

DADDY

We are not sad this day, because we know you have gone to a better place.
A place with many mansions.
Although we will miss you, we are glad that you know longer have to suffer.

Our Heavenly Father, knew what he was doing when he took you away from us. You can rest now, you fought a good fight, your spirit can soar now to heights unknown.

Rest now
We will see you on the other side.

Your Loving Son's Wayne

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,

In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

You did not go alone;

For part of us went with you,

The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,

Your love is still our guide;

And though we cannot see you,

You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,

And nothing seems the same;

But as God calls us one by one,

The chain will link again.

The Family

Thank You

We deeply appreciate your kind expression of sympathy and love that you extended to our family during this time of great sadness.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I've followed the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I have found that peace at the close of the day.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up you hearts and share with me
God has me now: He has set me free.

OBITUARY

There is an open gate at the end of the road;
Through which each must go alone,
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims His own.
Beyond the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.

Jake Wilkinson departed from this life unexpectedly on October 29, 1973. He was born March 23, 1901, in the Indian Creek section of Casey County, Kentucky, to the late James and Malinda Wilkinson. He was a retired employee of the Southern Railway Company.

In his youth, he professed a hope in Christ and united with the Pine Lick Baptist Church in Mt. Salem. After coming to Danville, he became a member of the First Baptist Church where he remained a loyal and devoted member.

In 1920, he was married to Miss Anna Williams and to this union was born two sons, James Nathaniel who preceded them in death, Jake Bivion of Danville, and Mrs. Myovine Briscoe, Perryville.

He was a devoted husband and a loving father who worked hard and diligently. He possessed an admirable disposition and will be sadly missed by all who knew him and loved him.

I NEEDED THE QUIET

I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside
Into the shadows where we could confide,
Away from the bustle, where all the day long
I hurried and worried when active and strong.

I needed the quiet, tho at first I rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross he upheld,
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things.
Tho weak, my spirit took wings to heights
Never dreamed of when active and gay.
He love me greatly, he drew me away.

I needed the quiet, no prison my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead;
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide;
I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.

Remember Me

*Remember me when flowers bloom
Early in the spring
Remember me on sunny days
In the fun that summer brings*

*Remember me in the fall
As you walk through the leaves of gold
And in the wintertime - remember me
In the stories that are told*

*But most of all remember
Each day - right from the start
I will be forever near
For I live within your hearts*

For Brother

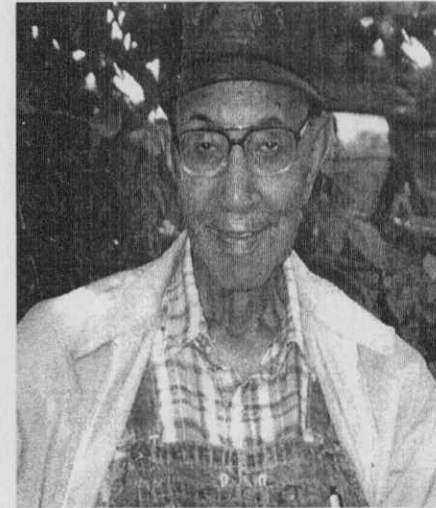

A beautiful soul has passed this way.
Not easy the road he trod: But he still reached out to clasp the hands of others as he clasped the hand of God
Brother we loved you, but God loved you best.

Patient, kind, and true;
No other friend in all the world,

To mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture,
Sweet memories we recall,

Tell her how we miss her,

The Family*

~Loving Memories~

The call was sudden, the shock severe
Little did we know such grief was near.
Only one that has lost, can tell the pain of parting without farewell.
God took him home, rest he will
But in our hearts he liveth still.
The flowers we lay upon his grave,
May wither and decay. But the love
We have for him, will never fade away.
We miss you now; our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving simile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.
We loved him but God loved him best and He took him home to rest.

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake.*

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

*I will fear no evil, for thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

In tears we saw you sinking, and saw you fade away.
Our hearts, were truly broken, we wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping so peacefully, free of pain,
How could we want you back with us to go through that again?
A golden heart stopped beating, two busy hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us, he always takes the best.

Alma B. Williams, 66, of 406 Chestnut Street, departed this life, Tuesday morning, August 3, 1999, at the St. Joseph Hospital, Hospice Unit, after a lingering illness. She was a retired teacher of the Central Baptist Church Pre-school.

A native of Boyle County, she was the daughter of the late, Bosley Williams and Almira Moody. A son, Phillip Williams and a brother, George Gash, also preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory, six children, Dwight "Pearl" (Angela) Williams, Tina Williams, Cheryl Williams, Ronald "Ed" Williams, Myra Williams, all of Lexington, and Darrell "Booger" (Brenda) Williams of Danville, KY; twelve grandchildren; one brother, James Gash of Lexington; a very very special friend, Robert "Bobby" Carter; two half-sisters, Minnie Bailey and Marjorie Clark of Indiana; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed her loving eyes,
And whispered "Peace Be Thine."

Mrs. Hattie Williams was born in Danville, Kentucky, the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John F. Owens. She was joined in holy wedlock to Mr. Leroy Williams. To this union, one daughter was born. Mrs. Williams departed from this world, Thursday, March 10, 1966 at 12:10 A.M. She leaves to mourn her passing a devoted daughter, Sharon Lee Williams, one brother Mr. John F. Owens, and a host of relatives and friends.

In 1930 Mrs. Williams professed her faith in Christ and joined the Pilgrim Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. Harvey Miller. Over the years she served as Superintendent of Sunday School working diligently and faithfully never refusing to help any worthy cause. Like David she was always glad when they said, "Let us go into the house of the Lord."

Pilgrim Baptist Church has lost a good and faithful servant. A life such as hers cannot end without a sense of personal loss to those who knew her. For to know her was to love her and to speak of her was to praise her.

The memory of Mrs. Hattie Williams will remain as a worthy inspiration and the light she has left behind will forever shine.

And after that the dark
...May there be no sadness

The darkness deepens, Lord, with me abide

When other helpers fail and comforts flee,

Help of the helpless, Oh, abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;

Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies;

Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee,

In life, in death, O Lord abide with me.

REFLECTIONS OF GRANDMOTHER

Sitting and reflecting on the things of yesterday.
My sister reminded me of,
"That's what you say!"
My grandmother would always just speak her mind.

It was the truth,
and mostly was kind.

She lived independent till the age ninety seven.
Most family and friends were already in heaven.
You might see her up and down Maxwell Street.

As the years went by, it was no easy feat.

Refusing a lift, strolling purse in hand.

Speaking to every person, child and man.

With eyesight failing her, day by day.

I remember those words, "That's what you say!"

Miss Mabel was respected by both young and old.

You know where she stood, and didn't need to be told.

As each day would pass, her body frail and weak.

Time drawing closer, few words she would speak.

But I knew what she wanted by the nod of her head.

Putting up quite a fuss when she needed to be fed.

Such a proud lady still remembering to pray.

Here comes that phrase, "That's what you say!"

Friday evening came from the window a breeze.

The struggle was ending, she was going with ease.

As I sat by her bedside and started to cry..

The angels lifted her up; a tear fell from her eye.

All of us must this way pass.

Our love for her will forever last.

These old earthly streets no longer will she roam.

Brought back to Kentucky, making Heaven's her home.

Love,
Your Granddaughter,
Daulphine

*We feel so sad when those we love
Are called to live with God above
But why should we grieve
When they say good-bye
And go to dwell in a cloudless sky?
For they have gone to prepare the way
And we'll meet them again some happy day
For God has told us that nothing can sever
A life we created to live on forever... ..
So let God's promise soften our sorrow
And give us new strength
For a brighter tomorrow... ..*

*Perhaps you sang a lovely song,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you spoke kind words,
As any friend could say.
Or perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car.
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you, so much, whatever the part.*

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." (Psalm 23)

She's Gone Now

*Look at our Mother, doesn't she look sweet?
Lying in her Casket, just like she's asleep.
She's passed, sisters and brothers. She's Gone Now.
At last she's layed her heavy burdens down.*

*Her hands bruised and sore, from work she has done.
Caring for her children, Even grand-daughters and sons.
Everyone of their troubles dropped in her lap,
She would have lived longer, if not for that, perhaps.*

*Then came this sickness, that brought so much pain,
Mixed with grief and sorrow, the children would bring.
Some getting in trouble, Some in another town,
Others somewhere in the state, ripping and running around.*

*She fought a good battle, Paid a mighty price,
And loved by everyone, she met in her life.
Teaching Us to love and cling to each other,
Truly she has played, the perfect part of a mother.
She said this man, Jesus, we all needed to find,
For we all had to leave, this world sometime.
Here lies Sweet Mother, She'll find peace and rest now.
She laid her cross down, and picked up her crown.*

Daddy,

There really aren't enough words I can say that could possibly amount to a "thank you." I really feel you and Momma are the reason I am such a strong and level-headed young lady. I now realize the reason you and I seemed to argue so much is because I am so much like you. Yet, I am grateful (especially now), that my characteristics are a reflection of you.

You taught me so much—not by just being a father, but also a friend. Those things taught to me will be passed down many generations from now. So, now we are going through a hard time because you won't be here. But I know you are resting peacefully, waiting for a better place to go to . . . the best place to go to.

I remember as a girl, sometimes hating the responsibility of being the eldest. You expected so much out of me; but I love you for such a challenge, which has made me the leader I am now.

I am trying to be strong, for the others, ' cause I know you still expect that of me. And I will remember you in every thing that I do. I love you!

Your first young lady,
Sher'he

Daddy,

No words can express the love we had for each other. Family was always first on your agenda. You sacrificed so much for us and we appreciate that. I will always remember the Saturday morning tennis lessons, your bravery to actually ride in a car I was driving, and most of all your favorite songs that you would serenade us with—although we covered our ears. Thank you for discipline. Thank you for life.

Daddy's girl,
Seleste

Daddy,

Hi! I miss you so much already! I've been thinking about you so much this week and I want to thank you so much for being such a good father. You have taught me so much through the years and that has helped me along the way. I will never give up and I will always love you so much.

Your youngest daughter,
Stephanie

We feel so sad when those we love – Are called to live with God above.
But why should we grieve when they say good-bye – And go to dwell in a cloudless sky?
For they have gone to prepare the way – And we'll meet them again some happy day.
For God has told us that nothing can sever – A life He created to live on forever...
So let God's promise soften our sorrow – And give us new strength for a brighter tomorrow.

—Your Sisters

A Glimpse of the Life of Elder Sherman A. Williams, I

Sherman Anthony Williams, I, was born to Shirley Williams and Marie White Williams on May 5, 1958, in Marion County, Lebanon, Kentucky. He was welcomed into a house where he already had four sisters. Later, two more sisters arrived.

Sherman was educated in Lebanon. He was a very good student and participated in track, football and band. As a youngster, Sherman attended Sherman Chapel AME Church. At the age of twelve, he was baptized in Jesus' name by the late Dr. William P. Foree, and received the Holy Ghost shortly thereafter. Sherman felt the Lord was calling him to the ministry at age twelve, but he did not fully accept this calling until he turned 21. Sherman was a very dedicated young man who was faithful to the church and did whatever his hands could find to do for the Lord. Evang. Josephine Knuckles ("Mama Jo") and Eld. Cleotus McElroy were two of the saints in the church who encouraged Sherman in his adolescence.

Sherman moved to Bowling Green, KY, in 1976 to attend Western Kentucky University ("WKU"). While there, he attended Our Lord's Temple under the pastorate of the late Eld. Preston T. Satterfield. Sherman worked diligently to help the church. He directed the choir, transported people and preached his first sermon there.

In 1978, Sherman met Andrea Myers at a council. They became fast friends and began to date. They married on August 4, 1979, and to this union were born three daughters and two sons. They are: twins, Sher'he and Sherman, II, 19, Seleste, 18, Sheriden, 17, and Stephanie, 15.

Sherman continued in school and supported his growing family. He was the first black male to graduate having completed the two-year nursing program at WKU. At one point, while living in Louisville and attending Newburg Apostolic Church, he headed the Evangelistic Team there.

Sherman always had a strong desire to serve on state and national levels in the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. ("PAW"). He was elected Vice President of the Kentucky and Tennessee Pentecostal Young People's Union and served from 1982-86 and was elected President in 1986 and served until 1991.

In 1989, feeling a very strong desire to pastor and a wrenching grief for his mentor (Dr. W. P. Foree), he began a work in Paducah, KY. Sherman's family had never seen him work so hard in his young life.

In April, 1991, a tumor was discovered in his brain. Sherman underwent surgery and was given 3-12 months to live. At that time, the influence that he had ever had on the lives of others became apparent. People from many states, cities, and denominations that he had become acquainted with came to support him and his family. It was a time for him to receive some of the love that he so freely gave. The Lord blessed Sherman to fully recover.

...continued

While in Paducah, after his surgery, Sherman was a student at Mid-Continent Bible College until the Lord directed the Williams family back to Louisville where Sherman continued to serve earnestly in the church. He was willing to aid Suff Bishop Stewart (pastor) and Eld. Henry Jones (asst. pastor) in whatever capacity they needed him to fulfill.

Sherman enrolled at WKU to pursue his Bachelor's degree in Nursing commuting weekly (first from Paducah, then from Louisville), and graduated cum laude in 1996. Sherman continued to pursue his education and enrolled as a part-time student in Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in pursuit of a Master's degree.

In January, 1999, Sherman's brain tumor reoccurred. He fought it with everything that was in him, keeping the faith and finishing his course.

His mother and father preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his absence, but rejoice in his salvation and cherish his memories, his devoted wife, Andrea, three daughters, Sher'he, Seleste, and Stephanie Williams, and two sons, Sherman, II, and Sheriden Williams; nine sisters, Mrs. Mary Furman (Joe), Deborah Williams, and Karen Riley, of Louisville, KY, Mrs. Rose Sanders (Saul "Buddy"), of Indianapolis, IN, Mrs. Dorothy Myles (Keith), Mrs. JoAnn Taylor (Otis), Geneva Williams, and Mattie Edelen, of Lebanon, KY, and Sgt. S. Betty Hayes of Norfolk, VA; one brother, Joseph P. Williams (Lucille), of Radcliff, KY; 31 nieces and nephews, magnitudes of cousins, relatives, and friends, and a very special friend, Sis. Clara Schotzko, to whom he will be greatly missed!

Sherman was formerly employed at:

Turtle Creek Nursing Home - Bowling Green, KY
Greenview Hospital - Bowling Green, KY
St. Anthony's Hospital - Louisville, KY
Lourdes Hospital - Paducah, KY
Western Baptist Hospital - Paducah, KY
Audubon Hospital - Louisville, KY
Jewish Hospital - Louisville, KY
Springview Hospital - Lebanon, KY
Springview Nursing Home, Administrator - Lebanon, KY

Sherman served on the board at:

St. Catherine College

Sherman played on both the Lourdes and Newburg tennis teams and loved to ride his bike—whatever the climate.

Daddy,

It's kind of eerie that you're gone so soon. I was still learning from you. You are the best example of a man of God and no one could argue that. You always said, "It's not the size of the man in the fight, it's the size of the fight in the man." You hang in there tooth and nail and you have shown me the meaning of a true warrior.

I know it seems like we bumped heads the most—and we did; but maybe it's because we are more like each other than either of us would admit. Through it all, God kept us together as a family, and with His help we will be all-right.

Don't worry, I promise that I will take care of Mama and the girls and Sheriden . . . Yes!—even Solomon!

I love you Daddy, and I will never forget anything you taught me!

Your beloved son,

Sherman, II

P.S. Tell Granny I said, "Hi!"

Daddy,

Right now I'm speechless. I remember the time you let me stay a week with you in Paducah, and the time you "just wanted to get away for a minute," but took me with you just because I asked; when you first let me cut the grass by myself (that was a trip); and how we were the "Judah Apostolic Church Musicians" (you were better than I).

You taught me first to live for the Lord, and if my life for Him wasn't whole-hearted, then it is a useless waste of time. In one of our last heart-to-hearts Sherman, you, and I had, we talked about God's will; and oftentimes when you preached you said if the Lord allowed cancer to take you that didn't make Him any less of a healer. I do believe that and trust Him to bring me through the trials yet to come my way.

Dad, you're my heart, and I love you for helping to make me who I am, and who I will be.

Rest in peace, "Theophilus."

Your baby boy,

Sheriden

"We love you Uncle Bubs"

Love of my life.

I'm so grateful, because in so many lives people never have what we had. For the last time, here is our song:

Sherman.

*You're my peace of mind in this crazy world.
You're everything I've tried to find; your love is a pearl.
You're my Mona Lisa, you're my rainbow skies;
My only prayer is that you realize
You will always be beautiful in my eyes.*

*The world will turn and the seasons will change
And all the lessons we will learn will be beautiful and strange.
We'll have our fill of tears, our share of sighs;
My only prayer is that you realize
You will always be beautiful in my eyes.*

*You will always be beautiful in my eyes
And the passing years will show that you will only grow ever more
Beautiful in my eyes.*

*When there are lines upon my face from a lifetime of smiles,
When the time comes to embrace for one long last while,
We can laugh about how time really flies;
We won't say goodbye 'cause true love never dies.
You will always be beautiful in my eyes.*

*You will always be beautiful in my eyes
And passing years will show that you will always grow ever more
Beautiful in my eyes.*

The passing years will show that you will always grow ever more Beautiful in my eyes.

*Love always,
Andrea*

A beautiful child sent from God above, blessed with happiness and love.
An Angel on earth that shined like a light,
hugs and kisses so sweet and tight.
We will always remember
the love that you gave us, deep in our hearts, you will never leave us.
I thank God for giving us Sioubhan, her love with us will always go on.
The pain I feel will never go away,
I know I will see you in Heaven one day.
King of Kings, Lord of Lords, please take care of this child for us.
Please show her your mercy,

Footprints

One night I dreamed I was walking
Along the beach with the Lord,
Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.
In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.
Sometimes there were two sets of footprints.
Other times there was only one.
This bothered me because I noticed
During the low periods of my life when I was Suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat,
I could see only one set of footprints.
So I said to the Lord, "You promised me,
Lord, that if I followed you,
You would walk with me always.
But I noticed during the most trying periods
Of my life there has only been
One set of prints in the sand.
Why, when I needed you most,
Have you not been there for me?
The Lord replied,
"The times when you have seen only one set of footprints
It was then that I carried you."

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. — St. John 11:25-26

The Horseman's Prayer

Dear God in Heaven, You gave strength to guide my horse. That my hands be soft and my head clear. You let my horse understand me and I him. My heart you blessed with a special love for these animals. I never lost sight of it. My soul you gifted with a deep appreciation for them. That never lessened, only continued to grow. You always let my heart lighten as the sun gently touched them, And always made my soul smile at the sound of a gentle nicker. You let the scent of fresh hay and a new bag of grain be sweet to me. The touch of a warm nose on my hand always brought a smile. I adored the joy of a warm day on the farm, The grace and splendor of a running horse, the thunder of it's hooves made my eyes burn and my heart soar. Let it always be so. Thank you dearest God for granting me patience, For horses and harnessed wind, and wind can be flighty. You let me not brighten or harm them. Instead showed me natural ways to understand them. Above all, dear God, fill my life with them as I pass from this world, Send my soul to no heaven without them. For this love you gave me graced my existence, and I shall cherish it and praise You for it for all time.

To our many friends and extended family, we wish to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude for the many expressions of kindness, comforting words, prayers and condolences during our time of sorrow

Summertime has come and gone
The leaves are slowly falling
The other day my mother heard
The voice of Jesus Calling
He said, "Come on with me my child"
I'll take away your strife
Mama went to sleep on the other side
And woke up in paradise

Oh, but how we'll miss her so
More than you'll ever know

When we were little children
Mama rocked us in her arms
She protected us from danger
She kept us safe and warm
But mama is not here now
And we are standing by ourselves
But as long as we have Jesus
We don't need anybody else!

From the Children with Love
We will miss you "Momma Jean"

Obituary

Jean M. Winkfield "Momma Jean", 72, was born August 22, 1930 in Frankfort, Kentucky to the late Harry and Catherine Barnett. God called his faithful servant home on Friday, November 8, 2002 surrounded by her loving family at the Beverly Home Health Care in Frankfort, Kentucky.

Jean was a member of First Baptist Church and was baptized at a young age. During her illness, she remained a true soldier determined to fight. She hated the idea that she became dependent upon her children to take care of her, as she was always an independent woman. She loved to dance and have fun. Jean fought a long battle and lived life to the fullest, but God loved her best.

Jean graduated from Mayo Underwood School and moved to Dayton, Ohio where she worked as a cook in an Italian Restaurant. In the early seventies, Jean moved her family back to Frankfort where she worked as a cook at the Southern Hotel. She retired from the Southern Hotel and became a homemaker.

Left behind to remember all the wonderful memories shared are her husband, Wilgus "Billy" Winkfield, Dayton, OH; seven daughters, Billie Jean Hopson, Frankfort, KY; Mae (Tommy) Winkfield-Strozier, Dayton, OH; Helen (Charles) Osborne, Dorothy Hayden, Margie (John) Mulder, Lillian Winkfield, Raychelle Winkfield all of Frankfort, KY; two sons, Robert Winkfield, and Wilgus (Deonna) Winkfield both of Frankfort, KY; three sisters, Jenny Barnett, Margaret McIntosh, and Lillian Barnett, all of Frankfort; two brothers; James Barnett and Paul Barnett both of Frankfort; 17 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

All filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say.
I know how much you love me
As much as I love you.
And each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an Angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.*

-OBITUARY-

Late Thursday evening, November 28, 2002, at Garrard County Memorial Hospital, in Lancaster, Kentucky, the life of George Edward Withers, came to a Peaceful rest. This home going was also the birthday of his late wife, Aslee Withers.

He was born November 17, 1922 to Harrison Anderson and Nannie Withers in Lincoln County, Kentucky.

He received his education in the Lincoln County School System.

George became a christian at an early age and was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church, in Lancaster, Kentucky. He has served as deacon, Sunday School Teacher and a member of the Men's Club.

He was a caring and patient person. He loved his family and friends; but most of all he loved his church. His favorite song was "We'll Understand it Better By and By". Other interest were cooking, refinishing old furniture, looking into the history of families, wars, and different cultures. He like big cars, as soon as he would get them he would start working on them. He loved his job at the Old Bridge Golf Club, and his job as a cement finisher for over 30 years.

Survivors are: a step-daughter Anna Lois (James) Davis; 3 step-grandchildren; Terri Lynn (David) Davis-Mendoza, Cassaundra (Timmy) Alcorn, all of Lancaster, Kentucky and Sallesa (Garland) Dismeaux, of Danville, Kentucky; three great grandchildren Jasmine and Patrice Alcorn, and Shamar Lewis, all of Lancaster, Kentucky, and a host of cousins and friends.

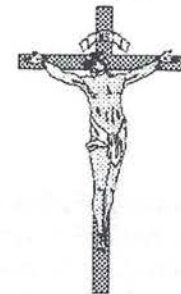

*God Saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed his weary eyes
And whispered "All is thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights are passed.
The ever patient worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last
Goodbye, PiPo*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS FROM THE FAMILY

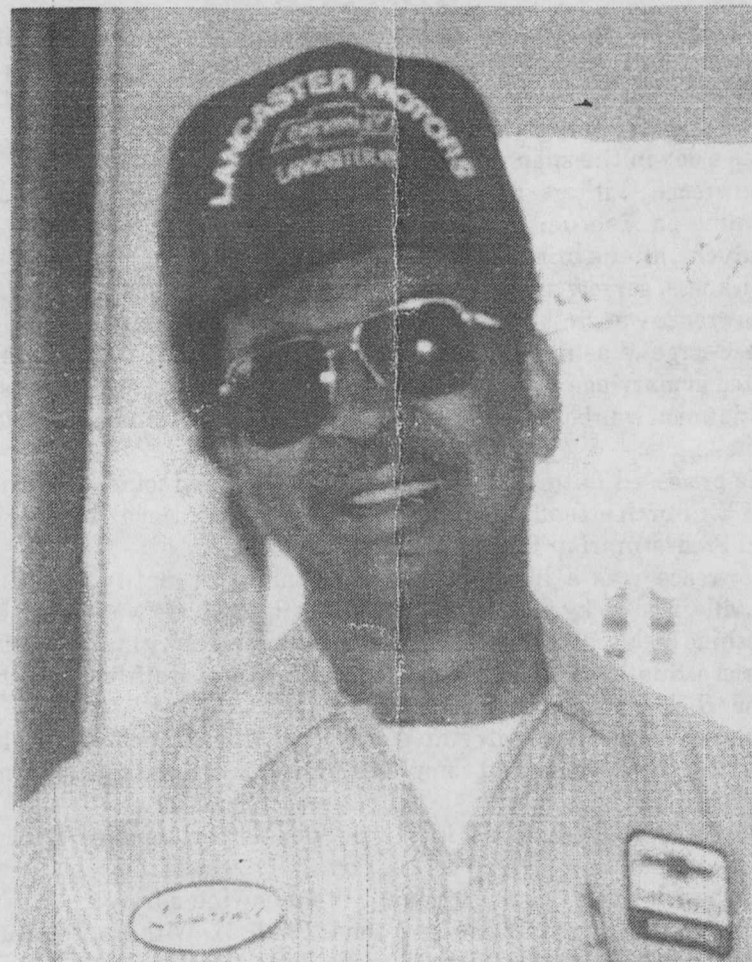

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers,
If so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you said the most comforting word,
Any friend could say,
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car,
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen,
Near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much,
Whatever the part.

OBITUARY

The clock of time is wound but once. Just how many years it will run before it finally stops is only known by our Dear Heavenly Father, who doth all things well. When this clock runs down and stops, the Eternal Clock begins running. When this clock has run a thousand years, it will be as a day in the span of eternity.

Lawrence Withers Eternal Clock started running early Monday morning on February 17, 1992 at UK Medical Center, Lexington, Kentucky, after a brief illness. His soul winged its flight from this world of sickness, sorrow and pain, to a place of Eternal Rest.

Lawrence was first born to the union of Fannie Cunningham Withers and George Washington Withers in Lancaster, Kentucky. He was united in marriage June 9, 1948, to Katherine Seawright Withers, and to this union was born two sons, Paul Jr. and Charles, and one daughter, Arthella.

He professed faith in Christ at an early age and joined St. Andrew A.M.E. Church attending faithfully until becoming a loyal member of St. Paul Predestinarian Baptist Church.

Lawrence was a lifetime citizen of Lancaster until relocating to Danville, Kentucky with his family in April, 1991. He was a member of Sunshine Lodge #98 F & AM, PHA, serving as secretary many years, and Patron of Sunflower Chapter #74 O.E.S. He was also affiliated with The Mason High School Alumni Association.

After serving his country in World War II in France and Italy, he returned to Lancaster and completed high school, graduating from the old Mason School.

Lawrence was employed in the Service Department at Lancaster Motor Company for 48 years.

To cherish his 67 year legacy are the following survivors: his wife, Katherine Seawright Withers; 2 sons, Paul L. Withers Jr., Austin, Texas and Charles E. Withers, Brooklyn, New York; 1 daughter, Arthella R. Withers, Danville, Kentucky; 2 sisters, Lydia M. Alcorn (Cecil), Lancaster, Kentucky and Virginia R. Brooks, Frankfort, Kentucky; 2 brothers, George Randolph Withers, (Barbara) Columbus, Ohio and Joe Elvin Withers (Bertha), Frankfort, Kentucky; 1 brother-in-law, Howard Seawright (Anginette), Cincinnati, Ohio; 5 grandchildren and 1 great-grand daughter; several nieces and nephews, cousin, George Withers (Aslee) and hosts of dear relatives and friends.

We sat and waited with you,
At the portal of Eternity,
And wondered at your quiet,
Courage, and your strength.
No cry crossed your lips,
Except when blessed sleep,
Claimed you for a short moment.

No complaints, no plea for mercy,
No wondering as to why,
We're humbled by your dignity,
We'll try to live as bravely,
As you died!

OUR DAD

Many men are strong, but very few have been able to mix the right amount of strength with a proportionate amount of gentleness.

In doing so, you get a man you can admire, respect, and look up to but also a man you can talk to, who will understand and listen. All our lives, our father has given us a feeling of security. No matter where we go or what happens to us, we've always known he's been there watching patiently, should we need him.

This security has given us the strength to stand on our own many times.

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His names sake.
Yea, though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,

OBITUARY

OUR Heavenly Father who doeth all things well, took Elizabeth Davis Wolford home to rest on November 26, 1994, at Ephraim McDowell Medical Center, Danville, Ky.

Elizabeth was born January 3, 1914 to the late Lloyd and Hester Sleet Davis. She was educated in the Perryville and Danville School systems.

At an early age, she professed a hope in Christ and was baptized into the fellowship of First Baptist Church Perryville, by the late Rev. G.S. Goodloe. After moving to Lexington, Ky she became a member of Main Street Baptist Church, where she continued to be a faithful member and participate in many church organizations.

In October 26, 1940 she was united in marriage to the late Fred Louis Wolford. To the unit a daughter Sharon was adopted. She has been a devoted and caring daughter, who was always ready to care for her mother's needs.

Two or more years ago Elizabeth began to experience declining health, and was faithfully attended by her brother and sister-in-law William (Bunny) and Lillian Davis. Elizabeth expressed a very kind and jovial personality that endeared her to all who were privileged to know her.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter Sharon Davis Cook, her grandson William (Quinn) Davis, her brother Mayor Pro-tem William (Bunny) Davis, three sister-in-laws: Lillian Davis and Mayme Davis, Cora Dawson, her Aunt Edith Davis, her Uncle Robert Davis and a special cousin Bertha Brown, and several devoted nieces and nephews and a host of cousin and friends.

A loved one from us has gone,
A voices we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant is our heart
That never can be filled
Sadly missed,

OBITUARY

If Death should beckon me with Outstretched hands,
And whisper softly of "an unknown land"
I shall not be afraid to go,
For though the path I do not know,
I take Death's hand without a fear
For he who safely brought me here
Will also take me safely back,
And though in many things, I lack,
He will not let me go alone,
Into the "valley that's unknown"
So I reach out and take Death's hand
And Journey to the promised land.

Mr. Fred Lewis Wolford, son of the late George and Della Wolford was born December 26, 1914 in Lincoln County, Kentucky. He joined the First Baptist Church in Stanford, Ky. at a very early age under the pastorate of Rev. A. L. Caulder.

The Obituary

Jane Woods (nee Alcorn) was born on February 29, 1932 in Stanford, Kentucky, the beloved daughter of the late Mallie and James Alcorn. She was called home to be with our heavenly Father on August 10, 2002.

She joined Boneyville Baptist Church of Stanford, Kentucky at an early age. She was always willing to help the church in any way that she could.

Jane was united in Holy Matrimony to John Woods. Each awakening moment of their 37 years of marital bliss were spent sharing and caring and enjoying their life together.

She retired from the Beechwood Nursing Home in 1994 as a dietician.

Jane invested love in everything she said or did. She possessed a sweet spirit that demonstrated her kind and gentle ways. She was affectionately called, "Auntie Janie" or "Sister Woods". You will be missed Jane, but not forgotten. "We Love You!!!"

Jane leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted and loving husband, John; two sisters, Nettie Mason of Cincinnati, Ohio and Dorothy Brown of Boneyville, Kentucky; two brothers, Cecil Alcorn (Laura) of Stanford, Kentucky and Raymond Alcorn of Cincinnati, Ohio; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

We will miss you "Jane" tremendously, but we know God doesn't make any mistakes.

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun,

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

*The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

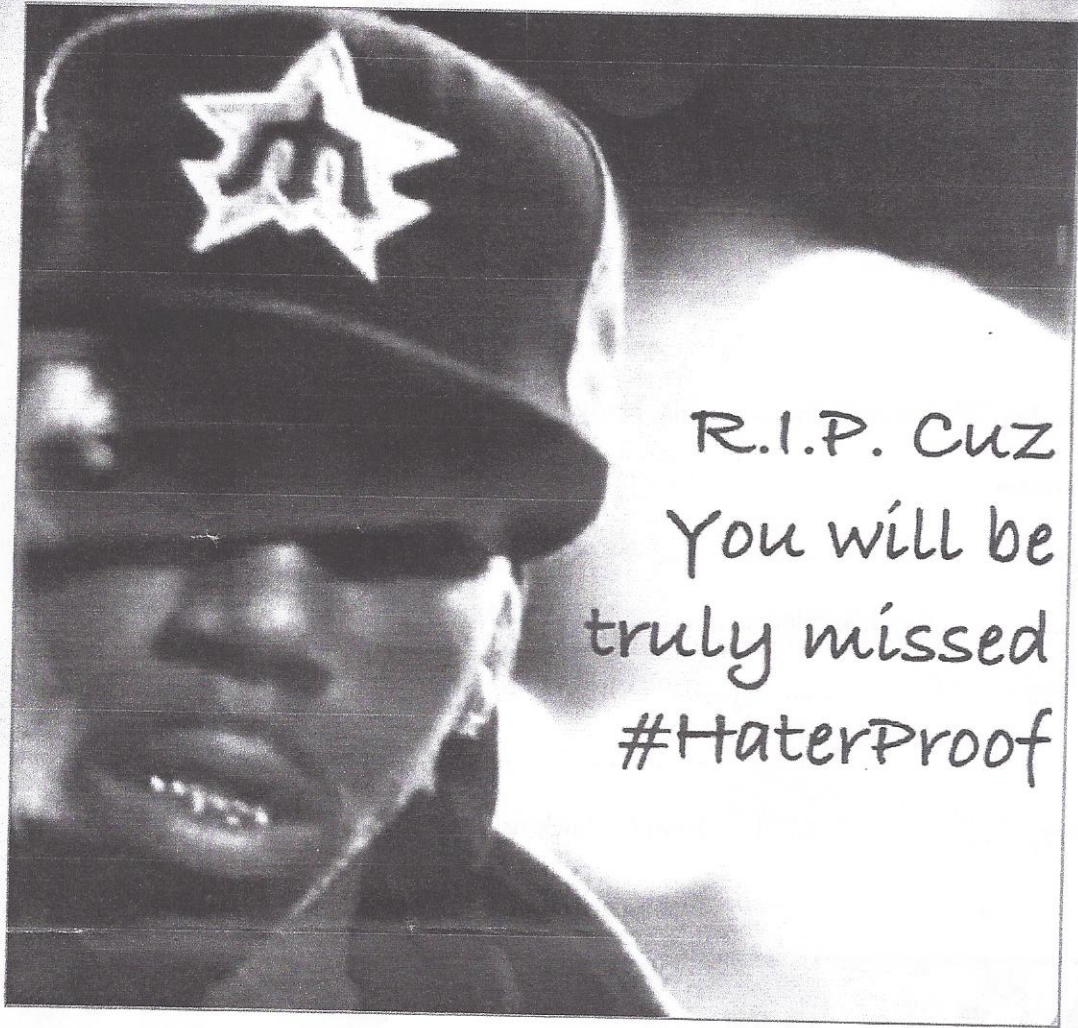

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Obituary

MRS. SHANETTE DIONN WRIGHT-GIBBS the daughter of James and Antonia (Christie) Wright was born March 12, 1967 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

At an early age Shanette was baptized at St. Joan of Arc in accordance with the Holy Rites of the Catholic Church.

Her first marriage produced a beautiful daughter, Sydnee D. Blane. Later, Shanette was united in holy matrimony to the love of her life Micheal Gibbs on July 20, 2009. From this union a beautiful daughter was born, Micah D. Gibbs.

SHANETTE received her primary and secondary education in the Catholic School System attending St. Joan of Arc and Bishop Silas Chatard. She received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in 2003 and a Master's in Business Administration in 2005, both from Indiana Wesleyan University.

SHANETTE was employed by Engaging Solutions, LLC where she was responsible for business development, sales life-cycle, growth of new client base and managing the capture process. She was previously employed by National Government Services (NGS), a division of Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield and the State of Indiana. Shanette was also an entrepreneur. She owned the Pretty Cleaning Company. Her slogan was there is "No Job Too Ugly for Pretty".

Her professional accomplishments include President of the St. Monica School Parent Teacher Organization, President of the Board of Directors for Stars Youth Foundation, President of the Indianapolis Chapter of Indiana Black Expo, National Government Services Diversity & Workplace Culture Ambassador, nominated NGS' Eagle's Nest Award for outstanding leadership and demonstrating core values, and received written commendation from CMS for going above and beyond. Shanette also received extensive technical training including Project Management, Marketing and Business Development, Federal Acquisition Regulation, Data Analysis and Leading at the Frontline.

SHANETTE loved the world. She was instrumental in her family celebrating every event. The last holiday, 4th of July was directed by her. She was the ultimate planner from wedding anniversaries to birthday parties to retirement parties. While she was on her hospital bed she made sure her youngest daughter Micah had the birthday party of the year by enlisting friends and family to make it happen. Not only was she determined to have a strong family bond she ensured that friends maintained strong relationships. She never forgot a birthday. Her desire was for everyone to get along. She maintained her individual friendships despite any friction. She loved playing the Hoosier Lottery and going to the casinos. She loved playing cards, board games, and any type of word game.

She faithfully read her bible without ceasing. She would often encourage others with the word she had hid in her heart.

She went non-stop. She would always have a full agenda. It would be double, triple booked but she was determined to make an appearance. She also enjoyed traveling and spending time with her sorority sisters. She was a member of the Gamma Phi Delta Sorority, Inc. She was a former regional officer in the sorority and served on several committees which allowed her friendships to spread abroad.

She was the founder of the annual Christmas gathering for the descendants of Edna Davis Gaines. She was planning the 25th Anniversary up until the week before she transitioned.

MRS. SHANETTE DIONN WRIGHT-GIBBS was called to her heavenly home on Saturday, August 18, 2018 at the age of fifty-one years old.

MISS ME

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me;
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take;
And all must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the hills we know;
And bury your sorrows among the trees,
For I am free.*

Obituary

Anthony Marvin Wynn, 48, of Danville, departed this life Friday, February 13, 2004 at Central Baptist Hospital, Lexington, KY.

He was born in Cincinnati, Ohio to the late Joseph Wynn and Elizabeth Christine Clay on April 5, 1955.

He professed hope in Christ and united with First Baptist Church, Second and Walnut Streets where he served faithfully until his death.

While living in Cincinnati, Anthony was employed by the US Postal Service. After moving to Lexington he was employed by Link Belt, C & D and Townsend Tree Services.

He leaves to cherish his memory, Ralph E (Carrol) Clark and Cheryl Clay, both of Lexington, KY; a close friend, Bessie Peeks, Danville, KY; a faithful friend, Callie, staff and members of Southwood, the Cheak family, and a host of relatives and friends.

*Somewhere back of the sunset,
Where loneliness never dies
He lives in a land of beauty,
Mid the blue and the gold of the sky;
And when God calls us to that land
We will meet him at the brink,
With joy we'll clasp his loving hand
When God connects the link.*
