OBITUARY

There is a reaper whose name is death.

And with his sickle keen,

He reaps the breaded grain

And the flowers that grow between.

Florine T. Ingram, born September 23, 1884, the daughter of the late Dan and Eliza Thomas, departed this life Sunday, January 1, 1967.

At the age of seventeen she was converted and joined St. James A.M.E. Church of this city. She was a devoted and active member. In her 65 years as a member of St. James A.M.E., she served as Sunday School teacher, Stewardess, and a member of the Senior Choir.

She taught in Mason County, Casey County, Perryville, Boyle, Fee Memorial Institute, Nicholasville, and at Bate School, of this city, for 45 years, retiring in 1955.

She was a member of the national sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, House Of Ruth, Busy Sunshine Club and the Domestic Economy Club.

She leaves to mourn her passing a husband, Mr. James E. Ingram, a number of relatives, and a host of friends.

Obituary

*Tell me not in mournful numbers, life is but an empty dream,
For the soul is dead that slumbers, things are not what they seem.*

Jerry Allen Ingram was the son and only child of the late Mattie Mary Marshall and the late Ernest Ingram.

Born August 7, 1917, and departed this life March 7, 1999, at Jane Todd Crawford Memorial Hospital. He was 81 years and seven months of age.

On December 23, 1936, he married the late Katie Katharine Taylor. This union of 61 years of marriage was blessed with 13 children.

Allen was a very devoted and faithful man to his family and church. He professed in Christ at an early age and united with Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, Greensburg, Kentucky. He would lend a helping hand to anyone who wanted to be helped. Allen never met a stranger that he didn't get to know.

He leaves to mourn: one uncle, James "Pap" Buckner of St. Paul, Minnesota, one sister-in-law, Maxine Stewart of Lima, Ohio; 12 children: Mary E. Adams and Cathy Smith of Lexington, Kentucky; Sylvester Ingram of Bowling Green, Kentucky; Barbara Jean Richardson and Michael W. Ingram of Columbia, Kentucky; Janet Johnson and Peggy L. Taylor of Campbellsville, Kentucky; Jane Allen Anderson, Linda Sue White, JoAnn Ingram, Ella Frances White and Jerry Ingram Jr., all of Greensburg, Kentucky.

Preceding him in death was his lovely wife, Katharine, and one daughter, Arlene Ingram Douglas.

He had 27 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and a host of cousins and friends.

*Granddaddy, you will be greatly missed by all but never forgotten
With each passing day, your memory with us will stay.*

OBITUARY

Jessie Ingram, son of the late Clifford and Maria Ingram, was born on March 23, 1923, in Garrard County, Kentucky. He was call to Eternal Rest on Monday, May 18, 1998. One sister Mattie Lee Lancaster and his brother Charlie C. Ingram precede him in death.

He worked alongside his father on the farm for several years before moving to Youngstown, Ohio. He retired from Republic Steel Corporation after thirty plus years and also retired after twenty-five year from operating his own business.

Mr. Ingram was a loving and caring father and devoted grandfather. His entire family meant a lot to him. His friendly, outgoing manner earned him man lifelong friends. He was kindhearted, easygoing and always had a smile. He was willing to help all.

We will comfort ourselves, with his memory and Thank God for having been allowed to have known such a dear father, brother, uncle and grandfather.

He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Loretta Ingram, of New York, New York; one granddaughter, Kimberly Ingram of Louisville, Kentucky; one brother William "Nick" Ingram of Cincinnati, Ohio and a sister Georgia Segar of Lexington, Kentucky; and sever nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

How sweet it is at evening, after a long and well spent day, To close the eyes in clumber, and rest from the toil of day.

*It is doubly sweet, at the close of a well spent life,
To turn one's face toward the sunset and quietly sink into rest in the presence of God.*

OBITUARY

Maria Etta Ingram, daughter of the late Charlie and Lizzy Dunn Gaines, was born on July 21, 1895, in Garrard County, Kentucky. She was called to eternal rest Thursday, January 18, 1990.

Maria professed hope in Christ and united with the First Baptist Church, Davistown, Kentucky.

She was united in marriage with Clifford Ingram, who preceded her in death, and to that union four children were born.

She leaves to cherish her memories, three sons: William H. Ingram and Charlie C. Ingram, both of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Jesse Ingram of Youngstown, Ohio; one adopted daughter, Georgia Segar of Lexington, Kentucky; one sister, Jeanetta Smith of Chicago, Illinois; four grandchildren, several great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews; cousins and a host of friends.

*Death is just the gateway our Loved ones pass through,
On their way to the land where we are all born a new.
And while we can't see what's on death's other side,
We know that our Father will richly provide.
All that he promised to those who believe,
And his kingdom is waiting for us to receive.*

*Sleep on dear mother
Tis God who thought best
To take you from this world of sorrow
To a Lovely place of rest.*

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down to green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and they staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all

OBITUARY

"The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Mrs. Nellie Penman Ingram, daughter of the late Spot and Alice Trumbo Penman was born in Stoney Point, Kentucky on November 4, 1892. She departed this life after a long illness, on Wednesday, November 27, 1985.

Her husband, Robert McKinley Ingram preceded her in death. Nellie Penman Ingram lived in Danville most of her life. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Second and Walnut Streets and worked fervently before declining health caused her to move. She moved to Clinton, Maryland to be with Mrs. Hattie Ingram Clay-brooks and her family whom she raised and loved dearly. She was happy in her new home.

While there, she united with the Gethsemane Baptist Church. She was welcomed graciously and warmly into this church family. She was the mother of the church and a deaconess. She was dearly loved and a favorite of all. Everywhere she went, everyone she met, she left a mark of love. Many people were touched by her strength, kindness, and goodness.

The memories of Nellie Penman Ingram will linger in the hearts and minds of her beloved family, David and Hattie Ingram Clay-brooks and their two children, David Dallas and ChaNell Victory; she also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

With Love Today

We Thought of you with love today
But this is nothing new,
We thought of you yesterday
and the days before that too
We think of you in silence and often speak your name.
All we have now are memories,
and your picture in a frame.
It broke out hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone
A part of us went with you the day God took you home.
