love, Jasmine

*To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me
When I am gone, release me let me go
I have so many things to see and do,
You must not tune yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many wonderful years.
I give to you my love you can only guess.
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown.
But now its time I travel on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love, soft and clear
And then when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with open arms and say
"Welcome Home".*

OBITUARY

Mrs. Susie Frances Hawkins was born August 12, 1898 in Boyle County, Kentucky, to the late Claypus and Florence Southern Higgins.

She departed this life on Thursday, April 7, 1983 at 9:45 p.m. after a lingering illness, at the age of 84 years.

She united with St. James A.M.E. Church at an early age under the Pastorage of Rev. Spillman. She was a member of Stewardess Board No. 1. She loved her church and attended faithfully until sickness prevented her.

She lived in Boyle County all of her life and was married to the late Anthony Hawkins. She loved her home and family and was highly concerned about the welfare of her family and friends and people in general. She was always willing to help anyone in need. To know her was to love her.

Left to mourn her passing are three devoted children, Mrs. Mattie Elliot of Danville, Kentucky, Mr. Everhart Lancaster of Danville, Kentucky, and Mr. Robert Ozenia Hawkins of Goldsboro, N.C.; one brother, Claypus Higgins of Columbus, Ohio; an uncle, Mr. Sam Southern of Danville, Ky.; six grandchildren; six great-grandchildren, a cousin and a host of friends.

*There comes a time for all of us
When we must say good-bye
But faith and hope
and love and trust
Can never, never die,
Although the curtain falls at last
Is that a cause to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past
If only we believe
And trust in God's eternal care—
So when the Master calls
Let's say that life is still more fair
Although the curtain falls.*

OBITUARY

Clenton Thomas Hayden son of the late John and Alice Thurman Hayden was born September 2, 1892 in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky and departed this life on March 12th, 1966 at the age of 74 years - 6 months and 10 days in Lexington, Kentucky. He was joined in Holy Wedlock to Miss Princess Mason in the year of 1913. To this union were born 12 children - 7 which preceded him in death with five surviving.

He became a member of the Lawrenceburg Baptist Church at an early age and there united with the East Maple Street Christian in 1925 in which he served as a deacon for thirty years and also on the trustee board of the Church. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 91 and served as a member of the City Board of Council for several years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Princess Hayden, two daughters, Mrs. Dollie White and Mrs. Jennie Ogle of Nicholasville, three sons, Sidney Lee, John Thomas, and Mexico all of Nicholasville; three sisters, Mrs. Corrine Carter and Mrs. Lucille Lawson Griffin of Lexington and Mrs. Christianna Morton of Cleveland, Ohio, two Aunts, Mrs. Bettie Connor of Lexington and Mrs. Verna Harris of Lawrenceburg, Ky. and 19 Grandchildren, plus the hosts of relatives and friends left to mourn their loss.

He was a devoted husband and father to his family and never felt that he could give them too much of this. Attending Church services was his joy from Sunday to Sunday until he became unable to do so and yet to the very last this was his concern.

His favorite songs were: "Precious Lord," "Amazing Grace," "Old Rugged Cross," "Peace in the Valley" and "The Day is Passed and Gone."

What would we give to clasp his hand
His patient face to see!
To hear his voice to see his smile
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day, we'll meet again
Beyond the Toil and Strife
And Clasp each other's hand once more
In heaven - that happy life.
We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see
But all is well, that's done by Thee.

We feel so sad
When those we love
Are called to live
In "The Home Above"-
But they have just gone
To prepare the way
And we'll meet them again
Some happy day-
For God has told us
That nothing can sever
A life He created
To live forever-
So let God's promise
Soften our sorrow
And give us new strength
For a brighter tomorrow

Then, one by one, with gentle words

Obituary

THERE'S A REASON

*For every pain that we must bear
For every burden, every care,
There's a reason.
For every grief that bows the head
For every tear-drop that is shed
There's a reason.
For every hurt, for every plight
For every lonely pain-racked night
There's a reason.*

And, so on early Saturday morning (January 16th) God saw the reason to come for John (J.T.) Thomas Hayden at the Central Baptist Hospital. A son of the late Clinton and Princess Mason Hayden, John was born January 22, 1920, and nearly 73 years old at his passing. He was a strong, lifelong member of the East Maple Street Christian Church, Nicholasville and the Brick-layers Union No. 17. He served in the armed forces with the 3109th Quartermaster Corps in World War II.

He was the beloved husband of Margaret Yates Hayden and the dedicated father of 10 children: Marguerite Cheek (Nicholasville); Princess E. (Louisville); Margery E. and Dolores A. (who preceded him in death); Mari (Atlanta, GA); John Jr. (Volanda) Lexington; Clenton L. (Adria) Louisville; Joseph M. (Doris) Rowlett, Texas; Glenward D. (Kay) Somerset, New Jersey; and Gary H. (Lexington). He was a wonderful grandfather to 10 grandchildren and 1 great granddaughter.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Jennie (Joe) Ogle; a brother, Mexico (Bernice) Hayden; 2 brothers-in-law, Percy Lee (Roberta) Yates and John Hunter (Beatrice) Yates; 8 nieces, 5 nephews; many other relatives and a host of friends.

*J.T.: A man of Christian value
A man of family endurance
A man whose efforts were utmost
An ever willing helping hand.
Darling: We cannot go beyond God's reach or beyond His love and care.
For we are all a part of God
and God is everywhere.*

OBITUARY

On Friday, October 14, 1994 at 5:15 p.m. God saw fit to call another soldier into his fold, John Thomas Hayden.

He was born October 14, 1900 on North Fifth Street to the late Thomas and Eliza Hayden.

At an early age, he became a member of St. James A.M.E. Church, where he served as a loyal and faithful member until his health failed him. He was a Stewart, Trustee, Treasurer, Class Leader, and Janitor serving in the capacities with love, loyalty and a smile. He loved his church and was always willing to do his job.

He was a life member of American Legion Wallace Fisher Post 238 where he served as Treasurer, and officer Commander and a stockholder of the organization.

He served in the Army during W.W. II from November 3, 1942 – March 31, 1943.

He leaves to mourn his passing, a loving and devoted sister, Jane Dawson, and a nephew, William Frye.

There is an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone;
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims His own.
Beyond the gates our loved ones, find peace,
happiness and rest.
There is comfort in the thought,
that a loving God know best.

OBITUARY

MARY OPHELIA HAYDEN, daughter of Pauline Carpenter Guest and Ernest Durham was born on July 13, 1951 in Danville Kentucky. She departed this life early Saturday morning April 6, 1985 at her home in Harrodsburg Kentucky.

At a very early age she united with ST. James A.M.E. Church Danville, during the pastorate of Rev. C.E. Blake.

She was united in marriage to Thomas Hayden and to this union was born one daughter and one son.

We are saddened by the sudden passing of our loved one, but we bow in humble submission to the will of the Almighty God, knowing that his love is sufficient to comfort and sustain us.

Survivors include a husband, Thomas; one daughter Angela Renee Hayden, one son Thomas Hayden III; Mother, Mrs. Pauline Guest, Danville; one sister Mrs. Pattie Johnson, Cleveland, Ohio; one brother William Carpenter Sr., Lexington; A Grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Carpenter, Danville; A devoted foster father Carl Simpson; one Aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Ross; a foster Aunt Dora Simpson; three uncles, Rev. Hubert Carpenter, Pleasant Hill Missouri, Alonzo Carpenter, Lexington; and Thomas Carpenter, Stanford. Five half sisters, two brother-in-laws and three sister-in-laws. Rest of other relatives, including a son James Howard.

There are many things in life,
That we cannot understand,
But we must trust God's judgement,
And be guided by his hand.

And so in faith we must believe,
That mercy is still on the throne,
Though our hearts are filled with sorrow,
We know God's will must be done.

Obituary

Robert Hayden was born June 15, 1948 in Frankfort, Kentucky to the late Harry Walker Ballinger and Marie Hayden. God called his faithful servant home on Sunday, July 8, 2001 surrounded by his loving family at the Hospice Care Unit at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky.

Robert was a faithful member of First Baptist Church and was truly one of "God's soldiers". During his lengthy illness, he never complained; he always laughed and joked to the end. When he smiled, those "dimples" would light up the room. His determination and perseverance was truly a gift from God. Robert fought a good fight, but God loved him best!

After Graduation from Frankfort High School, he served in the United State Army. He was forced to retired from the Department of Transportation, Division of Fleet Management after numerous years of State Government service.

Left to remember all the wonderful memories Robert leaves behind are his faithful, loving and dedicated wife, Dorothy Hayden, Frankfort, KY; four daughters; LaQuida Hayden, Frankfort, KY, Latoya Winkfield, Frankfort, KY, Tisa (Jeff) McReynolds, Lexington, KY, Francesca (Leroy) Joyner, Louisville, KY, a step-mother, Mildred Ballinger, Radcliff, KY; two brothers, James Demartra, Frankfort, KY, and Gregory Ballinger, Chicago, IL; nine sisters; Lalita (Isaac) Bryant, Louisville, KY, Renee' (David) Carter, Frankfort, KY, Virginia Jones, Radcliff, KY, Mary Ballinger, Cleveland, OH, Cheryl Cash, Anchorage, AK, Reese Sanders, Lexington, KY, Joyce Ballinger, Radcliff, KY, Janice Ellis, Radcliff, KY, and Gail Ballinger, Radcliff, KY; six grandchildren, Mario Jones, Gabrielle Wingate, Ebony McReynolds, Emani McReynolds, Michael Caldwell, III, and Jaden Caldwell; and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and close family friends.

He was preceded in death by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey; and a brother, Samuel Hayden.

*While traveling the pale blue sky.
A float on silvery wings.
A tear of glee came to my eyes
From the sight of lovely things.
Knowing somewhere in the distance land,
There is a man struggling to be free.
Is my call to arms across the stormy sea.
For freedom is one thing that should be all over the universe.
And I will prepare my self and help my fellow man
Through the very worse.
Not forgetting the man, who died to set me free,
Still watch from heaven above.
This is enough to make me struggle
Until this land is filled with only love.
So I will trust in my God, my country
And also my fellow man.*

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Willie Belle accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and united with the Pleasant Union Baptist Church of Logantown and later with First Baptist Church of Stanford, Kentucky, where she sang in the Senior Choir until her health began to fail. She also was a member of the Pansy Club.

She was united in marriage to the late Robert Stevenson. Being a person who loved children, she helped to rear and educate several nieces and nephews.

She leaves to cherish her memories three sisters, Mrs. Thelma Stevenson of Stanford, KY, Mrs. Zelpher Smith of Lexington, KY, and Mrs. Florence Wilkes of Indianapolis, IN; one brother, Norah Hayes of Christian Health Center, Lexington, KY; three sister-in-laws, Mrs. Mayme Hayes of Woodford Memorial Hospital, Versailles, KY, Mrs. Margaret Bedenbaugh of Cincinnati, OH, and Mrs. Edith Hayes of Indianapolis, IN; two brother-in-laws, Hubert and Johnnie Stevenson of Stanford, KY; a host of nieces and nephews; and other relatives and friends.

*When I came to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little—But not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me—But let me go.*

*For this journey that we all must take.
And all must go alone.
It's all a part of the master's plan
A step on the road home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the hills we know
And bury your sorrows among the trees
For I am free.
Miss me—but let me go.*

*Don't spend too much time in mourning,
tears are for the sad.
I've left to be with Jesus,

no need to feel distressed.
I've dealt with life's frustrations,

or try to reason why.
Life here for me was ended,
it came my time to die.*

*Don't lose the love I gave you,
feed it with your care.
Grow it with devotion,
