Remember Me

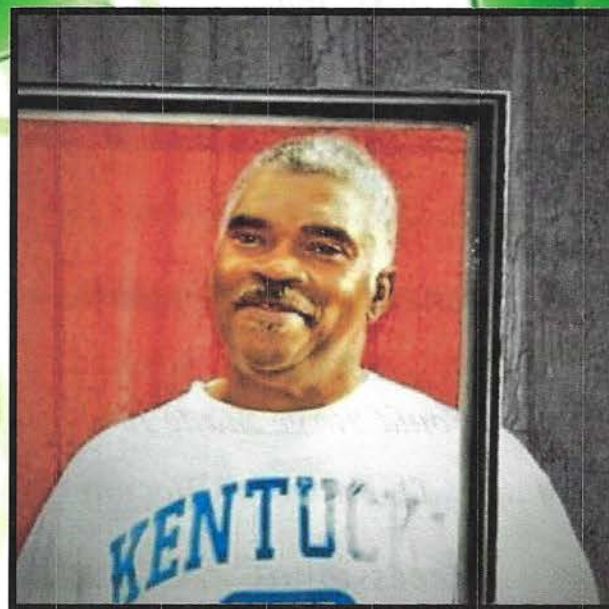

Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.
Share the happy memories we've made,
Do not let them wither or fade.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze,
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.
I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.
Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while,
Comfort each other and try to smile.

SAFELY HOME

*I am home in Heaven dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly
Trode in the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
for I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows
Pray to trust our Father's will.*

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand and I heard him call,
I turned by back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Goods friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.

You inspired us to dream. You showed us how to love and laugh with a full heart. You taught us how to work hard and play often. And even though you're not physically here, we feel you with us. For it is from you we have learned to celebrate the everyday miracle of life.

The Obituary

Mr. Joseph Edward Lewis, the son of Josephine Key, was born on April 8, 1939 in Danville, Kentucky.

At the age of sixteen, he accepted Christ and became a member at the First Baptist Church in Danville, Kentucky.

On October 22, 1961, he united in Holy Matrimony to Patricia Lillian Jackson. They celebrated forty-three years of marriage. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

Joe was a people person with a personality, sense of humor and wit that was contagious. He was a devoted husband and father and went out of his way to be a father figure to others. He had a love for music, particularly jazz and the oldies. As a pastime, he enjoyed hanging out in his garage, washing and waxing cars with his friends. He was truly a genuine human being, with friendships most people dream about. Some knew him as their barber, which is where a lot of the friendships developed. He was a pleasure to be around and will surely be missed by all.

At the age of twenty-three, Joe joined the United States Army. He was Honorably Discharged after two years of service. He relocated from Danville, Kentucky to Indianapolis, Indiana in 1967, where he was employed by GM Detroit Diesel Allison. He retired after twenty-five years of service as an Area Manager. After retirement he was employed at the Indianapolis Museum of Art as a Security Officer, where he retired again after five years of service.

Joe was called home to glory on Friday, August 5, 2005 at the age of sixty-six years. Loved ones preceding him in death are his mother, Josephine Key and daughter, Evelyn F. Lewis.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Patricia Lillian Lewis; one brother, James A. (Jackie) Lewis of Danville, Kentucky; three sons, Joseph M. Lewis of Indianapolis, Indiana, Joseph Coleman and Ronald Coleman of Louisville, Kentucky; three daughters, Jacqueline D. Buford, Cassandra J. Thomas (Maury D.) and Felicia R. Tibbs (William B.), all of Indianapolis, Indiana; one niece, Vonda K. Lewis of Lexington, Kentucky; fourteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; a host of other relatives and many friends.

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; and a time to break down, and a time to build;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love and a time to hate; a time of war; and a time of peace.

What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboreth? I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

JOHNSON CHAPEL A.M. E. ZION CHURCH

SPRINGFIELD, KENTUCKY

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1974

OBITUARY

After the birth of three daughters to Nathan and Roberta Lewis, a little boy was born whom they chose to name Milburn Nathaniel. Born in Bardstown, Kentucky, he attended elementary school there, but quit at the tender age of thirteen to come to Springfield, Kentucky. Here he worked hard as a tenant farmer.

At a young age he attended and later joined Johnson Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church where he has served as trustee and preacher steward. It was his pride and joy to sponsor musical programs for the financial support of the church.

He was married when he was a young man to Miss Rhoda Marshall of Maud, Kentucky. She preceded him in death thirty-four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis were the parents of four boys and four girls, of which three boys and three girls survive. Daughters: Mrs. Nannie Catherine Dix, Mrs. Irene Langly, and Mrs. Sarah Louise Rice; Sons: George Milburn, Vernon Marshall, and Albert Robert Lewis; twenty-eight grandchildren; and three surviving sisters: Mrs. Bethel Cosby, Mrs. Nannie Montgomery and Mrs. Ethel R. Lewis. Plus other relatives and a host of friends.

Nathaniel, as he was so well known, has worked very hard all his life, having acquired a large farm which he tended to a great extent alone.

On Christmas Day, 1973, he suffered a heart attack and stroke, which necessitated the selling of his farm, which was his "First Love".

After this move, he roomed in the home of Mrs. Lucy Ray, a friend of long standing. Too much commendation can not be given this good woman, who aided in the rearing of his children and sought to make him comfortable in his last days.

Mr. Lewis slipped away early Wednesday Morning, September 11, 1974, at the age of sixty-nine.

One precious to our hearts has gone.
The voice we loved is stilled.
The place made vacant in our home,
Can never be filled.

Our Father in His Wisdom called
The loved one He had given,
And though on earth the body lies,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

IF WE COULD BRING YOU BACK

If we could bring you back again
For one more hour or day,
We'd express all our unspoken love;
We'd have countless things to say.

If we could bring you back again,
We'd say we treasure you,
And that your presence in our lives
Meant more than we ever knew.

If we could bring you back again,
To tell you what we should,
You'd know how much we miss you now.
And if we could, we would.

"The Curtain Falls"

*There comes a time for all of us
When we must say good-bye,
But faith and hope and love and trust
Can never, never die.
Although the curtain falls at last
Is that a cause to grieve?
The future is fairer than the past
If only we believe.
And trust in God's Eternal care
So when the Master calls
Let's say that life is still more fair
Although the curtain falls

Feelings

We Feel Sad,
For what we have lost.
We feel happy,
For what we have had.
We feel poor,
For the empty spaces
We feel rich,
For we have each other
We will cry,
For what we can't have.
We will laugh,
For our memories abound.
We will hurt,
For the love we can't give.
We will rejoice,
For the love we have received.
We will be restless,
For our lives are not whole.
We will be peaceful,
For we know it is not forever.

TIME TO BE READY

Oh it's time, yes it's time
Jesus will return for His Church.
He has prepared a mansion for us in the sky,
Just be ready for He will return by and by.

He promised He would come again
And take us home with Him.
How we long for Him and feel His embrace,
But most of all to look upon His lovely face.

We don't know when He is coming,
The time is getting nearer,
Do keep pressing on and trust in Jesus,
So we'll be ready when He appears.

He wants all His children ready
When the trumpet call will sound,
Just a little longer, "My Children"
Hold on, we will soon be glory bound!

How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of my day and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we once shared.

Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Maker's plan, A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart. Go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

"I'm Free"

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call; I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy;
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes, these things, I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me...
God wanted me now,
He set me free.*

With Loving & Cherished Memories.....

Growing Together

Embrace your beloved with a joyful heart. Be happy and delight in the smile, the kiss, and the love of one who rules your heart. Let your joy shine in your eyes and be evident in the words of your mouth.

*God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered,
"Come to Me."
--Author unknown*

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.*

So Go and Run Free

So go and run free with the angels
Dance around the golden clouds
For the Lord has chosen you to be with him
And we should feel nothing but proud
Although he has taken you from us
And our pain a lifetime will last
Your memory will never escape us
But make us glad for the time we did have
Your face will always be hidden
Deep inside our hearts
Each precious moment you gave us
Shall never, ever depart
So go and run free with the angels
As they sing so tenderly
And please be sure to tell them
To take good care of you for me

The Magic of a Mother's Touch

*There's magic in a Mother's touch, and sunshine in her smile.
There's love in everything she does to make our lives worthwhile.
We can find both hope and courage
Just by looking in her eyes.
Her laughter is a source of joy,
her works are warm and wise.
There is a kindness and compassion
to be found in her embrace,
and we see the light of heaven
shining from a Mother's face.*

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you do each day
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, please know that I miss you too.*

*But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by my hand.
And said a place was ready, in Heaven up above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I truly love.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do.
It seemed almost impossible, that I was leaving you.
When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart;
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*

"Our Angel In Heaven"

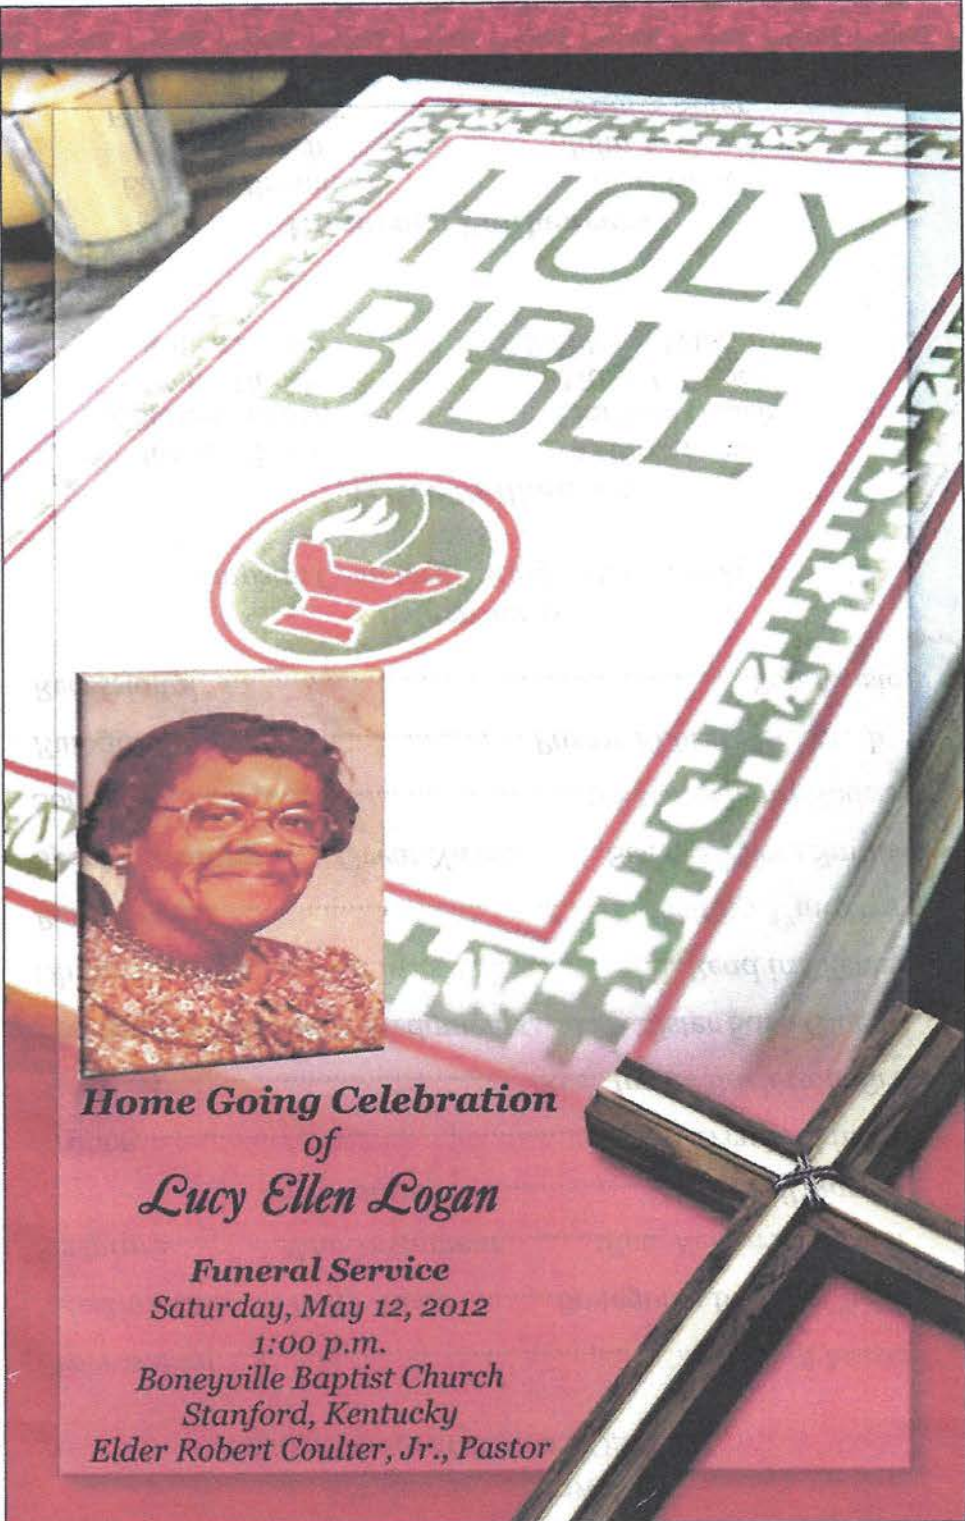

You are rejoicing in Heaven,
long before we knew,
God needed an angel,
so He called you.
He reached out his hand and whispered your name.
To leave this earthly body
and never be the same.
He said, "Your work is finished and you can do no more"
So He opened the gates of Heaven and you walked through the door.
Your head held high with your wings and robe of white,
Siting with our Father, as you watched us day and night.
Not withstanding why we can't wipe our tears away,
Because God took our angel when
He stopped by that day.

Lucy Ellen Simpson Logan

~ Her Story ~

Our eternal Father who does all things well called His servant Lucy Ellen Simpson Logan to rest from her labors, her pain and her suffering on Tuesday, May 8, 2012 at the Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center after a long illness. She had been a patient at the Golden Living Nursing Home.

Lucy was born to the late Fee and Nora Simpson on February 18, 1923 and was reared in the Boneyville Community with her siblings, Millie, Myrtle, Rosetta, Josephine, Morris, Pyrtle, Theodore and Herbert who preceded her in death. She is the last to be called home from this union.

Lucy beckoned to the call of the almighty God and was baptized and united with the Boneyville Baptist Church under the pastorship of Reverend Johnson at a very young age, and there, she served faithfully. She loved the Lord and she loved singing God's praises. She therefore joined the choir, was a member of the Missionary Society, attended prayer meetings, bible study and Sunday School. She was also a very good cook. She was faithful in all of her endeavors until her health began to fail her.

She was united in marriage to Deacon Charley Logan for sixty-four years and they were blessed to be the parents of two sons, Charles Calvin Logan (who preceded them in death) and Al Joseph Logan.

Lucy leaves to cherish her memories, her devoted son, to both she and his dad, Al Joseph Logan; two grandchildren, Carlos Logan and McKenzie Slaughter both of Lexington, KY; one daughter-in-law, Ernestine Logan, several caregivers from the church, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends and a cousin, who she always made "special", Sara Givens.

that you are gone
You're no longer here to share

If Tomorrow Starts Without Me

If tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me; I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today, While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, And took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, In heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye,
For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, So much left yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible, That I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, The good ones and the bad,
I thought of all that we shared, And all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, Just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you "till I saw that special smile.

Turrell worked for five years as Residential Manager at Kennedy Crossings and twelve years in the Purchasing Department at Xpedx Paper.

Turrell was known for his avid fishing, great culinary recipes and slamming down home pinto beans. When his family had a cook out or barbecue everyone knew who would provide top notch barbeque with the perfect spices. Oh, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.*

He closed his eyes, on his lips was a prayer
In beautiful faith he bowed his head
Waiting patiently to be lead
To Heavenly Mansions above
Where dwells God in realms of Love.*

His life was done.
No more will he sigh or weep
Long years of struggle he has won
And now Ernest lies in deep sleep.*

From Aunt Willie

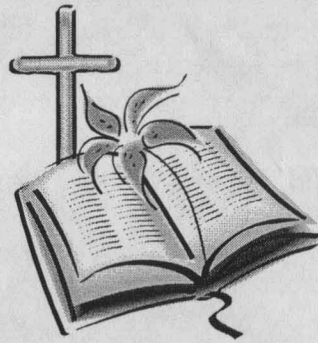

To the Family

I do not go alone

If death should be on me with out stretched hands
And whisper "softly of an unknown
land"

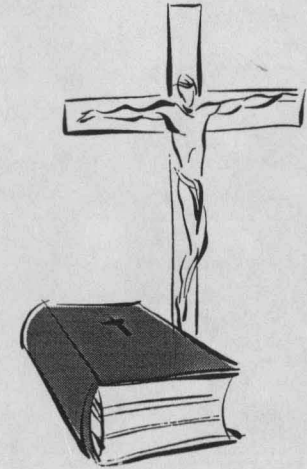

I shall not be afraid to go
For tho the path I do not know
I take deaths hand without a fear
For he who safely brought me here
Will also take me safely back
And though in many things I lack
He will not let me go alone
Into the valley that's unknown
And so I reach out and take deaths hand
And Journey to the promise land.

Life is a mixture of sunshine and rain,
Laughter and pleasure,
Teardrops and pain,
All days can't be bright
But it's certainly true
There was never a cloud the sun didn't shine through
So just keep on smiling whatever be tide you,
Secure in the knowledge
God is always beside you.
And you'll find when you smile
Your day will be brighter,
And all of your burdens will seem so much lighter.
For each time you smile
You'll find it is true
Somebody, somewhere will smile back at you.
And nothing on earth can make life more worthwhile
Than the sunshine and warmth of
A beautiful smile.*

The Obituary of

Johnetta Elizabeth Cooper Lovette

Johnetta was born on July 1, 1927 in Danville, Kentucky. At Bate High School in Danville, KY she was a member of the Girls' Glee Club, Homemakers of America, Library Club, Girl's Reserve and Assistant Editor of the newspaper, and graduated from as Valedictorian of her class. On June 13, 1948, she was united in holy matrimony to the late Deacon Willis Lovette Jr., a union which would last for the next 42 years. Four children were born to this union Brenda, Reginald, Willis III and Garnet.

At any early age she joined First Baptist Danville. At the age of 19 she moved to Cincinnati to live with her deceased sister, Clarissa Cooper-Young. She united with Morning Star Baptist Church in 1948 under the late Rev. J. C. Wynn.

If anyone should write the life story of Johnetta Elizabeth Cooper Lovette, they would have to say that she inspired many with her smile, words of wisdom and the music she played. She was a songwriter, Sunday School teacher and trainer of Sunday School teachers. She was also a playwright, cooked in the kitchen, served on the Missionary Committee, was a Deaconess, Vacation Bible School teacher, an administrator, musician and choir instructor. Johnetta taught others of the importance of having the word of God in their lives, not at first by what she said, but primarily by what she did and how she did it. Johnetta loved the Lord, and she taught children in her church to have the same respect. If you wanted to know anything about music or even the Lord Himself, you could always talk to Sister Lovette. Inspiring as she was, she always did her best to let her little light shine. All of the various names that family and friends called her had special meanings: John, Mom, Auntie, Aunt Johnnie, Johnetta, Little Jezebel, Tough Little Mighty Midget, Johnnie, and Shortie, to name a few. She was small of stature, but highly respected by many people, and these nicknames only conveyed the expressions of love that everyone had for her.

Johnetta was known for having an array of things in her bag—scissors, glue, cotton balls, small pieces of felt, a variety of pens and markers, a table top easel, a few maps, a couple of translations of the Bible, tissue, paper towels, song books, several book marks with the books of the Bible on them, a couple of extra earrings, a book of chalk, a black board eraser, a portable fan and an occasional piece of candy. Then if we were to take that to another level and talk about making Sunday School costumes out of anything..... a tablecloth, a bath towel, a sheet, a curtain, an old dress. .you name it, Johnetta could always be counted on to make something unique and creative out of nothing!

Johnetta and the late Deacon Lovette taught others the value of being on time. They were the first ones for anything and the last ones to lock up. They often took the neighborhood kids in their car to the park and they always had a table of more than enough food. They never wanted the children to be without enough to drink or without a piece of watermelon at the church picnic. Johnetta always had whatever anyone needed; was always prepared for anything, and even her death in this world was but a glorious welcome that she would have for tomorrow. She knew that God did not bring her this far to leave her now.

She departed this life on Wednesday, March 7, at the Drake Rehabilitation Center at the age of 73 years. Morning Star Baptist Church was very blessed to have her as an accomplished musician for over 50 years. Sister Lovette, leaves to mourn a beautiful daughter, Brenda (a special son-in-law, Norman) England of Cincinnati, three fine sons and her precious daughters-in-law; Reginald (Bonita), Willis III (Vicki) and Garnet (Shelia). Five grandchildren, Reginald Jr., Valisa, Valtina (Kelly), Kevin Russell and An'jai. Four great-grand children, Andre'us (AJ), Kayla, Asan'te and Kyra. One brother-in-law, Norris Lovette (Barbara); one sister-in-law, Gladys Terrell (Charles) of Nashville, TN; nieces May, Myrna, Fran, Noelia, Deborah, Kara, Lynn, Lorna, Michelle, Celeste and a host of other relatives, and numerous friends.

"I am the Resurrection and the Life; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die." John 11:25-26

If I could give you tear you've cried for sapphires for each truth
could give you rubies for the heartache that you've known,
If I could give you pearls for the wisdom that you've shown, Then you'll have a treasure, mother, that would mount up to Mother the skies, That would almost match
the sparkle in your kind and loving eyes, but I have no pearls or diamonds, As I am sure you're well aware, so I'll give you gifts more precious, my devotion love and care.

Love,
Brenda, Reginald, Willie III, Garnet

I'd like the memory of me

I'd like to leave an echo

whispering softly down the way, of happy times and laughing times

and bright and sunny days.

Miss Me --- But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little --- but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me --- but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And all must go alone
It's all a part of the Masters plan
A step on the road to home.*

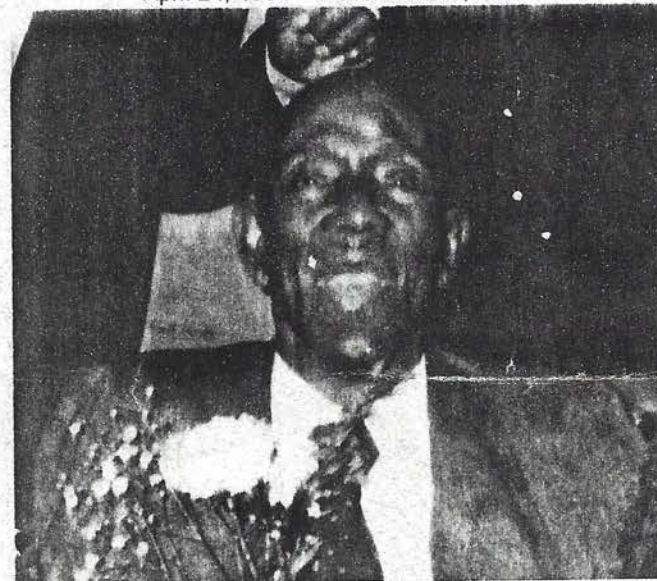

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the hills we know
And bury your sorrows among the trees
For I am free.
Miss me --- but let me go.*

Obituary

On April 13, 1991 at her residence at 32 Burckley Homes, after a lingering illness, God called Annie Catherine Lynn to be with Him.

Annie was born October 1, 1911 at Halls Gap, Kentucky, to the late Luke and Laura Lynn.

She was reared in Halls Gap. When her health began to fail she moved to Danville and for a short period of time resided with her niece, Nekola Lynn and son, Glair, and later moved to her residence in Burckley Homes, where her son cared for her until her death.

She leaves to cherish her memories a devoted and caring son, Glair Lynn; a brother, Jessie Lynn of Danville; a great nephew, James Lynn, Jr. of Danville; a great niece, Mrs. Wanda Higgins of Cincinnati, Ohio; several great-great nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

God saw you were getting weary,
So he did what He thought was best,
He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and rest".
You bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a "Good-bye",
You were gone before, we knew it-
And only God knows why.

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU
*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!*

*His soul has gone to God
The earth shall soon claim its own.
But he is rejoicing around the throne
While we are left here to mourn.
But someday we will meet again
All of our Loved ones gone on before.
Someday we will reach that happy
land,
Where parting will be no more.*

A PSALM OF LIFE

*Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.*

*Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.*

*Not enjoyment, and not sorrow
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Find us farther than today.*

*Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our heart, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.*

*In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!*

*Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant!
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act, act in the living Present!
Heart within, and God o'erhead!*

*Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sand of time*

*Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.*

*Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait,*

HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW
