OBITUARY

LEXINGTON, KY.

September 15, 1981

We know not what shall befall us,
God hangs a mist o'er our eyes,
And at each step of our onward path,
He makes new scenes to rise,
And every joy he sends us comes,
As a sweet and glad surprise.

Fred Yates, Jr., son of the late Frances and Fred Yates, Sr. was born in Mercer County, June 28, 1903 and departed this life, September 12, 1981.

He confessed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined the First Baptist Church, Harrodsburg.

Leaving to mourn his passing are: a wife, Mrs. Edna Yates; two daughters, Ms. Sue Allen Yates and Ms. Bernada Jones; two step-sons, Roy Jr. and Ronald Taylor; a sister, Mrs. Flora Brown; a brother, Mr. Charles Yates; fourteen grandchildren; fourteen great-grand children; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Kathleen Yates and Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson; one brother-in-law, Mr. Alfonso Jackson; two step daughters-in-law; Mrs. Maxine & Alice Taylor; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

So we go on not knowing,
We would not if we might;
We would rather walk in the dark with God,
Than go it alone in the light;
We would rather walk with Him by faith,
Than walk alone by sight.

 But start out bravely with a gallant smile.
 And for my sake and in his name,
 Live on and do all things the same.
 Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
 But fill each waking hour in useful way;
 Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
 And I, in turn, will comfort you And Hold
 you near;
 And never, never be afraid to die,
 For I am waiting for you in the sky.

Our Father claims his own-
Beyond the gate, your loved one Finds happiness and rest.
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.”

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. . . Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever . . .

*Her suffering now is over,
She's safe with Him on Heaven's shore.
She's up and walking again,
In the land that's free from sin and pain.
She, our loved one,
Has fallen asleep,
Her eyes are closed in rest
And Jesus said, "This is best".*

In tears we saw you sinking,
and watched you pass away.
Our hearts were almost broken,
we wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
so peaceful, free from pain,
How could we wish you back with us, to suffer that again. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,

Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.*

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;

Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seems all to brief;

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

Funeral reminds vet that spouses
serve with no recognition

By Clint Meshew
Ft. Knox Veteran Service Office

I recently attended the funeral of a fellow veteran's wife. During the ceremony I was reminded of the many sacrifices that military wives are required to make in support of their husband's chosen careers.

The many family relocations, the long and lonely separations of the unaccompanied tours when the military wife suddenly must become mother, father, and head of household, and meet all the responsibilities required of those positions.

I was keenly aware that there were no Taps, no fired salutes, no flag folded and presented. I was also aware that during her husband's 24 years of service, this military wife had also served our nation in her own, quiet, humble, courageous way.

She had stood by his side, raised his children, helped him maintain his morale, and maintained the home front when he went off to war. She suffered through the emptiness, the loneliness, and the horrible fear that comes from having a loved one in harm's way in a combat zone.

It occurred to me that many of the people attending that service were aware of the veteran's military service, his combat service, and other achievements, but few in attendance were really aware of that role the military wife had played in her husband's many achievements.

It also occurred to me that many in attendance had never met this person whom we had assembled to honor that day.

Many of us veterans are honored several times per year at parades on Memorial Day, Veterans Day, and other appropriate times. People have thanked me and others for our service to our nation, and I am sure each of us has been grateful when that happened.

But I have never witnessed anyone shaking the hand of a military wife and thanking her for her service to our nation. We should see more of that, and maybe the next time a military wife is laid to rest at the Veterans Cemetery Central, someone should step forward and remind us of her unselfish service to her spouse, her community and our nation.

Most of us who have earned the title of veteran wear it proudly. Those who have earned the title of military wife should be shown the same respect, admiration, and gratitude.

They also serve – those who watch and wait.

Mary J. Young-Smith

Mary J. Young-Smith was born on Sept. 10, 1936 in Springfield, KY to the late John W. Young and Shirley Brown-Young. After her mother's death, she moved to Danville, KY at age 7, along with her sisters Shirley Young-Daugherty (deceased) and Lula Young-Graves (deceased). They were raised by their Aunt Martha (Mattie) Brown-Donoghue- Hill. Her brother John W. Young Jr., raised by their Aunt Hazel Brown-Logan, also preceded her in death. Mary is survived by a sister Hattie Mae Young-Huff, and sisters-in-law Bernice Young and Ethel Payne.

Mary graduated from Danville's Bate High School in 1954. She married Paul L. Smith on Sept. 21, 1955, and served as a military wife from October 1955 to July 1977 when Paul retired from the U.S. Air Force. To this union, five children were born: Lawrence (Garnetta), Baby Girl Smith (deceased at birth), Paul (Lecia), Christopher, and Rick (Kyala). They have one granddaughter, Ieshia, and seven grandsons, Jason, Edward (Rachael), Aaron, Rickey, Jr., Paul, Rashard, and Brandon, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Mary joined Danville's St. James AME Church at an early age. After moving to Louisville, she became a member of First Baptist Church of Jeffersontown, KY under the leadership of Rev. Thurmond Coleman, Sr., and remained a member for 30 years before moving her membership to Burnett Ave. Baptist Church, where Daniel Corrie Shull serve as the Senior Pastor.
