WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you
for a little while,
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
and hug your sorrow
to you through the years.
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness
on empty days.
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hast set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end. Ecclesiates 3:11

The day is not over

*My day is not over,
the sun has not stop shining,
The beauty of the city is far more brighter than you could ever image.*

*I was getting tired;
I needed to rest.
A voice so clear and loving called my name.
I answered Lord, Here I am.*

*With a nail scarred hand,
He Led me to my brand new home.
A heavenly host welcome me,
with voices in perfect harmony.*

*Family and friends don't weep for me,
my day is not over, its just began.*

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want,
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

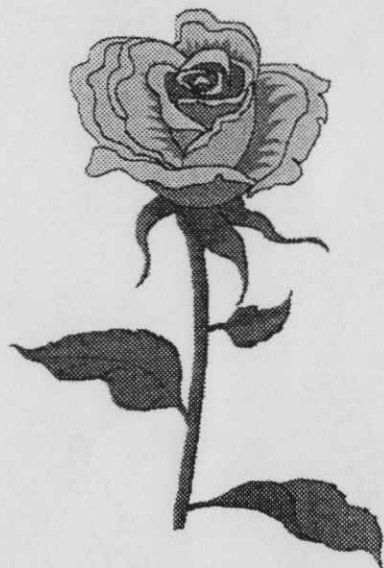

He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

The clock of life is wound but once and nobody has the power to tell just when the hands may stop, at late or early morning. Now is the time your own, time love, work with a will. Place no faith in the morrow, for the clock may then be still.

It was Thursday, August 27, 1992 when the clock of life stopped for Mrs. Esteva Palmer at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington, Ky. She was the daughter of the late Daniel Haddit and Casdella Mason Haddet. A member of Broadway Baptist Church, where she had been very active in many ways, as long as health permitted. She was the President of Senior Usher Board and organized the Junior Usher Board, She gave freely for the up building of her church, even after her health began to fail. She was also active in other organizations, a long time member of Annie Banks Simms Auxiliury Hospital Club, Golden Link Temple 123, Allen Chapel No. 18 O&S. Upon her service in her community, there are other things to be remembered. Before her passing a very pretty and touching prayer was said. She thanks God for the many good deeds that were done by her foster son, Robert Miller, Lexington. Also her neighbor and friends, and everything was all right with her. Thanking God for all of his blessings. Esteva had a pleasant personality, and loved by many. She leaves to cherish her memory a devoted foster son Robert Miller, Lexington. Mrs. Ann Miller, Winchester. Several cousins, nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Yes, God's tomorrow is a day of greeting. We shall see our savior's face and our longing hearts await the meeting, in that Holy Place. God's tomorrow, every cloud will pass away, and I know that God's tomorrow will be better than today.

REFLECTIONS

Last night I saw a heavenly light, that descended toward the earth, I said a prayer with all my might, To extend a loved one's birth.

This morning the phone started to ring, how I know that familiar sound, the reply was that her soul took wings to another home she found.

No more pain and pills to take or even a doctor's call, No more appointments she'll have to make - The Lord took care of it all.

We know not the Master's will -Nor what He plans to do - Repent of all your sins until - He comes for me and you.

Cousin Bennie G. Haynes

Treasured Memories

From: Thanatopsis, by William Cullen Bryant
So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take - His chamber in the silent halls of death
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night Scourged by his dungeon; but, sustain'd and soothed - By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave - Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch - About him and lies down to pleasant dreams.

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun; Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

MY TREASURE – MY MOM

I look back on the years – to see how far I've come and grown. I take a trip down memory lane and what I see has shown. That every step I've taken – you have been there by my side. From infancy to adulthood – We've stood the test of time. You cradled me and nurtured me – Through all these many years. You have held and did comfort me – Through happiness and tears. You'd pick me up when I would fall – You'd dust me off and then. Encourage me to get back on – That horse and ride again. Your constant care and loving and your warm inviting heart Has always been a treasure that I know would never depart. If I could be "just half" the person you have been to me..... Then you have taught me well Dear MOM – For in my heart I see – A woman whose most gentle soul – Embraces me each day – A woman whom I dearly love – much more than words can say.

Kenya J. Paris – Daughter

I remember the things we did together, we went shopping at the mall and we cooked with each other; we went to the movies together and everything. I loved my Nana so much, I will never forget the things we did together. I will miss, really miss you all the time, but I know you are beside me wherever I go and I'll never forget you at all. I just want you to know.

A Special Place For Me

A certain job I'm meant today, nobody else can fill,
The hours are demanding and the pay is not too good,
There is a special place in life, a good I must attain.*

A little path that bears my name awaiting me somewhere.
There is a hand that I must hold a word that I must say
A smile that I must give, for there are tears to blot away.*

MOTHER OF THE YEAR

Mary Thelma Meaux Parks was born May 17, 1933 to the late Augustus Clark Meaux and Clarice Singleton Meaux in the community of Mayo, Kentucky. The only girl among 5 brothers she was spoiled and well loved. Her early elementary schooling was the one room classroom at Dividing Ridge, Mayo and later came to Harrodsburg where she graduated in 1952 from Westside High School.

The late Rev. G.H. Childs united her in marriage on July 10, 1954 to William Henry Parks. To this union 5 children were born. Her greatest joy is her children and the 7 grandchildren and 1 great grandson she has today. Mary at the age of 28 lost her own mother and she became like a mother to her own brothers and their children.

She's a faithful member of the Centennial Baptist Church. In her role as a deacon's wife she has made the communion bread for many years. For many years she was in charge of the Food & Dining Committee. Her welcoming and warm greetings have made many feel welcome at Centennial. She is a member of the Adult Sunday School Class.

Many in the community affectionately call her "Aunt Mae." She is well known in the community for her homemade rolls, pies and baking she does at Christmas. Anybody that has had any of these wants to know if "Aunt Mae" has any for them. Her front porch is a gathering place because most of the time that's where you will find her. Family and friends have come together quite often at 220 North Magnolia. Her hobby is playing cards which she truly enjoys. Whether it is Rook or Five Up she loves the challenge of a good game.

For many years she was employed at The Mercer Dress Factory in Burgin as a presser until it closed 21 years later. Now she works part-time at the Ruby Dunn Senior Citizen Center for the last several years as the Dietary Manager. Her love for the elderly is carried throughout the center and she has a genuine love for all.

In tune with Hallmark's card slogan - send only the "very best" and God has sent her in the form of Mary Parks. She's a fighter and a true warrior. Two years ago this past February she was diagnosed with cancer. She leaned on God and her faith. She proclaimed her love for Him and said "whatever is in store for me all is well". She never questioned why her nor complained. She was more concerned for her husband and children. She had made peace and went through surgery and later radiation. Today she is healthy and cancer free. Praise God!

I love her and never miss a chance to tell her. We talk everyday and night and rarely miss a day without calling one another or seeing each other sometime in the week. My Mother is my best friend and I thank God for her each and every day. Truly to me my mother is the Mother of the Year.

CROSSING THE BAR

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no morning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar*

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

That we cannot understand,
But we must trust God's judgment,
And be guided by His Hand.

And so in faith we must believe,
That Mercy is still on the throne,
Though our hearts are filled with sorrow,
We know God's will must be done.

While we live in a world of fear of crimes today, Maxine lived in a world of peace. She never locked her door and welcomed everyone who came to see her. She was always willing to help anyone.

She was a grandmother to many and was known as "Gan Gan" to many of the kids and "Ms. Maxine" by friends and neighbors. They loved her as she left this world for a better place. We have peace in our hearts knowing we will see her again.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now:
He set me free.

The Lion and the Lamb

I'm unique in God's creation; God has made me as I am others is increased; just like the lion and the lamb, we'll dwell in harmony and peace. (Mark Dixon)

Chosen

Which of my children, will I select
To come home from their toils?

Though they leave behind
Loved ones that cherish their memories

Yet I need to bring them in for the sake of others
That have not come into my kingdom

And that those which remain, may not lose focus
For the time is drawing nigh

You see, I really did die
That you might live again

So remember the pleasant things
She wouldn't want it any other way

Yes you will miss her
And cry many tears

But take consolation in knowing
She's in good hands

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed many tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in His name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never, never be afraid to die,
For on resurrection morn,
I'll be waiting for you in the sky.

A Service of Memory
Celebrating the Life of

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me — let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tune yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many beautiful years.
I gave to you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love, soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with open arms and say,
"Welcome Home".

St. John 14:1-6

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. I my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Martha Pearl Rowe Patton was born in Danville, Kentucky, on May 9, 1895, the youngest child of John and Eliza Rowe.

Martha, as she was affectionately called, spent her entire life in Danville of which she was so very proud.

On August 20, 1925, she married Leerue Patton, Sr., and from this union, three children were born.

When she was about 12 years of age she was baptised into the fellowship of First Baptist Church, Danville. For the rest of her life she devoted many hours of service to the church she dearly loved as a Sunday School teacher, member of the Eliza Rowe Missionary Circle, the Lend-A-Hand Club and supported all areas of the church's programs.

She graduated from Kentucky Normal College and taught elementary grades at Bate High School for 14 years from which she retired upon her marriage.

She was an active member and officer for many years of the Domestic Economy Club and a charter member of the Kentucky Club.

She received her 50-year alumni pin from Kentucky State College in June of 1965.

The greatest joy and most important to her was being a loving wife and mother and making a happy, christian home for her husband and children.

To mourn her passing are her husband, Leerue Patton, Sr., three children, Mrs. Rowena Gray, Chicago, Ill.; Leerue Patton, Jr., Chicago, Ill.; and Mrs. Alva P. Harper. A brother, Atty. John W. God Saw Her

God saw you were getting tired. When a cure was not to be.
He closed his arms around you and whispered, "Come To Me."
In tears we saw you sinking, we watched you fade away.
Our hearts were almost broken, you fought so hard to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping so peacefully, free from pain,
we should not wish you back to suffer that again.

DEATH

I felt lonely when you left
There set a whole in my chest,
I was heartbroken and very scared
When someone said death I couldn't bare it
You took a piece of my heart with you
Now I don't know what I'll do
Some were strong, some even cried
Some tried to hide there hurt inside
When you had left I tried to move on
I couldn't, I had grown to fond I thought it was all a dream but, I had awoken to to here myself scream
Even though your dead you still live in my heart
The friendship we had will never part
Is this life or is this death?
The other night you took your last breath,
That's when I knew this was death.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give me at that day; and not to me only. But unto all them also that love his appearing.

Obituary

Douglas "Doug" Edward Penix, 52, known as "Ham" departed this life, Friday June 3, 2016 at Fort Logan Hospital in Stanford. Doug was born April 17, 1964 in Lancaster, Ky.

Doug accepted Christ at an early age at St. Paul Predestrinarian Baptist Church. He served in the United States Army. After his short time in the Service, he was employed as a factory worker where he took pride in everything he did. Doug married Sharon Davis in 1986 and from this union three children were born: April, Kimberly and Chris.

In his personal time he enjoyed watching his Wildcats play and was an avid Steelers fan. He enjoyed spending his time breaking down and rebuilding computers, as a computer tech. As many knew, if anyone had a problem he was the one to call as "the go to person" and completed everyone taxes. Doug always had a smile on his face and treated everyone with love and kindness, he was always willing to help anyone that asked. Outside of those things he spent a great amount of time with family and friends.

He is survived by his parents; Charles and John Etta Penix of Danville; two children: a daughter Kimberly Penix and a son Chris (Alex) Penix both of Lancaster; two brothers: Charles Anthony Penix and Charles Marzell (Theresa) Penix, both of Danville; seven sisters: Janet (Michael) McPherson of Lancaster, Cheryl Penix (Pierre) of Danville, Rebecca (Carl) White of Danville, La'Toria Penix of Danville, Shauntynnee Penix (Keith) of Upper Marlboro, MD, Charmenica Penix and Chaneicia Penix, both of Danville; two grandchildren: Aubree and Mason Penix of Lancaster: a special uncle Mitchell Ray and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, and cousins.

Little did we know that God was

In death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
Today God called you home
You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us, one by one
The chain will link again.

We Will Miss You!

*It seems that there is never time to let our loved one know, just how much we love them until it's time for them to go.
Saying goodbye to you is truly hard on our hearts.
But there is a day coming when we'll never again part.*

Obituary

Stanford, Kentucky — January 25, 1981

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
Even there shall Thy hand lead me,
and Thy right hand shall hold me.

Psalm 139:9-10

Churchill Minor Penman was the eighth child born to the union of Darby and Sallie Owsley Penman, June 6, 1901 in Hubble, Lincoln County, Kentucky. He departed life at the Chandler Medical Center, Lexington, Ky., Tuesday, January 20, at 4:30 p.m.

He attended the public school of Hubble and completed the elementary studies. He spent his entire life in the village of which he was born and selected farming as his vocation.

At an early age he accepted Christ as his Lord and Saviour and united with the Clifton Baptist Church, suburb of Danville, Boyle County, Ky. Following in the footsteps of his father and his faithfulness as a Christian he was ordained a deacon of the Clifton church. He served as church clerk for a number of years and at the time of his Home Going he was chairman of the Deacons' Board and treasurer of the Sunday School, he was a member of the South District Ministers and Deacons Meeting, and a faithful member of the Cemetery Committee, serving as treasurer.

He was married 46 years to the former Miss Hannah Meadows. They opened their home to all who needed a place for rest and comfort. To many this fellowship was known as "Friendship Headquarters." Named by the present pastor of the deceased.

The survivors are the devoted wife, Hannah; a sister, Henrietta Bulter of Louisville, Ky.; several relatives; and many friends.

I cannot lose Thee! Still in Thee abiding.
The end is clear, how wide soe'er I roam;
The Hand that holds the world
my steps is guiding,
And I must rest at last in Thee, my home.

Family Connection

God picked another beautiful flower from our family this year. One so close so very, very dear. All of us he left behind who didn't get to say goodbye, will get to see him again someday, so don't cry. We all travel through this world for just a little while, and then we too must die. He closed his eyes and left this world without a single care, and God will hold him in his loving arms until the rest of us get there. Oh! What a joyous time we'll have when God has made his final selection, that's when we'll have one last meeting in

Heaven, to close out the Penman Family Connection

CROSSING THE BAR

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness or farewell,
When I embark;*

*For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

God Came Back For Me

A bright and morning star
came back for me.
So I had to leave and
bid you farewell,
Can't you see
God has something else
in store for me,
no more suffering,
so don't cry,
I'm happy now,
don't you see,
Cause my Heavenly Father
came back for me,
He needed another flower
in his garden,
in this morning early,
he picked me.

"I Had To Leave"

Don't grieve for me, I had to leave, I'm now set free, from the pain deep within; just imagine me with a great big grin. I turned my back and left it all, just to trade it in, for my life had to end. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joy. A laugh, a hug, a kiss, ah yes, these too I will miss. My life has been full, so be not burdened, my children, my loving wife, for God has choose to end me from this life, lift up your heads and your hearts I had to depart. I'm not dead I'm in your hearts and that's where I will live.

I'M FREE

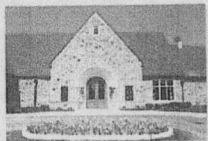

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
A loved-one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Rachel, Dear Rachel, so angelic and sweet
Departed from us, for our God to meet
She lingered and suffered for so very long
Till God touched her body, Now all pain is gone
He watched her suffer, so brave without fear
And then he called her, come Rachel, come dear
I have a job for you to fullfill
And that is why, I have called you here
It was so special, right away I knew
That this special job, had to be done by you

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

THE JOURNEY

My journey is over now! This chapter of my life is closed. God has given me a wonderful life and I won't complain. I'm resting and waiting just to behold my Saviors face. I didn't know my time was so close, but I've finished my race.

The important thing that I'm most grateful for is I was ready. We know not the day or the hour when he shall appear. Moma be strong, and hold on to God. I'm glad I got to see you and spend time with you before I took my next flight out. I love you and take care.

Lisa, my nurse, my friend and my comforter tell others what God can do and has done right before our eyes. Tell about this journey we have taken together.

Libby, always remember the Lord gives and he takes away just like he has taken me.

Wanda, stay as a strong bold soldier for the Lord. Always declare the word of God and continue to allow God to use you.

Isaiah, my confidant take care of our Moma and take care of my sisters for me. Hold the family together for me. Nobody understands the "space" we're in but its taken me years to get where you already are.

I love you guys!

P.S. You are always being prepared for something better but protected from something worse.

OBITUARY

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls." Matthew 11: 28,29

Stephon E. Penman found rest for his soul around 6:30 a.m. Tuesday morning at the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles, CA. Stephon was the son of Lucille Meaux and the late Clyde Penman. He was born May 26, 1963. Stephon was a member of the 1981 graduating class of Danville High School. After graduation he attended Eastern Kentucky University for 3 years. He then made the decision to follow his dream and moved to Los Angeles, CA.

Stephon has resided in Los Angeles for the past 25 years. He was an employee of Storage Tech. Company. Stephon was a unique, artistic, and creative individual. He loved to design, draw, paint decorate, and entertain family and friends. He was always eager and excited to "host" someone when they visited the city of Los Angeles. Stephon enjoyed life, and lived it to the fullest.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden, And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth, And saw your tired face.
 He put His arms around you, And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, He knew that you were in pain.
 He knew that you would never, Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough, And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids, And whispered "Peace be thine."
 It broke our hearts to lose you, But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you, The day God called you home.

She bid no one a last farewell; she said goodbye to none. Her loving heart ceased to beat, before we knew she was gone. The earth will soon claim its own but, Mama is somewhere around God's throne while we are left here to moan.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
Nor hug your sorrow through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile.*

*And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.*

*Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And God in turn will comfort you and hold you near.*

*And never, never be afraid to die,

A Heart of Gold

A heart of Gold stopped beating two bright eyes at rest
God broke some hearts to prove,
that He only takes the best.
God knows you had to leave us,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of others went with you,
the day god took you home.

A gracious, and merciful father called our mother, grandmother, sister and friend on Thursday, December 3, 2009 to join her heavenly family.

Mrs. Gross was a member of Community Christian Church. She was a retired Health Care Provider who resided in Lexington, Kentucky.

She leaves behind to mourn her passing and cherish her memory three daughters; Darlene Ward, Laquietta Collins, and Marilyn Gillispie. One son-in-law Darin Ward, eight grandchildren; Jill Shepherd, Carnella Gillispie, Thomas Gillespie, Courtney Gillispie, James Collins, Muqtasid El-Saadiq, Tauheedah El-Saadiq, and Malika El-Saadiq. Seven great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild, Keyonna, one sister Eloise Turner and one brother Calvin Penman. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Alma Gross will surely be missed by all who have come to know and love her. We will always cherish the back bone of our family. We were truly blessed to have her in our lives.

FAMILY POEM

If tears could build a stairway and memoires can build a lane. I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again.

God saw her getting tired and a cure not meant to be.

So he put his arms around her and whispered:

"Come Go With Me"

Obituary

*Servant of God, Well Done! Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the Victory won, Enter thy Master's joy.
The pains of Death are past, Labor and sorrow cease,
And life's long warfare closed at last, His soul is found in peace.*

*Soldier of Christ, Well Done, Praise be thy new employ,
And while eternal ages run, Rest in the Saviour's joy.*

These must have been words befitting to Thomas Pennie, as he entered into eternal life on February 22, 1981.

Born July 20, 1916 to Ulysses and Bertha Gudgel Pennie, Thomas was one of four children. He resided in Lawrenceburg, where he was born, through his early childhood. After leaving home, he entered what was then Lincoln Institute. He came to Frankfort after leaving Lincoln Institute, and became a resident of Frankfort. He is now well known by this community as a person who was devoted to his church, and to any cause for the uplifting of others.

He was a Steward and Treasurer of St. John A.M.E. Church. His devotion to his Church was evident all during his illness. One of the last tasks he performed was the completing of a financial report, on Saturday.

He leaves to cherish his memory, a devoted wife, Valoise Smith Pennie; two sisters, Elizabeth Marshall, Louisville; and Lena Barmore, Rockford, Ill.; a sister-in-law, Lucille Pennie, Cincinnati, Ohio; several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Now the laborers task is o'er; Now the battle day is past;

Now upon the farther shore, Land the voyager at last.

There the tears of earth are dried; There its hidden things are clear;

There the work of life is tried, By a greater judge than here.

"Earth to earth and dust to dust," Calmly now the words we say;

Left behind, we wait in trust, For the resurrection day.

Father, in Thy gracious keeping—Leave we now Thy servant, sleeping.
