Death is A Doorway

On the Wings of Death
the "Soul takes Flight,"
Into the land where
"There is no night" —
For those who believe
what the Savior said,
Will rise in glory
though they be dead
So death comes to us
Just to "Open the Door"
To the Kingdom of God and Life Evermore.

Those we love remain with us
For love itself lives on,
And cherished memories never fade
Because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be
More than a thought apart,
Far as long as there is memory,
They'll live on in the heart.

In Loving Memory

*In loving memory of our wonderful dad:
I thought of you today but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday and the days before that too.
I think of you in silence, I often speak your name,
but all I have are memories and pictures in a frame;
your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part.
God has you in his arms, I have you in my heart;
of all the special gifts in life; however, great or small,
to have you as our dad was the greatest gift of all.
May the winds of love blow softly and whisper in your ear,
we miss and love you already dad, and wish that you were here.
We remember your horsemanship and how you enjoyed riding and training horses as your specialty.
No more tomorrows can be shared,
but the memories of yesterday will always be there.

I'm at peace now, no more suffering or pain,
please try to believe, for it was my time to leave.*

The Living Room

*Here we are in the Living Room
All of our loving group together,
And the glow of the wood-fire's ware perfume
Battled the chill of the outer weather,
And the, with a sleepy sigh, you said,
"Good night, dear ones, I'm going to bed."*

*Why did there fall such a sense of gloom?
Why did we sob at the thought of sleep?
When one goes out of the Living Room,
Must all the rest of the family weep?
When the work is done and the day is sped,
Is it not time for the restful bed?*

*Because you are gone from the warmth and light
And stepped aside from the fire-lit glow,
Because you have kissed us all good night,
Why must we sorrow and murmur so?
Why do we call the couch a tomb
Beyond the door of the Living Room?*

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Mommy Dearest,

You will always be My mother so loving and so loved by me. For God has taken you to be by his side, Now in Heaven is where you will reside. You have blessed my life in so many ways. I will cherish our memories until the end of my day.

You left me too soon and this was not part of our plan, But God's wishes come before those of man. Without you I must travel the path alone. No longer my guide, the way you had shown. Your heart may have been weak, but you were strong. For your loving embrace I will always long. God sent you to me as a special give from above to teach me life's lessons and shower me with love. I will always remember your beautiful smiling face. In my heart you will always have a very special place, a special bond we shared like no other. For this possible for only daughter and mother. I thanked God for each day we were able to share. But without you in my life it is too difficult to bear. Being with God, I hope you will find joy and peach. In this I can find comfort and some happiness at least for Mommy Dearest you will always be, My mother so loving and so love by me.

Stairway

If tears could build a stairway and thoughts, a memory lane, I'd walk right up to heaven and being you home again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye. You were gone before I knew it and only God knows why.

My heart's still active in sadness and secret tears still flow. What it meant to lose you no one can ever know. But now I know you want us to mourn for you no more. To remember all the happy times life still has much in store.

Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today. A hollowed place within my heart, is where you'll always stay. God knows why, with chilling touch death gathers those we love so much, and what now seems so strange, will all be clear, when we meet him in the end.

"He 's Basking In God's Light"

Don't think of him as dead and gone,
His life has just begun.
For life holds many facets,
Living on earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting,
From earth's sorrow, tears and pain.
In a place of peace and beauty
Never to be disappointed again.
You should know that he's still living,
Within the hearts of those he loved.
For nothing loved is ever forgotten,
And he was loved so much.
So don't think of him as dead and gone,
His life has just begun.
For he's basking in the sunlight,
Of God's only begotten Son.

God saw you were getting weary
 So he did what he thought was best,
 He came and stood beside you
 And whispered "come and rest",
 You bid no one a last farewell
 Not even a good-bye
 You were gone before we knew it
 And only God knows why
 We loved you,
 but God loved you best

He is not dead but just gone to rest, we all loved him, but God loved him best.

*Your gentle face and patient smile-
With sadness we recall
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart
That loved us well and true.
Oh, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore.
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.*

Our loving Mother

*The greatest gift from the heaven above,
Is the everlasting joy of a mother's love.
The bond she weaves is strong and tight,
Her arms are a comfort
And her smile is a shining light.*

*Her wealth is not made of silver and gold.
But the child in her arms that she tenderly holds.
She's the tie that binds, strong and true,
In a child's eyes she hung the moon
She's a warm embrace and place of rest,
Of all the mothers in the world
We think ours was the best!*

*With Love, your daughters
Marsha and Jackie*

*Our hearts were almost broken
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful, free from pain.
How could we wish you back with Us to suffer that again. It broke
Our hearts to lose you but
You did not go alone. For A Part of us went with you the day
God took you home.

And may there be no moaning of the bar,

Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,

*For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot face to face

TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Stepping Stone To Life

*When death brings weeping
And the heart is filled with sorrow,
It beckons us to seek God
As we ask about tomorrow
And in these hours of "heart-hurt"
We draw closer to believing that even death in God's hands
Is not a cause for grieving
But a time for joy in knowing
Death is just a stepping stone to a life that's everlasting
Such as we have never known*

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

We've know, lots of pleasure's at time endured pain.

We've lived in the sunshine
and walked in the rain.

But now we're separated and for a time apart.

But I am not alone-
you're forever in my heart.

Death always seems so sudden,
and it is always sure,

But what is oft' forgotten-
It is not without a cure.

I'm walking now, with someone,
and I'll know He'll always stay.
I know He's walking with you too,
giving comfort everyday.

There may be times you miss me,
I sort of hope you do,
But smile when you think of me,
For I'll be waiting for you.

Now there are many things for you to do and lots of ways to grow,
So get busy, be happy, and live your life.
Miss me, BUT LET ME GO.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

The family wishes to extend a very special thank you, to all who shared in the life of my husband, father and uncle.

Words can never express the sincere appreciation to all who have extended a card, a call, a word, a kind deed and most of all a prayer. We pray in return that God will richly bless you and favor you in the days to come.

God Saw You

*God saw you were getting tired
And cure was-not to be
So he put his arms around you
And whispered "come to me"

Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.*

THE MEMOIRS

Tuesday afternoon, October 28, 2003 at 2:30 p.m. at Ephraim McDowell Medical Center, Danville, Kentucky, Taylor Leavell, Jr. heard the voice of the Lord calling him, calling him from labor to a life eternally! He heard Jesus calling him.

Taylor was born January 9, 1937 to the late Taylor Leavell, Sr. and Carrie Beasley Leavell.

He confessed hope in Christ and was baptized into the Lord on May 11, 1948 under the pasturage of the late Rev. Wm. Covington and united with the St. Paul Predestinarian Baptist Church.

The Family

The following is a clipping by Billy Graham, cut from the paper and put in her bible for the children by Mrs. Lee.

QUESTION: Why did my mother have to die? She was such a wonderful person. I can't figure it out, and I can hardly stand it. Please tell me why good people have to die?

ANSWER: First, death is a penalty of sin. "The wages of sin is death," says the Bible. God never meant for man to die. However, when man rebelled against God - he began to die. "Thus it is appointed unto man once to die." There are many reasons for death.

Second, death is a friend to the aged. When the body begins to waste away, and the tortures of old age come upon our elders, they welcome death. He takes an aged Christian by the hand and gently leads them to a realm where there is no sorrow, death or pain.

Again, if there were no death, the old would get older and would dominate the race. Youth and newness would have no meaning. The world would be overpopulated so that the young could not grow food enough for those who were old. Death is the great population stabilizer.

Death, again, is a reminder of the brevity of time. The Psalmist said: "Teach us to number our days." Someone has pointed out that if our life-time is likened to a day beginning at 7:00 and ending at 11:00 at night, at fifteen years of age it would be 10:25 in the morning. If you are eighteen, it is 11 o'clock. If you are twenty-five it is 12:42 in the afternoon. "Teach us to number our days."

Then death is necessary in the economy of God. "This mortal must put on immortality. This corruptible must put on incorruption." Your mother is not dead. She has just changed addresses. So live that you can join her in heaven.

FOR THOU ART WITH ME. THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME

They protect me from all ills.

THOU PREPAREST A TABLE BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES

Whose names are: Fear, Worry, Selfishness and Insecurity.
When they see me drink of gladness and joy and eat of perfect peace, they leave me--and then

THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL

The gentleness of his hands
almost make my heart burst asunder with happiness,
Yes, oh Yes.

MY CUP RUNNETH OVER

It is too full--I have room for no more.
there is no limit to the abundance of gifts
which the good shepherd bestoweth on me.
His gifts are from the best of the land.
So I shall never be lonely
He gives me companions.

SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME
ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE

And as we walk along together one day--at dusk--
I shall come to a bend in the road. I shall stop.
And far off in the distance I shall see a mansion.
It is magnificent in its glory
It is a House not made by hands, eternal in the heavens
And only the single eye of the soul can behold it.
I shall bow down and worship
And as I walk silently toward it
My heart leaps with gladness--
A thousand stars spring into space
All the song-birds on earth sing
And the little children laugh
And their laughter echoes back through God's heaven
into the angelic chorus of the saints.
I have forgotten my yesterdays
And all the many tomorrows because I shall enter--

AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD
FOREVER AND EVER AND EVER--AMEN!

Uncle

*You were always there for everyone
You could always be depended upon.
You would smile, stand back,
Crack a joke and step forward,
Always willing to lend a helping hand.
A key, a step, a window, a knob, a door, a lock.
You gave so much, but yet asked so little.
You can never be replaced.
You have left your legacy
You loved and gave unconditionally of yourself, your time, your energy.
We will miss you, uncle,
We loved you, uncle,
But God loved you more.*

REPAST

Immediately following service.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

The Obituary

Clara Ann Walker Leslie was a twin and the middle child of the late John and Bertha Walker born March 21, 1939 and departed earth on September 13, 2022 at her home.

She attended First Baptist Church where she professed her faith in Christ. Clara graduated from Bate High School and later earned her cosmetology license. She worked as a private maid and a custodian at IUPUI where she retired.

She was a devoted mother and tirelessly worked two jobs to provide for her family. Clara was a loving authoritative parent that spoke her mind with no filter. She had a dramatic flair with words. Being a dedicated child, she cared for her mother and mother-in-law until their deaths.

Before her health declined, she was an avid traveler going to any city with a casino but especially loved Las Vegas. Cleaning and making home improvements kept her busy but she adored entertaining, and making holidays and birthdays special with elaborate menus and decorations throughout the house. With her green thumb, she grew beautiful house plants and vegetables, canning her bounty and sharing with family and friends.

Clara was preceded in death by her parents John and Bertha Walker, siblings John Walker, Rose Walker Hargrave, Carl Walker, and Henry Walker. She leaves behind two children, James Clifford Leslie Jr and Tabitha Bertrille Leslie, one sister, Beulah Walker Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me;
He took my hand when He heard me call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play,
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy;
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I, too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow;
My life's been full, I savored much-
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief;
Lift up your heart and share with me
No more pain – HE SET ME FREE.

Truth & Love

*The things we do
will soon be past
unless we do
the things that last*

*the life we build
may never stand
for we may build on sinking sand*

*the worldly thing
for which we slave
can never bring us from the grave*

*the things above
like truth & love
will always be eternally.*
