-THE OBITUARY-

Early Wednesday morning June 21, 1995, God saw fit to pick another Rose from his flower garden, his beloved child, Bessie.

Bessie Cowan Pennington, one of eight children, was born May 6, 1938 in Boyle County to the late John Russell and Angeline Cohen Cowan.

Bessie accepted Christ at an early age and united with First Baptist Church, Danville, Kentucky. She graduated from Bate High School after being united in marriage to Charles Robert "Bob" Pennington Sr. on December 28, 1956. Later in life they were blessed with two children, Charles Robert Pennington, Jr. and Ruth Ola Pennington.

Bessie remained active in several church and community related activities. She was faithful member of the Women's Gleada Sunday School Class and served as Director of the Church Nursery for many years. She was a past member of the Domestic Economy Club and the Women's Federations Club.

She leaves to cherish her memories a beloved husband Bob; two loving children, Charles "Robbie" and Ruth Ola both of Danville; two sisters, Mayme Davis of Danville, Ky and Mary Johnson (B.D.) of Chicago, Ill; two brothers, Robert Cowan (Vivian) of Lexington, Ky and George Cowan (Callie) of Chicago, Ill; one stepbrother Marvin Swann Sr. of Danville, Ky; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Obituary

Charles "Robbie" Pennington, Jr. was born on July 27, 1968 in Danville, Kentucky. He was the son of Charles "Bob" Pennington, Sr. and Bessie Cowan Pennington.

Robbie accepted Christ at an early age at First Baptist Church in Danville. He later became a member at Greater Liberty Baptist Church in Lexington, Kentucky. He frequently attended Shiloh Baptist Church.

He graduated high school in Danville in 1986 and went on to graduate from Eastern Kentucky University with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration in 1990. While at EKV he pledged to the Iota Delta Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. in the spring of 1989.

Robbie was employed as a pharmacy technician for many years at the Lexington-Fayette County Health Department, now known as Healthfirst Bluegrass.

He was a devoted brother, cousin and friend. Robbie was passionate about music, especially Motown artists, with his favorite signer being Diana Ross.

Robbie leaves to cherish his memory a sister, Ruth Pennington of Lexington, KY; aunts, Vivian Cowan of Lexington, KY, Carolyn (Sonny) Arrington of Bowie, MD, Sarah (Arnold) Coffey of Lexington, KY, Yvonne Pennington of Somerset, KY, and step-aunt Anna Margaret Whittington of Panama City Beach, FL; uncles, George (Callie) Cowan of Chicago, IL, Paul (Stephanie) Pennington of Pittsburgh, PA, and step-uncle, John (Maxine) Goggins of Lexington, KY; and a host of cousins and friends, including a special cousin, June Young. He also had his beloved English Bulldog, Callie.

No words could adequately express the pain in my heart. The emptiness I feel now that we're apart. You were more than just my brother, you were my best friend. To think I'll be without you is hard to comprehend. You will never be forgotten because I will think of you everyday. I will vision your smile to brighten up my day. I thank God for blessing me with a brother like you. He knew nothing but the best one would do. So when He said "Robbie, it's time to go home," I couldn't complain. He knew what was best once again. He said, "No more suffering, and no more pain." I look forward to seeing you again. Like The Supremes said, "Someday, We'll Be Together."

Love you always!

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus
Sing His mercy and His grace
In the mansions bright and blessed
He'll prepare for us a place

(Refrain)

When we all get to heaven
What a day of rejoicing that will be
When we all see Jesus
We'll sing and shout the victory

While we walk the pilgrim pathway
Clouds will overspread the sky
But when travlin' days are over
Not a shadow, not a sigh

(Refrain)

Onward to the prize before us
Soon his beauty we'll behold
Soon the pearly gates will open
We shall tread the streets of gold

The Homegoing

*The Homegoing is a time to reflect on yester years;
and to stay focused on the present;
to see where we have come from and where we plan to go.
A time to rejoice, for God's rewards
A time to praise His name
A time to come together.
God is with us each day,
Brings challenges
And things that are unknown.
God will guide us
For His love is always there.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for I am free;
I'm following the path; God laid for me.
I took His hand then I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all;
I could not stay another day;
To laugh, to love, or to play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void;
Then fill it with remembered joy;
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow;
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed many tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in Jesus name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never, never be afraid to die,
For on resurrection morn,
I'll be waiting for you in the sky.*

The Obituary

Dolly Mae Perdue was born on April 29, 1926 near Hazard, Kentucky. She was the daughter of the late Andrew and Mary Dillard Perdue. Dolly confessed Christ at an early age and later joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Hazard, Kentucky. There she faithfully served God in song so beautifully, that family and friends today still remember.

After leaving Hazard in 1948, Dolly moved to Dayton, Ohio. She lived in the Cincinnati and Dayton areas ever since. After a very lengthy illness, Dolly was called to rest on June 25, 1997 at Deaconess Hospital.

Dolly leaves to cherish her memory: her daughters, Mary Perdue and Deborah Rogers of Cincinnati, Ohio; a sister, Rosa Grey of Cincinnati, Ohio; her brothers, Garfield, John and Timothy Perdue of Lexington, Kentucky; four grandchildren, Chantete, Chandra, Alonzo and Mian Perdue and Msontai Brock, all of Cincinnati, Ohio; six great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, a very special "sister" cousin, Emma Williams; and a host of other relatives and friends. Her son, Larry Perdue preceded her in death. Dolly will be missed by us all.

*A precious one from us is gone,
a voice we love is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home,
which never can be filled.*

Death Opens the Door to Life Evermore

*We live a short while on earth below, reluctant to die for we do not know just what "dark death" is all about and so we view it with fear and doubt, not certain of what is around the bend
We look on death as the final end to all that made us a mortal being and yet there lies just beyond our seeing a beautiful life so full and complete that we should leave with hurrying feet to walk with God by sacred streams
Amid beauty and peace beyond our dreams –
For all who believe in the risen Lord
Have been assured of this reward,
And death for them is just "graduation"
To a higher realm of wide elevation –
For life on earth is a transient affair,
Just a few brief years in which to prepare
For a life that is free from pain and tears
Where time is not counted by hours or years –
For death is only the method God chose
To colonize heaven with the souls of those
Who be their apprenticeship on earth
Proved worthy to dwell in the land of new birth –
So death is not sad. . . it's a time for elation,
A joyous transition. . . the soul's emigration into a place where the soul's safe and free
To live with God through eternity!*

The Obituary

Lonnie Perdue, Sr. was born October 20, 1927 to the late Andrew and Mary Perdue in Dakota, Kentucky.

He was called home on January 7, 1995.

Lonnie received his formal education in Kentucky public schools. He moved to Pontiac, Michigan in 1941. He was called to serve in World War II as a fire fighter and he was honorably discharged from the Army in 1947.

On October 1, 1966, he was united in holy matrimony to Dorothy Mae Campbell. He has two children: Lonnie Perdue, II and Trena L. Perdue.

Lonnie joined Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in 1971 under the pastorage of the late Rev. Lenworth R. Miner. He has served as past presidents of the Macedonia Mass Choir and Male Chorus, and as a former trustee. He worked dutifully as one of the cooks in the kitchen, and he was well known for "Lonnie's Fried Chicken".

He was employed at Wilson Foundry for 13 years until the foundry was shut down. On October 20, 1990, he retired from the city of Pontiac after 34 years of service.

Lonnie was an officer of Toussaint Lodge #27 in Pontiac, Michigan. An avid bowler, he was a member of the Friday night Hiliter's Bowling League.

He leaves to cherish his memory a devoted wife of 28 years, Dorothy M. Perdue; two loving children, Trena L. Perdue and Lonnie Perdue, Jr.; two sisters, Rosa Lee Grey, Cincinnati, Ohio and Dollie Perdue, Dayton Ohio; three brothers, Timothy, John and Garfield Perdue, Lexington, Kentucky; three sisters-in-law, Genola Dawson, Flint, Michigan; Helen Moton and Beverly Campbell, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; five brothers-in-law, George Grey, Cincinnati, Ohio; James, Aaron and Wardell Campbell and E.A. Moton, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; an adopted "sister and brother", Edna and Haywood Patton, Pontiac, Michigan and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and dear friends.

The Obituary

Birdie Bell Perrin was born June 12, 1918 in Stanford, Kentucky to the union of the late William Porter Grisby and the late Ader Foley. She had one sister, Lena Housley, who preceded her in death. In her own words, "She was a fancy free person who loved sports and dancing. She moved to Covington, Kentucky at age six, with her family. She attended Lincoln Grant.

Birdie Bell married Eugene Perrin, Sr. They were blessed with seven children.

Birdie Bell Perrin became a member of the Elks in 1953. She was active in many clubs and civic groups: NAACP, Victory Art Club, NKCC Senior Citizens, Voter's League, Fouse VFW, L. B. Civic Center, Model City Board, Church Women United, Homemakers - 74, President of PTA Lincoln Grant.

She was employed at Mack Shirt Factory, Crown All, Fleishamor, Headstart, Safeguard. In 1999, she was awarded a Certificate of Achievement from The Friends of Harriet Tubman.

She joined Ninth Street Baptist Church under the ministry of Rev. G. M. Lacey. She sang in the Senior Choir and was active until illness no longer allowed her to participate.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Eugene Perrin, Jr. (Audrey) of Danville, Kentucky, Nelson E. Perrin, Sr., Pauline Stone, Priscilla Lawson, James Perrin, John W. Perrin (Linda) and Rebecca Rhodes, all of Covington, Kentucky; 26 grandchildren and 34 great-grandchildren. She also leaves 16 nephews and nieces, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

She was loved and admired by many, but he loved her best.

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." — Revelation 21:4

"Grandma"

You're not here physically, you're here in spirit and in our hearts. From this thing they call earth, it is your time to depart. I know you're in heaven shining down on this place. It hurts us all to see you go, but it will be only a matter of time before we all meet in heaven, heart to heart, hand to hand and face to face. That beautiful place they call paradise, is where you deserve to be. I'll be here on earth smiling up at you and you in heaven smiling back at me.

*Love,
All Your Children

You will be missed very much.
We will cherish your love
you left behind,
Your love will always be in our hearts.*

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

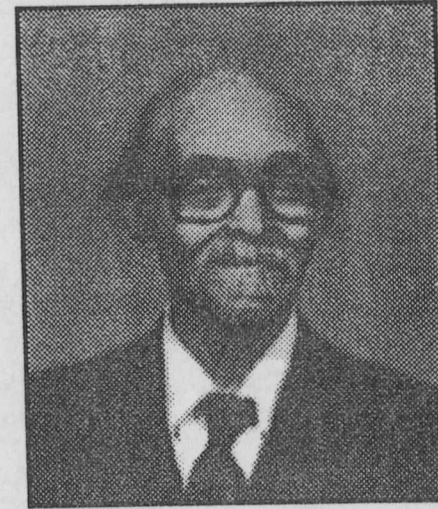

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during that most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

 The family wishes to thank everyone for all acts of kindness during the home going of their loved one.

Beyond the sunset, A blissful morning,
When with our Savior heav'n is begun.
Earth's toiling ended, A glorious dawning;
Beyond the sunset, when day is done.

Beyond the sunset a hand will guide me
To God, the Father, whom it adore;
His glorious presence, His words of welcome,
will be my portion on that fair shore.
Beyond the sunset, a glad reunion,
with our dear loved ones who've gone before;
In that fair homeland we'll know no parting.
Beyond the sunset for evermore!

GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be.
So he wrapped his arms around you,

And whispered, "Come unto me."
Your body didn't deserve it
And so he gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.
So when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain.
I could not wish you to come back
To suffer all that all again-Unknown

REFLECTION

Michael Edward Peters, 72 was born to Andrew T. Peters and Mary Miller Brewster in Louisville, KY on March 16, 1949. He was raised in Lancaster, KY and was a 1967 graduate of Mason High School.

He loved the Lord and was baptized at an early age at First Baptist Church Lancaster under Rev. Stanford G. Redd.

Mike later moved to Danville and married the love of his life, Ruth Ann Griffin on December 24, 1977. Together they loved and raised their three children and attended First Baptist Church Danville.

Affectionately known as "Big Mike" he took great pleasure in attending auctions with his friends, second hand shopping, and making his daily rounds to the Salvation Army, pawn shops and businesses on 3rd and 4th Street. He enjoyed "wheeling and dealing" with his finds, sharing stories and telling jokes.

Mike is preceded in death by his wife, Ruth Ann Peters, parents and brother, Darryl Brewster. He leaves to cherish his memory children, Brandy (Keith), Michelle (Juan) and Michael (Julisa), sister, B. Victoria Overstreet (William), his grandchildren, who were his pride and joy, Gabriella, Cameron, Aubrey, Mylan, Allison, and Kinsley, Sister-in-Law, Mary Griffin, Brothers-in-Law, Joey (Vicki), James (Ann) and Tony (Jean) Griffin. He will forever be remembered by his nieces, nephews and host of family and friends.

FAMILY OBITUARY

Rachel Sleet Peters, was born in Boyle County Kentucky, on February 12, 1882, the daughter of Henry and Catherine Thompson Sleet. She slipped into eternal sleep on Sunday, September 29, 1974, at the age of 92 years, 7 months and 17 days. As a child she attended grade school in Perryville, where she developed and exhibited the characteristics which were to mark her as one of Perryville's most beloved and respected citizens, among all races and groups.

At an early age, she professed a hope in Christ and was baptized into the fellowship of First Baptist Church, by the Reverend W.C. Allen.

In March 1904 she was married to Herbert L. Peters, and to this union four children were born, two of which preceded her in death. As a wife she remained loyal and devoted until this union was severed by death. She was a loving and idealistic mother, wanting for her children only that which would make of them the kind of individuals who would give only their best toward making the world a better place for their having passed this way.

In her Church she remained a loyal and active member as long as she was able to negotiate the distance between her house and the place of worship. She served for more than forty years as Superintendent of the Sunday School, a position which was hers at the time of her passing, she was a member of the Senior Choir for many years and was active in every department of her Church, never refusing to serve in any capacity she was asked. Her disposition was such that she drew to herself children and young people, not only of Perryville, but wherever she went.

She leaves to mourn her passing, a son John Henry, a daughter, Mary Catherine, a son-in-law, James Smith, a grandson, J.W. Peter whom she reared as a son. They extended themselves to make her final illness as comfortable as was humanly possible.

In addition there are six grandchildren, three great grandchildren, nine nephews, the oldest being W.C. Sleet, Schurell and Johnnie Lee Sleet, six nieces, one cousin, Mrs. Hester Davis and a number of other relatives and friends.

A loving one from us has gone

 A place is vacant in our hearts

A Wife, A Mother and Grandma Too.

*A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.*

*You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.*

A stronger person would be hard to find, and in our heart, you were always kind.

You fought for us all in one way or another, not just as a wife not just as a mother.

*For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.*

So go in peace, you've earned your sleep, your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

OBITUARY

*"There are loyal hearts
There are spirits brave
There are souls that are pure and true,
Then give to the world the best that you have,
And the best will come back to you."*

William Alexander Peters was the second child of Jerry Peters and Bettie Cooper Peters, born July 16, 1898, in Garrard County. He quietly passed away Friday, August 22, 1975, at the Garrard Memorial Hospital.

He professed hope in Christ at an early age, and joined the First Baptist Church, Lancaster, Kentucky. He later joined the Berian Baptist Church in Chicago, Illinois. After his return to Kentucky, he became a Deacon of Gallile Baptist Church. He was an ardent member and rendered his services unselfishly and contributed cheerfully to every endeavor of the church with the theme of his favorite song "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" as his inspiration.

His survivors include his wife, Lettie M. Peters; a daughter, Willa Jerrene Benning of Davis, California; a son, Thomas Alexander Peters of Chicago, Illinois; two grandchildren; two sisters, Odessa Burdette of Lancaster, Kentucky and Anna J. Rogers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; one brother, Rice H. Jones of Lancaster, Kentucky; and a host of relatives and friends.

*"I sing because I'm happy, I sing because I'm free
For his eyes are on the sparrow, and I know he watches me."*

*God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strown pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.*

*But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way.
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love...*

FAITH

*I do not know what tomorrow may bring,
Maybe I'll cry, Maybe I'll sing
Maybe I'll be left all alone,
Like an old woman, like an old stone.
Maybe the storm will claim my land,
Maybe I'll feel God's judging hand
But I'll trust, that He's with me
Giving me angels I cannot see
I will have faith to conquer all,
I will not falter, I will not fall,
I do not know what tomorrow may bring
Maybe I'll cry....Maybe I'll sing....
But with God on my side I do not care,
I'll win the battle everywhere.*

I've Gone To Live With Jesus
*I've gone to live with Jesus
 In the mansion He's prepared.
 No longer will I struggle
 With earthly worries and cares.
 Don't be sad I've left you
 To go to live with Him.
 Give thanks and glory to our Lord.
 On earth I was just visiting
 'Till my mission here was through.
 Thank God for all the times we shared
 And all the joy we knew.*

Obituary

Marvin (Moe) Phillips, Jr. was born on July 13, 1956 to Marvin B. and Doris Phillips in Danville, Kentucky was called to his eternal rest on Saturday March 23, 1996 in Louisville, Kentucky.

He was a member of the SS. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Danville. He was a graduate of Danville High School and attended Eastern Kentucky University, where he was a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

Marvin was employed by Humana Hospital as Supervisor of Recycling in Louisville.

He leaves to cherish his memory: one son Justin Phillips of Danville, Ky; parents Marvin and Doris Phillips of Danville, Ky; two sisters Marguerite P. Wilkinson of Danville, Ky and Taunya Phillips of Greenville, South Carolina; one nephew Maurice Phillips of Danville, Ky; Grandparents Claude and Amanda Tripp of Miami Florida; three Aunts Jane Phillips, Anna Friday, Margaret (Michael) Staples all of Louisville, Ky; three Uncles George (Marie) Phillips of Louisville, Ky, William (Margie) Weaver of Lexington, Ky and John Phillips of Louisville, Ky.

God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb.
He sealed his lips and closed his eyes
And sent him home to rest.

So now my friends he can finally rest
Knowing he has done his best.
It matters not how dark the day
God was there to show him the way.

OUR LAST GOODBYE

It seems you thought of everything to make our lives complete.

You did a lot of little things to make our lives a treat.

With all your kindness, love and thorough preparation because of you, we felt at ease and free from aggravation.

*Whenever someone speaks of you,
We'll have to stop and grin.
Not only were you a special dad,
but also a special friend.*

We love you and we will forever miss you !!!!

Sun set and evening tide, one clear call for me, may there be no mourning at the bar when I put out to sea.

On Sunday morning, October 17, 1971 at the Kings Daughters' Hospital, Mrs. Bernice Pierson quietly fell asleep and passed on to a new home. She was born in Shelby County, Kentucky. She was the daughter of the late Louise and Lee Allen. She was the widow of the late Joe Pierson.

Mrs. Pierson confessed a hope in Christ at an early age. Mrs. Pierson was a member of St. John A.M.E. Church, a Stewardess, President of the Ever Ready Club, a member of the Lula Ward Missionary Society, a member of the Senior Citizen Club
No. 1 and past President.

As a mother she was considerate, loving and ever mindful of the needs of her family. As a friend, she was true, thoughtful and ready to do a good deed at any time. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

She leaves to mourn her passing, a daughter, Mrs.
Corine Beckley, one brother, Arthur Allen, two grand daughters, one great grand daughter, several nieces, one nephew, a host of relatives and friends.

Why should we weep when the weary ones rest on the bosom of Jesus Supreme, in the mansion of Glory, prepared for the best, for death is only a dream.

My Loving Mother

*The greatest gift from the Heaven above,
Is the everlasting joy of a mother's love.
The bond she weaves is strong and tight,
Her arms are a comfort
And her smile is a shining light.*

*Her wealth is not made of silver and gold,
But the child in her arms that she tenderly holds.
She's the tie that binds, strong and true,
In a child's eyes she hung the moon
She's a warm embrace and a place of rest,
Of all the mothers in the world
I think mine was the best!*

*With Love Your Son
James M. Pittman*

*Our hearts were almost broken
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful, free from pain.
How could we wish you back with us to suffer that again. It broke our hearts to lose You but you did not go alone. For A part of us went with you the day God took you home.

~ THE OBITUARY ~

Our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well, called to her eternal rest Viola Langford Pittman, on Wednesday, February 13, 2008 at James B. Haggin Memorial Hospital in Harrodsburg, KY.

She was born January 25, 1934 and reared in Danville, Kentucky, the daughter of the late Mack and Bessie Owsley Langford. Viola was united in marriage to the late James T. Pittman of Harrodsburg, KY. To this union was born two sons, James M. Pittman and the late Darnell T. Pittman.

She was an alumni of Bate High School. She was a lifelong member of First Baptist Church, Danville, KY. Viola was a loving and giving person who cared deeply for both family and friends. Cooking was one of her favorite joys, especially for her sons at home and while at college. Many meals were carried to Western Kentucky University and Lane College (Tenn).

Viola leaves behind a loving and devoted son James M. Pittman, Harrodsburg; a loving and devoted sister, Lucille Langford, Danville; three nieces, Marsha (Richard) Hawkins, Jackie (John) Bowman Phillips, and Cheryl (Darryl) Ward; two nephews, Charles Langford, and Michael Drummond; a sister-in-law, Helen Langford; great niece, Tiffoni M. Clark; great nephew, Brandon (Shashray) McCormack; two great great nephews and one great great niece. She also leave behind two dear friends June Christy and classmate Carolyn Prince both frequent visitors during her hospitalization. There are other cousins and friends, too many to list.

Viola will be missed greatly by her family and friends but God does all things well so our lives are blessed because "She" touched them.

*Perhaps you sang a lovely song, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so we saw them there,
Perhaps you spoke kind words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food
Or maybe furnished a car
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you, so much,
Whatever the part.*

Obituary

On Saturday, February 15, 1997, at 10 p.m. our beloved William "Bill" H. Pittman departed this life. O' give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good, for His mercy endureth forever.

William "Bill" H. Pittman was born July 22, 1935 to the late William H. and Louise Pittman in Boyle County. He confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined St. James A.M.E. Church, Danville, Kentucky.

He was united in holy matrimony to Odell Bradshaw in 1968. He was a loving husband, brother, uncle and friend. Before becoming ill, he was employed as a chef at Springs Inn and was an avid golfer.

He leaves to mourn in his passing a devoted and beloved wife, Odell; one sister Rose (Robert) Mundy of Lexington, Ky; one brother Richard (Rose) Pittman, Danville, Ky; one sister-in-law Martha Jackson, Danville, Ky; two very close cousins, Alfonso and Alfred Rogers of Lansing, Michigan; three nephews, Joseph A. Pittman, Robert Segar of Indianapolis, Indiana and Michael Segar of Louisville, Ky; two nieces, Barbara Dougherty, of Louisville, Ky and Beverly Carpenter of Lexington, Ky; a host of great-nieces and great-nephews; a special great-nephew Brian Carpenter, and a very special friend Clifton McGuffey and other relatives and friends.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered peace be thine.
The early hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights are passed.
The ever patient, worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul, he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou annointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. - 23 Psalm

Obituary

Mrs. Jeanetta Rice Pleasant, 83, wife of George B. Pleasant, was born March 14, 1912 to the late John Rice and Henrietta Utterback in Anderson County, Kentucky. She departed this life Sunday morning, July 23, 1995 at Heritage Hall Care Center of Lawrenceburg.

At an early age, she united with Christ and was baptized into the family of the Evergreen Baptist Church where she served faithfully until death. She was a member of the Senior Choir and Missionary Society. In 1933 she was united in marriage to George Pleasant of Lawrenceburg. To this union one child was born, Mildred Ann.

In the community, she was employed by several private families. The most recent being Charles and Ginny Klink.

In addition to her husband of 62 years, she is survived by one sister, Gonzella Yates of Indianapolis, Indiana, a host of sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law and many nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.

Preceding her in death, in addition to her parents, is one daughter, Mildred Ann Young, one son-in-law, six sisters and five brothers.

My Dead

*I cannot think of her as dead who walks with me no more;
Along the path of life I tread
She have but gone before....
The Father's house is mansioned fair
Beyond my vision dim:
All souls are his, and here and there
Are living unto Him.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star
and one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
when I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
and after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
when I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of time and place
the flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
when I have crossed the bar.

OBITUARY

Tis hard to break the tender cord when love has bound the heart Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words "We must forever part."

Mrs. Ora Kimberlin Pope of 134 Wilderness Road, Danville, a former resident of 471 W. Lexington St., Harrodsburg, died Friday morning, January 18, 1980 at 4:00 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Bryant after a short illness. She was the widow of George L. Pope. She was born May 3, 1891 in Washington County to the late Sam and Ellen Kimberlin. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Harrodsburg. Survivors include two other daughters; Mrs. Mattie Cunningham, of Harrodsburg and Mrs. Madge Taylor of Danville, one son; Paul Schofield Pope of Asbury Park, New Jersey, one son-in-law; Horace Taylor of Danville, thirteen grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, three great-great-grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

"Someday", we say, and turn our eyes
Toward the fair hills of Paradise;
Someday, sometime, a sweet new rest
Shall blossom, flower-like, in each breast
Someday, sometime, our eyes shall see
The faces kept in memory;
Someday their hands shall clasp our Land
Just over in the morning - Land

The Obituary

Rosetta McCormack Pope, was born on February 13, 1930 to the late Archie Bauld and Cathereen Cooper McCormack, was called home on Tuesday March 14, 1995 at 1:25 p.m. at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville, Kentucky.

She was a member of The Second Street Christian Church, were she was a member of The Christian Women's Club, Pastor's Aide, and had served as Financial Secretary of the church. She retired from Rainbow Cleaners.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband John H. Pope, Jr.; three step-children John H. Pope III (Shirley) of Junction City, Wanda Runyon (Rudene) of Richmond, Delma Wilkinson (James) of Danville. Three brothers Charles McCormack (Natie), Alfred McCormack and Donald McCormack, all of Danville; six grandchildren; two special nephews Michael Ray Brown Sr. and Michael Ray Brown Jr. and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends

The Lord said come to me my child
I have come to take you home and like the flicker of some great light
We looked and you were gone

We will always see your smiling face, your laughter and even your tears,
you leave behind your memory
That will last us all for years.

I'm sure she will tell us,
I'm all right now
I am free from life's demands for now I am safe and at peace
In God's Heavenly Hands.

~THE OBITUARY~

Mr. Artie Louis Porter, a resident of Danville Kentucky, was called by God, on Tuesday, May 31, 2016.

He was born April 9, 1924 in St. Mary's Kentucky to the late James and Stella Porter. He is preceded in death by his wife Mary and Christine Porter, son Artie Porter Jr., brother James Porter Jr., sister Martha Railey and grandson, Christopher A. Porter.

He was united in marriage to Mary "Christine" Porter on February 15, 1947 in Lebanon Kentucky. In 1950, they relocated to Danville Kentucky. During their 58 years of marriage, they were blessed with four daughters: Mary Jayne Dunn of Louisville Kentucky, Mildred Taylor, Sheila (Chester) Kavanaugh and Arnetta (Keith) Myers all of Danville Kentucky.

Artie was a very devoted member of SS Peter & Paul Catholic Church, so he typically arrived 30-45 minutes before Mass to make sure he had ample time to say the Rosary and sit in "our" pew.

For 35 years Artie was an employee of the church and school. His devotion to ensuring both facilities were maintained was of the utmost importance to him.

He was the epitome of work ethic. Artie was also employed by American Greetings for 25 years. While there, he made many friends and told many stories. He was quite the storyteller and kept everyone amused. If you knew him; you loved him. When he retired, he enjoyed gardening, painting, relaxing and dancing.

In addition to his four daughters, he leaves to cherish his memory two sisters: Pauline Hill of Lebanon Kentucky and Anna Bea Groves of Louisville Kentucky; a special friend, Louise Young of Springfield, KY and her family; ten grandchildren: Stephanie Dunn, Eddie Dunn, Kelly Dunn, Mark (Mary Carol) Porter, Chester (Mary) Kavanaugh II, Tierra Kavanaugh (Fredrick) Wayne, Courtney Givens, Stephanie (Raymond) Harrison, Traci Johnson, Keisha Porter; twenty-one great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. . . Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. . .

We feel so sad when those loved are called to live with God above, but why should we grieve when they say good-bye and go to dwell in a cloudless sky? For they have gone to prepare the way and we'll meet them again some happy day. For God has told us that nothing can sever a life we created to live forever... So let God's promise soften our sorrow and give us new strength For a brighter tomorrow.

OBITUARY

On Friday morning, October 30, 1981 at 11:00 a.m. at the University of Kentucky Medical Hospital, Lexington, Kentucky, God in his infinite wisdom saw fit to call from labor to reward our beloved, Sarah Rosann Porter.

She was born August 4, 1946 to John Etta and the late Harvey Eugene Chenault.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church, Second and Walnut Streets, where she sang in and helped organize what was then called the Young Adult Choir.

She was a 1964 graduate of Bate High School.

She was married to Thomas T. Porter and to that union four children were born, Timmy Emanuel, who preceded her in death, Thomas, Richard and Rachel.

She also leaves to mourn her passing, her mother, John Etta Chenault of Danville, Ky.; three sisters, Mrs. Loretta Smith of Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Bethel Wade and Mrs. Rita Bartleson, both of Danville, Ky.; two brothers, Harvey Chenault of Danville, Ky., and George Chenault of Dayton, Ohio; 6 nieces, 5 nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven; a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to pluck up what is planted. A time to kill and a time to heal, a time to break down and a time to build up, a time to weep and a time to laugh. A time to keep and a time to cast away, a time to love and a time to hate; what gain has the worker from his toil - the source of beauty and pleasure.

Obituary

Adolphus W. "Skinny" Powell, 88, died Wednesday March 19, 2014 at St. Joseph Hospital after a brief illness. He was a U.S. Navy Veteran and a retired brick mason.

He was married to the former Ramona Raymore for 70 years. From their union they have a beloved son Keith (Regina) Powell.

Adolphus or "Bubba" as he's affectionately called by his grandchildren was a loving, kind, caring, gentle, and soft spoken man. Once you met him, you had a friend for life. He could fix just about anything and came to the rescue of family and friends often. Practically everyday of the week he has spent serving others in one capacity or another.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Flem and Effie Powell and siblings; Ola Brown, Fred Powell, Flem Powell Jr. and Frank Powell. He also leaves to cherish his memory 3 grandchildren; Takesha and Tameara Powell and Cierra Henderson, 5 great grandchildren; Lequon Greer, Jordan and Raegan Ramsey, Jeramont Powell and LaMaureon Smith, special friends; Glen Covington and Jackie Wingate-Harris. Adolphus will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and his dog Bear.

OBITUARY

On Sunday, March 14, 1993 God saw fit to call from our midst, Colettie Prewitt.

Born June 28, 1900, in Parksville, she was the daughter of the late George and Emma Peaks. She was the widow of John Prewitt.

She was a member of St. James A. M. E. Church, where she was a member of the Senior Choir, Usher Board and Steward Board and former member of the Domestic Economy Club.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a daughter, Ann O'Neil of Chicago, Illinois; a son, George D. Prewitt of Danville, Ky; two sisters, Hazel Andrews of Danville, Ky. and Thelma Coulter of Lexington, Ky.; eight Grandchildren; 13 Great-Grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

There is an open gate at the end of the road;
Through which each must go alone;
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims his own.
Beyond the gate our Loves one
Find happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.

~THE OBITUARY~

George Donald Prewitt, age 69, departed this life on Wednesday, July 9, 2003, 12:30 p.m. at Ephraim McDowell Regional Hospital in Danville, Kentucky.

He was born on December 17, 1933, to the late John Leslie and Collettie Prewitt, in Danville, Kentucky. He is preceded in death by his brother John L. Prewitt, Jr.

George was a Veteran of the Korean War serving in the United States Army. He was formally employed at American Greetings and Burkes Bakery. George was a member of St. James A.M.E. Church.

He is survived by one sister Ann (Al) O' Neal, Chicago, IL; two sons Darnell (Tina) Prewitt, Danville, KY, James (Lisa) Ross, San Francisco, CA,; four daughters, Vicki Prewitt, Andra Prewitt, Lisa Prewitt, and Sherry Prewitt, all of Danville, KY; one aunt Hazel (Marshall) Andrews, Danville, KY; one sister-in-law Mary Prewitt, Atlanta, GA; thirteen grandchildren; four great grandchildren; a special friend Martha Sweeny, Danville, KY; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

GOD SAW HE

*God saw he was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around him
And whispered "Come with me"
With tearful eyes
We watched him suffer and fade away,
Although we loved him dearly
We could not make him stay
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands to rest
God broke our hearts
To prove to us
"HE ONLY TAKES THE BEST"*

Obituary

John Leslie Prewitt expired at 8:45 A.M., Saturday, February 21, 1987. His death followed a brief illness.

He was born August 13, 1924 in Danville, Kentucky, and united with St. James A. M. E. Church. He married Mary Rowlett in 1950. They resided in Murray, Kentucky for 12 years where he taught and Coached in the Murray Public School System before moving to South Bend, Indiana.

John retired from the South Bend School Corporation in 1984 where he taught and Coached football and basketball.

John and Mary moved to Riverdale, Georgia two years ago from South Bend. Along with his wife Mary Prewitt.

Mr. Prewitt is survived by daughter, Colettie E. Carr and son Keith B. Prewitt both of Atlanta, Georgia; Mother, Colettie Prewitt and brother Donald of Danville, Kentucky; sister, Mrs. Ann O' Neal of Chicago, Illinois and a host of other relatives and friends.

-FOOTPRINTS-

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scene from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times of my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Heaven Will Hold You

by Wendy Silva

Your spirit was brought to us from a wish made of love.
We couldn't believe it when we realized we'd been blessed from above.

In my womb you were growing slowly, but
I found peace knowing you were there.
Then came the tears of loss and I wanted to know how life could be so unfair.

I had to realize that because you were so special, God needed you more than I.
It helps me when I feel His loving hands wipe away my tears as I cry.

I know that someday we'll be together again, but for now I'll keep you in my heart.
Know that I love you more than words can say and that God will protect you while we're apart.

Our precious angel, Hadley Nicole Prewitt-Hunt gained her wings to her heavenly home on February 1, 2018 at 7:46 p.m. at the Cincinnati Children's Hospital. She is preceded in death by her great-great grandparents, Isabelle Kinley Wilhite and George "Donald" Prewitt. Hadley was born on January 24, 2018 in Cincinnati, OH, the blessing that we received and prayed for, perfect in every way. Sweetest little fingers and toes, and the cutest facial expressions. A beautiful soul that brought so much love, joy and happiness to our lives. Hadley was baptized February 1, 2018.

Cuddled in Heaven

Author: Charlotte Collins

We had so little time to share,
Too soon, I had to leave.
I know how much you love me,
I know how much you grieve.

I know how sharp your pain is,
I feel the aching in your hearts.
My life so quickly ended
Before it barely had a start.

I remember how you held me,
And kissed my face and hands.
You cuddled me so gently,
But, God had other plans.

I was your perfect angel,
From God you knew I came,
Suddenly he called me home again,
And now God holds my hand.

I know you'll always miss me,
I understand your pain is hard to bear.
Just remember that I'm in heaven
And we'll see each other there.

So smile when you think of me and wipe away all of your tears
I'm cuddled now in heaven
By our family members here.

I'm waiting here in heaven,
And on the day we meet again,
I'll be the first to smile and greet you,
When God calls you home to him.

She enjoyed listening and being soothed by her lullabies. A true fighter she was, until she no longer could. Loved by all who met her and she will be greatly missed. Hadley leaves to cherish her memory; her parents, Tjuna Prewitt and JT Hunt both of Danville, KY; her maternal grandparents, Vicki and Jerry Gooch of Danville, KY; paternal grandmother Jaclyn Hunt of Buffalo, NY; paternal great grandmother, Fannie Hunt of Buffalo, NY; an uncle DeMarco (Jamie) Prewitt of Danville, KY; and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins. Services will be held at 1pm, Thursday, February 7, 2018 at First Baptist Church, 2nd Street, Danville, KY. Dr. Derek Briscoe will officiate. Burial will be in Hilldale Cemetery. Visitation will be 12pm-1pm, Thursday, prior to the service at the church. The online guestbook is available at www.stithcares.com.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ETHEL MAE PRUITT

Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth. Matthew 5:5. Truly these words of scripture exemplify the quiet and humble spirit of ETHEL MAE PRUITT.

Jessie and Betty O'Banyon were very proud parents of a baby girl on June 11, 1915, they named her Ethel Mae. On completion of elementary school Ethel attended historic Crispus Attucks High School.

On September 18, 1939, Ethel was married to Fred A. Pruitt. Four Children were born to this union: Sandra L., Fred Wesley, Betty Louise and Richard A. Her husband Fred and daughter Betty preceded her in death.

Ethel was a homemaker and enjoyed cooking, tending her many house-plants, gardening and reading. As a grandmother and great grandmother, one of her greatest joys was spending time with her grandchildren and great grandson. She loved to travel and whenever possible she visited her grandsons Damon and Kevin wherever they were.

She was a faithful member of Capitol Avenue and Capitol City Seventh Day Adventist Church for more than 45 years. Ethel worked conscientiously in her church until her health would no longer allow her to be active. She was very active in the Home and School Association and served many years as teacher in the Cradle Roll and Kindergarten departments.

Friends and family will always remember Ethel for her quiet and sweet demeanor. She possessed the unusual blend of patience and dedicated love to her family. She will also be remembered for her steadfast spirituality.

Death is the harshest reality of life. However, Because of Christ's death we have the assurance of life forever in a better land. Ethel closed her eyes in death on Wednesday, November 17, 1993 to await the call of the great life-giver on resurrection day. When Jesus comes He will raise Ethel from death's sleep with a body renewed by eternal health, free from pain and suffering.

She leaves to reflect on precious memories: Daughter: Sandra L. Mumphrey; Two sons: Fred Wesley and Richard A. Pruitt; Grandchildren: Dr. Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles, California, Damon F. Thomas, Honolulu, Hawaii, Ronda M. Pruitt, Indianapolis, Lance Corporal Erick Pruitt, San Diego, California, Erin, Danielle and Markus Pruitt all of Indianapolis, Nicole Pruitt, Houton Lake, Michigan. Great grandson, Royce Alexander Pruitt; Sister, Margaret Thomas; Nephews: Dennis and Elwood Thomas; Niece: Theresa Whitley and many other relatives and friends.

Nothing could be more beautiful,
Than the memories we have of you.

To us you were someone special,
God must have thought so too.

All our lives we will miss you,
Though the years may come and go.

But in our hearts you will live forever
Because we loved you so.

She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praises her: "Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Obituary

We come together to celebrate the life of Willie Christine Hartford. Born September 11, 1920 in Lawrenceburg, KY to the late Worth and Annette Hartford. She had two siblings, the late Walter and Emma G. Hartford.

Willie accepted Christ at an early age. She married the late Houston Pryor and from that union a daughter, Ronnie P. Arrington, was born. Willie and Houston resided in Danville, KY where she was a faithful member of First Baptist Church. At First Baptist she served as a member of the Glee Club and the Women's Missionary Society. She retired after many years from Centre College. Upon her retirement, she worked as a Senior Companion Volunteer and was a faithful contributor to many charitable organizations including the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center.

Willie Christine is survived by her daughter Ronnie P. Arrington (Silver Spring, MD), three granddaughters, Notreeve Arrington Bell and her spouse Steven Bell (Silver Spring, MD), Tanya Arrington Williams and her spouse James Williams (Atlanta, GA) and Ronnie Arrington (Silver Spring, MD); two great-grandchildren, James and Jocelyn Williams (Atlanta, GA); two godchildren Kevin and Cecilie Napier (Danville, KY) and a host of dear friends.

The Obituary

A loving child of God, David Paul Quick was born November 14, 1934 in Fayette County, Kentucky to the union of the late Charles and Mary Jones Quick. He went home to be with his Heavenly Father on Sunday November 20, 2005.

He was united in marriage to his soul mate Elizabeth C. Quick for 48 years and will always be her sweetheart.

At an early age he confessed a love of Jesus Christ at the Gunn Tabernacle Methodist Church and later became the Wesley United Methodist Church.

A graduate of Old Dunbar High School class of 1952 he also attended Kentucky State University; a veteran that served honorably in the Korean War; a timeless worker who served his church family and community all of his life.

He retired from the Federal Bureau of Prisons and the Fayette Co. Sheriffs Department.

Besides his loving wife he leaves to mourn his passing his children, Donna Quick (Donnie) Coffey, and Derwin Quick; grandchildren, Kathy E. Quick, Danielle E. Coffey, Brianna Q. Coffey, Deanna M. Quick and William Johnson; sisters, Ella McEwen, Mary Quick Carter, Wilma Quick Harris and Virginia Quick Barber; also several generations of nieces, nephews, cousins and wonderful friends and a loving church family.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrow through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake in His name
Live on and do all things the same;
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*

~THE OBITUARY~

*A Great One
From us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled*

Nellie V. Quisenberry passed away, Thursday, February 12, 2004 at the Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center in Danville, Kentucky.

Nellie V. Quisenberry

Came to a peaceful rest. She was born on July 8, 1933 in Garrard County. She's going to join her loving husband, Arthur Quisenberry, Jr., her parents Taylor Leavell, Sr. and Carrie Beasley Leavell and ten of her siblings.

Nellie was a member of St. Paul Predestinarian Baptist Church in Lancaster, Kentucky. She was a wonderful, loving mother and grandmother.

She leaves to mourn her passing, one brother Dewey (Charlotte Ann) Leavell of Lancaster, Kentucky; three children Debra (Johnny) Quisenberry of Lexington, Kentucky, Gary (Betty) Quisenberry of Versailles, Kentucky and Steve Quisenberry of Lancaster, Kentucky; seven grandchildren Montice Quisenberry, Timothy Quisenberry, Eric Quisenberry, Kayla Stone, LaTasha Woods, Brandi Williams and Erica Williams; one aunt Priscilla Beasley of Danville, Kentucky; one sister-in-law Charlene Elery of Springfield, Kentucky; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, a very special cousin Kathleen (sons Shawn and Dan) Leavell whose thoughtfulness and kindness could never be repaid.

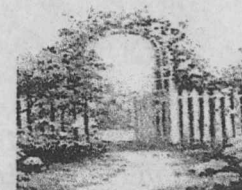

*Sleep on and take your rest
We all loved you
But God loved you best
The Family*
