Safely Home

I am home in Heaven dear ones

Oh so happy and so bright!

There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,

Every restless tossing passed!

I am now at peace forever

Safely home in Heaven at last.

Done by the family.

Assured Assurance
Assurance, Jesus is mine!
Foretaste of glory divine.
Salvation, purchase of God,
Spirit, washed in His blood.

CHORUS
Story, this is my song,
Savior all the day long.
Story, this is my song,
Savior all the day long.

Salvation, perfect delight!
Sure now burst on my sight;
Angels, bringing from above
Mercy, whispers of love.

Is Just Away
Do not say, you must not say
Dead. She is just away!
A smile and a wave of the hand
Carried into an unknown land.
Dreaming how very fair
She is, since she lingers there;
Her faring on, as dear
There as the love of Here;
Till as the same, and say
Dead, she is just away.

A MEMORIAL SERVICE IN CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF
HARRISON "KOOKIE" MADISON
(1940 -- 2010)

Prelude

Prof. Cliff Jackson

Opening Sentences

I am Resurrection and I am Life says the Lord. Whoever has faith in me shall have life, even though he dies. And everyone who has life, and has committed himself to me in faith shall not die for ever.

As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives and that at the last he will stand upon the earth. After my awaking, he will raise me up; and in my body, I shall see God. I myself shall see, and my eyes behold him who is my friend and not a stranger.

For none has life in himself, and none becomes his own master when he dies. For if we have life, we are alive in the Lord, and if we die, we die in the Lord. So, then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's possession.

Happy from now on are those who die in the Lord! So it is, says the Spirit, for they rest from their labors.

Officiant: The Lord be with you.

Congregation: And also with you.

Officiant: Let us pray.

O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered: Accept our prayers on behalf of your servant, Harrison Madison, and grant him an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the fellowship of your saints; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Psalm 121 -- All recite together:

-I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills; from whence cometh my help?

-My help cometh even from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

-He will not suffer my foot to be moved and he that keepeth me will not sleep.

-Behold, he that keepeth Israel, shall neither slumber nor sleep.

-The Lord himself is they keeper; the Lord is the defense upon thy Right hand;

The Commendation: (Bold text is said by all)

Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints,
Where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

You only are immortal, the creator and maker of mankind: and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, “You are dust, and to dust you shall return.” All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints,
Where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant Harrison Madison. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, sheep of your own fold, lamb of your own flock, sinner of your own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

*Sorry I had to leave you in a sudden kind of way
But my friend Jesus said He needed me today,
So I won't call or even say goodbye.
Jesus, a friend of mine is waiting,
So I won't even try.
Please don't cry because you didn't hear me say goodbye.
Just remember who I'm leaving with;
He's the one that knows the way.
So don't take another kind of route and be lost
Because He's coming back for you one day.

HARRISON EDWARD "Kookie" MADISON

Harrison Edward "Kookie" Madison, the fourth child of Rosanna Madison Frazier and the late David Lee Madison, was born in Fayette County on October 18, 1940. Harrison departed this life on October 21, 2010.

He accepted Christ early in life at Gunn Tabernacle A.M.E. Church, presently known as Wesley United Methodist Church. He was a faithful member who served in many valued capacities. He attended Fayette County School System, graduating from the old Dunbar High School in 1959 and served as class president for the past two years. Harrison retired from Kentucky Utilities in 1998 after over thirty years of service.

Harrison and his love, Joyce Ann Bush, were married for forty-seven years. To this union were born Stacy Lynn (Tony) Borders, Flowery Branch, GA., and William Edward "Jacque" (Tarita) Madison, Lexington, KY. In addition to his wife and children, he leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Mrs. Rosanna Madison Frazier; grandchildren, Tia, Miasha, and Zuri Madison all of Lexington, KY.; sisters Lorraine Madison, Richmond, KY., and Joan Carol (Charles) Bolton, Lexington, KY; brother-in-Law, William (Debra) Bush III, Dayton, OH; nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his father, David Lee Madison; step-father George Frazier; and siblings, Dora L. Madison, William L. "Rat" Madison, and Arthur J. Madison.

He was "Daddy Kookie" or "Papa" to many wonderful children whom he loved, helped raise and loved him. You would always find Kookie visiting family, friends, cooking on the grill, working faithfully in his church, and playing with his dog, Malachi. When you saw him, you got a big smile and hug, and knew you were in for good conversation, fun, and lots of laughter. Kookie never met a stranger and he will surely be missed.

Psalms 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

*In tears, we saw you sinking
We watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken
You fought so hard each day.*

*But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful, and free from pain,
We could not wish you back
To suffer anymore again*

Obituary

*Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me
May there be no mourning at the bar
When I set out to sea.*

Kenneth James Marshall was born on December 11, 1946. He was one of eight children born to the union of Monroe and Helen Marshall. Kenneth lived a full, productive life until God called him to his final rest on Monday, February 26, 1996.

Kenneth received his Christian nurturing at the St. James A.M.E. Church, Danville, Kentucky. His dedication and commitment led to his appointment as a trustee at the church.

Kenneth was raised by his aunt, Ella Mae Marshall in Danville, and he moved to Louisville, Kentucky in 1968, where he met and married the former Bonnie Nelson. To this union twin boys, John and Kenneth, were born.

Kenneth served in the U. S. Army, and worked for ten years at the Louisville and Nashville and Seaboard Systems Railroads. He also worked as a Computer Programmer for the City of Louisville, as a Corrections Officer for the Metropolitan Social Services Department and the Jefferson County Jail, and as an Instructor for the Department of Criminal Justice Training.

Kenneth leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Bonnie; his sons, John and Kenneth; his aunt, Ella Mae Marshall; his mother, Helen Evans Cartwright; six sisters, Evelyn Angel, Brenda Shabazz, Elaine Marshall, Allison Kent, Stephanie Davis and Florence Maye; one brother, Eric Evans; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*So live that when thy summons come to join
The innumerable caravan
Which moves to that mysterious realm,
Where each shall take his chamber
In the silent halls of death.
Thou go not like the quarry slave at night
scourged to his dungeon,
But sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust.
Approach thy grave like one who wraps
The drapery of his couch about him
And lies down to pleasant dreams.*

INTERMENT
Cave Hill Cemetery

I REFUSE TO BE DISCOURAGED

I refuse to be discouraged, To be sad, or to cry;
I refuse to be downhearted, And here's the reason why...

I have a God who's mighty, Who's sovereign and supreme; I have a God who loves me, And I am on His team. He is all-wise and powerful, Jesus is His name;
Though everything is changeable, My God remains the same,

My God knows all that's happening; Beginning to the end, His presence is my comfort, He is my dearest friend. When sickness comes to weaken me, To bring my head down low, I call upon my mighty God; Into His arms I go.

When circumstances threaten to rob me from my peace; He draws me close unto His breast, where all my strivings cease. And when my heart melts within me, And weakness takes control; He gathers me into His arms, He soothes my heart and soul.

The great I AM is with me, My life is in His hand, The Son of God is my hope, It's in His strength I stand. I refuse to be defeated, My eyes are on my God He has promised to be with me, As through this life I trod. I'm looking past all my circumstances, To Heaven's throne above;

My prayers have reached the heart of God, I'm resting in His love. I give God thanks in everything, My eyes are on His face;

The battle's His, the victory's mine; He helped me win
the race.

The Marshall Family wishes to express their sincere appreciation to everyone for your "acts of kindness", flowers, cards, telephone calls and prayers during our hour of sadness.

Special Thanks to the Smith-Jackson Funeral
Home, Charleston Nursing Center Staff, Betty
Stanford, Diane, David & Sharon Payne, Sarah Riffe and all who took time out of your busy schedules to visit and care for her during her stay.

Your labor of love will not go unrewarded.
We will always be grateful.

~ Obituary ~

Deaconess Mary E. Marshall, born April 8, 1909, the 6th of 11 children to the late Charlie and Millie McKitric in Burgin, KY. She married the late Felbert L. Marshall in 1925, and unto that union four children were born.

She accepted Christ and became a faithful member of The Church of God of America, Inc., under the late Bishop A.R. Smith in 1945. She served in several auxiliaries including the 12 Willing Workers, was one of the original COGOA "Green Street" Choir, and later appointed as deaconess by Bishop Smith until his untimely death, and continued through the leadership of Elder Larry D. Weathers. Mary had a "servant's heart".

Mary loved fishing and could cast a mean reel or rod. She was an avid gardener and almost always could be found outside tending to her flower and vegetable gardens. No one could clean or cook like Momma. She worked for several prominent families in Danville, also a cook at Jennie Rogers Elementary School.

Her passing will leave a great void in the lives of many. She could always be found "serving" in whatever capacity needed. Her gentle, meek and humble nature will always be remembered as well as her "giving spirit", so much so that she was the inspiration behind "The Angel Network of Bluegrass, Inc.", a non-profit national Christian organization established in 2001, by her granddaughter Rosalyn A. Ford. Because of testimonies by others, how she became their "Angel" in their time of need. Through her "acts of kindness", Mary Eliza unselfishly sowed into others lives daily, despite her $2.00 per hour cleaning job. Today TANB and its affiliates in Kentucky, Ohio and New Jersey are continuing her legacy of "giving", positively impacting the lives of many through various programs.

Whenever she received anything, you would always hear her say, "THANKS A MILLION". Mary E., you have served us well, now it's your time to rest from all your labors! You will be forever in our hearts, as you were "Our Angel" and we say to you "THANKS A MILLION"!

She was preceded in death by two children John H. Marshall and Rosetta Marshall.

She leaves to cherish her memories two sons George C. (Myrtle) Marshall, William H. (Rosie) Marshall, both of Cincinnati, OH; two granddaughters she raised, Diane Marshall, Lexington, KY and Rosalyn A. (Dennis) Ford, Somerset, NJ; two sisters Flora (J.C.) Hopkins and Ruth Routt, both of Cincinnati, OH; sister-in-law, Katherine McKitric, Cincinnati, OH; fifteen grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren, twelve great-great grandchildren; host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Obituary

Rosetta Marshall, was born December 19, 1939 to Deaconess Mary Eliza Marshall and the late Felbert Marshall, in Danville, KY.

Rosetta was on her way to take a flight on Tuesday, November 25, 2003, when God called her home to take her Heavenly Rest.

She accepted Christ at an early age. God anointed her to play the organ at age of twelve one night during a prayer service at the Church of God of America, where the late Bishop A. R. Smith was the overseer and Pastor.

During her lifetime she unselfishly shared her gift with many, assisting ministers, psalmists, and others, rending soul stirring maskills to remove the yolks of bondage. She was also a professional cosmetologist for over forty years owner and operator of House of Marshall. Her passing will leave a void in the lives of many she has touched.

She leaves to continue her legacy, one daughter Rosalyn A. Wilson of Somerset, NJ; three grandchildren, Deshaunda Wilson, John Wilson, Jr. and Terry Wilson; two great grandchildren Daiyanna and Shayla Eliza Montgomery, all of Somerset, NJ; two brothers George C. (Mytle) and William H. (Rosie), of Cincinnati, OH; one sister, Diane Marshall, of Lexington, KY; a special niece Carmen Marshall; two aunts Flora (Jay) Hopkins and Ruth Routt, all of Cincinnati, OH; host of nieces, nephew, cousins, friends; a special friend James M. To Those I Love and Those Who Have love Me,
I gave you my love, you can only guess how much,
You gave me in happiness. It was my pleasure to play for you and make your hearts glad,
But I've heard another sound and I must go there.
I thank you for the love you have shown; I know you'll miss me, but please don't cry for me; For now it time for me to gladly welcome you and play again for you that day.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

To My Family...May I Go?

May I go now? Don't you think the time is right?
May I say good-bye to pain-filled days and endless lonely nights.
I've lived my life and done my best, an example tried to be.
So can I take this step beyond and set my spirit free?
I didn't want to go at first, I fought with all my might!
But something seems to draw me now to a warm and loving light.
I want to go! I really do! It's difficult to stay,
But I will try as best I can to live just one more day —
To give you time to care for me and share your love and fears.
I know you're sad and are afraid because I see your tears.
I'll not be far, I promise that, and hope you'll always know
That my spirit will be close to you wherever you may go.
Thank you so for loving me, you know I loved you too.
That's why it's hard to say good-bye and end this life with you.
So hold me now, just one more time and let me hear you say,
Because you care so much for me, you'll let me go today.

There was no mother on this earth like our mother. Everybody says that but we can say it and mean it from the bottom of our hearts. Our father died when she was young and she was left with four young children. We never were without. We had the best of everything thanks to her. She was the mother who would sacrifice everything for her kids. She always took care of her children even after we were grown and on our own. She still saw that we didn't do without. It was always others first. She always thought of others, not only her children but friends and co-workers as well. She will truly be missed by anyone who knew her. To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me — let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tune yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many beautiful years.
I gave to you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
all my love, soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with open arms and say,
"Welcome Home."

To My Loving Husband

I look to you for happiness and you brought it without ever trying.
I turn to you for comfort and your arms were opened wide.
I've shared all the joys of life with you and all the little pleasures that made our life together so rewarding.
And through them, learned how precious love can be between a husband and wife.
Albert, I'll always owe my happiness to God and you, my husband; my life long love.

Life's Reflection

Order of Service

Brother Jesse Edward Mason, known as "Mr. Jesse" was the only son of Clay and Beulah Mason. He was born in Jessamine County April 17, 1919 and exchanged this life for eternal life and a crown in Glory on April 30, 2002. He preceded in death by a son Mario Cretis and a daughter-in-law Lisa.

Mr. Jesse accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age and was a faithful and devoted member of the First Baptist Church, Nicholasville all of his life. He served as a Deacon, church clerk, church school superintendent and choir member.

He graduated from Rosenwald Dunbar High School and attended Kentucky State University until drafted to serve in World War II in the United States Air Force.

Mr. Jesse married Eugenia Embray in 1947, and was blessed with five children from that marriage. Following Eugenia's death he was married to Nadine Jones for approximately thirty years who past in 1995.

On October 5, 1996, he was united in marriage to his loving and devoted wife Ruby McCoy of Radcliff, KY.

Mr. Jesse loved his family, his church and his community. He was an encourager to everyone, especially the youth through his Christian walk, as a civil rights activist and as an entrepreneur. He was the first African American licensed Used Car Dealer in the state of Kentucky and operated a used car business for 32 years. He was also a licensed home construction contractor. He was a leader. He organized the first African American Little League Baseball club, the "Slugger Dodgers" in Jessamine County in 1958 prior to integration to provide guidance to young males in the community. The team was transported twice a week to Lexington to play competitively in the Lexington Recreation League. In 1965, he helped spearhead integration of the Jessamine County public schools which resulted in the closing of the African American high school, Rosenwald Dunbar. In the mid 90s he lead the community movement in convincing the city to name the newly constructed Jessamine Middle School Rosenwald Dunbar.

Mr. Jesse also served on the Nicholasville Housing Board, the Board of City Councilmen, was commissioned a Kentucky Colonel and helped organize the first Rosenwald Dunbar Alumni Reunion.

His life touched the world. He was vice president of the Layman for the Consolidated District, a member of the Masonic Order for over 50 years and earned his 33 degree. As a member of the Order, he served as Past Master of Central Lodge #91, Past Grand Lecturer and the Honorary Grand Master for the Prince Hall Grand Lodge for the state of Kentucky, Past Commander-In-Chief for the Blue Grass Consistory and held numerous other positions in the Masonic Order serving the organization nationally and internationally.

Mr. Jesse was firm but fun, a joy to be around. He loved to fish as a sport and was also known as an avid fisherman to win souls for Christ. He was husband and father to be proud of, always sacrificing to break down racial barriers to ensure that his children and many others received the best educational and employment opportunities available. Mr. Jesse always left you laughing or left laughing at you. But, he was "old school" and while he encouraged, he also corrected those he loved by saying, "God's been too good, I want you to get yourself together". Then he would stay on you to help you "tighten-up".

He leaves to celebrate his life, his wife Ruby, his children: Lawrence Edward Mason, Sr. (Cynthia), Louisville, KY, Marsha Dianne Mason, Cincinnati, OH, Adrian Gene Mason (Valerie) and Brian Gene Mason (Carmen), both of Nicholasville, KY; three step-children: Defrice D. Williams (Gerald), Baumholder, Germany, Brenton D. McCoy (Natalie), Hampton, VA, and Wayne Jones; Kansas City, MO. his grandchildren, L' Eugenia A. Smith (Justin), Lawrence E. Mason, Jr. (Stephanie), Jessica Mason, Loren Mason, Jonathan Crawford, Brandon C. Mason; and Brandon D. Harrison, Niyah McCoy, Kimberly Wilson (Timothy), Gary Overstreet, and Desirae Overstreet; two great grandchildren: Lydia Mason, Justin Smith, Jr.; three sisters: Jennie M. Brown, Ida Noble, and Beulah B. Bruce (Harrison Bruce, Jr.) and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, Just say that I gave In.
don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.
Please don't say how I was, but that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could , not do less.
Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.
Please don't give me flowers, or talk in harsh tones.
Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God. I've made it home.
Don't talk about what could have been, it over and it's done
Just see to all my family needs, the battle has been won.
When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint,
I've done some good, I've done some wrong, so use all your paint,
Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark
In fact, don't put me down on canvases, paint me in your heart.
Don't just remember all the good times, but remember all the bad,
For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad.
But if you must do something, then I have one last request
Forgive me for the wrongs I've done and with the love that's left

Tribute to Wife and Mom

The blow was hard the shock severe,
We little thought her death was near,
Only those who have lost can tell,
The sad parting without farewell.

A heart as pure as gold,
Lisa's memory will never grow old.

A light from our home is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our house that never can be filled.

In our memories, Lisa, you are with us,
As you always were before.

Your memory is all we have now,
It will never fade away
We will love and cherish it forever
Till we meet again some day.

Thank God for the happiness we shared,
As a wife, a mom, you gave your all,
Now, rest...
We didn't get to keep you long,
But, we know we had God's best.

Love Forever,
Adrian and Brandon

God Saw Her

God saw you were getting tired, when a cure was not to be;
He closed his arms around you, and whispered come to me.
In tears we saw you were sinking, we watched you fade away;
Our hearts were almost broken, you fought so hard to stay;
But when we saw you sleeping, so peacefully from pain,
We should not wish you back to suffer again.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

She was so very, very special and was so from the start. I held her in my arms but mainly in my heart.

*And like a single drop of rain,
that on still waters fall, her life did ripples and touched the lives of all.*

She's gone to be with angels in heaven up above, so I'll keep my special memories and treasure, them all with love.

with me just a while, she'll live on in my heart with sweet remembered smile.*

SOMEBODY CARES

*Somebody cares and always will
The world forgets but God loves you still.
You cannot go beyond his love
No matter what you're guilty of --
For God forgives until the end
He is your faithful loyal friend
And though you try to hide your face
There is no shelter anyplace
That can escape his watchful eye.
For on the earth or in the sky
He's ever present and always will be there
To take you in his tender care
And bend the wounds and mend the brakes.
When all the world around forsakes
Somebody cares and loves you still
And God is the someone who always will.*

How Beautiful to Be With God

*How beautiful to be with God,
When earth is fading like a dream,
And from this mist-encircled shore
We launch upon the unknown stream.*

*No doubt, no fear, no anxious care,
But comforted by staff and rod,
In the faith-brightened hour of Death
How beautiful to be with God.*

*Then let it fade, this dream of earth,
When I have done my life work here,
Or long, or short, as seemeth best—

Evelyn Gray Mayfield who was affectionately known as "Sug" by her sisters, brothers, family members and many who knew her was born on October 8, 1920 in Boyle County, KY to the late Asroe and Clara Gray. She departed this life on December 29, 2004.

She was educated in the Boyle County School System and was united with Christ in the year 1938 at the Stony Point Baptist Church under the pastorship of Rev. James Merritt. As a member of the church for 66 years, one of the services which she rendered lovingly was that of serving as a member of the usher board.

Evelyn was married to the late Fred Mayfield and borne out of this union were eight children—two sons and six daughters. Evelyn was a mother who devoted her life to the raising of her children. She focused her children on getting a good education. She leaves eight children to cherish her loving memory: Barbara Adams (Edward) of Dayton, OH; Johelen Davis (Donald) of Fairfax Station, VA; Martha Hanna (Errol) of Farmington Hills, MI; Patricia Benning (Gordon) of Cincinnati, OH; Norma Bruce (Terry) of Louisville, KY; James D. Mayfield (Patricia) of Atlanta, GA; Kenneth Martin Mayfield of Danville, KY and Rita Kinley (Isaac) also of Cincinnati, OH.

In addition to her children, she will be greatly missed by her grandchildren, Donald Davis Jr., Tamara Davis, Gordon Benning, Lee Benning, Terilynn Bruce, Brandon Mayfield, James J. Mayfield, Brian Hanna, Kevin Bruce and Taylor Kinley. In passing, she also leaves behind 10 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Alice Lee Gray and three brothers—Eugene Gray, George Grey and Edwin Grey. She leaves behind three loving sisters: Florine Gray McPherson, Viola Gray Singleton, Helen Gray Taylor and one loving brother Dooley Gray, Sr.

A host of in-laws, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends are also left behind to mourn the passing of our dearly departed Evelyn.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*God knows that he was suffering and the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes,
and whispered, "Peace be thine."
The weary hours, the days of pain,
the sleepless nights are past.
The ever-patient worn out frame,
has found sweet rest at last.
Rest in peace.*

How Beautiful to Be With God

*How beautiful to be with God, When earth is fading like a dream,
And from this mist-encircled shore We launch upon the unknown stream.
No doubt, no fear, no anxious care, But comforted by staff and rod,
In the faith-brightened hour of Death, How beautiful to be with God.
Then let it fade, this dream of earth, When I have done my life work here,
Or long, or short, as seemeth best-What matters so God's Will appear.
I will not fear to launch my bark, Upon the darkly rolling flood,
Tis but to pierce the mist-and then How beautiful to be with God.

Until We Meet Again

*Each morning when we awake,
We know that you are gone.
And no one knows the headache,
as we try to carry on.*

*Our hearts still ache with sadness,
and many tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you,
no one will ever know.*

*Our thoughts are always with you,
your place no one can fill.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we love you still.*

*We hold you close within our hearts,
and there you will remain.
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.*

OBITUARY

On Monday, May 23, 1994, at 5:30 p.m. at his residence on Martin Luther King Blvd., God in his infinite wisdom called Bentley Tip Mays from labor to eternal rest.

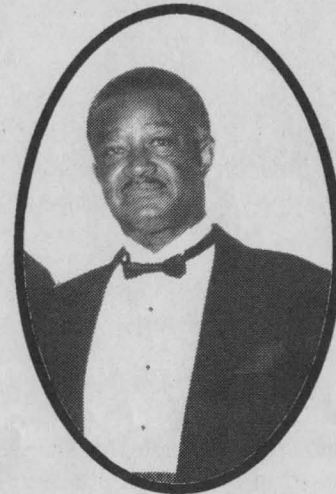

Bentley, one of six children, was born July 4, 1919, in Barbourville, Kentucky, to the late Rev. Woodson and Charity Mays. Three of those children preceded him in death.

He was united in marriage to Jewel Cloud. Out of that union, seven of their eight children survive.

Bentley was educated in the public schools of Barbourville. At the age of fifteen his passion for horses led him to become a horse trainer. He was a trainer at Happy Valley Farm until his retirement.

He accepted Christ at First Baptist Church under the pastorage of the late Rev. P.A. Carter. When he moved to Delaware, Ohio, he united with First Baptist Church there and was ordained as a deacon. Upon returning to Danville, he reunited with First Baptist Church, where he served as a deacon and a devoted member of the Male Chorus until his health began to fail.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and caring wife, Mrs. Jewel Mays; five sons, Bentley Mays of Harrodsburg, Kentucky, Steven B. Mays of Lexington, Kentucky, Wendell G. Mays of Danville, Kentucky, Marvin Mays of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Joe Louis Cloud of Zenia, Ohio; three daughters, Mrs. Mary S. Johnson of Louisville, Kentucky, Ms. Rosa L. Smith and Mrs. Judith E. Tarrance both of Danville, Kentucky; a brother, Eugene Mays of Barbourville, Kentucky; a sister, Mrs. Thelma Bledsoe of Barbourville, Kentucky; twenty-two grandchildren, one grandson, Olyjuwon (Binky) Buster, who lived most of his ten years in his home; sixteen great-grandchildren; three aunts, Mrs. Ruth Reed, Mrs. Naomi Jones, and Mrs. Ada Hughes all of Dayton, Ohio; two uncles, Leslie Mays of Manchester, Kentucky and Alex Jones of Huddleston, Virginia; nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

A Heart Of Gold

A heart of Gold stopped beating,
two bright eyes at rest.
God broke some hearts to prove,
That He only takes the best.
God knows you had to leave us,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of others went with you,
The day God took you home.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of Bentley L. Mays wishes to thank their many friends for all their kindness shown them during his illness and their time of sorrow.

The Family

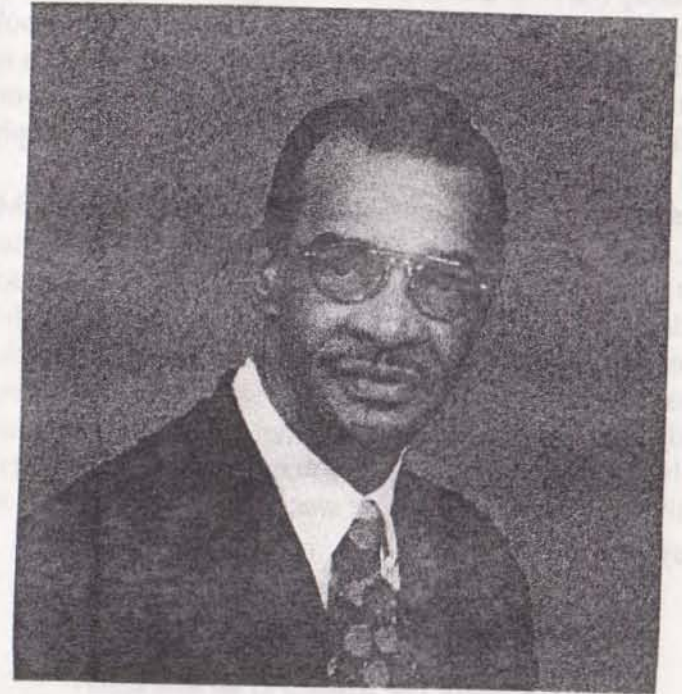

It feels like a lifetime, a thousand days have passed by since we held you close to us. If we could see that smile from your face we know that we could live again. We need you here with us, heaven knows what to say, even though for right now you're so very far away. We know and we pray, somewhere in our hearts you will always stay. Never noticed what it felt like to be without you. It feels like we took our last step, our last breath. And to say just what we were feeling, the sun doesn't shine.... without you.

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love. You can only guess
how much you gave to me in happiness
I thank you for the love you have shown
But now it is time I travel alone.
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Than let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories with your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile, and welcome you home.*

IMMORALITY

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain when you awake in the morning's hush.

I am the swift upflinging rush of quiet birds in circling flights.
I am the soft starshine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there.

I DID NOT DIE.

Momma

Momma moved from her old self;
to a glorious new self.

Moved from an earthly tent to a building
not made by hand.

Moved from time and stepped over into eternity.

Moved from these sandy shores to a mountainous area with heights unknown.

Moved from this turbulent world to a place where she studies war no more.

Moved from this evil land to be in a place where the wicked have ceased troubling her.

Moved from a state of hope to a nation where
Her hopes have come to fruition.

Moved to a land older than Eden and resides in a town taller than Rome.

Moved from this old world she started from and gone to make Heaven her home.

*With Love,
Your daughter Judy*

Perhaps you sang a song, or came and sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent flowers; if so, we saw them there. Perhaps you spoke comforting words, or helped us to pray. Perhaps, you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Perhaps you prepared some food, or maybe rendered some other service right here or after.
