

Mother and Grandmother Too

Somewhere in our hearts, beneath all of this pain is a smile we still wear at the sound of your name.

The precious word is "Mother", she was our rock you see. But now our hearts are breaking she's no longer here with us.

God chose her for his angel to watch us from above. To guide us and advise us and know that we're still loved.

The day she had to leave us, Her life on earth was through.
But God had better plans for her, for this, I surely knew.

When I think of her kind heart an all those loving years,
Because we're only human they're bound to bring us tears.
She truly was our best friend, someone we could confide in
She always had a tender touch, a soft and gentle smile.

We want to thank you Mother for teaching us so well,
Even though the time has come, that we must bid farewell.

I'll remember all you've taught me to put God above all Others..... For we had no better teacher,

Thank you.....Our Dear Mother.

Acknowledgements

The family of Brenda Joyce Hunter Jabr, would like to express their sincere thanks to everyone for your support during her illness, this was truly a blessing to us. Special appreciation to Rev. Houston, First Baptist Church, our

~ The Obituary ~

Alma Napier Jackman, age 76, a resident of Danville, Kentucky, was called to her eternal rest by God, on Tuesday, April 18, 2006 at the Danville Centre for Health and Rehabilitation.

She was the daughter of the late Porter and Lillie Adams Napier, born on July 10, 1929 in Liberty, Kentucky. She is preceded in death by her husband Virgil Jackman, one brother Ralph Napier, four sisters Catherine Napier, Nellie Napier, Ann Napier and Alene Swann.

Alma professed her hope in Christ at an early age and was a member of First Baptist Church Danville, where she served on the Usher Board and was a member of the Men and Women's Improvement Club.

She attended Bate High School and retired from Centre College after many years of service.

She loved her family and was always ready to lend a hand. She enjoyed working on her lawn, tending to her flower especially her rose's. You would often find her writing letters to family members and friends.

Alma leaves to cherish her memory: three nieces, Carol Woods, Danville, Kentucky, Patricia Harris, Danville, Kentucky and Michaelene (Wilburn) James, Lexington, Kentucky; two nephews Marvin (Becky) Swann, Jr., Danville, Kentucky and Larry (Joan) Swann, New Albany, Indiana; one aunt Catherine Napier, Danville, Kentucky; an a host of other relatives and friends.

God saw you were getting weary
so he did what he thought was best,
He came and stood beside you
and whispered "come and rest",
You bid no one a last farewell
not even a good-bye
You were gone before we knew it
and only God knows why
We loved you, but God loved you best.

Admiral Joseph Jackson

December 27, 1940 - April 18, 2014

An Obituary

Admiral Joseph Jackson, 73, of Lexington, KY, went home to be with God on Friday, April 18, 2014, as a result of a brave battle with lung cancer. Born in Lexington, Kentucky on December 27, 1940, Joseph was the youngest child of the late Admiral Dewey and Rebecca Jackson.

Joseph demonstrated his brilliant curiosity and creativity at an early age. He enjoyed re-engineering and creating new from the old, using whatever tools and objects available to him. His family and friends marveled at his unique and often very useful creations. He was quite skillful at playing games, including baseball. He liked to watch movies and enjoyed dancing with his very sensitive feel of rhythm serving as an excellent substitute for his lack of hearing. He enjoyed the freedom to drive and explore the world by car, and was quite happy when he obtained his Kentucky Driver's License at age 16.

Joseph was baptized at an early age at Historic St. Paul A.M.E. Church by the late Rev. (Bishop) Harrison James Bryant. He remained a member of St. Paul until the Lord called him home. As he grew into a young man, Joseph did not let his physical challenge as a death mute hamper him in any way from his participation in the youth choir and many other activities at his church. He also enjoyed involvement in many community activities, including the North Upper Street YWCA, swimming at Douglas Park and frequent family outings. Most memorable are his first family trip to the Cincinnati Zoo, the Circus and the Lexington Airport (now Blue Grass Airport) to see his first airplanes.

Joseph entered the Kentucky School for the Deaf in Danville, Kentucky on December 28, 1947. At that time, like most schools in the United States, the deaf school was segregated – separate, but the educational offerings were definitely not equal to the deaf school for white students just across the street. This was quite unacceptable to Joseph's parents who wanted only the best for their youngest child with special needs. This led Joseph's father, Dewey Jackson, to work closely with United States and Kentucky elected officials and other leaders, and eventually integration of the "white" and "colored" deaf schools was achieved.

An Obituary

On May 25, 1961, with an "Honorable Testimonial of Excellence of Character and Faithful Application, Joseph graduated from the Vocational Department of the Kentucky School for the Deaf with a Certification in Tailoring. Later, he applied his vocation in his employment as a Tailor with Lexington men's clothier Graves & Cox Company and Sonny's Cleaners.

Joseph was loved by his family and friends in the community, many of whom have warm and humorous stories they are all too eager to share about their associations with him.

Joseph leaves to cherish his memories two sisters: Peggy Fowlkes (Nelson) of Dublin, California, and Bessie Jackson of Lexington; four nieces: Priscilla Sullivan (Marvin), Sandra Brooks and Paula Campbell of Lexington and Janet Billups of Palo Alto, California; two nephews: Errol Fowlkes (Babette) and Nelson Joseph Fowlkes (Tracey) of Fresno, California; a host of great nieces, great nephews, and cousins, including special cousin Mary Jo Black; and many friends, including special friends Julian Jackson, Arthur Lewis and Ronald Burruss. Preceding him in death was his brother, Jerry K. Devine, the first African American elected chair of the merged Fayette County School Board.

Goodbye my brother, my uncle, relative and friend. You will be sorely missed, but our love for you and the fond memories will remain in our hearts.

- OBITUARY -

Mrs. Christine Moore Jackson was born on May 27, 1939, in Danville, KY to the late Harry Moore and Lucille Moore. She was the granddaughter of the late Fox Carson and Mary Gaines Carson.

Mrs. Jackson was a member of the Historic Pleasant Green Baptist Church. She was a retired employee of the Campbell House Inn and University of Kentucky.

She was a very loving and adoring mother that loved her children and family and would go to the ends of the world for them. She always said to us at the end of a visit "Children, watch as well as pray, and ask God to watch you!"

She is preceded in death by five brothers Ben, Joe, Randall, Guy, and Harry Moore.

Mrs. Jackson leaves to cherish her memories: four children, Christopher "Lil Bit" Jackson, Lisa Jackson, Nathan L. (Ella) Moore, and Anthony "AJ" (Marion) Jackson; 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren; five brothers, Rev. James (Niecy) Moore, Billy (Jessena) Moore, Willie Richardson, Michael (Keisha) Richardson, Henry (Yvonne) Carson; three sisters, Myrtle Connor, Henrietta (Joe) Lawton, and Loretta (Henry) Royston; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, including a special niece, Quiana "DaDa" Johnson.

Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone

Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind,

be empty and turn your back

Or you can do what she would want:

smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Obituary

Eugene Jackson was born the son of Mr. Will and Buella Jackson on January 27, 1926, in Danville, Kentucky. Mr. Jackson served two years in the Army, from 1944 to 1946. On January 24, 1949, Mr. Jackson married Ms. Aline McRoberts. The couple resided in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Jackson served the General Motors Corporation in the management department for over 40 years. Mr. Jackson was an active member of the East Mt. Zion Baptist Church. It was here, that Mr. Jackson served as a member of both the Senior Choir and Male Chorus. Mr. Jackson also participated in the #14 Club. Upon his retirement in 1989, the Jacksons relocated to Louisville, Kentucky. Here, Mr. Jackson became a valued member of the Zion Baptist Church and participated in the choir as well.

Mr. Jackson will be missed by those who loved him, Aline his wife; three nieces, Marjion, Genevine, and Kathrine; three nephews, James, Henry, and Marcellus. He is also survived by one sister, Bertha Miller; and one brother, who is deceased.

*"There's an open gate at the end of the road through which each must go alone,
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims his own!
Beyond the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest, and there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best."*

Our Eternal Father who doeth all things well called home

Sis. Julia Jackson

On Monday, March 16, 1998 at 1:30 p.m. at the University of Kentucky Medical Center. She was born on April 16, 1924 to the late Elzy and Mary Trumbo in Finleyville, Pennsylvania. She is preceded in death by two brothers Arthur Trumbo and Robert Trumbo.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of First Baptist Church Danville for over fifty years. She graduated from Bate High School in Danville, Kentucky. She was a domestic engineer for fifty year for Dr. and Mrs. Beto. She loved to work with her plants.

She leaves to cherish her memories her sister Nettie Jagoe of Paducah, KY; three brothers William Trumbo, Jesse Trumbo both of Lexington, KY, and Lawrence Trumbo of Hampton, VA; two sister-in-law Helen Trumbo of Danville, KY and Martha Trumbo, Leesburg, FL; a special friend Charles Dawson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*The call was sudden, the shock severe,
Little was knew such grief was near
Only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
But you did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.*

A Stepping Stone To Life

*When death brings weeping
And the heart is filled with sorrow,
It beckons us to seek God
As we ask about tomorrow. . .
And in these hours of "heart-hurt"
We draw closer to believing that even death in God's hands
Is not a cause for grieving
But a time for joy in knowing
Death is just a stepping stone to a life that's everlasting
Such as we have never known*

Obituary

Keith Alexander Jackson was born on Tuesday, September 15, 1965 in Shelbyville, Kentucky. He was the son of the late Alexander and Laura Louise Todd Jackson. He departed this life suddenly and unexpectedly in the early morning hours of Friday, March 16, 2012. He lost his life doing what he did best – being a friend and helping someone in need.

Keith was a graduate of Shelby County High School and continued his education by obtaining an associate’s degree from RETS Electronic Institute. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army Reserves and Kentucky National Guard. He began his electrical career with Payne Electric Company in Louisville and eventually started his own business.

He was a lifelong member of Clay Street Baptist Church and had been attending Jacob’s Well Ministries.

Keith was a good-natured person who met no strangers. Wherever he went, far or near, everyone fell in love with him. He had a big smile and the heart of a giant. He kept you laughing.

He was an avid fan of University of Louisville basketball and football and also a Dallas Cowboys fan.

In addition to his parents, one sister, Laura Harris, and one brother, Dennis Morton, preceded him in death.

Survivors include his three sisters, Brenda Jackson and Victoria Walker, both of Shelbyville and Janet Jackson (Henry) Payne of Danville; five brothers, George E. Morton, Sr. of Shelbyville, Perry Morton of Raleigh, NC and William Loving, Paul Jackson and Steve Jackson, all of Shelbyville; one aunt, Martha Mason of Shelbyville and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness—
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust,
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone.
I'll greet you with a smile, and Welcome Home.

Laura Louise Todd Jackson

On Monday, May 22, 1995 at Jewish Hospital, Shelbyville, God spoke and called Laura Louise Todd Jackson to her heavenly home. Louise "Meme" as she was affectionately called by many who loved her, was born September 26, 1920 to the late Taylor and Laura (Brown) Todd in Shelby County, Kentucky.

Louise professed hope in Christ at an early age. She was a member of Clay Street Missionary Baptist Church. Louise was united in marriage to the late William Ernest Morton. Later, she was united in marriage to the late Alexander Jackson.

Louise was a homemaker, worked with environmental services at the Old Kings Daughters Hospital and the cafeteria at Northside Elementary School. She was a foster mother for many years.

She leaves to mourn her passing: three daughters; Laura Harris, Shelbyville, Janet Payne, Danville, and Victoria Walker, Phoenix, AZ. Six sons; George E. Morton, Sr. and Dennis Morton both of Shelbyville, Perry Morton and Keith Jackson, Louisville, Paul and Steve Jackson, Shelbyville, one step-daughter; Brenda Jackson and one step-son; William Loving both of Shelbyville, two sisters; Martha Mason, Shelbyville and Willie Mae Bradford, Louisville. One aunt; Genevieve Chambers, Shelbyville, two daughters-in-law, two sons-in-law, twenty-one grandchildren, fourteen great-grandchildren and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends. Three sisters and three brothers preceded her in death.

Leoa Allene Jackson

Obituary

JACKSON Leoa Allene Doram (Muh) fell asleep in the Lord on September 2, 2013. Leoa was born on June 20, 1920 to the late Alphonso and Ann Doram of Danville, KY. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 32 years, William Andrew Jackson, Sr.; a daughter, Betty Jean Jackson Bates; four brothers: J.L., Alphonso, Jr., and James Doram, Morris Lewis; and a sister, Geraldine Doram Carson. She leaves to mourn her passing eight children: Carolyn (Matthew) Madison, Barbara Able, Patricia Lewis, Marjorie Clark, and Phyllis Jackson; three sons: William Jr. (Johnetta), David and Timothy (Carmela) Jackson; a god-daughter, Louise Mitchell; seven siblings: Georgia Ray, Victoria Perkins, Donna Wilhite, Joann Smith, Yvonne Weathers, Joyce (Dave) Davis and Freda (Joseph) Frye; a brother-in-law, Pete Carson; and sisters-in-law: Mabel Doram, Johnnie Doram and Vanta Lewis. Muh will be missed dearly by her 32 grandchildren, 53 great-grandchildren, 30 great-great-grandchildren, and a host of family and friends. Muh was a career homemaker, she was a fabulous cook, and she applied her trade at Sayre School and Eastern State Hospital. She was a noted historian of the Smith-Doram family, and she was a faithful member of the Lima Drive Seventh Day Church where she raised all her kids to fear and love the Lord. She was a mother to many of her grandchildren and was surrounded by them as she prepared for her eternal rest. Family meant the world to her, and she would often say that was the reason for her longevity. Services will be Tuesday, September 10, 2013 at Lima Drive Seventh Day Adventist Church, 541 Lima Drive, Lexington, KY. Visitation: 10am-12pm. Services starting immediately thereafter. Burial will be at Highlands Memorial Cemetery. The family can be reached at (859) 293-1532. The family requests that all monetary donations be sent to the Gill Heart Institute or Oakwood University.

~THE OBITUARY~

Martha F. (Bradshaw) Jackson, 71 widow of Wesley Jackson, affectionately called "Granny" departed this life on Tuesday, September 6, 2005, in the comfort of her daughter's residence.

She was a native of Danville, KY, born on August 3, 1934 to the late Herman and Sadie Bradshaw. She was preceded in death by her sister Elayne Segar.

Martha was united in holy matrimony to Wesley Jackson who preceded her in death. To this union one daughter was born.

She was a faithful member of St. James A.M.E. Church, until her illness. She served on the usher board and was a member of Ella P. Pryor Club. She graduated from Bate High School in 1952 and was a former employee of Palm Beach Company.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, her daughter Beverly (William, Sr) Carpenter of Lexington, KY; one sister Odell Pittman, of Lexington, KY; three grandchildren William, Jr (Scooby), Christi, and Brian Carpenter; three great-grandchildren Detierra, Madison and JaJuante' Carpenter, all of Lexington, KY; one aunt Marva Jones, Lexington, KY; four nephews, two nieces, cousins and friends.

*God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb,
She gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered peace be thine.
The early hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights are passed.
The ever patient, worn out frame.
Has found sweet rest at last.*

*There is no night without a dawning,
No winter without a Spring
And beyond death's dark horizon
Our hearts once more will sing –
For those who leave us for a while
Have only GONE AWAY
Out of a restless, careworn world
Into a "BRIGHTER DAY"
Where there will be no partings
And time is not counted by years,
Where there are no trials or troubles,
No worried, no cares and no tears.*

Obituary

NAOMI VERA JACKSON, daughter of the late Arthur and Mildred M. Montgomery, was born August 30, 1934, in Harmans, Maryland.

She was reared and nurtured in a Christian home. It was in this atmosphere that enabled Naomi to develop into a caring, loving and devoted daughter, wife, mother and grandmother.

Naomi was educated in the public schools of Anne Arundel County. She also attended Cortez Peters Business School.

On September 22, 1957, Naomi was blessed with a beautiful rose and that was Sharon. Through her trials and tribulations with Arthritis, Naomi with the help of her mother raised Sharon. On July 11, 1959, Naomi was united in marriage to Christopher Jackson, Jr.

Naomi was employed with the Anne Arundel County Public Schools System for twenty-eight years until her retirement in 1991.

Naomi was a member of St. Mark United Methodist Church where she was a member of the United Methodist Women.

Mom loved to talk on the phone, especially in the evenings to her two favorite buddies, Constance and Reva. She also loved good gospel music and with health permitting to be in church on the Fifth Sunday for the Youth and Young Adult Choirs.

On Wednesday, April 28, 1999, at 12:20 p.m., she quietly entered the eternal gates from North Arundel Hospital in Glen Burnie, Maryland.

Left to cherish their memories are: her devoted husband, Christopher Jackson, Jr.; a heartbroken daughter, Sharon Dorsey; two grandsons, Larry Jr. and William Christopher Dorsey; one great grandson, Trevon Dicks; one aunt, Mabel Montgomery; one uncle, Leonard Montgomery; one sister-in-law, Thelma Holloway; cousins, many friends and relatives; also two special friends, Constance Day and Reva Holland; and one play daughter, Sherry Ann Pierre and son, Dwayne Mundell.

Obituary

Ruth Johnson Dunn, 76 of 1575 LaSalle Road, formerly of Garrard County, died Monday, October 4, 1999 at St Joseph hospital after a short illness. She was born to the late Joseph Dunn and Cora Able. She was a member of Pilgrim Baptist Church. She leaves to cherish her memories two sisters, Malinda Dunn Warren of Lexington, Willie M Tarrance of Danville; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
But not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
good friends, good times, a loved ones

Obituary

Virginia Marie Jackson was born on December 21, 1938, to the late John and Ahvanada Bruce in St. Albans, West Virginia. Virginia was called home on Wednesday, November 23, 2022, at Baptist Health Hospital; she was 83-years-young.

She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was a long-standing, faithful member of First Baptist Church Bracktown.

Virginia retired from IBM after 25 years of service, where she had played on the company softball team. She went on to work at Bluegrass Tours, Kroger Pharmacy and as a driver for Lexington Wheels.

She was an avid world traveler. Her many travels included Holland, New Zealand, London, Scotland and Wales. She was a lover of all people, she met no strangers.

In June 2006, Virginia was recognized and received by Kentucky Governor Ernie Fletcher and Lexington Mayor Teresa Isaacs when her friends from Holland came to Kentucky for a visit. She was also a Kentucky Colonel.

Besides her parents, Virginia was preceded in death by a daughter, Avanda Jackson-Harris.

Virginia is survived by her daughter, Yolanda (Simpson) Jackson; grandson, Brandon Mayfield and grandchildren, Kaliyah and Kardier Mayfield; her cousin, Ralph (Tawanda) Dudley of St. Albans, WV; special friends, Lucy Grillo, William Beckett, Felipe Tapia and family; she also leaves many friends and extended family to cherish her beautiful memory.

Virginia will always be remembered for her outgoing personality and that big, beautiful smile.

Obituary

Wiliene Jackson was born to the union of Ollie Mae Wade Mays and William Jackson on April 17, 1950. She departed this life on April 27, 2014 after a courageous battle with cancer in Morehead, KY.

Wiliene confessed her relationship with Christ at an early age at First Baptist Church. She attended St. Paul Methodist A.M.E. Church in Versailles, KY where she ministered in every capacity that was requested of her. Upon returning home to Morehead, Wiliene became a faithful member of the House of Israel Ministries and later the Heavenly Outpour Church where she attended until her death through the ministry of Pastor Timothy Ellis and Elder Gill Finley. Mother Jackson was a devoted follower of Jesus name and filled with the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in tongues. She worked as a Manager at K-Mart for years until her health no longer allowed her to.

Wiliene had a colorful and infectious spirit that was loved by everyone that she came in contact with. She had a way of making you forget your problems or any issues you had. She had a zest for life and she lived her life to the fullest each and every day. She never complained and always had a smile on her face. Wiliene was the type of person who would do anything for you. She would always say, "I don't have much but.....".

Wiliene is survived by her passing four children; Lisa (Charles) McGraph, Morehead, KY; (Ivy) Slayden, Carmen Mays, all of Frankfort, KY; Chris (Shae) Jackson of Frankfort, KY; three brothers; James Mays, Los Angeles, CA; Phillip Mays, Morehead, KY; and Gary Payne, Frankfort, KY; thirteen grandchildren; Jason Mays, Morehead, KY; Justin Mays, Jonathan Mays, April Mays, William Mays, Amari Mays, Jayden Mays, Ayoina Mays-Clark, Caymen Mays-Clark, Amari Mays, and Ca'Mar Moore; all of Frankfort; Shamiya and Trinity Jackson, Frankfort, KY; four great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by one sister; Constance Cleveland and four brothers; Walter Mays, Robert Mays, William Mays and Thomas Mays.

Wiliene was so fortunate to have a host of "special friends" in which she loved dearly; Lisa (Charles) McGraph, Robin (Sister) Tillman, Michelle Rosie Cleveland, Toni Mays, Aretha Booth, Aundrea Owens, Shae Cooper, Cheri Evans, Stephen Mays, and Oliver (Soap) Jackson and Freddie Frazier.

OBITUARY

*We are all God's children
From the morning-hour of birth -
He lets us live and laugh and love
And have our day on earth.
He guards us through the afternoon
Till sunset's rays are cast -
Then, one by one, with gentle words
He calls us home at last.*

On Monday evening, August 21, 1989 Mrs. Willie Belle Jackson was silently called home.

She was born January 9, 1936 in Danville, Kentucky to the late Ernest and Sarah Martha Hagan. She attended Bate High School and had been employed at Gratz Park Inn.

She was united in marriage to James F. Jackson. She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, James F. Jackson; two daughters, Frances Jackson and Bobbie Dansby, both of Lexington, Kentucky and one son, James Dennis Jackson of Camp Lejuene, N.C., one brother, A.B. Hagan of Danville, Kentucky; three grandchildren, several nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

OBITUARY

Brutus Matthew Clay Jameson was born February 21, 1916 to the late Scott and Mattie Clay Jameson in Franklin Co. He passed this life Wednesday, July 24, 1991 at his home.

He was a Navy Veteran of World War II, serving in the Asiatic Pacific Campaign. His organizational memberships include: Meridian Sun Lodge No. 26 F. and A.M., American Legion, Veterans of Foreign War and the Green Hill Baptist Church. He retired from Kentucky State University in 1980, but continued his stone masonry practice for the rest of his life.

He leaves to mourn his passing, a faithful and devoted daughter, Robinil Hamilton Jameson of Frankfort; two brothers, Scott Jameson, Jr. of Louisville, and Isom Clay Jameson of Detroit; Nephews, Scott Jameson, III of Bowling Green, Ohio, Max Jameson of Southfield, Michigan; Paul Jameson and Dale Jameson of Detroit and David Jameson of Louisville; Neices, Norma Clay of Frankfort, Mary Bacon of Washington, D.C., Marnina baht Isreal of Israel and Avis Taylor of Detroit; also several grand neices and nephews, many cousins and friends.

Somewhere back of the Sunset
Where loveliness never dies
He lives in a land of glory
Mid the blue and gold of the skies

And we, who have known and loved him
Whose passing has brought sad tears

And now, dear brothers, I want you to know what happens to a Christian when he dies so that when it happens, you will not be full of sorrow, as those are who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and then came back to life again, we can also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him all the Christians who have died. —1 Thessalonians 4:13,14

*"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. ## OBITUARY

After a lingering illness, on June 10, 1991, God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to call from our midst Lula Marie Jarber, who had resided at S-1 Batewood Homes for the past 10 years.

Lula was born October 2, 1935 to the late Stella and Hildreth Jarber in Boyle County, Kentucky.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Ernest and Hildreth Jarber, and two sisters, Elizabeth Randolph and Martha Jarber.

Lula accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and gave her witness through First Baptist Church, Second and Walnut Street, helping the young people or doing whatever was asked of her, until her health began to fail.

She attended Bate High School and was a retired domestic worker.

She leaves to cherish her memories her devoted daughter, Ms. Angela Jarber; two sons, Charles Langford and Algernon Jarber; six grandchildren, Algeria Jarber, Anthony Jones, Andrea Ogle, Thomas Jarber, Algernon Pennman and Adrian Ogle; a beloved sister, Ms. Nancy Y. Jarber; a host of cousins and friends.

*God saw you were getting weary
So he did what he thought was best;
He came and stood beside you
And whispered "Come and rest",
You bid no one a last farewell
Not even a good-bye;
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.*

We loved you mother but God loved you best.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Cora Lee Jarman born September 20, 1918 departed this life October 12, 1980, at 7 p.m. at the Fort Logan Hospital in Stanford, Ky. She was the daughter of the late William and Mottie Jones. She became a follower of Christ at a very early age under the pastorate of Rev. H.T. Garth and became a member of Jacobs Chapel A.M.E. Turnersville, where she served as Secretary and Treasurer of the Trustee Board. She was a Stewardess of No. 1 Stewardess Board.

She was united in marriage to the late George Jarman. She was head of the Nutrition Program at the Senior Citizens Building for one and a half years.

She leaves to mourn her passing one sister, Mrs. Bessie M. White, Mt. Orab, Ohio; two brothers, James E. Jones, Rt. 4, Stanford, and Scott Jones, Cincinnati, Ohio; two sister-in-laws Mrs. Eliza Jones, Louisville, and Mrs. Georgia B. Jones, Route 4, Stanford; one brother-in-law, Roscoe White, Mt. Orab, Ohio; one nephew, Eugene Jones, Route 4, Stanford; several great nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of friends.

The call was sudden, the shock severe. Little we thought such grief was near. Only one who has lost can tell the pain of parting without farewell. God took her home, rest she will but in our hearts she liveth. Still the flowers we lay upon her grave, may wither and decay but the love we have for her will never fade away.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM EUGENE JARMAN

July 19, 1925 – March 13, 1995

William Eugene Jarman, beloved and faithful father of Rita Hawkins and Roslyn Faulkner became an angel on Monday, March 13, 1995 after a brief illness.

Eugene was born in Hustonville, Kentucky, July 19, 1925 to the proud parents of Dennis and Rose Jarman. Preceding him in death were his two brothers, Foster Jarman and Guy Peyton and one sister, Mary Rosalyn Jarman.

Eugene committed his life to Christ in 1932. He was a member of Hustonville Christian Church. In the early 50's, Eugene moved to Danville and was a member of the Second Street Christian Church. He served as Chairman and Assistant Chairman of the Board. He was an active deacon. Eugene belonged to the Kentucky Club (treasurer) Willis Russell organization. He also belonged to the Doric Lodge #18 and the Blue Grass Consistory #46. In the Lodge he held several positions: Past High Priest of St. John Chapter #9, Eminent Commander of Cyrene Commandery #17, Senior Warden of Blue Grass Past Master's Council #2, and Past Master and Present Treasurer of Doric Lodge #18.

Survivors include two daughters, Rita (Albert) Hawkins and Rosalyn Faulkner both of Danville. Two grandsons Rashaad Faulkner and Donald Faulkner, Jr., one granddaughter Jasmine Hawkins, two nieces, Irene (Mitchell) Smith and Anna (Preston) Logan, 2 nephews, Guy Peyton, Jr. and Derrick Jarman. A very special friend Mary Higgins and a host of relatives and friends.

A TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM EUGENE JARMAN

Friendship makes the flowers bloom,
Puts sunshine in the spring,
And, in a way that's all its own,
Adds joy to everything!

How fortunate are those who share
the gift of friendship.
It involves many things, but above all,
the warmth of understanding,
the comfort of companionship,
and the joy of appreciation.

All my love,
Mary

Tears are not streaming from my eyes
You don't know the pain I feel
For all the wounds are in my heart
And this only God can heal.

Confess my name and die in the Lord
If you have my banners furied
The grave can't hold the Spirit of God
He's gone to another world.

A glorious world of peace and love
Where there's no pain or sorrow
When you die in Christ you go to sleep
To wake up on tomorrow.

GRAND DADDY

So quiet and unassuming was our grandfather
So loving and kind in his own way.
Just to spend some time with him, and talk to him—would put sunshine in any cloudy day.
We know he's just asleep, but
We'll miss him in our home,
We also know he's gone to rest,
Where pain and sorrow will never roam.

Love,
Donnie, Rashard and Jasmine

TO THOSE I LOVE AND THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me-let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tune yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many wonderful years.
I give to you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown.
But not it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
all my love, soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with open arms and say,
"Welcome Home."

Obituary

God in his infinite wisdom, blessed the union of the late Thomas William and Ada Burdette Huston on August 2, 1932 with the fourth of their nine children, a beautiful daughter that they named Emma Louise Huston. Emma L. Thornton Jarmon, 64 years of age, was called from labor to reward on Wednesday, December 18, 1996 at Central Baptist Hospital in Lexington, KY after a brief illness. She was born and reared in Danville, KY where she received her formal education from Bate School. A christian upbringing inspired her to accept Jesus as her Lord and Savior. She did so as a child uniting with St. James A.M.E. Church under the pastor of Rev. Buchanan. She was an active worker and member, helping wherever her service was needed. She later united with First Baptist, under the leadership of Rev. P.A. Carter where she continued to work and serve faithfully until the end. She will forever be missed in the dining facility where her cooking expertise was enjoyed by many. Emma retired from Jenny Rogers School after 35 years of service.

In October 1948 Emma was united in marriage to the late Robert Eugene Thornton Sr. This union was blessed with four children. She was preceded in death by a daughter, Janice Marie Thornton, and three brothers, Garfield, Joe Robert, and John Huston. She became a widow in August, 1972 and in later years she was married to the late Foster Jarmon who also preceded her in death.

Emma leaves to cherish her memory, three very loving and devoted children: Mae Emma Harris, Robert E. (Brother) Thornton Jr., and Anna Olivia Whitehead (George Sr.), all of Danville; a stepson, Derrick Jarmon, of Fort Richards, Alaska; two sisters, Bessie Mae Jackson of Danville, and Estella Martiniz of Ridgeway, S. C.; two brothers, James F. Huston and William E. Huston of Danville. She will be sadly missed by 11 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, 1 step-grandchild, and also an aunt, Christine Wilhite and a host of neices, nephews, cousins and friends.

OBITUARY

The Lord saw fit to call another one of his flock home. Foster Jarmon was born on April 12, 1929, in Boyle Co. He was called to eternal rest after a short illness at 4:00 p.m. on February 28th, 1989 at Ephraim McDowell Regional Hospital.

Foster was preceded in death by his parents William Dennis and Rose Sweeney Jarmon, a sister, Mary Louise Jarmon, and a brother, Guye Peyton.

He joined Hustonville Christian Church at an early age, and later moved his membership to Second Street Christian Church. He leaves to mourn his passing, a beloved wife, Mrs. Emma Thornton Jarmon, and a son Derrick Jarmon of Fayetteville, S.C. Two stepdaughters, Ms. Mae Harris, Mrs. Anna Whitehead, and a step-son, Mr. Robert Thornton, a brother Mr. Eugene Jarmon, 11 grandchildren, all of Danville. Four nieces and one nephew of Lexington, Ky. and a host of cousins and friends.

*Peacefully sleeping, resting at last
The world's weary troubles and trials all past
In silence he suffered, in patience he bore,
Till our Lord called him home to suffer no more*

OBITUARY

Fear not for I am with you. Do not be dismayed. I am your God. I will strengthen you; I will help you; I will uphold you with my victorious right hand. Is. 41:10

Estelle Jones Jefferson, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Jones, was born on May 9, 1900 in Danville, Kentucky. This is where she remained until 1970. At that time, she and her sister, the late Eva Cheek, moved to Miami, Florida.

Estelle confesses her faith in Christ at an early age. Before moving to Miami, she served as church clerk for the First Baptist Church in Danville, Kentucky for thirty-five years. Upon moving to Miami, she joined the New Covenant Presbyterian Church. She later moved her membership to Mt. Tabor Baptist Church, where she served faithfully until her untimely death.

In 1927 she was united in marriage to the late Alonzo C. Jefferson. From this union two children were born Benjamin C. and Eva M.

On Friday, May 25, she slipped quietly from this life and now rests safely in the arms of Jesus.

Those left to share her memories: a devoted and loving son and daughter, Benjamin C. Jefferson of Miami and Eva J. Leonard of Chicago; one sister, Mrs. Julia McClain of Louisville, KY; one sister-in-law, Mae Belle Jones of Charleston, W. VA; one daughter-in-law, Patricia Ann Jefferson of Miami; three grandchildren, Pamela Jefferson of Durham, N.C., Benjamin Jefferson, Jr. of Miami and Evita Chambers of Baltimore, MD; two great-grandchildren, Jamal and Allison of Durham, N.C.; one niece, Julia Kerr of Waltham, MA; one nephew, Joseph Jones of Camarillo, CA; one step-son, Alonzo C. Jefferson of Miami; one step-daughter, Panchitta Chisolm of Ft. Lauderdale; and numerous other caring relatives and close friends.

Safe in the Arms of Jesus

Safe in the arms of Jesus. Safe on His gentle breast. There by His love o'er shaded. Sweetly my soul does rest. Hark! tis the voice of angels. Born in a song to me. Over the fields of glory, over the jasper sea.

Safe in the arms of Jesus; safe from corroding care; safe from the world's temptations, sin cannot harm me there. Free from the blight of sorrow, free from my doubts and fears; only a few more trials, only a few more tears.

OBITUARY

"Death is the Golden Key That Opens the Palace of Eternity."

Benjamin Alford Jenkins, son of the late Greene and Eugenia Jenkins was born in Danville, Kentucky, on May 22, 1919. He departed this life on Saturday, April 12, 1980.

He professed his faith in Christ at an early age and joined First Baptist Church, Danville.

Over the years he served as a Sunday School teacher and the Church Treasurer, also a member of the male chorus.

A veteran of World War II.

He was united in marriage to Miss Kathleen Pennington, of Somerset, Kentucky. To this union, three children were born; Sandra, Joan and Norman.

He was a member of Doric Lodge No. 17, Ann S. Perry Guild. He was past president of the Ky. Club, and Boy Scout Leader.

He was employed by Western Kentucky Gas Co. for 25 years.

His devotion and loyalty to his family, and their love for him, cannot be surpassed. He was never too weary or busy to give assistance and counsel to his children. His protective care for Kathleen was unlimited.

His sudden demise has brought much sorrow and grief to many. Survivors:

His faithful, loving wife, Kathleen P. Jenkins; Three respectful children, Miss Sandra Jenkins of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Joan Riley and Norman (Rick) Jenkins of Danville, one sister, Mrs. Florine Fields, Danville; a son-in-law, Thomas Riley, Danville; two grandsons, Joey and Jeremy Riley; two aunts, Mrs. Nan Alford of Davistown and Mrs. Ophelia Alford of Danville several cousins, other relatives and a host of friends.

You are not dead dear Father and Husband, You are just away; because you could never depart from our lives. You are very much still with us, just not in seeing sight.

Sleep on beloved, sleep and take thy rest, lay down thy head upon thy savior's breast.

We love you but Jesus loves you best.

TO THOSE I LOVE

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown
But it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve awhile for me. If grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories with your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I greet you with a smile, and welcome you home.*

*God saw you getting tired,
when a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, "come to me."
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best and when I saw you sleeping,
so peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back to suffer that again.*

Obituary

We Believe

Sometimes it's hard to understand and harder still to say
"Thy Will be done" when sorrow comes and sadness fills our day.
But faith was meant for a time like these,
and if we take God's hand
With loving wisdom He will help,
Our hearts to understand.

The Family

Sister Patricia Jenkins-Knight was called home to glory after a brief illness on March 10, 2002 at Carolina Medical Center in Charlotte, NC. She was the daughter of the Rebecca W. Jenkins (recently deceased) and William H. Jenkins and the granddaughter of the late Reverend and Mrs. Rufus Washington.

She was united with the St. Luke AME Church Family at a very early age where she served as a steward, stewardess, usher, YPD.

Education

She was a graduate of Danville High School, Danville Kentucky and M.S.U. at Morehead, Kentucky receiving respectively the degrees of BA in Business and also received a degree from Fayetteville School of Cosmetology.

She was the owner and operator of "The Hair Villa" located in Asheville, NC and Morganton, NC.

She was the co-owner of the "Newspaper Factory" in Morganton, NC.

She served as the Area Chair-person of the Vera Holt Area Missionary Society of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference.

She served as the former president of the Missionary Society of Gaston Chapel AME Church.

She served as the former vice-president of the Minister's Spouses of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Organizations

She was a faithful member of the Bible Study, Sunday School, Pastor's Aid Club, YPD, Youth Advisory Council, and The Founder of a Book Club in Morganton NC

She was a member of "The Links of America" and a Sister of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc.

She was married to The Reverend Ronald Jay Knight on August 28, 1993 at St. Luke AME Church, Fayetteville, NC. She leaves to cherish her memory a Husband Reverend Ronald Jay Knight, a son Jernaine M. Jenkins (Barbara), a Godson - Lorenzo Williams, father - William H. Jenkins, (step-mother, Jewel), a brother The Reverend William C. Jenkins (Robin), a sister Sharon Hickman (Robert), a father-in-law - Presiding Elder I. W. Knight, Sr., a mother-in-law the Rev. Martha S. Knight, Two Brothers-in-law, Irvin W. ## A Personal Tribute to

My African Queen

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me now I'm Free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to leave, to work, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that place at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, yes these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine tomorrow
My life's been full. I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, he set me free.

Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi
Lord,

Make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love,
where there is injury, pardon,
where there is discord, union,
where there is doubt, faith,
where there is error, truth,
where there is despair, hope,
where there is sadness, joy,
where there is darkness, light.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen

~ The Obituary ~

Deshana Jennings, completed her earthly journey on Friday, December 3, 2010 in Mt. Vernon, Kentucky. She was born Friday, July 7, 1977 in Danville, Kentucky to Steve and Geneva Ford.

She was baptized at an early age and professed her faith in Christ at Bethel Baptist Church in Danville, Kentucky, where she served on the usher board until she relocated to Lexington, Kentucky.

Deshana was married on May 29, 2004 to Shannon Jennings. Her life was filled with love for her family. Even when her health began to fail she was steadfast and unmovable in her faith and with the love of God in her heart she continued to fight on.

She is survived by her husband Shannon Jennings; her children, Keyianna Macklin and Jada Jennings; two step-children, Sachari Jennings and Delorian Brady, all of Lexington, Kentucky; her mother, Geneva Ford, Junction City, Kentucky; her father, Steve Ford, Lexington, Kentucky; one sister, Monique Ford, Lexington, Kentucky; one brother, Lamont Ford, Danville, Kentucky; two nephews, Lamar and Deantay Ford, both of Danville, Kentucky; fourteen aunts and uncles; her mother-in-law, Charlotte Jennings; father-in-law, James (Arnah) Jennings; two sisters-in-law, Nakiesha Smith and Misti (Tyrone) Leavell, all of Lexington, Kentucky; also a host of other relatives and friends.

For My Sister

When I think of your beautiful face it all seems so wrong
You had so much to look forward to and so much left to do.
But God needed somebody in heaven who is as special as you.
Nothing is the same now and I doubt it ever will be.
You have been released from pain and suffering, you have been set free. I miss your voice, your infectious laugh and you being you.
Fashion you loved and now you have new accessories, a pair of Angel's wings. As I sit here and write this, tears streaming down my face. I miss my sister and that feeling cannot be replaced.

OBTUARY

*Thou are gone to the grave,
But we will not deplore thee,
Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian,
He gave thee, He took thee, He will restore thee,
For death has no sting, since the Savior has died.*

On the morning of November 8, 1966, the angel of silence came into our midst and with chilly fingers sealed the lips of our loving father.

His soul wings its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain, to a place of eternal rest.

John Jennings was the son of the late Jerry and Martha Jennings, who was born in Jessamine County, Kentucky, January 6, 1884.

He became a christian when quite a young man. He was a member and oldest trustee of Bethel A. M. E. Church, serving faithfully until his death.
