Just Sleeping

*Now the laborer's task is over
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.*

*There the tears of earth are dried;
There its hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a greater judge than here.*

*"Earth to earth and dust to dust."
Calmly now the words we say;
Left behind, we wait in trust
For the resurrection day.*

*Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave me now Thy servant
sleeping.*

Jesse,

From the moment I first laid eyes on you, I wanted to protect you, I wanted to comfort you. I wanted to hold you. Through the years I watched you be hurt by others, ridiculed and I hurt for you while you smiled. Through your struggles with your sickness all I could do was try to comfort you, protect you and I hurt and you smiled. As I tried to take away your pain, you tried to take away my pain and you smiled.

As I tried to protect you and embraced you, you tried to do the same to me. Thank you for being my protector, for trying to take care of me. Baby, even when you couldn't take care of yourself. You were a soldier, and inspiration, with a heart big enough to try to take care of the world. God gave me thirty-eight wonderful years and that forever smile. God knew you had enough and called you home.

You gave your love and compassion, your work is done. Rest Baby Rest. I know you will be looking down on me. Still try to take care of us! Thanks for the love and respect you showed me.

My Son -----My Soul
Your strength, your love, your faith
Your hope and all your courage,
Your goodness over shadowed your faults.
God couldn't have given me a better son.
Thanks for the respect you given me!!!!!!
We all Love You
A wink, A smile

"I love you more baby rest!!!!" Let Go"

Obituary

On Friday, March 12, 2010, Jesse J. Wade departed this life at 7:30 a.m. at St. Vincent Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, where God called him home after a long illness. Jesse J. Wade was born June 22, 1971 to Bethel Chenault Wade and Jesse Wade, who precedes him in death. Jesse was a member of First Baptist Church Danville. He graduated from Danville High School in 1992 and also received his degree in Graphic Arts in Paintsville, Kentucky. He leaves to cherish in his memories his mother, Bethel Wade, a sister, Loretta Wade Caldwell, a nephew Deonte O'Brien Caldwell and a niece Briante Caldwell; two uncles Harvey and George Chenault; three aunts, Loretta Taylor, Rita Lanier Bowman, all of Danville, Kentucky and Christine Valentine of Murfreesboro, Tennessee; other relatives and friends.

To My Brother,

MY brother, my daddy and my protector I miss you so very, very, much. Half of me is gone, I feel so lost but I know you are going to a better place. I wanted so much to hear your voice, to hug you, to see your smile. You have always been there for me. What do I do now? You're not here to wipe my tears this time.

I miss you JJ, I wasn't ready for you to go. We didn't get to do all the things we wanted to do together. I didn't get to tell you how much you meant to me and how proud I was to be your sister. Why can't I hear you say LO LO? I know it's going to be alright JJ. I want you here with me, I am trying to understand but it's so hard. Hold me in your arms. I know you will still be with me in my heart and mind. Love you JJ.

LO LO

To Everyone

To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen,
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard,
So as you stand upon a shore,
Gazing at the beautiful sea,
Remember me.
Remember me in your heart, in your thoughts,
And the memories of the time we loved,
The times we shared, the times we laughed,
The times we sang.
For if you always thinks, of me,
I will never be gone.

She professed faith in Christ October 21, 1928 and was baptized November 22, 1928. She was very active member of the First Baptist Church in Perryville, Kentucky.

Sometime we sit and wonder
We ask the question why?
Why God takes away whats dear
To us, Why did he let her die?

As we look above for answers, with Eyes full of sorrowful tears.
We can feel the presence of God.
And know theres nothing to fear.

For everything God does, theres a
Purpose and a reason
Just like he makes the rain fall
And the way he changes the seasons.

So now we've put our faith in God, He's waiting for her I know
She's gone away
But that's okay
She finally made it home.

Wife, Mother, Grandmother Too

Somewhere in our hearts, beneath all of this pain is a smile we still wear at the sound of your name.
The precious word is "Wife and Mother", she was our rock you see. But now our hearts are breaking she's no longer here with us.

God chose her for his angel to watch us from above. To guide us and advise us and know that we're still loved.

The day she had to leave us, Her life on earth was through.
But God had better plans for her, for this, I surely knew.

When I think of her kind heart an all those loving years,
Because we're only human they're bound to bring us tears.
She truly was our best friend, someone we could confide in
She always had a tender touch, a soft and gentle smile.

We want to thank you Mother for teaching us so well,
Even though the time has come, that we must bid farewell.

I'll remember all you've taught me to put God above all Others..... For we had no better teacher,

Thank you.....Our Dear Wife and Mother.

Sunset and Evening Star

✓ One clear call for me

And may there be no mourning

At the Bar when I put out to Sea.

Twilight and Evening Bells

And after that the Dark

May there be no Sadness

Of farewell when I embark

God's Garden

God looked around his garden,
And he found an empty place.
And then he looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
And lifted you to rest.
Gods garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Please be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you.
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

I know it's hard, but try to understand,
Things are well with one, here in Glory land.
I wish I could have stopped and bid one last goodbye,
But I was gone in such a hurry and believe it,
God Knows Why. I heard a voice from heaven say,
"Walk," it's time to go; My flight took off as quick as I stepped into the door. I had no trouble landing, though I've never flown before. For I felt a calm assurance when God met me at the door. And oh, when I arrived here in my brand new home, I took one look around and found I'm not alone. I see my loved ones who flew ahead of me, they are here in glory to spend eternity. That flight will be returning to bring you one by one. And please, my darling family, don't leave with your work undone. So instead of all the crying or worrying how it must have been,
Rejoicing and knowing for certain we are going to meet again.

Acknowledgement

Surely these words ring true today for us.
Your presence, the lovely floral arrangements received,
the beautiful words spoken, the inspirational songs sung, all acts of kindness and your fervent prayers have all truly been comforting and have sustained us during this difficult time. We especially want to thank Rev. Hearn and First Baptist for your support and friendship to daddy. May God bless each of you.

~ His Life Story ~

To be Born

Henry Thomas Walker was born May 6, 1945, to Johnny H. and Bertha M. Walker in Washington County, Kentucky. He was the fifth of six siblings.

He attended Bethlehem School in Washington County, Kentucky, and upon his family's relocation to Perryville, Kentucky, he attended Bate School and graduated from Bate High School in 1963.

Love of God

He accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at a young age and was a baptized member of Godloe's Chapel. After relocating to Perryville, he united with First Baptist Perryville where he served as Head Trustee, member of the Brotherhood and Mass Choirs, President and treasurer of the Brotherhood Club, and attended Sunday School and Bible Study, to name a few. He was not ashamed to witness for the Lord. He often stated he couldn't sit still and not say how good the Lord had been to him. Henry's love for children made sure that a special "someone" attended the Christmas program. He would be the first to say "I can't carry a tune but I love to sing." His favorite songs were "I'm Just a Nobody Trying to Tell Somebody About Jesus" and "I Won't Complain." He was truly a dedicated and faithful member.

A Husband's and Fathers' Love

On December 19, 1964, Henry united in marriage to Betty Charles McCowan. This union was blessed with six children. He strongly believed that he was to provide for his family, which he did by holding a full-time job, cutting tobacco, and operating an auto repair shop. He loved and enjoyed his children and grandchildren, both immediate and extended, that grew up in his home. He often gave them advice called "Henry-isms." To know Henry was to love him and always be on guard to have a disagreement about anything. Everyone knew, you didn't call him at 4:00 p.m. as that was his "Young and the Restless" time. His favorite pastime was buying and working on cars and riding his motorcycle. His philosophy was "buy used, not new."

His Career

He retired from Kroger Corporation in 2007 after 44 years of service. Henry told it like this...at age 17, he didn't have a choice when it came to taking a job at Kroger. His mother, who worked at the home of Richard Morris, the manager of Kroger at the time, made him take it. "She didn't give me a second choice". He started his career as a bagger and ended his career as head produce manager. He also served as President of the Local Union.

With the Lord

Henry departed this physical life on Monday, April 22, 2013. When God summoned him home, he gained victory over trials and tribulations he faced and earned his just reward for his dedicated walk with the Lord. He was an exceptional man and his acts of kindness will forever be remembered. He was greeted in heaven by his wife, Betty, parents, Johnny and Bertha Walker, grandson Nicholas Morris, three siblings, Rosie Mary Hargrave, John Bill Walker and Carl Allen Walker.

Never To Be Forgotten

He is survived by six children, Karen (Kevin) Morris, Henry (Kelly) Walker, Jr. Anthony "Tony" (Kyndle) Walker, Shana Cowherd, Johnny (Jeneen) Walker and Melissa "Kim" Warren; two sisters, Faye (James) Johnson and Clara Ann Leslie; three in-laws, Mae Walker, Diane (Leon) Smith and Dallas McCowan; fifteen grandchildren and one great grandchild; host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Beyond an open gate
All have been invited
Where friends and loved ones wait
It holds eternal promise
Of everlasting peace
No pain or sorrow ever comes
And teardrops there have ceased
Abundant life is evident
Constant, fresh and new
A garden of provision
With eternity in view
The promise is awaiting
A place we can abide
Fulfilled for all who answer

OBITUARY

Mr. Joe F. Walker was born on August 8th, 1931 to the late Joe Hattie Walker and Porter Walker. Was called home on Sunday February 2, 1997 at Emphaim McDowell Regional Medical Center.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age and was baptized at 1st Baptist Church Danville, KY, where he was a member of the Glee Club and the Male Chorus. He attended Old Bate School. After moving to Cincinnati he united The Bethel Baptist Church and was a retired Steel Mill worker.

When God in his infinite power and wisdom saw that the road was rough and the going had gotten mighty mighty tough, as Ecclesiastes 3:1, so beautifully tells us there is a time and a season for every purpose under the heaven. God saw it was time for another flower to continue to grow in his garden of love, so he called our brother, father, uncle, loved one and friend to come on in.

He leaves to mourn his passing a devoted sister Johnetta Chenault of Danville, KY, a brother Porter Walker of Cincinnati, OH; four children Emma Cowherd of Lebanon, KY, Tish O'Rea, Jonathan Mucker both of Danville, KY and Dee Dee Camp of Cincinnati, OH; five grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

God looked around his garden
And He found an empty place.

He then looked down upon this earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best

He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

*A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion
and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish

For nothing can destroy it

It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters

And it glows with all the beauty

I'll open up my heart and know it's true,

And died beloved by all.*

*You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.*

*The voice is mute and stilled the heart,
That loved us well and true,
Oh, bitter was the trial to part

She was the widow of the late Rev. G.L. Walker. To that union was born seven children. She was a loving and caring mother. *The call was sudden, the shock severe Little did we know such grief was near.
Only one that has lost
Can tell the pain of parting without farewell.
God took her home,
Rest she will,
But in our hearts she liveth still.
The flowers we lay upon her grave may wither and decay
But the love we have for her will never fade away.
We loved her but God loved her best and
He took her home to rest.*

The Chain Will Link Again

God looked around his garden
And He found an empty place.

He then looked down upon this earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best

He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Obituary

Robert A. Walker Jr. "Mr. Bob" 59, of 3505 Danada Drive and husband of Verry Hall Walker, went home to be with the Lord Wednesday June 29, 2005 at his home. A native of Boyle Co. Kentucky, born May 19, 1946, he was the son of the late Robert A. Walker, Sr. and Louise Brown Walker.

He confessed hope in Christ at an early age and became a member of Shiloh Baptist Church in 1975 under the pastorate of the late Rev. G. H. Childs Sr.

A graduate of Boyle County High and Kentucky College of Business he was active within the community, volunteered with the Fayette County Public Schools during the Christmas holiday and dressed as Santa Claus for the Elementary children, he was also supportive in feeding the hungry. Self-employed for 17 years, he owned and operated a grocery store, laundry mat, and Pool Room on West Fifth Street across from Russell Elementary School.

He was a long time employee of the LFUCG Streets & Roads Division and was a veteran of the Vietnam War serving in the United States Army. He always had a smile and words of wisdom for everybody. "Big Bob" appreciated good times, and he loved to travel with the clubhouse social club. Fun loving and generous, in the time of need he was always ready to help, if able, but always with a little fatherly advice to go along with his support. His sense of humor could make difficult situations easier, however he was always straightforward and had an opinion in any situation.

Walker; four grandchildren, Allan George III, William Wilkinson, Jr., Kesha and Brandon Walker; two great-grandchildren; eight siblings, Katherine (Charles) Berry, Janice Andrews, Clark Walker, Donald (Johnetta) Walker, Sr., Larry Walker, Sr., Carl Walker, Audrea Walker Mack and Robert Loron Walker; step-mother, Lorraine Walker; in-laws, Marilyn Culver, Johnetta (David) Barnett, Wendell (Bonita) Hall, Leland Hall, Paul (Sandra) Hall, Joyce Ann Owsley and Doris Johnson; and host of aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews other relatives and friends.

Acknowledgements

The family of Robert "Bobby" Walker, Jr. wishes to acknowledge with grateful appreciation all kind expressions of sympathy shown them during their bereavement.

"Miss Me- But Let Me Go"

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little--but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me--But Let me Go!*

Acknowledgment

The family of Rosie May Walker would like to thank everyone for their expression of sympathy and acts of kindness. Special Thanks to Bro. McCowan and Rev. Hearn, our church families and friends. May God continue to bless you.

A Flower Has Fallen

*A Flower has fallen, It stands strong no more....
A soul has crossed over entering heaven's door.*

The hands of our Savior reached down from above, caressing the flower that I dearly loved.

*"Dear Jesus, I pray thee, let everyone know.
This flower was special.. It was hard to let go,
but by your grace extended.*

*Deep down in my heart sweet memories linger
though we are apart, you bring comfort and peace and a smile to my face for my flower's now thriving in a much better place.*

It will not grow older, it's beauty won't fade, It lives on forever, this flower You made!"

Daddy

I will never say goodbye to you Daddy, because I know this is not the end, and one day soon I'll see you again. You will only be going to a place where there's no pain nor suffering. I am happy for you, for you will be with God. For now we need to go our separate ways.

I remember how your arms held me and gave me strength. You were always there to listen, love, and defend me in everything. In my triumphs you were always proud. I'm very grateful and proud to call you my Daddy. Here deep inside my heart you'll always be. I would give up everything I have just to hear your voice one more time. I remember the last time I held your hand and how you looked in my eyes. If only I could turn back the time I would have never let you go. I felt the world stop and my heart stop beating when they told me you were gone.....

How I wish I was only dreaming. Just like the rain; tears fell down from my eyes, and I couldn't speak for a while, but today I smile and say, Thank you Daddy....For always understanding, listening, caring, and loving me.

One of the greatest gifts God gave me was YOU..... my Daddy...It's difficult to let you go but I must...I must return the gift God gave me...Till then; See you in Heaven.....

Love Your Baby Girl,

Tosha

Footprints

One night a man had a dream.
He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Across the sky flashed scenes from his life.
For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand;
one belonged to him and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him,
he looked back at the footprints in the sand.
He noticed that many times along the path of his life
there was only one set of footprints.
He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it.
*"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,
you'd walk with me all the way.
But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times
in my life, there is only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why when I needed you most,
you would leave me."*

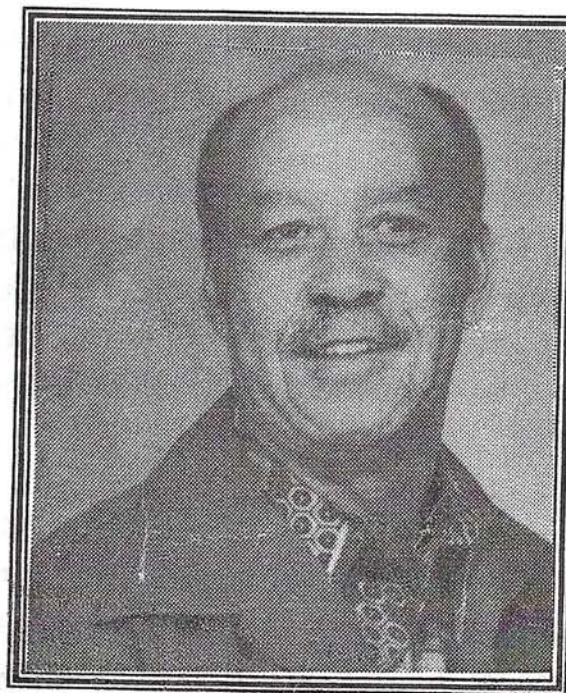

The Lord replied, *"My precious, precious child,
I love you and I would never leave you.
During your time of trial and suffering,
when you see only one set of footprints,
it was then that I carried you."*

The family wishes to extend its thanks to all of you who've been supportive with your kind words, thoughts and actions.

She Is Just Away

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead, she is just away...
With a cherry smile and a wave of her hand
She has wandered into a better land.

Think of her still as the same I say

*No not cold beneath the grasses
Not close walled within the tomb
Rather, in My Father's Mansion
Living in another room.
Shall we blame My Father's wisdom
Shall we sit bowed in gloom
When we know our love is happy
Waiting in another room.
We won't doubt our Father's Mercy
We won't think of death as doom
It's just stepping o'er the threshold
To a bigger, brighter room.*

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now:
He set me free.

God sits high and God looks low.
He sent down His Angel
And Andrew flew home,
Where there is no more sorrow or pain,
From the world we live in.

We deeply appreciate your kind expressions of sympathy in our time of great sorrow. Thank you for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers. Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us all day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

*God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around you
And whispers, "Come with me"
With tear filled eyes we watched you
Suffer and fade away.
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

God's Gift

A beautiful child sent from God above, blessed with happiness and love.
An Angel on earth that shined like a light,
hugs and kisses so sweet and tight.
We will always remember
the love that you gave us,
deep in our hearts, you will never leave us.
I thank God for giving us Sioubhan,
her love with us will always go on.
The pain I feel will never go away.
I know I will see you in Heaven one day.
King of Kings, Lord of Lords,
please take care of this child for us.
Please show her your mercy,
love and grace.
Show her that heaven is a beautiful place.
Please hear our prayers we send to you
Please take care of Sioubhan,
we called her Boo.

OBITUARY

*Since death has come to claim his own
And I must cross the tide
I'm going where tears can never come
Just peace and love abides*

Lancaster, Ky. January 15, 1969

On Saturday afternoon, Jan. 11, at the Garrard Memorial Hospital, death again invaded our ranks and quietly claimed for his own the soul of our husband, brother, Deacon and friend, Mr. Bradley Warren. He has been in failing health for over three years, but has born his affiliations with much patience and fortitude. Our hearts are sad and lonely today and our heads are bowed in humble submission to him who doeth all things well.

Mr. Warren was the son of the late Sam and Mary Turner Warren, born in Madison County, Aug. 22, 1896 and was 73 years 4 mos. and 20 days old at time of his passing. From his early childhood he was reared in Garrard county, where he has many friends.

He was united in Holy wedlock to Miss Mary Georgia Pollard (Dec. 29, 1920) to this union no children were born but in this home he reared a foster son whom he loved as his own.

He professed hope in Christ and joined the St. Paul Presbyterarian Baptist church under the Pastorate of Rev. Wm. Covington, where he remained a loyal member and a diligent worker until his health failed him, he served in the capacity of Trustee, Church Treasurer and has been an ordained Deacon for over 15 years.

He has worked hard and long as long as he was able, he was a loyal and honest citizen and a true friend.

His survivors are his wife, Mrs. Mary Georgia Warren, a foster son Mr. George Hughes, one sister, Mrs. Stella Thompson, all of Garrard county, two sister-in-laws, Mrs. Ellen Pollard Raymond, Chicago, Mrs. Eva Pollard, Cleveland, O, one brother-in-law, Mr. Milford Raymond, Chicago, two nieces, one nephew, several great nieces and nephews, first cousins and other relatives and a host of friends.

*Home at last, home at last,
Anchored safe on Heaven's shore with friends and loved ones gone before
Home at last.
Home at last from bondage free
all heaven's glories' now to see and with the Saviour ever to be
Home at last.
Home at last inside the gate amid the joys supremely great there for loved ones of earth to wait
Home at last, Yes home at last.*

Think of her still as the same, I say,
She is not dead — she is just away.*

Rejoice With Me In Death

Wipe away your tear and don't cry
Because I had to die.

I couldn't choose the time nor type of death,
But where I'm going I'll have no regrets.

I've talked to the Maker
And He's never been a forsaker.

He brought me up from the midst of my trials
Removing all doubts and denials.

Rejoice with me as I sleep.
My body is gone but now my spirit is with the Lord to keep.

Even though my body will turn to debris,
My soul is free.

I'm going to a new city
Where I won't have to grieve in pity.

Rejoice with me.
I'm going to see the Heavenly.

I don't have to suffer pain anymore in this land,
For I'm waiting to proceed onto the judgment stand,
Hoping to sit at God's right hand.

My journey is over and now complete.
The Battles have been won, oh what a great feat!

Don't be said for me,
I've waited for this day to see the Father, Son,
and Holy Ghost, oh yes all three!

So my brothers and sisters continue the ride,
I'm just one step on the other side.

She professed hope in Christ at an early age at White Oak Baptist Church. She was also a Watch Care Member at Pleasant Run, Buckeye. Later years became a member of St. Paul Predestinarian Baptist church, where she was treasurer of the Sunday School for many years. She was also active in the Women in White Association.

*In tears we saw you sinking,
And saw you fade away.
Our hearts were truly broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful, free of pain.*

*How could we wish you back with
Us to go thru' that again.
A golden heart stopped beating.
Two busy hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He always takes the best.*

Perhaps you sang a lovely song, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, or sent a gift my way.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Obituary

Mary Wade Warren

Mary Wade Warren was the second of eight children, and the oldest daughter born to loving parents, Charles and Anna Wade. She made her entrance into the world in 1915 in Harrodsburg, Kentucky. Life among her many siblings created many warm memories during her early years.

Mary accepted Christ at a young age; she was baptized in Perrysburg, Kentucky. Her love of Christ was expressed through many years of devoted service. Her aptitude for figures and her zeal for church initiatives continued as late as 2005. It was not until then that she relinquished her post as Secretary of the Building Fund for First Baptist Church, in Frankfort, Kentucky.

Mary had a dream, and the fortitude to make her ambitions a realization. After graduation from West Side School in 1952, she enrolled in Kentucky State College. She obtained her Bachelor's Degree in History and Government, but was, also, insightful enough to do the necessary additional coursework for an Elementary Teaching certificate

Her first teaching assignment employed all of her skills and training. Her "baptism by fire" was in a one room schoolhouse in Casey County near Stanford, Kentucky. One year later, she accepted the challenge presented by yet another one room school in Taylor County, near Campbellsville, in both instances; Mary was responsible for grades one through eight. She humorously commented to some that she literally worked herself to death in her first three years of teaching. On the contrary, her brilliant career covered forty-two years. It was spearheaded with on-going enthusiasm and energized by a sense of mission.

Mary took great pride in her students' accomplishments. When she began teaching, the local Board of Education administered a comprehensive eight grade examination. Passage of this test was necessary for certification completion of eighth grade. Mary was "pleased as punch" to report that her students rarely failed this examination.

Mary had career roots in Harrodsburg, also, at her former school, West Side School. Additionally she taught in Richmond, Kentucky and Lexington, Kentucky. In 1965, she was employed in Franklin County where she taught at Elkhorn Elementary and Elkhorn Middle School until her well-earned retirement in 1980. What an illuminous flame she bore, for her students, kindergarten to grade eight, decade after decade – a flame created by a dedicated professional with a love for students, for learning and for the artistry of her craft.

In 1936, Mary married Mark Warren. This beautiful marriage lasted sixty years until her husband's passing in 1996. Mary and Mark were blessed with an only son, Mark III. Mary happily committed to her son's early growth and development as full-time mother. She resumed her career in the early forties.

Mark, now deceased was the love of their lives, "Buddy", as he was fondly called was an Emmy Award winning television director. "Laugh In" was the showcase for his extraordinary talent. He graced Mary with seven delightful grandchildren, and subsequently, she even became a great-grandmother. The families reside in California.

Mary was truly faithful alumnae of Kentucky State College. Every year at homecoming, she was known to host a gala party, complete with many of the family favorites. The party was an annual event enjoyed by fellow alumni.

One could say, without a doubt, that she was set in her ways as evidenced by her self-satisfying use of a wringer washer despite all the modern wonders of technology in the twenty first century. Surely, we remember her as an entrepreneur at a very early age. You name it! She could design it, fix it and make it. Perhaps she could have been an earlier version of Martha Stewart.

Mary was preceded death by her husband, Mark Warren: son, Mark Warren III; sisters, Margaret Wade Williams and Fannie Wade Barlow; brothers, Charles Wade, Ernest Wade, and Bennie Wade.

During Mary's declining years, she was blessed to have constant and devoted care by her beloved nephew, Ronnie Wade and niece, Wanda Wade. Also mourning her loss are cherished brothers and sister: Sam Wade (Nadine), James Wade (Helen), Cleveland, Ohio one sister, Susie B. Walker in Bardstown, Kentucky; three grandsons: André (Christy) Warren, Brian (Lori) Warren and Christopher (Lisa) Warren; seven great-grandchildren. one daughter-in-law Beryl Warren, Many nieces, nephews, numerous family members and devoted friends.

THE FAMILY

AUNT SALLIE

It seems like only yesterday
You held me on your knee.
You told me all kinds of things
That this old world would bring.
As time did turn your hair to grey
Those things you said went not away.
One thing I will hold so dear
Those things you said will keep you near.
Tho, pain can no more cross you path
I know we all will feel the lack.
Of having you to soothe the pain.
Because we must let you go
It's easier because God loved you so.
Say hello to all that's there for me
And again once more their faces I'll see.
So dear Aunt Sallie rest peacefully.

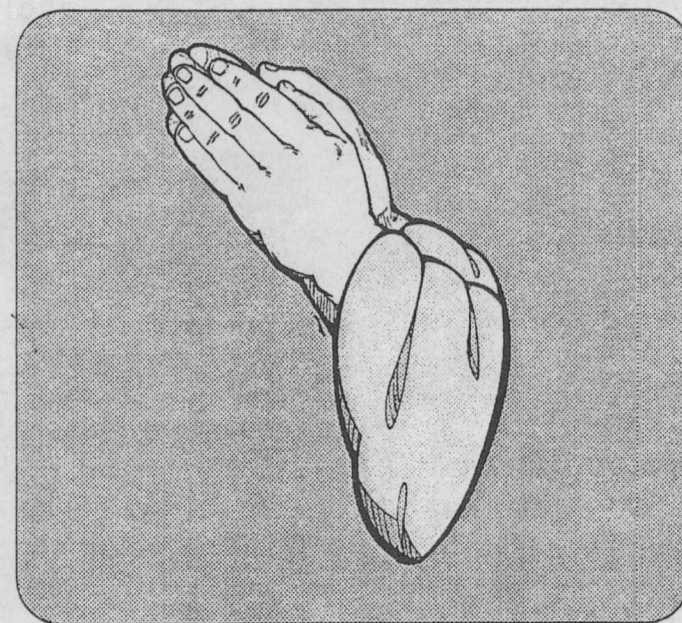

YOUR FAMILY.

When All Is Done

*When all is done, and my last word
is said,
And ye who loved me murmur,
"He is dead,"
Let no one weep, for fear that
I should know,
And sorrow too, that ye should sorrow so.
When all is done, say not my day is o'er
And that through night I seek a dimmer shore;
Say rather that my morn has
just begun,
I greet the dawn and not
a setting sun,
When all is done.*
