My Steps Have Been Ordered

Since I surrendered my life to Jesus

I've been attacked by the enemy

Every step I take, every move I make

He's always there trying to hinder me.

But I called on the name Jesus!

And I'm walking in the path of peace

Because my steps have been ordered by the Lord.

The family gratefully acknowledges all expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness that has been extended to them during this time of sorrow. Dinner will be served at the home of Kenneth Spalding at 615 Kelly Way, Lebanon, KY.

Farewell, Dear Mother

Somewhere in our heart beneath all my grief and pain – Is a smile we still wear at the sound of your dear name. The precious word is 'Mother' she was my world you see – But now our heart's is breaking cause she's no longer here with us. God chose her for His Angel to watch us from above – To guide us and advise us and know that we're still loved. The day she had to leave us when her life on earth was through – God had better plans for her for this, I surely knew. When we think of her kind heart and all those loving years – My memories surround us and we can't hold back the tears. She always had a tender touch and a warm and gentle grin. We want to thank you Mother for teaching us. Thank you our Dear Mother for all the love you showed. . Although you've left this earth and now you've taken flight – I know that you are here with us each morning, noon and night.

POEM OF LIFE

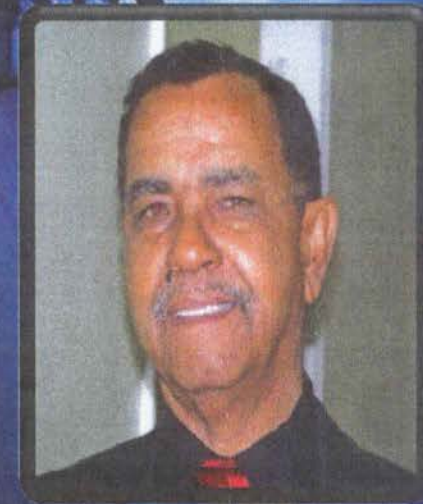

Life is but a stopping place,
a pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,
far greater than we know.
For some the journeys quicker,
for some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
we'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
together with the lord.

Obituary

On Wednesday evening, May 16, 2012 while listening to "Broken But I'm Healed", First Lady Eliza Ann Napier, age 57, heard her heavenly father utter, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou has been faithful over few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: ...you have fought a good fight, you have finished your course, you have kept the faith." In a spirit-filled room, at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center, First Lady Napier, in the company of her husband, son, and a personal sitter, opened her bright eyes and gazed upon her husband for one last time and "snuck" out of the room around 10:05 pm after following a 3 year battle with cancer.

Born on Monday, April 4, 1955 in Shelbyville, Kentucky, she was the daughter of Sarah Conn. An only child, First Lady Napier was fortunate enough to be raised up around family and close friends, in Martinsville, whom referred to her as "Stink". First Lady Napier attended High Street Elementary (an all-black school that used to be in Martinsville) and graduated from Shelbyville High in 1973. First Lady Napier loved church and God at an early age and attended Bethel Temple #3 on Lee Nor Mack Street (Rev. Chambers) before joining the Church of God of America on 6th and Bradshaw Street (Rev. Clay Beasley).

First Lady Napier was a very hard worker with a good work ethic, which started at Cardinal Restaurant on Main Street and Ace Hardware in Shelbyville, KY where she worked many years until her marriage to Presiding Bishop Timothy A. Napier. Upon moving to Danville, KY, she was employed at Palm Beach until it closed and Trim Masters in Harrodsburg, KY until retirement. Still unable to just "sit back and kick her feet up" she help co-found a successful travel agency, Kentucky Tours and Travels, Inc. with her husband and worked at CVS Pharmacy until she was diagnosed with cancer. She never met a stranger a day in her life and formed many lasting friendships throughout her lifetime. In her leisure time she enjoyed cooking, shopping and yard sales and never passed up a "bargain aisle". She was an avid collector of black figurines, art-work, crystal, antiques and dolls, and owned over one-hundred priceless dolls. First Lady Napier loved her only grandson, Jeconiah J' ace Luttrell, who affectionately called her "NaNa".

First Lady Napier leaves those to celebrate her life and continue her motto of "faith, love and charity" the following; husband, Presiding Bishop Timothy A. Napier; one son, Jaharvas J. Napier; one grandson, Jeconiah J. Luttrell; her mother, Minister Sarah Conn; her mother-in-law, Ollie M. Napier, sisters-in-law, Ethel (Jimmy) Hunn, Malvina Napier Brown, Charlotte Napier, Lydia Napier and her dog, Elegant Lady Di "Lady". Also, those who will celebrate and cherish fond memories of her are: Pat Ewing, her unwavering friend since Palm Beach, and fellow yard sale and doll collector buddy; Pat Thomas, her childhood friend and schoolmate; Mary Belle Wilson, her cousin; Justin Barnes her "adopted son"; plus a host of great friends: Ella Johnson, Bernice Barnes, Mary McAdoo, Vernon Wilburn, James-Alice Wakefield, Marvin Hall, James and Jennie Hines, Rick and Mary Burchett, Julie Baker, and Paulette Townsend. A beautiful host of personal home sitters: Stella Beavers, Margaret "Marty" Lowry, Mildred Bordes, Angie Williams, and Margaret Johnson as well a host of cousins, church family, friends, and extended family who will greatly miss her "angelic smile" and laugh.

You, My Wife, My Treasure

Memories of Mom & Dad

I had walked through life with nothing until you, until you I knew no pleasure
And then one day God sent you to me, to the eye so beautiful,
you, my wife, my treasure.

A gift from God, a gift so fine that you can never be measured
A love so fine, so sweet, so kind, it's you my love, you, my wife, my treasure.

I promise to hug and kiss and hold you each day.
I promise a love with devotion that will never ever fade away.

I promise and swear to God above
To show you nothing but my pure love.

I will admire the blessing of your boundless love,
Because I know that you are a true gift from Heaven Above.

I will not hurt you with my frustrations;
I will hold you close and kiss you with loving admiration.

I will always appreciate your commitment to me,
Give me a chance for can't you see.

This is not a game of chance that we play
It is true love that I swear is committed to stay.

You say that at times you are afraid
This one I can find no rhyme so let me be clear, I will,
Love you endlessly
Devote my life to making you happy
Admire you each day for the person you are Take entrust in the things that you like to do
Admire your beauty daily in awe and reflect it back to you
Be attentive to you and you needs
Be forgiving

Listen to you with never a harsh word in return
(I swear it and pray for it in God's name)
Show you by my actions that I love you
Be more open and fun to you, your family & friends
Never go to bed without you
Rub you, kiss you, bathe you, lift you up or whatever it takes when you are feeling down.

I will Kiss you and love you all that I possibly can,
And don't be embarrassed to be seen holding my hand.

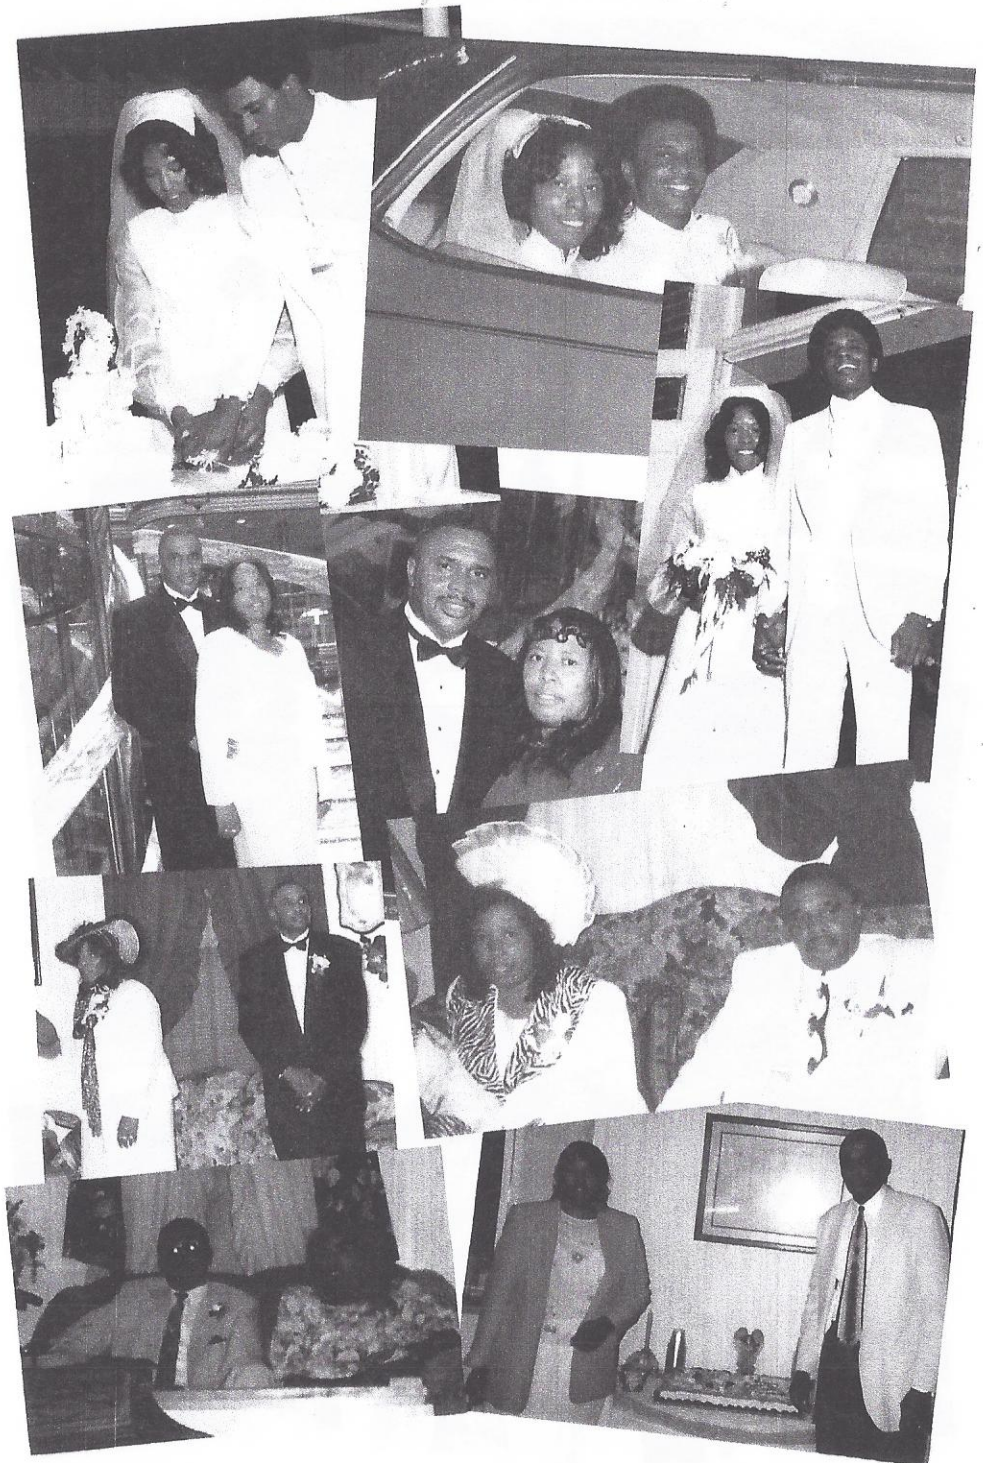

I will treasure each day as if it were our last,
And at the end of your life you won't regret me being your past.

You are the sunshine in my morning and like a bird I will sing you a song
I know that in this life when I am troubled through God it's you who keeps me strong.

You are the mother of my children and the air that gives me life.
My truest friend of all, my heart, my soul, my wife.

I love you very much; you are all that is good in this world

"To Those I Love"

If I should ever leave you whom I love
To go along the Silent Way, grieve not,
Nor speak of me with tears, but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were beside you there.
(I'd come-I'd come, could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief be barriers?)
And when you hear a song or see a bird
I loved, please do not let the thought of me
Be sad For I am loving you just as I always have ... You were so good, to me!
There are so many things I wanted still
To do --- so many things to say to you ...
Remember that I did not fear ... It was Just leaving you that was so hard to face ...
We cannot see Beyond.. But this I know:
I loved you so - 'twas heaven here with you!

"Mama"

You taught me everything
Everything you've given me
I'll always keep it inside
You're the driving force in my life, yeah

There isn't anything
Or anyone that I could be
And just wouldn't feel right
If I didn't have you by my side

You were there for me to love and care for me
When skies were gray
Whenever I was down
You were always there to comfort me

And no one else can be
What you have been to me you will always be
You will always be the girl
In my life for all times

Mama, Mama you know I love you
Mama, Mama you're the queen of my heart
Your love is like tears from the stars
Mama I just want you to know lovin' you is food to my soul
Yes it is, yes it is, oh, yes it is, yes it is oh

You're always there for me
Have always been around for me even when I was bad
You showed me right from wrong
Yes you did

And you took up for me
When everyone was downin' me
You always did understand
You gave me strength to go on

There was so many times
Looking back when I so afraid
And then you come to me and say to me
I can face anything

And no one else can do
What you have done for me
You'll always be, you will always be
The girl in my life, ooh oh

Mama, Mama you know I love you
Mama, Mama you're the queen of my heart
Your love is like tears from the stars
Mama I just want you to know lovin' you is like food to my soul

Never gonna go a day without you
Fills me up just thinkin' about you
I'll never go a day
Without my mama

Mama, Mama you know I love you
Mama, Mama you're the queen of my heart
Your love is like tears from the stars
Mama I just want you to know lovin' you is like food to my soul

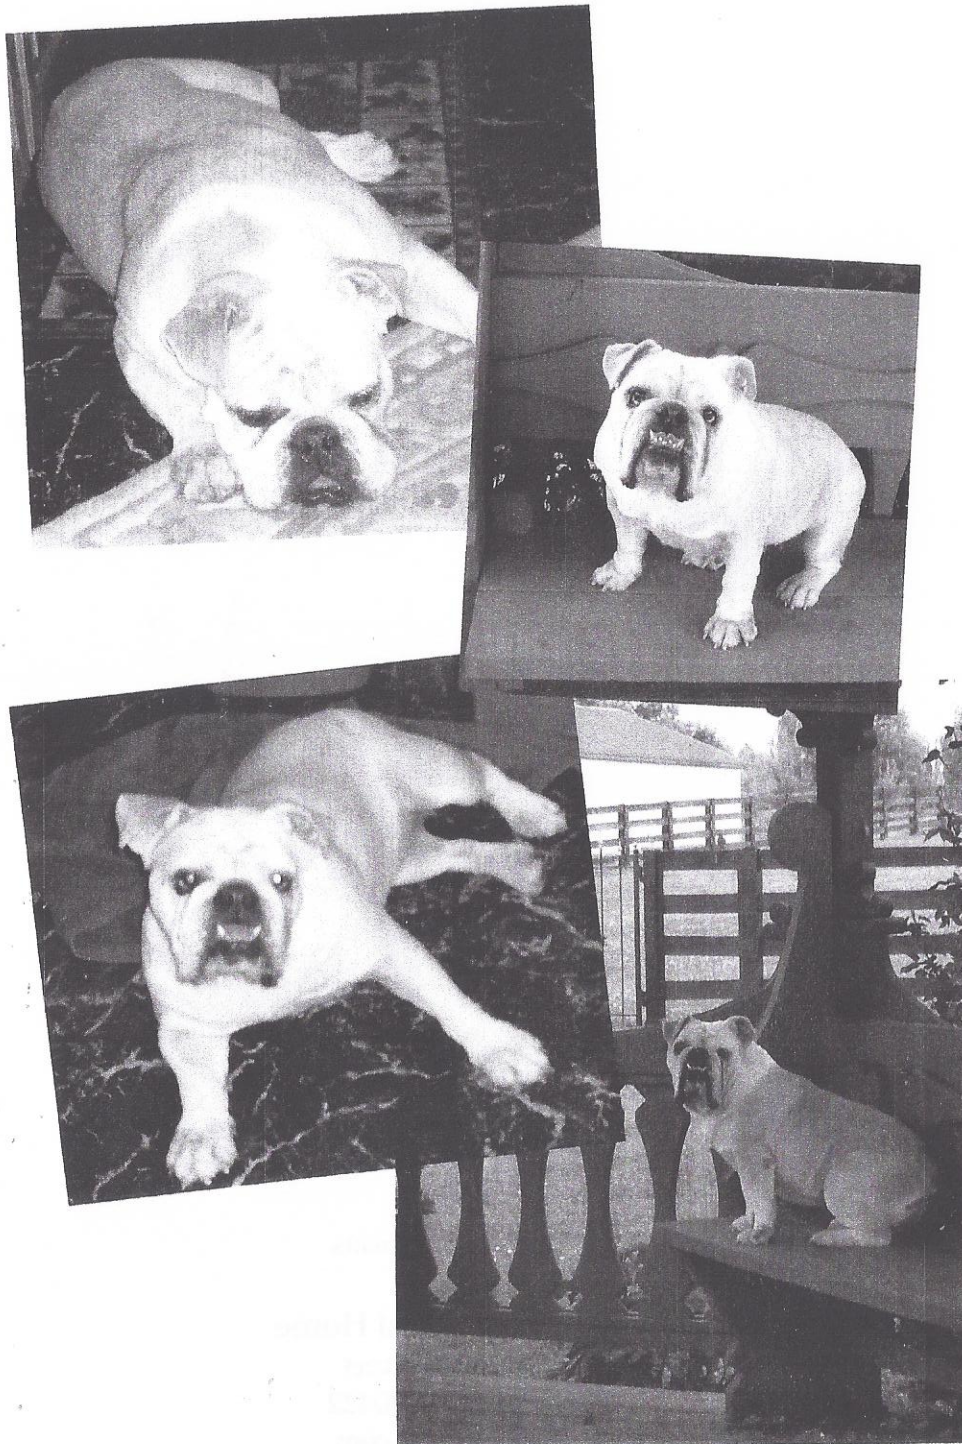

Lovin' you is like food to my soul, oh yeah
You are food to my soul, yes you are

I, Presiding Bishop Timothy A. Napier along with my son, Jaharvas J. Napier, on behalf of the Napier/Conn Family want to express our heart-felt thanks and appreciation for all the kindness you have shown, for friendships really expressed and comforting words during these sorrowing times. For prayers, telephone calls, cards, letters, Facebook statuses, emails, hugs, warm thoughts, visits at the hospital and at home, food donations, and all other acts of kindness.

Special thanks go out to the host of nurses and nurses' aides on the 3rd/6th floors of Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center and Commonwealth Cancer of Danville. To a great team of physicians who always cared for our loved one like their own: Don L. Hamner, M.D. (family), Thomas R. Baeker, M.D. (oncology), and Anjum Bux, M.D. PSC (Anesthesiology). To Hospice Heritage Inc. of Danville for being kind, patient and caring with us; providing guidance at the hospital and at home for the past three months. To the entire staff of personal home sitters that took care of our loved one and us too. To Tony and Mary Gooch, Paulette Townsend, and Gloria Taylor, thank you for being there for my father and me during these sorrowful times. Taking time out of your busy schedule to make sure that "This Celebration of and Home-Going Service" would be nothing more than Eliza would have wanted it—family and friends worshipping God together.

She shared her love and devotion to all alike.

She was a friendly neighbor, her words of kindness and pleasant ways will ever be remembered and cherished.

She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter; Mrs. Alma Jackman, one sister, two brothers, five grandchildren, five great grandchildren, nieces and nephews and other relatives.

"A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled;
But after a lonely heartache
And many a silent tear,
Always a beautiful memory
of one we loved so dear."

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that I had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness...
I thank you for the love that each of you have shown.
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust,
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone.
I'll greet you with a smile, and Welcome Home.

That He is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,

It needs must be since he lingers there.
Think of him still as the same, I say;

She Shall be Praised

Proverbs 31: 10, 25 - 31

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

Strength and honor are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.

Give her the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

An Expression of Gratitude

May today be all you need it to be. May the peace of God and the freshness of the Holy Spirit rest in your thoughts, rule in your dreams tonight, and conquer all your fears. May God manifest himself today in ways you have never experienced before. May your joys be fulfilled, your dreams be closer, and your prayers be answered. We pray that faith enters a new height for you; we pray that your hope in God is enlarged. We pray for peace, healing, health, happiness, prosperity, joy, true and undying love for God. Amen.

MR. ARTHUR NELSON

FEBRUARY 13, 1902 - AUGUST 24, 1992

God blessed him with a life of ninety years on earth - a life filled with kindness, devotion, but most of all love. Whenever days became cloudy and trouble, heartaches or pain met his along life's way, he never worried because he knew all he had to do was to look to the hills from whence cometh his help, and pray.

His work on earth has ended. His battle has been fought and his victory won. Now he has gone to be with our Lord and Saviour in Heaven on high where he can hear Him say, "Faithful servant, well done."

God looked around His garden and found an empty space.
Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He placed His arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
For He only takes the best.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone,
A part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.

Reverend Newby accepted a call to pastor 1st Baptist Perryville, his wife's home church in 1987 and served faithfully for almost twenty years. He chose "Go and compel them to come in" (Luke 14:23) as a theme for the church. Over the years he has provided leadership, fellowship, and spirit-filled sermons. He also made monumental advancements in his pharmaceutical career.

Reverend Newby always put God first in his life. As a called man of God he preached, taught, and lead people according to "The Word", which he used to model his life and guide his path.

"I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding."
Jeremiah 3:15

Reverend Newby was devoted to his church and his profession. Under his leadership at the church, several renovations were made, a radio and television ministry was established, a website was created, vans were purchased, and the parsonage was torn down and rebuilt. He visited the sick, prayed over the phone, and he lead his congregation to minister throughout the country.

He practiced as a pharmacist since he was licensed in 1976. He worked at Taylor Drugs as a staff pharmacist, managed a K-Mart pharmacy, the outpatient pharmacy at Humana Audubon, district manager at Humana of Kentucky and of Winn-Dixie Pharmacies, staff pharmacist at Kroger, Beuhler foods, University of Louisville, and Director of Operations at D&R Pharmaceuticals. He was currently employed as the Director of Norton Medical Towers.

Among them are The Black Achievers Award, Who's Who in American South and Southwest, Who's Who in American Universities, the American Cancer Society Community Service Award, and the KPhA Professional Promotions Award. He was installed as the first African American president of the Jefferson County Academy of Pharmacy and they dubbed him with the Pharmacist of the Year award in 2005. Last October he received the Lymon T. Johnson award from the University of Kentucky. He was also a member of KPhA, and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

He credited God for all of his accomplishments and successes.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil for Thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Letter From Heaven

*To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say.
But first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay..
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above..
Here there's no more tears of sadness. Here is just eternal love..
Please do not be unhappy just because I am out of sight..
Remember that I am with you every morning, noon and night..
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through..
God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you..
It's good to have you back again, you were missed while you were gone..
As for your dearest family, They'll be here later on..
I need you here badly, you're part of my plan..
There's so much that we have to do to help our mortal man..
God gave me a list of things that he wished for me to do..
And foremost on the list was to watch and care for you..
And when you lie in bed at night the day's chores put to flight..
God and I are closest to you—in the middle of the night..
And when it's time for you to go -- from that body to be free
Remember you're not going.... you're coming here to me.*

we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hands were put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

CROSSING THE BAR

Alfred L. Tennyson

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our borne of time and place
The flood may bear me for,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Daddy

Everything a man should be, you were that and more to me.

You labored hard with little rest.

Just to give us the very best.

You were strict, you had rules, they seemed harsh in our sight.

But, you had to do what you thought was right.

As the years passed by, the better we understood you.

You would have given your life to protect us, if you had to.

Remembering you strong and healthy, standing tall.

You spoke few words, but your eyes said it all.

It was hard to watch you grow older.

Your eyes getting dim, your steps getting slower.

These slow steps opened a new door.

We got to spend more time with you than before.

We could hang out with you, talk for hours on end.

We came to know you, not just as a Father, but a good friend.

You proved to us what we already knew,

That you loved us just as much as we loved you.

God gave us the gift of time with you, and one day.

He wanted you back and took you away.

He gave you peace, took away your pain.

And for us, one day he'll do the same.

Then our broken hearts will mend

Because we'll be with you together again.

~Obituary~

Frank L. Norman, Sr. was born on June 8, 1923 in Touristville, KY, to Frank Andy Pullman Norman and Katie Barnes-Norman. Frank was the youngest child and only son. He had two older sister, Fanny Garth (Holmer) and Ella Coffey (David) who preceded him in death. Frank met, and fell in love with, Maedell F. Penman. They were united in marriage on March 31, 1946. To this union was born seven children, Frank Jr., Phyllis, Joyce, Wayne and Clydette. Two sons preceded him in death, Ervin Wendell and Ray Anthony. One of his best friends, a cousin whom he considered a brother, was the late Virgil Norman. His companion of over 30 years was the late Evergreen Campbell.

Frank worked on the farm many years during the early days of family life. When the opportunity arose to learn a trade and moved to the city, he took it. He learned the trade of cement masonry and quickly mastered it. He became one of the most sought after foremen and consultant in the industry. He had the unique ability to glance over a blueprint and predict exactly how much it would take to finish the project – down to the last ton of cement. And he was extremely proud to have won the "Golden Hard Hat" award. He retire after 56 years of hard work.

Although Frank moved to the big city of Detroit, raised a family, and lived there for many years, he never forgot his county roots. He longed for the beautiful hills of his mountain side boyhood home in Monticello, KY. His passion was guns and hunting. He spent many hours in the woods where he was a very small boy and would come back with more game that the grown men. In his later years, his hobby was gardening and took great pride in raising vegetables on his "mini farm" in the backyard.

Frank was a loving husband and wonderful father. Maedell was the love of his life, she made his last days sweet. Frank loved his children and was so proud of them. He ruled his house with a perfect balance of love and discipline. He had the sweet, gentle heart of a dove but fiercely protected his family with the strength of a lion. James Brown's song "Papa Don't Take No Mess" describes him best.

Frank realized the need for God in his life at an early age, and joined The House of God in Lexington, KY under the pastورشip of the late Bishop S.P. Rawlings. Many years later he joined Allen Chapel A.M.E Church in Moreland, KY under the pastورشip of Rev. Everhart Walker and was baptized in 2007. Frank walked with his hand in God's and had strong faith. He loved to sit in on Bible study with Maedell and could pray the most beautiful prayers.

On Tuesday, March 17, 2009, our hearts broke, as God called him home from his labors to his reward. He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved Maedell, his son Frank Norman Jr. (Dottie), his daughters, Phyllis Norman (Darius) Joyce Hardin (William), son Wayne Norman (Mary) and daughter Clydette Harris (Fred), 11 grandchildren, many great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

God's Care is Everywhere

*Sometimes the things that seem the worst
Turns out to be the best.
So think of this as just a time to get a little rest.
And while we cannot understand
Why things happen as they do.
The one who hangs the rainbow out
Has His own plans for you.
And may it comfort you to know that you are in His care.
And we are all a part of God,
And God is everywhere.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car,
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You So Very Much,
Whatever the part.

May God Bless You!

Obituary

Lawrence Edgar Ogle, son of the late Jasper R. and Emily Jean Ogle was born in Jessamine County, November 7, 1934 and departed this life on July 27, 2015 early Monday morning at his home to be in the presence of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

He served as a Deacon at East Maple Street Christian Church and was affectionately called "Uncle Joe" by many of the congregants there. He proudly served in the United States Marine Corps during the Korean Conflict in Okinawa, Japan. The adage "once a Marine, always a Marine," is how many of his grandchild and friends fondly remember him: more importantly, he is remembered as a child of God.

He joined in holy matrimony to the late Jennie Mae Hayden, April 3, 1956 by the Rev. Jessie Hicks III. To this union were born five children, Antonia (William) Gates, Lawrence Jr. (Deborah), Marva Marie, Tammy Kaye and Bonnie Lynn. God continued to bless him with a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Cherished by his late wife and deeply loved by his children and grandchildren, he gave them the gifts of love, wisdom, and laughter, and he was an example of strength and protection to his family. He will forever live in their hearts.

He also leaves to cherish his memory two sisters, Carolyn (William) White and Mary Knox. He is survived by a host of wonderful nieces, nephews, family and friends.

To many he was a good neighbor, a nice man, strong co-worker, son, brother, friend, encourager, wonderful provider, loving husband, great brother-in-law, fun uncle, Confidant, advisor and protector. To those who loved him, He will be greatly missed.

She later joined Second Street Christian Church in Danville, Kentucky where she attended faithfully until her health began to fail.

She was joined in Holy matrimony to the “Love of her Life” Lawrence Edgar Ogle of Nicholasville on April 3, 1956 by the late Rev. Jessie Hicks III husband of her good friend the late Maxine Prather. To this union were born five children, Antonia (William) Gates, Lawrence Jr. (Debra), Marva Maxberry, Tammy K. Ogle and Bonnie Ogle-Taylor. She had twelve grandchildren; fourteen great grandchildren; two deceased grandsons. She is also survived by a host of wonderful nieces, nephews, friends and family.

While at EMSCC she organized the “Walk-for-Jesus” Walkathon to raise funds to help furnish carpet and kitchen appliances for the church’s dining room and kitchen. She was a member of the SSCC women’s outreach ministry Christian Women’s Fellowship which provides support and assistance to those in need in the local community of Danville. Three of her favorite scriptures were: John 3:16, Psalms 8 and Psalms 100.

She was an AVID shopper! Her great grandchildren loved their “GG!” She was a great cook and loads of fun! She had a love for the Lord, her husband, family, friends and flowers! Anybody that knew her realized that she loved music and laughter.

HAND

There is a hand that I fit in.

A hand that strokes me and a touch of a finger that puts me to sleep and awakens me.

A hand that holds me close to his bosom of love and loves me.

A hand that wipes away my tears, fears and lifts me up when I am down.

This hand belongs to our Father who art in heaven.

The one person that loves us all.

*Thank God for this hand of Jesus Christ,
our Lord and Savior.*

A Single Parent's Prayer

*Lord, grant me
Time enough to do all the chored, join in the games help with the lessons, and say the night prayers and still have a few moments left over for me....*

*Energy Enough
to be bread-baker and breadwinner,
knee-patcher and peacemaker,
ballplayer and bill-juggler....*

*Hands Enough to wipe away the tears, to reach out when I'm needed, to hug and to hold, to tickle
and touch....*

*Heart Enough
to share and to care
to listen and to understand,
and to make a loving home
for my family.*

a tree, The gentleness of morning dew,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The beauty of the twilight hour,
The soul of a starry night,
The laughter of the rippling brook,
The grace of a bird in flight,
The tender care of an angel,
The faith of the mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family's need,
Then God fashioned from these things
A creation like no other,
And when His masterpiece was through,
He called it simply — Mother.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, Yes those things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Homegoing Celebration

For

Donald E. Owsley

August 8, 1930 - January 22, 1999

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of life that there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most, you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your time of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

ANOTHER ROOM

No, not cold beneath the grasses;
Not closed within the tomb;
Rather, in my Father's mansion
Living in another room,
Shall we blame my Father's Wisdom?
Shall we sit bowed in gloom,
When we know our Love is happy,
Waiting in another room?
We won't doubt our Father's mercy;
We won't think of death as doom.
It's just stepping o'er the threshold
To a bigger, brighter room.

~ The Obituary ~

Sis. Willie Belle Owsley, age 82, a resident of Stanford, Kentucky, was called to her heavenly home on Tuesday, April 11, 2006 at Fort Logan Hospital in Stanford.

She was born on July 14, 1923 in the Halls Gap community of Lincoln County, Kentucky. She was one of five children born to the late William Richard Thurman and Julie Higgins Thurman. She is preceded in death by her husband James Mervin Owsley, one brother Cliff Thurman, three sisters, Lula Lee, Doris Hudson and Beatrice Thurman and one special first cousin, Shirley M (Carson) Burnside.

Sis. Willie accepted Jesus Christ as her savior on May 13, 1962 and united with Stanford Christian Church under Bro. A. S. Gentry. She later became a faithful member of First Missionary Baptist Church in Stanford, Kentucky, where she served on the culinary committee for many church events. She was generous in sharing recipes, her affection toward extended family and friends; and her sharp wit and humor lifted the spirits of those whose lives she touched.

She leaves to cherish her memory three nephews, Billy Thompson, David Hudson and Andre Lee; a niece Shelia Hudson; two great nieces, Taneka and Patricia A. Hudson; five close cousins, Virgil Burnside (Jackie and Rachel), Wesley Burnside, Shirl Burnside, Lois West and Ernestine Burnside; and extended family Tommy, Carolyn, Lisa, Tammy, and Jill Murphy (Mildred and Gregg Baird); other cousins, church family and friends.
