- Obituary -

There is a place we call Memory, a province by itself, which though unseen, is home and haven to the heart. And there, in peace and beauty waiting, are those with whom we shared our yesterdays.

Hattie Louise (nee) Mason Washington was born on September 14, 1910 in Burgin, KY. One of nine children of the late Fount and Nettie Hollie Mason. She joined Burgin AME Church in her early teens and became a member of St John AME Zion Church in March 1946 under the pastorate of the late Rev Percy R. Washington and was a faithful member until her death.

She was a former member of the Senior Sanctuary Choir, a Conference Worker, Silver Stars and Christian Women United. She remained a Life Member of the Missionary Society and Lay Council until her death.

She leaves to cherish her memory one brother, Elbert Mason, Cincinnati, Ohio; three sisters, Mary E. Grey, Catherine Goree and Thelma Gray, Cincinnati, Ohio; two sisters-in-law and two brothers-in-law, along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

She was possessed of a willing and cooperative spirit and will be sorely missed.

Anything entrusted to God's keeping Anything turned over to His care
Is changed into a new and precious blessing
A timeless, priceless gift beyond compare.

Sadly missed,
The Family

Tribute

*God saw you were getting weary,
So, he did what he thought best,
He came and stood beside you, and whispered,
"Come and Rest"
You bid no one a last farewell,
Not even said "Goodbye"
The heavenly gates just opened wide,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.

*There's an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone
And there in light we cannot see.
Our father claims his own
Beyond the gate your loved one finds happiness and rest
And there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best.*

We Believe.....

*Sometimes it's hard to understand and harder still to say
"Thy Will be done" when sorrow comes and sadness fills our day.
But faith was meant for a time like these,
and if we take God's hand
With loving wisdom He will help,
Our hearts to understand.*

I Needed the Quiet

I need the quiet so He drew me aside
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.
I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay,
He loved me so greatly, He drew me away.
I needed the Quiet, no prison by bed
But a beautiful valley of blessing instead.
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside.

Her Morning Prayer

Lord in the quiet of this morning hour I come to Thee for peace, wisdom and power, To view the world today through love filled eyes, To be patient gentle and wise, To see beyond what seems to be and know Thy children as Thou knowest them and naught but the good in anyone behold. Make deaf my ears to slander that is told, silence my tongue to ought that is unkind.

*Let only thoughts that bless dwell in my mind. Let me so kindly be so full of cheer, that all I meet may feel Thy presence near.
Oh, clothe me in Thy beauty, this I pray. Let me reveal the Lord through all the day, Though in pain Father, I am trusting.*

Obituary

First Lady Weathers was born August 2, 1952, to the late Elder William and Lady Christine Payne, in Adair County. She transitioned from this life to glory, on Tuesday, February 24, 2009 at the UK Hospital, following a brief illness. First Lady Weathers lived a full and abundant life, being very influential and loving to all she met. Her trademark quickly became the brilliant and warm smile, of which she was so well known.

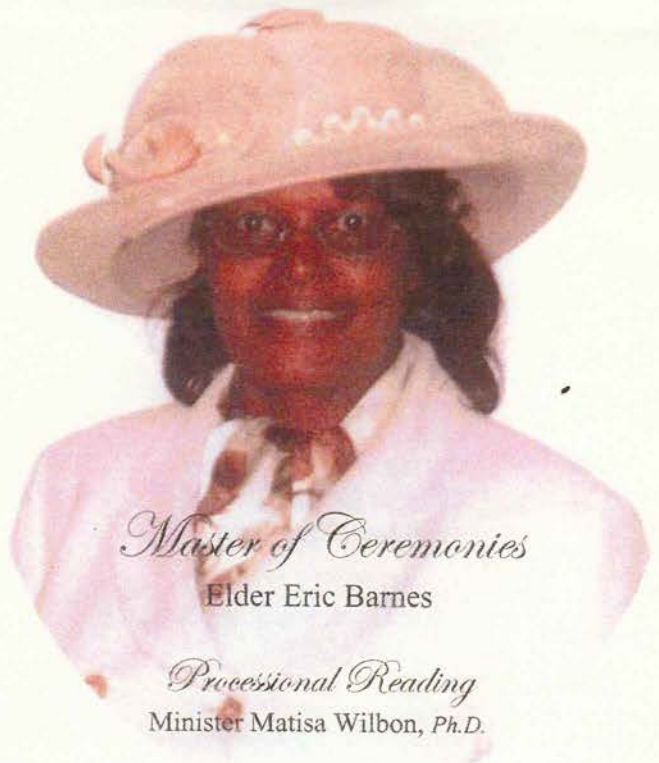

First Lady Weathers served alongside her loving husband, Bishop Larry Weathers, Sr. as the Co-Founder of the Vision Church of Holiness in Danville, KY. First Lady Weathers was the epitome of what a Godly wife should be. Her unselfish, yet profound love of her husband, Bishop Weathers, was evident and freely expressed as she was his "biggest cheerleader". She made sure he could always hear her audible and see her physical support. Within her role as First Lady, she was used mightily by God in the gifts of healing and prophecy, with confirmed reports of divine healing and breakthrough. Among many other interests, she had a sincere passion for counseling and providing support for incarcerated women and single mothers; bringing them to a position of independency. A strong advocate for education, which she instilled in her children, she received her Bachelor's degree from Eastern Kentucky University, while working full-time and maintaining her pertinent daily responsibilities.

First Lady Weathers also achieved great accomplishment and accolade in her career experience. She excelled successfully as a top-level executive with National City Bank. Her stellar work performance and uncanny leadership ability was widely recognized and respected by all. Along with all the responsibilities she held, First Lady Weathers, yet found time to further extend herself in helping the community. This was accomplished by volunteering her time with United Way, Kentucky School for the Deaf, Boyle County Chamber of Commerce and at Salvation Army.

Often we stand at life's crossroads, and view what we think is the end. But God has a much bigger vision, and He tells us it's only a bend. For God never sends the winter, without the joy of spring, and who today our hearts may cry, Tomorrow they will sing.

The family thanks everyone for all acts of love and kindness during their bereavement.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
 paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
 for thou art with me: thy rod and
 thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
 thou anointest my head with oil:
 my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
 me all the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever

*No one sought the Father
And found He was not there,
And no burden is too heavy
To be lightened by a prayer,
No problem is too intricate
And no sorrow that we face
Is too deep and devastating
To be softened by His grace,
No trials and tribulations
Are beyond what we can bear
If we share them with our Father
As we talk to Him in prayer.*

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, Please try to understand an angel came and called my name, Then took me by the hand. The Beauty here is ecstasy, No need to grieve or carry on, Go on and live with peace each day, I'm home where I belong. Dismiss the heartache and pain, Put all your sorrows to rest. Though some things did not come easily, In life I did my best. I'm free of pain and suffering. So do not weep for me, With eyes closed for a final time, Tomorrow will not be. So when tomorrow starts without me, Do not think we're far apart, For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

OBITUARY

If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
Even there shall Thy hand lead me and Thy right hand shall hold me.

Psalms 139: 9-10

Mr. Henry Clark Welch, son of Mrs. Lula Welch and the late Mr. Clark Welch, was born September 9, 1922 in Lincoln County, Kentucky and departed this life, Tuesday, February 5, 1985 at the Garrard County Memorial Hospital following an apparent heart attack while attending the Lincoln County - Garrard Basketball Game.

He joined the First Baptist Church, Stanford, at a very early age.

Henry was truly a friend to the community. You could depend on him to help you in any situation. For years he worked with the Rescue Squad, Lincoln County Fire Department, umpired softball games, refereed football games, scorekeeper at basketball games and associated with The Adams Funeral Home for about thirty years. Truly he will be missed by both the young and old. He made many friends throughout his life. He enjoyed helping people regardless of who they were.

He was active in Civic Affairs of the community, and spent his life trying to help counsel and uplift all with whom he came in contact. His love was demonstrated through his concern for humanity.

He was a veteran of World War II.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his mother - Mrs. Lula Welch, Stanford; (2) brothers, James P. Welch and Joe T. Welch, both of Stanford; a niece, whom he reared, Mrs. Jacqueline Walker, Stanford; (2) sons, Kenny Mack Smith, Stanford and Larry Wayne Welch, Burkesville, Kentucky; (3) Grandchildren; (4) Aunts, Mrs. Sarah Keith, Elvira, New York; Mrs. Virginia Brown, Louisville, Kentucky, Mrs. Laura Helm and Mrs. Learlyn Johnson, both of Stanford, Kentucky; several nieces, nephews, cousins and many, many friend.

Grandaddy

*In tears we saw you sinking, and watched you pass away.
Our hearts were almost broken, we wanted you to stay.*

*But when we saw you sleeping, so peaceful, free from pain.
How could we wish you back with us, to suffer that again.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
For a part of us went with you, the day God took you home.*

*If roses grow in heaven, Lord, please pick a bunch for us.
Place them in Grandaddy's arms, and tell him they're from us.*

*Tell him we love him and miss him, and when he turns to smile.
Place a kiss upon his cheek,
and let him know we'll see him again in awhile.*

*Because remembering him is easy, We do it everyday.
But there's an ache within our hearts, that will never go away.*

*Don't think of him as gone away, his journey has just begun.
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting, from the sorrows and the tears.
In a place of warmth and comfort, where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing, that we could know, today.
How nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living, in the hearts of those he touched.
For nothing loved is ever lost, and he is loved so very much.*

To those whom I love and those who love me

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that I have had so many years.

I gave you my love,
You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love each has shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories in your heart.

I will not be far away; for life goes on
So if you need me, call, and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart;
You will hear all of my love around you soft and clear.

Then, when you must come this way alone,
I will greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home".

Mary Alice Ramish

*There's an open gate at the end of the road
Thru which each must go alone.
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims His own.
Beyond the gate our loved ones finds
Happiness and rest.
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.*

PSALM 23

A Psalm of David

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrows through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
    And for my sake and in His name,
    Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I, in turn, will comfort you and hold you near.
    And never, never be afraid to die,
    For I am waiting for you in the sky.

Etta Belle White the eldest of nine children of Arthur and Jeannetta Smith, was born September 8, 1916 in Davistown near Danville, Kentucky. A Chicagoan from age 1, Etta Belle graduated from Frances E. Willard Elementary and Englewood High Schools. She was baptized as a teen at Progressive Community Church and sang in the choir. Etta Belle was a striking beauty as a young woman and even won a beauty contest.

Etta Belle had a strong work ethic and met many friends through her jobs which included Gaylord Hairpin Factory. She also enjoyed a good time with friends which continued until the end such as her weekly meeting with the card group at the 60 East 36th place seniors building. For many years she was a member of the "Mrs." and "Loyalettes" social clubs, meeting with the Loyalettes for their December 2003 club meeting, which was her last.

Through the union of Roosevelt Howard (deceased) and Etta Belle, twins, Robert and Gwendolyn were born. She later married Willie L. White (deceased) which added stepson, Clifford A. White (deceased) to the family. Etta Belle and the twins developed a unique love that went beyond the ordinary mother-child relationship. When they became adults, she loved traveling cross country to visit Robert and later enjoyed special senior trips accompanied by Gwendolyn. Known as "Etta" by some and "Belle" by others, in addition to being "mom" to Gwen and "ma" to Robert; Etta Belle White was fondly called "Sue" by her sister Vickie and "Brown Sugar" by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

After a long and active life, Etta B. White was born into eternity on February 5, 2004 with Gwendolyn and Robert and niece, Cheryl at her side. Remaining to cherish her memory are: siblings, Arthur E. Smith (Dolores) and Victoria Smith-Ross; her devoted children, Robert Howard (Toya) and Gwendolyn Pickett; daughters-in-law, Gladys White and Shirley Campbell Howard; grandchildren, Robin Lynn Howard Jones (Paul), Osville W. ## After Glow

I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
& bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.

Flora's Old House

Beneath the knobs, by the piney woods, Our old house in Boneyville stood Second hand lumber was used to build, The old house our family would fill

Low on one end, high on the other
Stood the old house, built by our Mother, With holes in the roof, we could see the sky, We could watch the clouds floating by

Standing strong against, wind, rain & ice Casting shadows in the bright sunlight, With incomplete rooms not divided right, Our old house was one unique sight

The black siding on the house we burned When cold winds blew and heat we yearned, walls not closed,
the house not complete, But all us
kinds thought the house was neat.

In strong winds we thought the house would fall; but with Mama
there, we braved it all; "Flora's old house, the people would say,
Maybe she'll get a new one someday.

Just Mama and us six, a family together. We braved the heat and stormy weather, with skipper our dog and the runaway hog. Our old house stood through it all.

When it rained outside it rained on our heads, it rained on our couch and rained on our beds. The one lamp we carried from room to room. To scare away ghosts that hid in the gloom

We grew from child hood to adults
there, with homemade beds and a rocking chair, Every now'n then we'd hear Mama shout Get y'all butts off the top of the house!

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!*

INTERMENT

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth--
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Remembering "Lucy"

1952 - 2012

Anna Olivia "Lucy" Whitehead, age 59, departed this life on Thursday, January 12, 2012, at Jewish Hospital, in Louisville, Kentucky.

"Lucy" was born on Sunday, June 22, 1952 in Danville, Kentucky. She was preceded in death by her parents, Emma Thornton Jarmon and Robert E. Thornton, Sr., her sister, Janice Thornton, and her step-father, Foster Jarmon.

"Lucy" professed her life to Christ at an early age. She was a member of First Baptist Church, in Danville, Kentucky; however, she also attended St. James AME Church in Danville, Kentucky. She was a graduate of Danville High School. She remained a housewife until her youngest child graduated from high school and then she began working at Wal-Mart where she was employed until 2001.

She was a devoted wife and mother to her children. She enjoyed cooking, having family gatherings (everybody was always welcome), collecting cookbooks, and talking on the phone with friends and family. She learned how to send text messages about a year ago, and once she got the hang of it, texting became her newest hobby and you could expect to receive a text message from her every day. To know "Lucy" was to love her. She was a very loving, caring, strong-willed woman who always believed in expressing her opinions.

"Lucy" fought a long, hard battle during her illness of 17 years, and when God saw that she was growing weak, He called her home to rest. She leaves to cherish her memories, her beloved and devoted husband of 40 years, George E. Whitehead, Sr.; two daughters, Angeletta D. (Todd Collins) Whitehead and AnnaMaria Colina (Cecil, Jr.) Ford; one son, George E. Whitehead, Jr.; four grandchildren, M'Dre J. Whitehead, Q. Da'Quan Collins, Catavyon A. Whitehead-Webb, and Anayvia D. Whitehead-Webb; a sister, Mae E. Harris, all of Danville, KY; a brother, Robert E. (Jo Ann Metcalf) Thornton, Jr., Stanford, KY; a step-brother, Derrick Jarmon, Fayetteville, NC; three sister-in-laws, Mary M. Whitehead, Harrodsburg, KY, Peggy (Gene) Cozart, Rockwood, TN and Carolyn (Al) Russell, Midtown, TN; three brother-in-laws, William C. Whitehead, Jr., Kingston, TN, James A. Roberts, Knoxville, TN, and Jackie (Felicia) Roberts, Spring City, TN; three "special friends", Nadine Stanley Harper, Dorothy Harper, and Gail Ganns, all of Danville, KY; and also a host of other relatives and friends.

Interment

Hilldale Cemetery
Danville, Kentucky

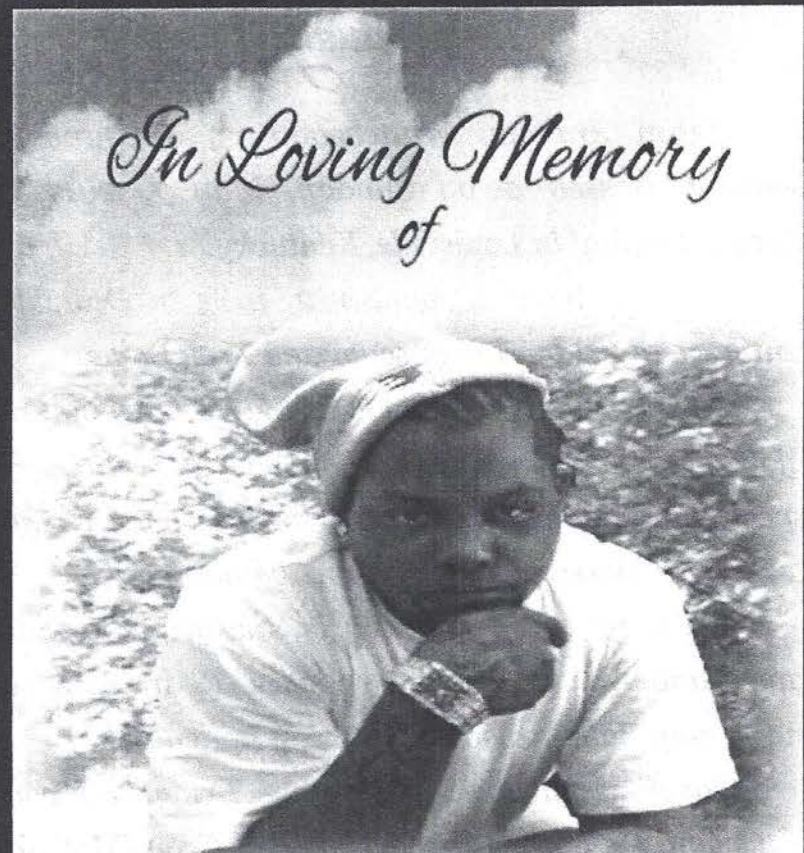

We've missed the sound of your footsteps
And your voice since you have gone
And though we no longer see you,
In our minds you shall live on.
And so we smile in the daytime,
But some nights our hearts are sore,
As we think of the dear one, God took away
To His distant and golden shore.
Even death has its wonderful mission
Though we miss the one we love
It draws us from our surrounding
To long for the meeting above.
He's not dead to us who loved him,
Not lost, but gone before,
He lives with us in memory
And forever more!

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand. And said my place was ready in heaven far above, And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye, for all my life, I'd always thought I didn't want to die; I had so much to live for and so much yet to do, It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad, I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had. If I could relive yesterday, I thought, for just awhile, I'd say good bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile. But then I fully realized that this could never be, For emptiness and memories would take the place of me. And when I thought of worldly things, that I'd miss come tomorrow, I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow. But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne, He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you". Today for life on earth is past but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last, And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past. But you have been so faithful, so trusting, so true. Though there were times you did some things, you knew you shouldn't do. But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free. So won't you take my hand and share my life with me? So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*

 I have shared a lot of wonderful years with.
 Cry not my wife and children, I will always
 Be there with you. I have closed my eyes

No matter where Travis was in life his mother was always there with love and support from his first breath to his last.

Rest In Peace My Son.

*****

God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around you and whispered "Come To Me". With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you slip away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He Only Takes The Best.

I NEEDED THE QUIET

*I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.
Into the shadows where we could confide.
Away from the bustle where all day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.*

*I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings
to Heights never dreamed of when active and gay.
He loved me so greatly He drew me away.*

*I needed the quiet. No prison my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide
I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.*

GOOD DAY

What do I wish when I wish you Good Day?
God's light on your path every step of the way.
His joy in your heart and His love ever near
To guide you and bless you and all you hole dear.

A spirit at peace, and a heart full of praise,
The faith to walk firmly in difficult ways,
Success in each task, from beginning to end,
I wish, when I give you this greeting, my friend.

For a good day is one that is filled, every hour,
With all of God's goodness and beauty and power;
With joyous attainment, good cheer and good health
And riches surpassing earth's vision of wealth;

A good day, a God day... they're one and the same.
I greet you and bless you in Christ's holy name;
May His Presence enfold you, make perfect your way.
I wish you the best when I wish you Good Day!

Some happy day
For God has told us
That nothing can sever
A Life He created
To live forever
So let God's promise
Soften our sorrow

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restored my soul; he leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for his name's sake.*

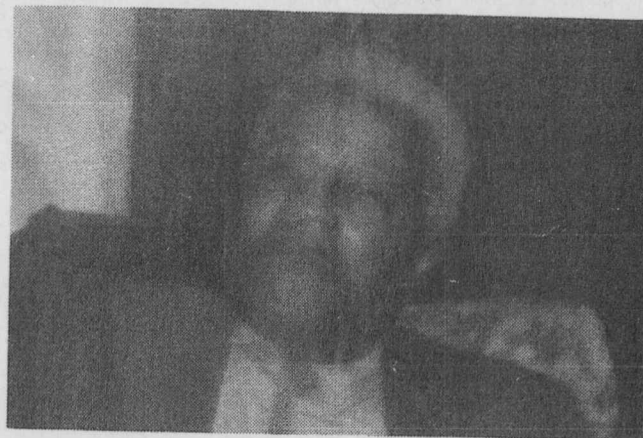

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me; thou rod and
Thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
In the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

To loved one's that still remain

Thus speaketh Christ, our Lord, to us:
Ye call me Master, and obey me not;
Ye call me Light, and see me not;
Ye call me Way, and walk me not;
Ye call me Life, and desire me not;
Ye call me Wise, and follow me not;
Ye call me Fair, and love me not;
Ye call me Rich, and ask me not;
Ye call me Eternal, and seek me not;
Ye call me Gracious, and trust me not;
Ye call me Noble, and serve me not;
Ye call me Mighty, and honor me not;
Ye call me Just, and fear me not;
If I condemn you, blame me not.

THIS I KNOW

I do not know what next may come across my pilgrim way;
I do not know tomorrow's road,
Nor see beyond today;
But this I know - my Saviour knows
The path I cannot see,
And I can trust his wounded hand
To guide and care for me.

I do not know what still awaits,
Or what the morrow brings,
But with the glad salute of faith
I hail its opening wings!
For this I know - that in my Lord
Shall all my needs be met;
And I can trust the heart of Him
Who has not failed me yet.

WHEN SOMEONE DOES A KINDNESS

it always seems to me
That's the way God up in heaven
would like us all to be...
For when we bring some pleasure
to another human heart,
We have followed in His Footsteps and we've had a little part in serving Him who loves us-- for I am very sure it's true
That in serving those around us
We Serve and Please Him, too.

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life; and I will dwell in house of the Lord forever.*

So why should we complain,
We always want the sunshine
But He knows there must be rain.*

*We love the sound of laughter
And the merriment of cheer,
But our hearts would lose their tenderness,
If we never shed a tear.*

He tests us, not to punish us,
But to help us meet tomorrow.*

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please don't grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.*

*But start out bravely with a gallant smile,
and for my sake and in my name,
live on and do all things the same.*

*Freed not your loneliness on empty days,
but fill each waking hour in useful ways.*

*Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
and in turn will comfort you and hold you near;*

*And never never, be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.*

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tune yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many wonderful years.
I give to you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown.
But now its time I travel on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Is only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love, soft and clear.
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with open arms and say,
"Welcome Home"*

God knew the road was getting rough
 the hill to steep to climb

PRAYER

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there
Perhaps you spoke a kind word, as any friend would say
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much
