OBITUARY

Bertie Green Salyers, a native of Lincoln County, was born April 20, 1921, the youngest of three daughters of the late Mervin and Ann Stevenson Owsley, slipped quietly away Wednesday, April 21, 1993. She accepted Christ at an early age, and united with Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky. After moving to Frankfort, she joined First Baptist Church by letter. She served on the First Baptist Church Usher Board for many years until illness prevented her participation, but remained a dedicated and staunch supporter of church activities. She was united in marriage to the late John S. Salyers.

Remembering her with love is her son, James Salyers of Frankfort; her daughter, Sandra Salyers of Frankfort; a granddaughter, Jameka Cotton of Lexington, KY; an aunt, Margaret Bedenbaugh of Cincinnati, OH; two uncles, Johnny and Hubert Stevenson of Stanford, KY; a stepmother, Willie B. Owsley of Stanford; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

*There's an open gate
At the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there is a light we cannot see
Our Father claims His own;
Beyond the gate your loved one
Finds happiness and rest
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best*

Obituary

Alonzo Cooper Samuels was born June 23, 1913 in Millville (Woodford County), Kentucky. His parents Cary and Estella Samuels preceded him in death.

Alonzo belonged to the Macedonia Baptist Church. He was a World War II veteran, a member of the American Legion, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He retired from Schenley Distillery.

Alonzo went to meet his maker at 11:00 p.m., Tuesday, October 2, 2001. He had resided at the Homestead Nursing Home in Lexington, Kentucky for eight years.

Alonzo leaves to moan, his wife – Anna J. Samuels, three children: Alonzo Samuels, Jr., Millville, KY; Jerry Samuels and Wanda Groves of Frankfort, KY; and nine grandchildren.

*All the pain and grief is over. Every restless tossing passed.
I'm now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last.
Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly.
Still try to look beyond death's shadows prey to trust our Father's will.*

~ The Obituary ~

Anna Louise Samuels, age 92, was called home to her eternal rest on April 19, 2008 at Golden Living Center, in Frankfort, Kentucky.

She was born August 28, 1915 in Frankfort, Kentucky and was the daughter of the late Stephen and Louise Johnson. She was preceded in death by her husband, Alonza Samuels, one sister, Martha E. Jones and two brothers, Stephen Johnson and John (Jack) Johnson and one step-son, Alonza Samuels, Jr.

Anna was a longtime homemaker. She was a faithful member of First Corinthian Baptist Church, where she served as Sunday School Superintendent. She also was an active member of the American Legion Post #176, Senior Citizen and N.A.A.C.P.

She is survived by her nephews and nieces, Ethan Jones, Alexandria, VA, George Jones, Sammy (Celestine) Jones, Frankfort, KY, Robert (Anita) Jones, Joseph (Diana) Jones, Louisville, KY; Carl Jones, Detroit, MI, Sarah Hones, Desmoines, IA; Pamela Jones, Frankfort, KY, Rita (Herman) Harvey, Mary Washington, Lawrenceburg, KY and Maxine (Greg) Johnson, Dayton, OH; two step-children, Wanda Groves and Jerry Samuels, Frankfort, KY and a host of other relatives and friends.

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress and their might,
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou in the darkness drear, their one true light;
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine
Alleluia! Alleluia!

OBITUARY

Rev. Brady Taylor Samuels, son of the late James Samuels and Lizzie Wheeler Samuels, was born December 10, 1900 in Woodford county.

At an early age he accepted Christ and united with the Macedonia Baptist Church.

January 20, 1930, he was united in Holy wedlock to Mary Kathryn Lampkins, who survives.

Rev. Samuels realized his call to the ministry and was ordained in October, 1961. He served as acting pastor in the absence of a pastor until Rev. Homer E. Bolton was elected.

He possessed a charming personality, as well as, a humorous character that won for him a large circle of loved ones and friends.

He leaves to mourn his home-going; a wife, Mrs. Mary K. Samuels, five daughters, Mrs. Mattie McGraph, Mrs. Lelia Calhoun, Mrs. Shirley Reed, Mrs. Dorothy Graham, and Mrs. Inetta Hudspeth, one son, Mr. William C. Samuels, all of Frankfort, Kentucky; five son-in-laws, a daughter-in-law, fifteen grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Sadie Caldwell, Versailles, Kentucky, a number of neices and nephews and a host of friends and relatives.

OBITUARY

Alex Sanders, Jr. was born January 4, 1927, in Winchester, Kentucky to the late Alex and Anne Johnson Sanders. He moved to Frankfort as a child and resided there until his death on Friday, July 30, 2004. Alex attended Mayo-Underwood School, graduating in 1946. He later joined the armed services and was a veteran of the United States Navy. Alex joined the First Baptist Church on Clinton Street and was a member of the Usher Board. He was a Trustee of the Church at the time of his death.

Alex was a career employee of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. He was employed by the Department for Economic Security and the Kentucky Department of Libraries and Archives. He retired from state government in 1989. However, Alex's favorite occupation was as a business entrepreneur. He and his wife were the owners of Tiffs Downstairs Record Shop in Frankfort, and Rose Hill Antiques in Versailles. Alex also was a familiar face to persons attending functions at the Governor's Mansion and other events around the city. Alex's hobby was collecting antiques and memorabilia.

Alex was preceded in death by a treasured son, Alex Sanders, III. He is survived by his devoted wife of 54 years, Mae Sanders. He also leaves to cherish his memory: a daughter, Barbara Ann Sanders; three grandchildren, Alex Sanders IV, Alaia Washington and Alexis Washington; two brothers, Jack Sanders and Roy Sanders, both of Frankfort; one sister, Georgia Ann Raines of Cincinnati, Ohio; a brother-in law, Andrew Mason, Sr.; a sister-in-law, Billie Johnson; a devoted family friend, Maria Qualls; and several nieces and nephews.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

OBITUARY

Annie Mae Sanders was born on April 13, 1927, to Willie and Cornelia Adell Mason. She and her twin were the fifth and sixth of the Mason's seven children. Mae accepted Christ at an early age. For most of her life, she was a faithful member of the First Corinthian Baptist Church. A few years after graduating from Mayo-Underwood High School, Mae married Alex G. Sanders, Jr. in September 1949. Their companionship lasted fifty-four years, until Alex's death in 2004. Mae and Alex were blessed with two children, Barbara Ann and Alex (Bud) III.

Mae spent time as a nursing assistant at the Kings Daughters Hospital, and later for several years as a lab technician with the Cabinet for Human Resource's Serology Laboratory before retiring in 1990. But Mae had an entrepreneurial spirit and she and Alex turned their two favorite avocations, music and antiques, into successful family businesses that became their life's work. They started Tiffs Downstairs Record Shop in the basement of their home, and later moved it to Petite Plaza as the business expanded. As their collection of antiques outgrew their homes, they opened Rose Hill Antiques in Versailles, which Mae continued to operate for a few years after Alex's death.

Nothing was more important to Mae than her family and close friends. In addition to her parents Willie and Adell, her husband Alex, and her son Bud, she was preceded in death by a sister Lillian Lightfoot, and brothers Charles Mason, Edgar Mason and Eugene Mason. She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter Barbara Ann Sanders; grandson Alex G. Sanders, IV; sister Billie M. Johnson; twin brother Andrew Mason, Sr.; several nieces, nephews and cousins; special sisters-in-law Maria Qualls and Georgia Ann Raines; and adored friends Catherine, Marlene and Josie.

Mae was a bundle of energy and lived life to the fullest, slowed only in the latter stages of her illness. She lived a purposeful life, with always something to do and something to accomplish. She was a woman of strength, maintaining her faith throughout the peaks and valleys of her life. She endured her final illness with the courage of a child of God, confident that His amazing, saving grace is sufficient.

*Peaceful be thy rest dear Mother,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
As in life we loved you dearly,
So in death we do the same.
God watched you as you suffered,
He knew you had your share;
He gently closed your weary eyes,
And took you in his care.
Always so true, unselfish and kind,
No where in this world, your equal will find.
In silence you suffered,
Till God called you home to suffer no more.
A beautiful life that came to an end,
You died as you lived,

Obituary

Dorothy was born on April 4, 1920 in Frankfort, Kentucky. She was the youngest daughter of the late George Graham and Mayme Graham Anderson and the loving sister of the late Della Walker (Luther).

She was the loving wife of Henry Sanders, who preceded her in death, and the proud mother of Dorothy M. Sanders and William Washington.

She was a committed, active and dedicated member of First Corinthian Baptist Church in Frankfort. She was always willing to do what she could to be a willing servant while working on the Usher Board and Interest Fellowship Group. She served the community through organizations such as the Eastern Star, Capitolute Club, Pleasurette Club, and the Cardiac Club. She retired from the Commonwealth of Kentucky as a Lab Technician.

She later moved to Chicago, Illinois, after the death of her husband in March 1999, where she joined Mary Magdalene Missionary Baptist Church. She was a dedicated and faithful member of the Mother's Board, Mission I and the Anniversary Committee.

Dorothy always made friends wherever she went and was willing to help and do what she could to make someone else feel better. She loved to travel, and enjoyed life to the fullest. She greeted people with a smile and always left those she greeted smiling. Her way of showing others she cared was sewing pillows by hand and giving them as gifts. She was strong, thoughtful, benevolent and considerate of others and a great witness of Jesus Christ our Savior.

God has a beautiful garden where he grows the loveliest flowers. On Wednesday, June 20, 2007, he added Dorothy Elizabeth Sanders ("Dot") to his garden.

Loving memories will be cherished by: her daughter, Dorothy M. Sanders and her son, William Washington (Shirley); her grandson, John D. Washington (Lisa); three lovely great-grandchildren: Andrew, Jaylen and Isaiah Washington; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Dorothy will always be a special person in our hearts and will be missed by all.

THE OBITUARY

Henry Sanders was born January 9, 1920 to the late George and Sidney Sanders in Franklin County. Suddenly on March 19, 1999, he departed this life and went home to be with his Heavenly Father. He was the twin brother of the late Robert Sanders. He joined the Little Benson Baptist Church at an early age and later joined the First Corinthian Baptist Church. There he served faithfully as Chairman of the Deacon Board.

He is survived by his wife Dorothy Sanders, daughter Dorothy M. Sanders (Charles Rawlings) of Chicago, son William G. Washington (Shirley Washington) of Purcellville, Virginia, four sisters, Margaret Berry, Mary K. Reed, Anna L. Butler, Emily McCloud, all of Frankfort, sister-in-law Ella P. Sanders of Frankfort, one grandson John D. Washington (Lisa Washington), one great-grandson Andrew Washington of Ashburn, Virginia, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his twin brother Robert Sanders and his younger sister Dorothy L. Douglas Mason.

He was retired from Kentucky State University and a former employee of Frankfort Buick Garage.

He was a member of the Masonic Sun Lodge No. 26, Chairman of the Deacon Board at Church, Church Treasurer of the Building Fund, Senior Citizen Club, Grad Club and the Capitol City Club.

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith. "The cross is not greater than His grace; The storms cannot hide His blessed face..." Dear God, let us gratefully keep in mind Thy promise of strength in accordance with our needs;
May we meet each day's trials with high courage and confidence born of unquestioning faith. A-men.

Interment in
THE SUNSET MEMORIAL GARDENS

Note: Please remain seated until the family has left the sanctuary.

Granddaddy

We loved you, but God loved you more. A gentle voice said come, as you answered and bid an unspoken farewell as you entered your new eternal home.

*We will always Love and Miss You.
Your Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren*

*God looked around His garden, and He found an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always take the best. He knew that you were suffering He knew that you were in pain, He knew that you would never Get well on earth again. He saw the road was getting rough And hills were hard to climb. So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered. 'Peace be thine.'
It broke our hearts to lose you but You didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

~ The Obituary ~

Lesley Sanders was called to his eternal home on Sunday, February 24, 2008 at Central Baptist Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky.

He was the son of the late Cassis and Elizabeth Sanders. He is preceded in death by four brothers, Cassie Sanders, Jr., Johnny Sanders, Alexander Sanders, and Charles Sanders.

Lesley was a humble gentle man, caring for his family. He was a loving husband, father, brother and friend. Lesley was an avid U.K. fan, most of all he enjoyed planting and tending to his garden and processing meat. He accepted Christ at an early age. He retired from Tom McCann's Distribution Factory.

He is survived by his wife, Tanya Sanders, Danville, KY; one daughter Jessica Sanders, Louisville, KY; a special son Thomas Vincent, Dayton OH; one sister, Mary Williams, Lexington, KY; several in-laws, Martha Sanders, Louisville, KY, Ann (Rubin) Mosley, Milford Doneghy, Terry Doneghy, Pernell Doneghy, Nathaniel Doneghy, all of Danville, KY and Cheryl (Derrick) Briscoe, Louisville, KY; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

We Hold You Close

We hold you close within our hearts and there you shall remain.

To walk with us throughout our lives
until we meet again.

So rest in peace Dear loved one and thanks for all you've done.

We pray that God has given you the crown you've truly won.

Obituary

I waited on God to bring to pass all He has promised me, and as I waited, I rested in faith.

On Friday, August 13, 2004, God in His infinite wisdom called our beloved mother Pauline Kinsey Sanders. She is at rest awaiting that great day to meet the Lord in the air.

Mother Sanders was born in Fayette, Mississippi on February 16, 1923 to the late Willie & Lovie Buggs. She was the fourth born of five children with three brothers preceding her in death. Arthur, Johnny and George Buggs.

At an early age, mother Sanders excepted Christ in 1938 and united with the St. John M.B. Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Lenn Henderson. She later moved to Madison Parish and united with Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church pastored by the late Rev. T.H. Turner, New Bethel Baptist Church and Springhill M.B. Church where she served faithfully as a member until her death.

On September 13, 1945, she was united in holy matrimony to the late Charlie Kinsey and later married George Sanders.

She leaves to cherish her memories-five daughters, Doris (Arlin) Morgan, Janet Todd and Valerie Thornton all of Sacramento CA; Yvonne (Rufus) Tillman of Monroe, LA. and Linda (Ennis) Tillman of Danville KY; one son, Joseph Kinsey of Tallulah, LA; a devoted brother, Elmer Wesley Buggs of Stone Mountain, GA; sixteen grandchildren one preceded her in death, and one in which she reared, Demarco Thornton of Monroe LA and fourteen great-grandchildren, one preceded her in death; one niece and nephew of San Bernardino, CA; one sister-in-law, Bessie Buggs of New Orleans, LA; one special friend, Ms. L.V. Tillman of Delhi, LA; two special caring people Mattie Shoulders and Linda Travis of Tallulah, LA and a host of other relatives and friends.

Mother Sanders was a caring person who loved all people. It was evident with her friendly smile, warm "hugs" and eagerness to help anyone in need. She will be thoroughly missed in her church, community, and by her family.

The Obituary

Wanda Lee Sanders, 66

Evang. Wanda Lee Sanders journey here in this life ended on February 13, 2012

Wanda, the oldest child, was born to the late George and Mamie Gray on April 21, 1945. Wanda was preceded in death by her parents George and Mamie, one sister Gloria McElroy and one brother Ronald Gray.

Wanda was baptized in Jesus Name on October 3, 1971 and was filled with the Holy Ghost on October 11, 1971 under the guidance of Elder Cleotus McElroy. She later became a member of Bethel Star Apostolic Church under the guidance of the late Pastor Calvin Ferguson where she remained a faithful member until the Lord called her home. She served in various capacities while at the church. She was the church pianist during her early years. She was called into the ministry to preach the gospel and teach the word of God. She had a passion to study the word of God, thru God, was phenomenal. One of her favorite songs: "How do I say thanks for all the things you have done for me. Things so undeserved, you've done to show your love for me. The voices of a million angels could not express my gratitude. All that I am and ever hope to be, I owe it all to thee. Just let me live my life and let it be pleasing to thee Lord and if I give any praise, Let it all go to Calvary, TO GOD BE THE GLORY."

Wanda worked for the Central Kentucky Community Action and functioned as a bus monitor for pre-school aged children. She took much pleasure in helping the many children that she served and much enjoyed nature watching while riding on the bus through the country side.

Wanda will be forever in the hearts of her husband James Sr; Sons: James Jr.; Kenneth and Shawn; her brothers and sisters: Sandra (Steve) Rawlings, Geraldine (Greg) Owen, Dorothy (William) Grisby, Terry (Mary Elma) Gray, George, Donnie and James Gray; and a host of nieces and nephews.

~THE OBITUARY~

Our God with his wisdom saw fit to call one on his dear children home on Thursday, July 20, 2000.

SALLIE B. SAULTER

Sis. Saulter was born on July 17, 1909 to the late William and Rhodie Bruce, in Parksville, Kentucky.

She was married to Henry Saulter who preceded her in death.

She accepted Christ at an early age and united with St. James A.M.E. Church now Wilson Chapel in Parksville, Kentucky at any early age.

She leaves to Cherish her memory: one loving sister Anges Bruce of Liberty Health Care; one niece Alma Overton, Cleveland, OH; one nephew Samuel Bruce, Cleveland, OH; two great niece Angela Bruce and Kim Bruce, Cleveland, OH; three great nephews Terry Bruce, Louisville, KY, Michael Hughes and Larry Bruce of Danville, KY; two loyal and devoted friends Barbara Willis and Gladys Mitchell, Toledo, OH; a host of relatives and friends.

God saw the road was getting rough
the hills were hard to climb
He gently closed her loving eyes and whispered peace be thine.
The weary hours the day of pain
the sleepless nights are passed.
The ever patient worn out frame
has found sweet rest at last.

Obituary

On Friday, January 18, 2002, God in His infinite and all wise wisdom, looked down from glory and saw Nannie Bea Shannon Saunders was getting weary and tired of the journey, and decided it was time to call her to eternal rest.

Nannie Bea was born in Danville, Kentucky on July 31, 1922 to the late Josh Sr. and Lucille Mullins Shannon. She was the second of six children born to that union. Two of the children, Helen and Josh Jr. preceded her in death. She was married to the late Francis Saunders. Bea had one daughter, Dawn who also preceded her in death

She accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and gave her witness through First Baptist Church where she was regular in attendance until her health began to decline. She was also a member of the Progressive Club.

Nannie Bea was a graduate of Bate High School and was employed for years at the Danville Terrace Motel in Danville.

She leaves to cherish her memory three brothers, James Shannon of Danville, William (Paula) Shannon of Urbana, Ohio, and George (Debra) Shannon of Louisville, Kentucky; nieces and nephews; cousins and other relatives and friends.

*God saw you were getting weary
So He did what He thought was best;
He came and stood beside you
He whispered "Come and rest,"
You bid no one a last farewell
Not even a good-bye
You were gone before we knew it
And only a loving God knows why.*

Rev. Moses E. Radford, Pastor

Obituary

"Once in a while someone lives a beautiful and unselfish life, just for others." On Thursday evening, October 31, 1991, God dispatched an angel to Nicholasville to summon our "Dear One" Nettie Mae Boner Schooler home to rest.

She was born in Jessamine County, Kentucky on May 22, 1910 to the late Charles and Emma Spillman Boner. She became a Christian at an early age and was baptised into the fellowship of The First Baptist Church, where she remained faithful until death. In 1923 she was united in marriage to Mr. Ansel Schooler. To this union was born four children. Sarah, James Ansel and Andrew L. are all deceased.

Remaining to cherish her memory are one son, William Earl Schooler, Sr. and his wife Mrs. Janie Schooler of Nicholasville; five granddaughters, Mrs. Patricia Gray Lewis and her husband Mr. John R. Lewis, Lexington, Miss Hestelita Schooler, Nicholasville, Cherie Edwards and Mrs. Kim Jackson, Lexington and Mrs. Roslyn Spencer, California; four grandsons, William Earl, Jr., Micheal and Andy Schooler of Lexington, and Tyrone Gray, Los Angeles, California; twelve great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Andrew L. Schooler, Lexington; one devoted sister-in-law, Mrs. Jeanetta Schooler Blythe, Richmond; one brother-in-law, Mr. Paul Thomas, Nicholasville; one niece, Mrs. Francis Ross and one nephew Charles A. Richardson, Loraine, Ohio; plus a number of other relatives and friends.

*"In tears we saw you sinking and saw you fade away
our hearts were truly broken
we wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful, free of pain
How could we wish you back to go through that again
A golden heart stopped beating,
two busy hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He always takes the best."*

LIFE'S CLOCK

The clock of life is wound but once
And no one has the power
To tell just when the hand will stop
At late or early hour.
Now is the only time you own
So trust in God's eternal care.
There comes a time for all of us
When we must say 'goodbye'.
But memories of those we love
Live on and never die.
Don't put off tomorrow,
What you can do today -
For the hands may then be still.

Obituary

"FOR I AM NOW READY TO BE OFFERED, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have kept the faith: HENCEFORTH there is laid up for me a CROWN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto them that love is appearing."

II Timothy 4:6-8

Death has silenced the gentle voice and the meek spirit of Clarence Peyton Scott Sr. He was the son of the late Peyton R. and Mary Carter Scott, born in Powhatan, VA and departed this life Wednesday, August 21, 1991 at St. Joseph Hospital.

At an early age he joined the Little Zion Baptist Church in Powhatan, VA and later moved his membership to the First African Baptist Church.

He was united in holy matrimony to Jane E. Smith and to this union two children were born, Margaret and Clarence Jr.

He was a loving and caring husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather with a very pleasant disposition.

His memory will be cherished by his wife, daughter, son, granddaughter, Darlene (Anthony, Sr.) Hartsfield; grandsons, Darryl H. (Yolanda) Scott, Clarence Miller, Jr.; great grandson, Anthony (AJ) Hartsfield; a daughter-in-law, Ruth Scott; three sisters, Mrs. Lucy Jackson, Bayonne, NJ, Mrs. Laura Taylor and Mrs. Mahalie (Wilbert) Harris, Powhatan, VA; two brothers, German (Cathleen) Scott, Riverhead, NY, Ollie (Helen) Scott, Richmond, VA; brother-in-law, John R. ### THE CROSS

*I carry a cross, a simple reminder to me,
Of the fact that I am a Christian
No matter where I be.
This little cross is not magic,
Nor is it a good luck charm.
It isn't meant to protect me
From every physical harm.
It's not for identification
For all the world to see,
It's simply and understanding
Between my Savior and me
Reminding no one but me
That Jesus Christ is the Lord of my life.
And He shall always be.*

THE DASH

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend.

He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning... to the end.

He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth... and now only those who loved her know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own; the cars.... the house... the cash... What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard... are there things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left. (You could be at "dash mid-range.")

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real, and always try to understand the way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger, and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect, and more often wear a smile... remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy's being read with your life's actions to rehash...

Would you be proud of the things they say how you spent your dash?

~Obituary~

Gertrude W. (Polly) Searcy, 64, of Grant Drive, passed away early Sunday morning, April 4, at St. Joseph Hospital. She was born March 20, 1940 in Lincoln County and was the daughter of the late Lenora Logan and Cornealious Whitley. Preceding her in death were her husband, Walter Searcy, and a brother, Alphonsa Hayes. Baptized at an early age at Boneyville Baptist Church in Lincoln County, she later became a member of St. Paul AME Church in Lexington. After retiring from IBM, she worked at Bank One until her health began to fail.

Polly was a graduate of Dunbar High School, class of 1958, and she attended Business College. In her later years, she developed a love for hobbies including decorating books, ceramics and making quilts for all of the babies of her family and friends.

She is survived by her children – Michael Whitley, Lexington; Pierre (Cleo) Whitley, Peoria, IL; Dianna Lynn Adams, Lexington; and Cheryl (William) Fisher, Louisville; eight grandchildren, one great-granddaughter; sister, Arzella (William) Lackey, sister-in-law, Teresa Searcy, two grandmothers-in-law, Rosa Marshall and Alice Arnold, and a host of relatives and friends.

Obituary

*"Her life a beautiful memory
Her death a silent grief.
She sleeps in God's beautiful garden
In the sunshine of perfect peace."*

Patricia Yvonne Searcy was born September 7, 1963. She departed this life July 28, 1999. She was the daughter of Mrs. Leora "Nita" Searcy and the late Wilbur J. Searcy.

Pat graduated from Lexington Catholic High School in 1981. She also attended Eastern Kentucky University.

She was a member of St. Peter Claver Catholic Church. She was a former employee of G.T.E. At the time of her death she was employed by Toyota.

She leaves to cherish her memory her mother; a daughter, Brandie; two brothers, Michael and Steve Searcy; two sisters, Sharon and Janice Searcy; five aunts, June Phillips, Dayton, OH, Clarise (James) Brown, Rebecca Holbrook, Chicago, IL, Ophelia Searcy and Delores Spencer; one uncle, William (Helen) Irvin, Jr.; a special friend, Wayne Baker; and a number of other relatives and friends.

*The call was sudden, the shock severe,
Little we thought such grief was near.
Only one who has lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.
God took her home, rest she will,
But in our hearts, she liveth still.
The flowers we lay upon her grave may wither and decay,
But the love we have for her will never fade away.*

Until We Meet Again

*I do not pretend to understand this life
Why some have daily struggles while others breeze on by
Why we have to suffer so much grief and pain
Why some bathe in the sun while others drown in rain
And as I sit here pondering these questions on my mind
Watching my dear beloved's life passing by
I've come to the conclusion that what matters most to me
Is that I know who's in control through life and eternity
Though my faith has been shaken and I'm overcome with grief
I must stand firm on what I know and in whom I believe
For if I keep a shred of faith and trust in God alone
I know I'll see her once again in our heavenly home.
Until then I'll remember all the times we've had
The good times and our struggles the happy and the sad
For as I remember everything
She'll never really leave
And I can keep her close in heart
Until again her face I see.*

Obituary

Martha Jeanette Searight was born on Tuesday, August 10, 1965 to David H. Baker I and Katherine L. Baker. She was the second of five children. Martha was raised up in church attending Greater Bethel Temple with her family. She participated in several church ministries throughout her years including the Junior Choir, the Young Adult Choir, other musical groups, and the Usher Board. In addition, she was active in the youth department and regularly attended Sunday School.

Martha was a very intelligent and thoughtful student always studying to obtain the highest marks in school. She attended Kammerer Middle School and Ballard High School, graduating with honors. She was a part of several academic clubs including the Beta Club, National Honor Society, and Black Achievers. She attended the University of Kentucky on a full scholarship with intentions of becoming a medical doctor. She finished her education at the University of Louisville obtaining a Bachelors of Science Degree. Martha loved learning and as such continued her studies to obtain a Master's Degree.

Martha met and married Kendrick Searight Sr. and to that union was born three children, Jenisha Baker, Kendrick Searight Jr., and Kendra Searight. Nothing meant more to Martha than her family. She had a special place in her heart for her grandchildren who she loved dearly.

Martha left this life on Sunday, September 22, 2013 after a long struggle with cancer. She leaves behind two daughters, Jenisha Baker and Kendra Searight; one son, Kendrick Searight; her mother, Katherine L. Baker; three sisters, Sheila A. Baker, Larsandra E. Linton (Harlan Linton), and Katrina R. Greenwell; one brother, David H. Baker (Ayna Baker); eleven grandchildren, Kahlil Searight, Kahmoni Searight, Mikiya Jerman, Katherine Baker, Kahmari Searight, Jayden Williams, Malachi Jerman, Nehemiah Jerman, Kaitlyn Searight, Joseph Walker, Jezinaya Searight, McKenzie Jerman; and ten nieces and nephews.

Martha was one of the sweetest, most modest and ladylike people we have ever known and she will be deeply missed.

Don't judge me for how I left this world. Remember the love I gave a lot of grief will follow me for the decision that I made. Changes appear in everyone's life some good, some bad. But in time, memories will heal the hurt of hearts and my presence will be felt by all with an inner peace. Remember me when the sun is bright and laughter fills the air. And a moon lit night and a whisper of wind will tell you I am there. Don't look down on my family or fill their hearts with blame. For my leaving them without good-byes, They will never be the same. If I could go back in time I'd say a last good-bye I'd tell them to look to tomorrow and for me.....don't cry.

Jason Eric Sears, age 24, passed on Saturday, October 15, 2011 in Junction City, Kentucky.

He was born on March 31, 1987 in Danville, Kentucky and was the son of Frances Walker and Henry Allen Wren. He is proceeded in death by his twin sisters, Allison and Elisha Edwards and grandfather Wilbert Sears.

Jason attended Danville High School and obtain his General Education Diploma. He was optimistic fun loving and loved his family, friends and listening to music. He expressed he looked forward to meeting new people, going new places and doing new things.

He acknowledge his love for the Lord, he would often say "Commit thy works unto thy lord and thy thoughts shall be established" Proverbs 16:3 (KJV).

Jason is survived by his mother Frances (Carl) Walker, Perryville, Kentucky; his father Henry Wren; maternal grandmother, Rosie Allen, Junction City, Kentucky; maternal aunt Carolyn (Jimmy) Carlton, Junction City, Kentucky; best friend, Jamie Peck; a host of other relatives and friends.

Gone is the face we loved so dear
 Silent is the voice we love to hear;
 Too far away for sight or speech,
 But not too far away for thoughts to reach.
 Sweet to remember him, who once was here,
 And who, though absent, is just as dear.
 Our lips cannot tell how we miss him
 Our hearts cannot tell what to say
 God alone knows how we miss him
 In our homes it's lonesome to-day.

OBITUARY

On Sunday, October 25, 1992, God saw fit to call from our midst Helen Seawright.

She was born May 12, 1913, in Danville, to the late Richard and Gouht Seawright. She was a member fo the Methodist Church in Junction City.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a son Homer Haggard of Michigan City, Michigan.; 12 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.

God saw you were getting weary
So he did what he thought best
He came and stood beside her
He whispered, "come and rest".

A Precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our heart
Which never can be filled.

Obituary

Howard Edward Seawright was born on October 31, 1926 to the late Charles and Sally McKitric Seawright in Mercer County, Kentucky. He was called to eternal rest on Monday, August 1, 2005 at 6:10 p.m. at Danville Centre for Health and Rehabilitation.

Howard was united in holy matrimony to Anginette Williams on April 11, 1950, and to this union were born, two children, Rhonda and Phyllis. In 1951 they decided to make their home in Cincinnati, Ohio, where they resided for 42 years. There he worked as a machinist in the Robotics division of Cincinnati Milacron Manufacturing until retirement in 1986. While in Cincinnati; he was a faithful member of Brown Chapel AME Church, where he served as treasurer of the Steward Board for nearly 30 years.

Although a quiet, gentleman, Howard was a devoted family man who took care of his family and dearly loved his grandchildren, great-grandchildren and nieces and nephews. He was a fan of Xavier and UK basketball and loved to listen to Ray Charles tapes.

He was an avid fisherman who could sit on Herrington Lake for hours and hours. He was also known for baking delicious pies and cakes and making homemade ice cream and custard.

He leaves to mourn, yet celebrate his homegoing, his wife of 55 years, Anginette; daughters, Rhonda Robinson and Phyllis (Eddie) Brown; five grandchildren, Maleika (Chris) Huff, Jairon (Destinee) Robinson, Dalyn and Christopher Brown and Matthew Robinson; Six great-grandchildren; cherished sister, Katherine Withers; sister-in-law, Mary Mattie Gray and brother-in-law, Frank Hill; three aunts, Mary Eliza Marshall, Flora (James) Hopkins, and Ruth Routt; many loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*He Maketh No Mistake
Our Father's way may twist and turn
Our hearts may throb and ache
But in our souls we're glad we know
He maketh no mistake.

THE OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sally Rose Seawright was born February 11, 1905 to Millie Bea Mckitric and Charles Mckitric in Mercer County, Kentucky. At an early age she became a faithful member of St. James A. M. E. Church in Danville Kentucky.

April, 12th, 1925, she married Charles Edward Seawright and to this union was born one son Howard, and one daughter Katherine.

In 1954, she moved to Cincinnati Ohio, and joined the Brown Chapel A. M. E. Church; where she was an avid and faithful member of the Gospel Chorus.

She fought to overcome several crucial illnesses during the past year. She was hospitalized Saturday November 22, 1975, and succumbed early Thanksgiving morning, November 27, 1975.

She leaves to mourn this passing, her beloved son Howard and dear daughter Katherine Withers; Three brothers, John, Gilford and Elvin Mckitric. Five sisters Mrs. Katie Haynes Mrs. Pearl Hall, Mrs. E. Marshall, Mrs. Ruth Routt, and Mrs. Flora Hopkins. Five Grandchildren Two Great Grandchildren, and a host of other Relatives, and friends.

We sat and waited with you
At the portal of eternity
And wondered at your quiet;
Courage, and your strength.

No cry crossed your lips,
Except when blessed sleep,
Claimed, you for a short,
Moment.

No complaints; no plea for mercy,
No wondering as to why,
We're humbled by your dignity,
We'll try to live as bravely,
As you died!

Deborah Lynn Grigsby...

On September 16, 2011 Deborah Grigsby Segar entered heaven. God planted this beautiful seed on earth April 4, 1960 to be taken care of by Richard Grigsby and the late Peggy Ann Taylor. Educated in Lexington Fayette County schools, Deborah graduated from Henry Clay High School Class of '1978'. After graduation she entered the U.S. Army.

Deborah accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and was baptized at First African Missionary Baptist Church, she later became a member of Greater Liberty Missionary Baptist Church and completed her earth's labor for the Lord at Consolidated Missionary Baptist Church. Deborah loved to sing God's praises and sang in both Greater Liberty and Consolidated's Choirs.

Deborah worked many years bringing comfort and calm to those who came to the University of Kentucky-Health Care Hospital, in the Pre-op Clinic and for 10 years at the Gill-Heart Clinic.

Among the many loved ones she leaves to bask in the Ray of Light and Love; her devoted and loving husband, Phillip Segar; father, Richard Grigsby; children; Latoya, Kennith and Raheem Butts; Lights of her world grandchildren, Amari Taylor and Emani Coffey; siblings/sisters, Kimm Shanks and Shelia Mitchell; brothers, Ronald, Donald and Eldridge Shanks and a host of loving relatives and friends; special friends, Edwina Wilson, Antoinette Miles, Stephanie Thompson, Cheryl Carter, Ruth Hayes, and Deborah Power; special nephew, Dominico Shanks and a special cousin, Brenda Mack.

*When Tomorrow Starts
Without Me*

When Tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see
If the sun shall rise and find your eyes,
all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
the way you did today;
While thinking of the many things we didn't say.
In know how much you love me...
as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
She said my place was ready in heaven far above;
And that I'd have to leave behind,
all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away,
a tear fell from my eyes;
For all my life I'd always thought
I didn't want to die.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we are far apart.
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here...in your heart.

*His soul has gone to God
The earth shall soon claim its own,
But he is rejoicing around the throne
While we are left here to mourn.
But someday we will meet again
All of our Loved ones gone on before.
Someday we will reach that happy land.
Where parting will be no more*

If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke kind words,
As any friend could say.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car.
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you, so much,

Obituary

On Thursday afternoon April 25, 1991, at Jewish Hospital, Louisville, Kentucky, our beloved (mother) Elayne B. Segar departed this life. O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good, for His mercy endureth forever.

Elayne was born, December 5, 1928, to the late Herman and Sadie Bradshaw in Boyle County. She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined St. James A. M. E. Church, Danville, Kentucky. She loved and supported her church.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Robert S. Segar and they moved to Louisville, Kentucky, in 1951. To this marriage were born three loving children.

She was a devoted and loving mother. Always ready to help family and friends whenever needed. Her jovial personality and warm smile will be fondly remembered by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn one daughter, Barbara Dougherty; two sons, Bobby and Michael Segar; two sisters, Martha Jackson of Danville, Kentucky and Odell Pittman of Lexington, Kentucky; two grandchildren, DuJuan Dougherty and Monica Segar; two daughters-in-law; a son-in-law; two brothers-in-law; four sisters-in-law; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts and uncle and numerous relatives and friends.

God saw you were getting weary
So he did what he thought best
He came and stood beside you
He whispered come and rest.
A precious one from us has gone
A voice to loved is still
A place is vacant in our hearts
Which never can be filled.

Obituary

Early Saturday morning on March 28, 2009, Jesus called a loving and gentle soul home to be with him, whom we know as Georgia Segar. She was born in Garrard County to the late George Weathers and Eddie Jackson Weathers Lackey.

She graduated from Mason County High School Class of 1944. She then attended West Kentucky Vocational Technical School where she majored in Cosmetology. She worked in this field for over fifty years. She was united in marriage to the late J. B. Segar, and to this union was born one son Philip Segar. She was faithful at Pleasant Green Missionary Baptist Church, and was visibly a part of the Sunday School and other auxiliaries.

Georgia Segar was preceded in death by her parents, brothers: James Weathers, Nick, Jessie and Charlie Ingram, one sister: Mattie Lee Lancaster, niece: Mary Catherine Jones, and a nephew Clifford (Tony) Lancaster.

She leaves to cherish her memories a son: Philip (Deborah) Segar, a niece, Mary (Thomas) Butler, grandchildren: Renada Ross, (Chicago Heights, IL), Stephanie (Lenord) Lewis, (Col., OH), Monique (Paul) Segar-Taylor, Phillina (Alfred) Wingate, Starla Jones, Jerome Owens, Philicia Segar, Philip (Tenika) Segar, and Teria Segar, (Lexington, KY), sixteen great-grandchildren, along with many other relatives and friends.

I must leave for a little while,
I'm not alone for I have God as my guide,
and he will ever be at your side.
Please don't grieve or shed wild tears,
but start out bravely with a gallant smile.
For my sake and in my name,
live on and do all things the same.
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer,
for I will in return hold you near.
Never be afraid to die,
for I'll be waiting for you in the sky.

Your Mother and Friend

OBITUARY

Mrs. Iona Rice Segar was born August 8, 1908 in Boyle County, daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. Henry Lee Rice.

She answered the call of her Heavenly Father, and passed from earth's sorrows to Heaven's reward on Saturday February 15, 1986 at Ephraim McDowell Hospital, after a long illness.

At an early age she accepted Christ and united with the Baptist Church in Clifton, Kentucky, and later united with the Stoney Point Predestinarian Baptist Church, Danville under the pastorate of the late Rev. William Covington.

She was united in marriage to Robert Eugene Segar. To this union five children were born. One is deceased. She shared her love and devotion to her husband and children. She was a kind and thoughtful neighbor.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, Robert (Jack) Segar, son, William H. Segar, daughters, Eleanor Segar Kavanaugh, Betty Segar Kinley and Lloyd Segar Grey. One son, Robert Lanier Segar who preceded her in death. 14 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. Several nieces, nephews and cousins.

*There's an open gate,

—What you are to me—
You're like a flower, that never dies
A smell that stays so sweet,
You are the kind of father that everyone needs to meet
You have a certain quality that spreads all around,
And I love so much because you never let us down.

Daughter, Eunice

The Golden Gates swing wide,
A gentle voice said come,
An angel from the other side came,
To welcome our loved one home.
The battle fought
The victory won,
Enter thy masters joy
We love you so much,

He Only Take The Best

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around her
And whispers, "Come with me"*

*With tear-filled eyes we watched her
Suffer and fade away
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

OBITUARY

On September 21, 1993, at his home in Danville, Kentucky, God called John Segar to eternal rest.

Born October 31, 1930, in Boyle County, Kentucky, he was the son of Minie Williams and the late John Segar. He was united in marriage to Annie Spaulding Segar.

He was a member of First Baptist Church, Second and Walnut Street in Danville, and a former employee of the Kentucky State Hospital.

He leaves to cherish his memories a loving and caring wife, Anne; a brother, Arthur Gray; nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*God saw you were getting weary,
So He did what He thought was best;
He came and stood beside you
and whispered, "Come and Rest."
You bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a "good-bye;"
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

The Obituary

Philip Segar (1951-2023)

A man who loved everyone and never met a stranger, Philip Segar, 72, of Lexington, KY. He was born in Lexington in 1951 to J B and Georgia Segar who loved him to the moon and back and felt he never did any wrong.

Philip accepted Christ at an early age, and was baptized at Davistown Baptist Church, Lancaster, Ky. As an adult Philip joined Greater Liberty Baptist Church where he served as a trustee and sang in the men's choir over the years.

Philip received his formal education in the Boyle and Fayette public school systems. After graduating Philip received his associates degree in Auto Mechanics at West Kentucky Vocational School in Paducah, KY.

After leaving West Kentucky Vocational, he went on to join the Lexington Police Department and served from December 1973 until his retirement on November 13, 1990. After retiring, Philip went on to work and serve his community in other capacities such as working for Solid Waste, LFUCG-Park Ambassador, FCPS-Bus Driver, Kentucky State University.

He will always be remembered for all the love, laughter, and sarcasm he shared with his friends and family. He truly loved each and everyone of them- and if you knew him, you knew it. When his time came, he carried himself with dignity, strength, and full of love for those who went before him. His memory will live on in the hearts of all those who loved him!

Philip departed this life on Tuesday, November 21, 2023. He was preceded in death by his loving and devoted wife, Deborah Grigsby-Segar, his father, J B Segar; and his mother, Georgia Segar.

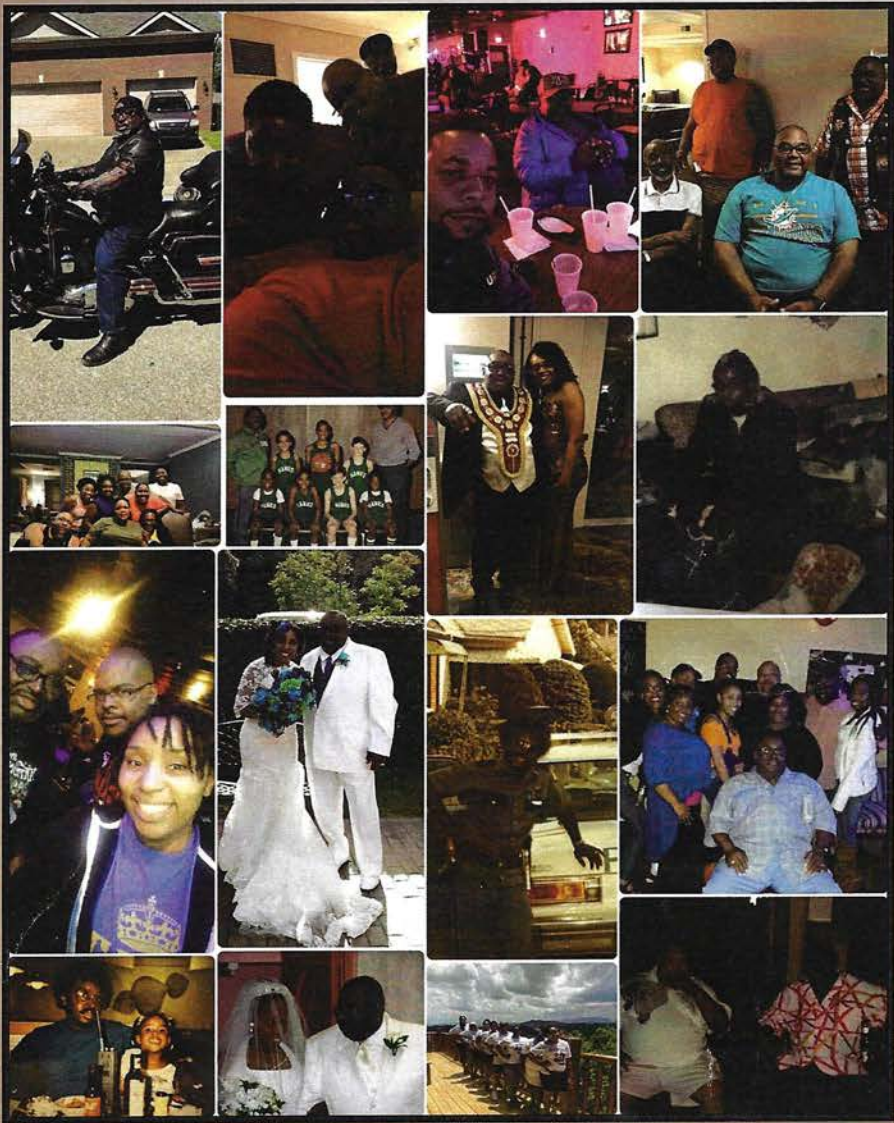

Philip leaves his children to cherish his memory and to continue his legacy Renada Ross {Chicago, IL} Stephanie (Lenard) Lewis {Columbus, OH}, Monique (Paul) Taylor, Marcus (Toi) Shelby, Starla (Wilbur) Gordon {Augusta, GA}, Charlene Brown, Phillina (Alfred) Wingate, Gerome (Natasha) Owens, Philicia Segar, Philip A. (Tenika) Segar, Teria (Leonard) Slaughter, Philip Segar {California}, Delmar (Roni) Parker, Craig Salyers, and Darien Butler.

He loved riding his motorcycle, hanging out at Swahili, and entertaining his family, Philip's favorite role was being a grandparent. He treasured his time with his grandkids and loved being their Granddaddy, never failing to pick on them or show up for them. He also leaves to cherish his memory, 36 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren whom he loved dearly.

Philip was a proud and dedicated member of the Lexington Barons Motorcycle Club and rode with them for 18 years. Prior to Philip joining the Barons he rode with the King Cobras Motorcycle Club for 13 years.

Philip had 42 years of dedication and charitable work in the community through the I.B.P.O.E. of W Swahili Elks. If you knew him, then you know Elkdom was his heart. His knowledge and dedication will be surely missed by the organization.

Obituary

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead — he is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you — O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead — he is just away!

Sadly Missed

Goodbye Dad

I never realized how much I would miss you, until you were no longer there. I don't remember much, the day the call came. I do remember thinking you cannot be getting ready to walk that way. Nothing has been the same since May 10, 20011 at 1:28 p.m.

We will take your last ride, we all know that taken a ride was something you love to do. In a second, nothing will ever be the same. As we go to Hilldale and finish the last beautiful touch to your perfect day. The man that I was so proud to call my dad Phillip Bernard "Bucket" Shanks. I've always invented the perfect dad, and the truth is you were only human, I thank you for that. As of May 10, 2011 you became that perfect dad.

Some of you may remember this about dad. Why is it whenever dad was ready to leave instead of saying I love you, see you later, goodbye, he would just walk outside, get in his vehicle next thing you know he is pulling away. Well I finally got a goodbye! dad said baby, I'm getting tired, but I'm going to be okay, that was my goodbye, yes dad you are okay.

The last time I saw you, I took you by your cold hand, and in the silence in the darkness I said, I love you daddy I love you, you are in my heart to stay forever and ever and ever. I love you daddy, Phillip Bernard "Bucket" Shanks, most of all I'll miss you more, rest in peace. Goodbye daddy goodbye.

He leaves to cherish his memory, three daughters, Elisa Renee Jackson, Danville, Kentucky, LaJoy Renee Spears, Des Moines, Iowa and Chenice Danielle Ganns, Lexington, Kentucky; one brother, Walker Ellis Shanks, Lexington, Kentucky; four sisters, Yvette Harris, Teresa (Curtis) White, Tammy Royston-Shanks and Stephanie (Stephen) Quick, all of Indianapolis, Indiana; five grandchildren, Damon and Nemaeh C. Jackson, Shamond D. Hayes, Dyiran F. Ganns and Kcen D. Edwards; his dog, Pinky Bear; also a host of other relatives and friends.

Our Prayer

Heavenly Father we pray that you give us the strength to continue on to make it through these sorrowful times, when the one you love has gone. He will sadly be missed by many who loved him so very much. We will surely miss his kind and friendly smile, his warm and gentle touch. He leaves behind pleasant memories of all the little things he used to do. These are the memories that we have left, until we are with you again.

What A Friend We Have In Jesus

What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!

O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer.

SUNRISE
DECEMBER 15, 1942

SUNSET
MAY 28, 2017

*Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.
Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.*

Barbara, the daughter of George T. Hill and Rosa Burton Hill (both deceased), was born in Dayton, Ohio, on December 15, 1942. She was called to her eternal rest on May 28, 2017.

Her parents moved to Perryville, Kentucky, and she professed faith in Christ at the age of 5 at the First Baptist Church, Perryville, Kentucky, and was baptized by Rev. A. C. Goodloe, Pastor.

Barbara attended a one-room school in Perryville, Kentucky, during her elementary school years and gained her secondary education at Bate High School in Danville, Kentucky. After her High School graduation, she moved to Louisville, Kentucky where she attended the St. Helena Commercial College, Louisville, Kentucky and Indiana University Southeast, New Albany, Indiana. She joined Zion Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky, under the pastorate of Rev. D. E. King.

Her mother moved to New Albany, Indiana, and married, Mr. Theodore Graves (deceased), her stepfather. Barbara married George W. Shannon from Danville, Kentucky in August 1962; and retired from Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation, Louisville, Kentucky, after 39 years.

After marriage, she joined the Howard Chapel Baptist Church, New Albany, Indiana, pastored by Rev. C. Kimbrough; she was one of the Musicians and a Church Secretary. Barbara reunited with Zion Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky in 2011 under the pastorate of Rev. Gerald J. Joiner, M.Th. She sometimes helped with the decorations for Church occasions and found pleasure in reciting some of the poems written by the Negro Poet, Paul Laurence Dunbar.

She leaves to cherish her memory: a godson: D'Edward Hodge; two aunts: Rosella Hill Geo-Jaja, Indianapolis, Indiana; Frances Hill (Joe) Poole, Chicago, Illinois; cousins: Thomas & Cordelia Burton, Julia Burton, Louisville, Kentucky; and a host of other cousins and friends.

~ THE OBITUARY ~

On Sunday, March 31, 2013 in Louisville, Kentucky, with his family by his side, God called Gary Shannon to his eternal rest.

He was born March 14, 1953 and was the son of Joshua C. Shannon Jr. and Eliza Bowman and was a native of Danville, Kentucky.

Gary was preceded in death by his father Joshua C. Shannon Jr. and both sets of grandparents.

He worked for over forty years in the horse industry. He was a member of Works In Progress, Georgetown, Kentucky under the leadership of Bishop Lamb.

Gary is survived by his mother, Eliza Bowman, two siblings, Angela Parker, Bonnie Blakey, all of Louisville, Kentucky; three children Zachory (Troye) Georgetown, Kentucky, Tanesia (Quis), Lexington, Kentucky and Idris Las Vegas, Nevada; 10 grandchildren; his dedicated ex-wife LaVanda Shannon; along with a host of family and friends.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

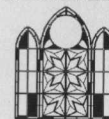

John 14: 1-3

Obituary

Gearldine Shannon departed this life after a long illness on Sunday, November 25, 2007 at Central Baptist Hospital. She was born on July 15, 1935, in Danville, Kentucky, to the late Corine and Roscoe Tucker, Sr.

She was a graduate of Bates High School, Danville, KY and Kentucky Business College, Lexington. For many years she was employed at: Good Samaritan Hospital, Endicott-Johnson and GNC Health Food in Fayette Mall.

She united with Greater Liberty Missionary Baptist Church under the Pastorate of the Late Dr. A. B. Lee, Sr., where she was a member of the Adult and Mass Choir, and the Adult Sunday School Class.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and one sister Shirley Bracken.

She leaves to cherish her memories to three sons: William Gregory (Ray), Herbert Christopher, and Mark Lee (Maryann) Smith, all of Lexington. One foster-son: James Epps, Jr., Indianapolis, Indiana. Twelve grandchildren; Guilluame, Raymon, Markiara, Mark Jr., and Taylor Smith, Jamal McKitric, Jeremy and Jasmine Epps, Chazerae Taylor, Kevin Trahan Jr., Desmond and Taviessa Brock; One great-grand son: Zion Smith; Two brothers: William (Marion) Tucker of Washington, D.C and Roscoe (Barbara) Tucker, Jr., Lexington, KY.; an Uncle: Jim Fry, Lancaster, KY., an Aunt: Edna Andrews, Indianapolis, IN; Special Cousin: Helen Guest, Danville, KY.; Special friends; Helen Smoot, Barbara Johnson, Bernice Duncan, and all the members of the "Royal Ladies Club", along with a host of other relatives and friends.

*Gone but not forgotten,
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Sincere and true in her heart and mind,
A beautiful memory to leave behind.
A heart that was purer than gold,
And to those who knew and loved her,
Her memory will never grow old.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way
I found that peace at close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
Wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now:*

OBITUARY

In Thee, O Lord do I put my trust.

Psalms 7:1

William Frank Shauntee was born in Davies County, on January 19, 1907 and retired this life on December 17, 1982. He was the son of the late Ben and Rosa Shauntee. He accepted Christ at an early age and united with the Maceo Baptist Church, Maceo, Kentucky.

He came to Frankfort in 1945 and began regular attendance at First Baptist Church and he was dedicated, faithful and a loyal supporter of the programs of the Church with an abiding interest and compassionate spirit as a friend of children. He entered Kentucky Normal Industrial Institute and graduated. He was a graduate also of Knoxville College, Knoxville, Tennessee; Indiana State University, Terre Haute, Indiana and did post-graduate work at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Miss Margurite Johnson, November 30, 1940 and to this union two fine children were added; Kenneth B. Shauntee and Magdalin Shauntee.

He served in the United States Navy from 1941 to 1945 as Chief Petty Officer, a veteran of World War II and a member of the Selective Service Board. He served as superintendent of Maintenance and Grounds at Kentucky State College and later as Instructor of Industrial and Vocational Education for twenty-five years. He was granted Faculty Emeritus rank in 1973.

He is a member of Epsilon Pi Tau Fraternity, Kentucky State University Alumni, Associate Retired Teachers Association and a Kentucky Colonel.

He received the outstanding First Baptist Church Sunday School Award for Dedication, Faithful and Compassionate services as a Friend of Children.

Survivors are a beloved wife, Mrs. Margurite Shauntee; two devoted children, Kenneth B. Shauntee, Louisville, Ky. and Magdalin Shauntee Reed, Bardstown, Ky.; a brother, George Thomas Shauntee, Terre Haute, Indiana; a sister, Mrs. Clara Tinsley, Owensboro; five grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Lord bless thee and keep thee

The Lord make His face to shine upon thee

And be gracious unto thee

The Lord lift up His Countenance upon thee

And give thee peace. Numbers 6:24-26

Our Father Kept A Garden

Our Father kept a garden.

*A garden of the heart;
He planted all the good things,
That gave our lives their start.*

*He turned us to the sunshine,
And encouraged us to dream:
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.*

*And when the winds and rain came,
He protected us enough;
But not too much because he knew
We would stand up strong and tough.*

*His constant good example,
Always taught us right from wrong;
Markers for our pathway that will last a lifetime long.*

*We are our Fathers garden,
We are his legacy.
Thank you Daddy we love you.*

Obituary

Mrs. Julia Logan Anderson Shearer was born on January 20, 1913, in Lancaster, Kentucky (Buckeye) to the late James & Annie Stanley Logan. She was preceded in death by her parents and four brothers, Ullie, Clell, Stanley, and James, two sisters, Amanda and Elveree.

As a young girl, she accepted Christ at the early age of 12 and joined Pleasant Run Baptist Church (Buckeye), and remained a faithful member until her illness. During her illustrious life she served as the Sunday School Superintendent, a member and officer of the Missionary Society, Church Aide Society, choir, usher board and Treasurer for the New Liberty Sunday school Convention. Mrs. Shearer was a life member of Baptist Women's Educational Convention and Missionary Convention.

Julia Shearer and her sister Elveree were home interior decorators for a long period in their lives. She belonged to the Homemaker's Club in Garrard County and was a school bus driver for the Garrard County Schools. She was an avid gardener and loved working outside and harvesting fruits and vegetables and preserving them.

She is survived by her loving and loyal husband of 29 yrs. Mr. Lawrence Shearer along with her devoted daughter and son, Ophelia Searcy and Kenneth (Joan) Anderson. Her extended family includes: 4 step-children, Alphine (William) Chenault, Kevin, Deborah, Larry (Denise) Shearer; and, 7 Grandchildren, Zanetta Searcy, Raymond (Beverly) Murphy, James (Kelli) Murphy, Malone (Lisa) Anderson, Laval (Arnold) Gaither, Terrie Murphy and LaDonna Waiganjo; and, 7 step-grandchildren, 9 Great grandchildren, 8 great-great grandchildren and many great, great-great and great-great-great nieces and nephews cousins, friends and extended family.

"I've done my work, I've sung my song, I've done some good, I've done some wrong, and I shall go where I belong. The Lord has willed it so. He knows my heart and every thought; He knows what pain and joy I've brought. And by His love, I shall be taught, The way to Him I know."

Mother's thoughts

"I'll Be Seeing You"

I am at rest, so don't cry
It will be easier, as time goes by
I've done my best to live a good life
For I know if I did, I could be with Christ.
As my body lies here, it is only a shell
God has called me home
And my job I have done well.
Now I'm happy and very content
For the things I've done wrong, I repent. You know and I know it was hard on earth
So you should not cry at my death, but at birth
I have no worries, pain or fears
Because I'm resting, waiting for the rapture,
So dry your tears
I love you all
And this is what I want you to do.
Get your house in order, put God first
And I'll be seeing you.

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with time of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full. I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Life up your heart and share with me.
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

"The future is not ours to know,
And it may never be,
So let us live and give our best,
Never anticipating or doubting
The power of our Savior;
Asking nothing of tomorrow except---
THY WILL BE DONE."

Alta E. Shobe, the daughter of the late William and Oshia Andrew, was born March 29, 1913 in Albany, Kentucky. She was the second of ten children. She grew up in Danville, Kentucky. She was educated in public schools. She accepted Jesus as her Lord and Saviour at an early age. She attended Sunday School and Worship Services at the Bethel Baptist Church. She learned early in life her personal path of duty and followed it with unselfishness and dedication until her passing. She moved to Indianapolis, Indiana in November, 1935. She married Frank Shobe, February 19, 1937, and lived happily with him until his death December 1992. Alta graduated from the Walker Beauty School. She was employed 36 years for Western Electric, having retired in 1975.

Alta united with the Irvington First Baptist Church May 1937, under the Pastorate of the Late Rev. R. H. Noel. She remained a faithful member and diligently served on the Senior Usher Board approximately 45 years. She generously gave her full support to the various programs, projects and ministries of the Church.

Perhaps she will be remembered best for the charming little things that vividly characterized her life: her quiet and unassuming disposition; her love and loyalty to family and friends, her dedication and devotion to God and Church, her willingness to do her best on the job, and her gentleness of spirit. She will long be remembered for her love to travel, bowling; and remembered most as an excellent cook; she loved to cook and always wanted to feed people. She was known for her baked beans and lemon cake, etc., and beautiful personality. To know her was to love her.

On Friday, March 23, 2001, the Lord called Alta home to eternal rest. May her soul find peace, favor and acceptance with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and indeed may her good works live on. Four brothers preceded her in death. Cherishing her memory are her survivors: a son, Jerry V. Andrew (Rita); 4 Grandchildren; 2 brothers, Marshall and Ray Andrew; 3 Sisters, Essie Cunningham, Malvenia Kinley, and June Andrew, all whom live in Kentucky; 1 Aunt, Ethel Andrew; Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, and Other Relatives.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and The staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.

For this is a Journey that we all must Take and each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the hills we know
And bury your sorrow among the trees
Miss me - but let me go.

OBITUARY

Rosa Lee Sigar, was plucked from this earth to be replanted in the eternal garden of Heaven on October 16, 2003. born March 21, 1925, she was the daughter of the late George and Alice Sigar.

She professed her belief in Jesus Christ at a young age and was a member of Centennial Baptist Church where for many years she sang in the choir. Rosa, a lover of music, was an accomplished harmonica player and song leader for the Order of the Eastern Star, PHA. She joined the order of Eastern Star, Daughters of Zion # 130 in 1972 and in 2001 became a member of Celestine #9. One who always gave her all worked tirelessly in the Order serving in many positions; one as Worthy Matron and also as secretary of her chapter. Rosa was educated in the Mercer County School system, was an avid bowler, and retired from Modine, Manufacturing Company.

Her beloved son, George Howard Walker and brother "Jack" Sigar preceded her in death. She leaves behind to cherish her memory two nephews, James and Randy Sigar, her sister-in-law, Opal Sigar, a very special friend and care giver Selena Wilkinson, several cousins, great nieces & nephews, and family friends.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace be thing."
The weary hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights, are passed.
The ever patient worn out frame,
Has found sweet Rest at last!

With Love,
The Family

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless
tossing passed:
I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder how I so calmly trod the valley of shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
And he came himself to meet me in that way
so hard to tread.
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, could have no doubt or dread.
Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love
you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you. So you must not idly stand:
Do it now, while life remaineth - You shall rest in Jesus' land when that work is all completed. He will gently call you home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy
to see you come!*

Obituary

SYLVIA SAMANTHA SILER

November 15, 1967 – October 1, 2011

A TIME TO BE BORN:

On November 15, 1967 in Chattanooga, Tennessee, God sent a sweet precious angel to the world by the name of Sylvia Samantha Siler to Catherine Clark Siler and Stewart Columbus Siler.

A TIME TO BID FAREWELL:

On October 1, 2011 at Tranquility Hospice in Austell, Georgia; God saw that His beautiful masterpiece was growing weary, so He reached down and picked her up to rest in His arms eternally.

A TIME TO ACCEPT CHRIST:

While visiting her grandmother, Carrie Clark, in Hartwell, Georgia on a summer vacation from Kentucky, Sylvia joined Zion CME Church. Through the years, she developed a sincere relationship with Christ and became a scholar in understanding and applying His words to her life.

A TIME TO BE EDUCATED:

She graduated from Danville High School in Danville, Kentucky in 1987 and later attended Kentucky State University.

A TIME TO REFLECT:

Sylvia was a talented, self-taught seamstress, hair stylist, interior designer, and Health Guru. She had an artistic eye for fashion and could always be found working on her next "masterpiece creation".

A TIME TO CHERISH:

She was preceded in death by her grandparents: Joe Worley and Carrie Ethel Clark; two uncles: James and Tyrone Clark of Hartwell, Georgia.

Those left to cherish her beautiful memories are her loving Mother: Catherine Clark Siler of Kennesaw, Georgia and Father: Stewart Columbus Siler of Herman, Tennessee; Sister: Monica Michelle Clark of Kennesaw, Georgia; Brother: Stephenson Chancey of Marietta, Georgia; paternal grandmother Trixie Mae Siler of Rockwood, Tennessee; Aunts: Mary Jo (Orlander) Teasley, Betty (Frankie) Teasley, Vickie (Marion) Crawford and Bessie L. Clark; Uncles: Benny (Louise) Clark and Leon Clark of Hartwell, Georgia, Two Great-Aunts: Mattie (Robert) Jordan and Mary Ruth (Haywood) Isom; along with a host of cousins and friends.

OBITUARY

We part with our loved ones, but not forever, if we trust God's promise and doubt it never.

Lizzie Mae Scott was born June 16th, 1896 in Danville, Ky. She was the daughter of the late George and Alice Craig Scott. She departed this life June 1, 1988 at Fellowship House after a long illness.

At an early age she joined First Baptist Church and remained a faithful member until her health declined. She was an active member of the Sunday School and Men's and Woman's Improvement Club of the church. She was also a member of the Domestic Economy Feduated Club, and the Danville, Kentucky Civic Club. She attended Bate School and was a 1911 graduate.

She was married to Luther Silverburg who preceded her in death many years ago.

She leaves to mourn her passing, one niece and nephew, Ruth and Wallace Hines of Cleveland, Ohio. Three foster children, Cornelius, Tarrence, Theora Coates and Elizabeth Boyd. One foster grandson, Tommy Coates and many devoted friends.

*Shall I pass through waves of sorrow?
Then I know it will be best,
Though I cannot tell the reasons,
I can trust, and so am blest,
God is love, and God is faithful,
So in perfect Peace I rest.*
